The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.
Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

New Photographic Establishment.
Having fitted and furnished in modern style, large, pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with Sun Pictures of every description, from the smallest Miniature to life-size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., copied any size desired.
The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping time with every useful improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.
All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.
Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

LETTER FROM CALIFORNIA.

KNIGHT'S FERRY, Sept. 25, '60.

Messrs. Editors:—On the listless stream of the Stanislaus,on whose banks stands our cottage, and from which I now date my present letter, it has been unusually cool and refreshing, the present and past seasons, and we are looking forward for an early rainy season. The farmers throughout the State have done remarkably well in wheat and other grain crops, and we shall be able to dispose of flour to the trade along the Pacific coast. The grains of every description are in abundance,and at no time since California was a State has there been such a surplus in the market.

The various fruits are very plenty, and a decided improvement in them has been made,and we can now enjoy a choice selection of peaches, nectarines, figs, apricots, pears and apples, and any quantity of all kinds of grapes.

Speaking of grapes, I am inclined to think that California will go ahead of the world in their culture, for they grow so spontaneously that the cutting only has to be placed in the ground and with ordinary care, grapes are borne the second season after. In a few years a large amount of wine will be manufactured here from the pure grape, and what effect it will have on California liquor venders I can't say, but hope it will improve the various kinds of liquors, which pass through their hands, and thus reduce intemperance in the state.

A few months since a valuable Mineral Spring was discovered within a few miles of Knight's Ferry. It is a very powerful medicinal agent and contains iron in large proportion and combined with other valuable properties. A large number of persons afflicted with dyspepsia and kindred complaints, have been cured, and a large number are constantly drinking the water, which has a flavor of ink, but not at all objectionable. Tents and dining saloons are now established at the Springs, and hundreds flock to them, and while some tarry, others carry to their homes demijohns filled with the water. It is singular that after a person commences drinking this Mineral Water, he loves it, and cannot cease to drink it in large quantities; this increases the appetite, and health soon returns. Such is the power of the mineral water.

A new line of stages has just been started for Oregon; on the 15th, three stages started for Portland, Oregon, from Sacramento, and now, in connection with the overland stage from St. Louis, we have the longest stage route in the world.

The Breckinridge and Lane democracy have had their convention at Sacramento, and have nominated their electors, having endorsed Buchanan's administration, as also of course, the platform of the Breckinridge and Lane faction. Gwin and Latham have both made lengthy speeches, which have been published, to lure the faithful into the ranks again, to do battle in November.—The whole force of the government is bro't to bear, and every official is hard at work for their lord and master, James Buchanan.

The Douglas Democracy are doing battle for the "little giant," and are in hopes to carry the State for him in November next. Douglas, I opine, will get a larger vote in this State than is thought by the irregular democracy. The Breckinridge party backed, as it is, will no doubt carry the election, for the powers of whiskey and dollars are great here. The foreign voters are all regular democrats,who never deviate unless whiskey is too strong for them.

The Republican party are getting to be quite respectable in numbers, and will roll up the largest vote ever polled in this state by that party, and will give "Honest Old Abe" a pretty good hearing in the good time coming.

Californians are still in want of a Pacific Railroad, and if they will give support to parties and men who do all in their power to defeat every bill before Congress asking for a road, they must take the consequences.

A goodly portion of the Buchanan democracy are wavering on this and kindred things that relate to our State, and feel inclined to Douglas, for they think that he will do better for this State than any slave representative ever can or will do. It is morally certain we shall never have a road without a change of administration, for as long as the south rules no rails will ever lie across the plains, as that would open up a highway on which the niggers would soon learn to "trabble," and part with their loving masters.

The Republicans feel sure that if Abraham Lincoln can be elected, we shall be sure of a road, for "Old Abe" would split the rails himself in no time, and the road would be in active operation ere his term expired. The North must not let the South bully them any longer, but march like true soldiers, right on to victory. For a portion of the South, and all the West, especially the far West, look to the Northern States for the Internal Improvements, which will, when completed, open the track of commerce to China and Japan.

Northern people are the true workers of the nation, and they must do everything of importance, whether it be building railroads or populating new states, and stocking them with mechanical machinery and genius, giving to them the bone and sinew to develope the resources of untilled lands.

Our State is fast filling up, and we find that every desirable place for a ranche is now squatted upon and improvements made thereon. Five years since, the road between this place and Stockton, some forty miles, was without fences, but now the greater portion of it is fenced, and many fine houses greet the eye of the traveller as he traverses this great avenue to the Southern mines.

The population of the county is now of a more permanent character, and in many instances the rancheros surrounded with good substantial dwellings, and our towns and cities are graced with edifices of stone and brick. Churches, court houses, city halls, stores, are all now built in the best manner, showing conclusively that Californians are determined to beautify and adorn the home of their adoption.

The one great obstacle in the way of our prosperity is now in part disposed of, and that is, the obnoxious Spanish grants.—Many of these grants have been confirmed, and a large number have been very justly rejected by the Superintendent, and if fifty more of them met with a similar fate, it would meet with the approbation of the people, for these grants are nearly all frauds on the government, and if we don't have a change of administration soon, we shall hear of a few more patents issued in favor of these pestilential grants.

Spanish Grants of the bogus order cover the very best portions of the State. Those who live on them are afraid to purchase for fear of being swindled, and others are deterred from building or making improvements of any kind for fear of the law,which takes them from them if they don't happen to buy, and passes them over to the purchaser. In many places the grants have been finally disposed of and the people do not fear them and go on with their improvements.

Give us a good President,and one that will change the Cabinet, and the Bureau of distraction will vanish from the Capitol, all iniquity will be purged from the White House, Congress regenerated will enact wholesome laws, and the nation will enjoy a quiet for at least four years.

Hoping that Uncle Toby will continue to wield his goose quill in favor of the national reform and go in strong for a change of the administration, we, in the meantime, will "wait for the wagon," hoping ere long we shall all take a trip home to old Portsmouth and ramble over its quiet pavements and see many of our good old friends, and shake a hearty welcome with all the loved ones who are domiciled in that sequestered spot.

Inclosed is a gold dollar; accept our thanks for the prompt manner in which we receive the Weekly Chronicle. We like the baby department very much and hope to see a good list the coming year.

Yours, J. E. W. C.

BAD AIR AND BAD ACTIONS.—The influence of outward circumstances upon our morals and personal habits is doubtless great. Mr. Gough attributes much intemperance in cities to the enervating effect of bad air. He thinks the atmosphere of the small rooms and ill ventilated cellars to which the lowest classes are confined, induces a fierce craving for stimulants—an opinion which has much probability. When the vital forces are forcibly diminished or exhausted, nature braces against the depletion, and looks in every direction for the means of recovery. This opinion is fortified by the London missionaries, who cite numerous instances in which persons who had been enabled to change their ill-accommodations for pleasant and healthy lodgings, deserted the gin-shops of their own accord. This is an excellent hint to moral reformers of every kind.

A SLAVE IN COURT. — A man from Georgia, who had brought his slave woman to New York, was before the courts on Saturday, in that city, accusing her of theft.—As he had brought her voluntarily into the State, the woman was free; but Mr. Cohen charged her with theft to get her entangled in the meshes of the law, and thus obtain possession of her again if possible; but the charge was not sustained, and the Judge ordered the woman to be discharged.

☞ Udolpho Wolfe, the great gin vender and millionaire, has been nominated for Congress by the New Yorkers. It remains to be seen whether the people will schnapp at the votes for him.

Garibaldi is a tetotaller. He never uses wine. A clear head and a strong arm is the legitimate result.

☞ Ralph Farnham, the Bunker Hill man has sent to the Boston Journal a letter from Acton, dated and signed by himself.—He says:—

When we arrived at Lawrence there was a large crowd at the depot. They requested me to hold my hat out of the window, which I did, when they showered the "needful" into it as I never expected to see in my life. Then as the train moved on, we left them amidst such cheers as I shall never forget.

At Dover, N. H., I received the like kind reception, and the worthy Mayor very kindly attended me over to Great Falls, and presented me with a ten dollar bill.

At Great Falls I met with the same kind reception as at Lawrence and Dover, and the ticket master of the Great Falls Branch Railroad invited me to a dinner that I enjoyed very much.

Then, after giving thanks to his friends in Boston, he adds:—

Though I am in my 105th year I am not past all usefulness. I split my own kindling wood and build my own fires. I am the first one up in the morning, and the first one in bed at night. I never sleep or lay down in the day time, but rise at five and retire at seven—and this I continue summer and winter. I have always been temperate, and for over thirty years past I have not tasted a drop of spirituous liquors, or even cider. I was never sick in my life so as to require the attendance of a physician. About twenty five years ago I broke my thigh by falling on the ice, and had a Doctor to set it, but this is the only time a Doctor ever attended me. I live on plain farmer's diet—drink tea and coffee, and eat a very light supper, never eating meat at supper. I have no doubt it is owing to these abstemious and regular habits, and the avoidance of medicine at all little ailments, that my life has been so prolonged.

I voted for Gen. Washington for President, and have voted at every Presidential election since, and hope to vote at the next election. This is the duty of every Christian freeman.

A gentleman who accompanied him, informs the Post that in his journey he rode eighty miles by railroad, and seven miles in an open wagon—and the first thing he did on arriving home, was to bring in some wood and build himself a fire! This certainly, does not look as though he was being "killed" by his visit to Boston, as was predicted by some good citizens.

☞ The Trumpet for this week gives the following account of the sickness of its editor, Rev. Dr. Whittemore:—

No great change has taken place in the editor's health, since our last communication on that subject. He lies principally in bed, There is no crisis of improvement, no strong demonstration of recovery, neither is there any falling away. He persists that he shall be able to ride to Pittsburg in the train in about a week, but the week will disclose the facts, better than we can foresee them.

Mr. Cobb, of the Freeman, in mentioning a visit to him, says:—

We judged from his conversation that he hardly expected to recover. But he was strong in spirit, through the faith of the gospel. In answer to our question whether he suffered much pain, he said he did not, except occasionally at the seat of his disease, which is in the stomach. "But," continued he, "I have great comfort. There are no bounds to my confort; the source of it is inexhaustible." The entire expression of his countenance affirmed this.

THE PRINCE AT BUNKER HILL.—We do not know how the Prince and the royal party enjoyed the visit to Bunker Hill, but it must have suggested to them strange reflections. The Prince, it is said, went within the monument, and also looked with great interest upon the statue of Warren, who fell on that height, his head pierced by a British bullet. We are not aware that H. R. H. has visited any other battle field of the American revolution.

It was civil in the young Prince to go up the hill which his great grandfather's troops ascended under rather uncomfortable circumstances. He went up in a style quite different from those troops, and met there not Warren alive, but his statue, emblematic of his embalmed memory; and not John Stark and Putnam, with their sturdy troops in tow shirts, but the Mayor and officials of the once invaded city, who were extending to him the hand of friendship.—Atlas.

☞ In the Essex County Court, at Lawrence, Mass. Margaret Welch of Marblehead was arraigned for maintaining a liquor nuisance and plead not guilty; was ordered to give bonds in the sum of $500, failing to do which she was committed.

Hannah Bell of Lawrence, nuisance, sentenced to six months in the House of Correction.

Patrick Riley of Lawrence was arraigned for the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors, and plead not guilty; ordered to recognize in the sum of $500.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Times says that President Buchanan has no apprehensions that the Union will be dissolved in consequence of Mr. Lincoln's election. He believes that "though there may be a little noise and agitation, nothing will come of it."

☞ The Prince of Wales' big feet they talked so much about, dont prove to be so big after all. The boots made for him in Boston were No. 7. There is no taking down on his nose, however, that was long and "diplomatic."

SURPRISED.—Mr. J. T. Tieman, a young gent of New York, attended a coroner's inquest upon an unknown person and identified the body as that of his father. He ordered a coffin for it, returned home and found his father eating his dinner!

NOTICE—TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

All persons who may now pay $4 for the Daily Chronicle, or $1 for the Weekly Chronicle, for the year 1861,—will be furnished with the paper without charge, from this time to Jan. 1. G

S. J. COURT—PORTSMOUTH, Thursday.

No. 121, Charles Hodgdon v. John Shannon.—This suit was tried on Wednesday.—It was a writ of entry to recover about 20 acres of the Gravelly Ridge farm, so called, appraised at $919.41.

It appeared at the trial that the plaintiff, in March, 1857, obtained judgment against the late John N. Sherburne for $867.89 and costs, $12.17, and entered his execution upon the demanded premises, as belonging solely to the said Sherburne.

It further appeared that in 1817 Elizabeth Sherburne, the mother of John N. S., and said John N. S. were owners,as tenants in common and in equal parts, of the said farm; and that in 1828, the son mortgaged said farm to his mother to secure the payment of $5000. That Mrs. Elizabeth Sherburne died in 1846, having bequeathed all her estate, real and personal, to her grand-children, under whom the defendant claimed as tenant, and appointed the said John N. Sherburne executor and trustee of her estate for her grand-children; and that said trustee had for many years occupied said farm by Messrs. Palmer, Dearborn, Pike, and Shannon, jr., the deft., as tenants, stating to them that he held it in trust for Mrs. Sherburne's grand-children. John N. S. deceased in 1859. It further appeared that in 1828, and after the date of the grand mortgage, said John N. S. assigned all his right, title and interest in said farm for the benefit of his creditors.

The pltff. contended that the mortgage was fraudulent, and that the late John N. Sherburne acquired an absolute title to the whole farm by possession.

The Court instructed the jury—1. That laying the mortgage and assignment out of the case, as the extent was upon the whole and not a part of the demanded premises, the demandant had not maintained his suit unless the proof satisfied the jury that John N. Sherburne had acquired a valid title to Elizabeth Sherburne's half of the farm before April 26, 1828.

2. That there was no presumption of law that the possession of one tenant in common was adverse as to his co-tenants. If it existed in point of fact, it must be shown effectually.

Verdict for defendant. Goodall for pltff.; Hackett for deft.

On Thursday forenoon was tried the case Sargeant v. Noyes—action for board of a horse. Verdict for pltff. Bartlett for pltff.; Collins for deft.

In the afternoon the case State v. James W. Nutter and H. M. & J. W. Grant, came on for trial.

This is the well known Slaughter House nuisance case. It occupied the afternoon, and will probably occupy a good part of Friday.

A VOICE TO THE PRISON.—Messrs. Editors:—To us there is nothing near so mean and contemptible, as the commission of any wanton injury upon the worthy innocent, and nothing half so beautiful as the repentance and reclamation of a poor, depraved and miserable sinner.

It has always been regarded, however, as a fixed fact that "a man is known by the company he keeps;" that "birds of a feather flock together;" that "the galled jade winces;" that "the wounded pigeon flutters," and that "a tree is best known by its fruit."

Now we should like very much to be informed, whether or not B. D. Watson (who writes from the Portsmouth jail a 'soft soap' sort of a letter) is the same fellow who was arrested here a few years ago with one Chas. D. Cater, of Charlestown State Prison notoriety; and also, more recently, with one Albert J. Tyrrell, of Maria Bickford fame? And then we should like to know further, whether or not this same Watson, or his equally aggrieved brother John, has repaid Mr. Hilton the amount of money they so adroitly abstracted, and ran off with? It certainly is very unfortunate, to say the least, for an excellent young man to get into vicious company! The law presumes every one to be innocent until he is proved guilty; public opinion, on the other hand, is quicker sighted, keener witted, more prompt in the expression of any right or wrong, and withal, we think, is not quite so gullible. REP.

☞ Rev. Massena Goodrich, of Pawtucket, R. I., has been appointed Profes or of Biblical Languages and Literature in the Universalist Theological School, at Canton, St. Lawrence County, N. Y. Mr. G. is a native of Portsmouth. Prof. Fisher says of him, "he is what we commonly style a self-taught man. His present attainments are such as will well fit him for the discharge of his duties; but he has what is of still higher value—a studious, energetic and scholarly habit of mind, of which thoroughness is a marked characteristic."

☞ Steamer Nantasket, from Boston, arrived at our Navy Yard on Thursday, with 300 men for U. S. ship Cumberland, under charge of Lieut. A. G. Clary.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN, Oct. 25.—Petition of W. H. Dennett, for a highway to be laid out across the farm of Mark Dennett, deceased, for the convenience of the petitioner. Referred to the Committee on Roads.

Brodhead M. E. Society applied for use of Jefferson Hall for a festival, in the second week of November. Granted.

John Rider applies to encumber Pleasant St., for purpose of repairing his building. Granted. Adj. for two weeks.

☞ The schooner Gulf Ranger, Smith, sailed from this port on Wednesday, for Galveston, Texas, with a cargo of sheep from the farm of Col. J. W. Peirce. Also a lot of building material for the new Custom House in Galveston, of which Mr. Albert Blaisdell, of this city, is one of the contractors. We understand that Mr. B., with a large gang of men from this city, are to leave on Monday next, for Galveston, by railroad.

☞ A schooner arriving at this port on Friday, reports having passed a lumber schooner (supposed to be) bottom upwards, in the vicinity of the Shoals.

Messrs. Editors:—Truly it would be a great pity if the reputation of your correspondent Benj. Watson, should suffer, when his conviction of larceny was on evidence so clear, that no quibbles are likely to set aside the verdict. BOB SHORT.

POLITICAL DEMONSTRATIONS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.

Last evening was selected by the leading fusionites for the exhibition of the "unterrified" and their friends, and a magnificent exhibition it was, far surpassing in numbers and noise the Republican Parade of the 3d inst.; but lacking the excellent discipline and fine military appearance of the Wide Awakes. The procession numbering over thirty thousand persons, started at 8 1-2 P. M., and, as a democratic friend expressed it, "marched till daylight stopped them"—keeping the streets alive with music and fireworks until three o'clock this morning.—The line was over three hours in passing one point, and from six to eight miles long. Hundreds of panes of glass were broken by the frequent discharges of the cannon drawn in the procession, and showers of glass rained down upon the crowd, calling forth many expressions not found in the dictionaries, and the question from one inquisitive individual of "who threw the last brick."

Two weeks from to-day, New York will show what effect this, and other torch-light demonstrations,have had upon the question of the extension or non-extension of slavery. NEWINGTON.

COL. CURTIN AT CONCORD.—Concord, N. H., Oct. 25.—Col. Curtin, Governor elect of Pennsylvania, will certainly speak in this city at the Republican demonstration tomorrow (Friday) afternoon.

☞ There are said to be in New York a number of German schools that are under infidel influences. In some of these the course of study is reported to be of a thorough and superior character.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

Bronchitis.—This sure forerunner of Consumption can be instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. J. R. Stafford's Olive Tar and Iron & Sulphur Powders. The Olive Tar allays pain and heals soreness an inflammation, and the Iron & Sulphur Powders convert the waste or worn out particles of the blood into gases, which are ejected from the body by the pores instead of being deposited as Phlegm. The testimonials of many prominent and well-known persons are contained in a pamphlet, which will be sent free by mail to any address. See advertisement in this paper.

Autocrat of the Kitchen.—35,000 in use!

THE ORIGINAL P. P. STEWART,

FUEL-SAVING AND COMFORT-PRODUCING, LARGE OVEN, SUMMER AND WINTER

AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE,

FOR WOOD & ANTHRACITE OR BITUMINOUS COAL

Improved in 1859 with New and Extra Large Flues, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue.

Attention is invited to the following Points of Superiority:

DURABILITY.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

CAPACITY.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

ECONOMY.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

VENTILATION OF OVEN.—In the Stewart Stove alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (protected by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that, as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

ENTIRE CONTROL OF HEAT.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

THE DOUBLE SHEET BOTTOM FLUE.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

BROILING.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

HOT WATER RESERVOIR AND WARMING CLOSET.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

WATER BACK.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of P. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

The Great English Remedy!

Sir Jas Clarke's celebrated Female Pills

Prepared from a Prescription of
SIR J. CLARKE, M. D.,
Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

This well known medicine is no imposition, but a sure and safe remedy for Female Difficulties and Obstructions, from any cause whatever; and although a powerful remedy, it contains nothing hurtful to the Constitution.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Headache, Whites, and all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed.

These Pills have never been known to fail where the directions on the Second page of Pamphlet are well observed.

To married Ladies it is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

For full particulars, get a pamphlet, free, of any agent.

N. B.—$1 and six postage stamps enclosed to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills, by return mail.

THREE QUESTIONS.—1. As the white man got the red man Rum, and the red man gave the white man Tobacco, which got the best end of the bargain?

2. "As the discovery of this country," says an English statesman, "cursed Europe with tobacco, who can tell whether the discovery has been more of a blessing or a curse?"

3. Which is toughest, for an old 'un to take his last quid, or for a young 'un to take his first quid?—Anti-Tobacco Jour.

A fellow in an oblivious state took up his lodgings on the sidewalk. He woke next morning, and straightening himself, looked at the ground on which he had made his couch. "Well," he said, "if I had a pickax, I would make up my bed."

MAGNANIMITY.—Tasso replied to a hint that he should take vengeance on a man who had injured him, "I do not wish to deprive him either of his goods, his honor, or his life; I only wish to deprive him of his ill-will."

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,

FOR MAKING

Bread, Tea Cakes,

All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,

MANUFACTURED BY

EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,

Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,

NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house-keepers, before, and after, trial.

Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, natural taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not occupy less time.

It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, yielding the benefit of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.

It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine matter is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or dough. In a common sized barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method ordinarily makes about 200 lbs. gives by this process 200 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of paying attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES.

Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.

"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with a view to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is entirely free from adulterations, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a digestible food in the bread. It renders the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time in the pastry cook. Experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1852."

HOW TO USE IT.

We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.

BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter of half the size of an egg, and make the paste the paste with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Bake in a heated oven; should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.

LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.

GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together, add one egg and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.

BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal, all well sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.

BUCK WHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.

DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter the size of an egg; make up with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.

CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter, one egg and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.

CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonfuls of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.

JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three tea spoonfuls of Leaven; rub in one teacupful of butter; add a teacupful of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.

ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.

CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add one gill of molasses, and two eggs; mix thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.

CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.

LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.

WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of flour, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one cup of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to the taste. Bake about half an hour.

ADVANTAGE OF STAND STILL HORSES. On Tuesday, Mr. Russell Wood of Holyoke, while coming down a mountain with a load of wood, fell off, and was so paralyzed as to be unable to move, and was obliged to remain under the wagon wheels from 3 o'clock in the afternoon till 11 in the evening, when he was found and rescued by his alarmed and searching family. His horses had stood still for eight hours, although so impatient to be gone that they pawed deep holes beneath them. If they had moved, Mr. Wood must have been killed.

This reminds us of a certain doctor in this city who is fond of good horses, (and by the way, it is a little singular that all the physicians in the city who keep horses, are fond of good ones, and have them, too,) but as we were saying, a certain physician left his horse and chaise at the old Post Office, before noon, sometime since, and forgot him till towards night; but though "Jimmy" was loose, and is exceedingly high spirited, he "stayed put" till he was called for, like a sensible horse as he is. Such animals are worth a regiment of the hammer-headed breed, which run away or kick up a fuss at every opportunity.

☞ The Russian government has ordered the bishop of Samogiate, in Russian Poland, to restrain the effort of the clergy from advocating total abstinence, and to send the books signed by the tectotallers to the government to be burned. The government argues that the moderate use of strong liquors is useful, and moreover it cannot afford to lose the revenue it now raises by the taxes on spirits. Strange notions of government these absolute rulers have.

From indicting affectionate sonnets to the "Benicia Boy," Adah Isaacs Menken has turned her attention, in co-operation with her landlord, to indicting him for a board-bill for herself and a youthful "Boy," who claims the great John H. as father. She appeared in Court in New York recently as a witness, and attracted much attention by what the reporter calls her "propossessing appearance," her "finely chiselled features," her "dark brown curls clustering over a high and fair forehead." The unfaithful husband was absent, and proceedings in the case were adjourned until his return from Buffalo, whither justice called him to answer for participating in a recent prize fight.—Post.

☞ Near Grasshopper Falls, Kansas, a famous drove of wild horses is seen; but so fleet are they that all attempts to capture the full-grown horses are failures. The patriarch of the tribe is a chestnut horse, somewhat larger than the Morgan stock, is a mark for all pursuers, but has never been overtaken, although a reward of $500 has been offered for the capture of this "Chestnut King."

The following occurred in a country druggist' shop, where cigars and other nauseous substances are sold. A person having purchased some Havanas, commenced smoking one of them when his eye caught a notice. "No smoking allowed in this store." "Well!" he exclaimed, "that is a pretty joke; you sell a chap cigars, and then won't let him smoke them!" "Yes," replied the druggist, "and sell emetics, too, but I don't intend to have them taken here."

☞ In old times New England rum used to be reckoned as furnishing warmth, food, and drink. Cool bids fair to have an equal number of uses. The French are said to make excellent brandy out of it, and for several years past some of the leading colors at the Print Works in Manchester are obtained from coal tar made in Hillsboro, and a handsome income is realized from the business.

An unknown man, with a wooden leg, in St. Louis, last week, was heard to say, while partially intoxicated, that he was tired of life, and would soon find a resting place. The next morning his body was found upon the railroad track, horribly mutilated, while his wooden leg and cane were carefully deposited some dozen yards from the track.

☞ It is stated that the Prince's bill paid at the Revere House, Boston, was the same amount as that disbursed by the royal party at the Continental Hotel in Philadelphia and the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York; viz., two thousand pounds sterling. The Prince was so well pleased with the servants at the Revere, that he left $150 with the Superintendent for distribution among them.

FIRE DEPARTMENT OF BOSTON.—The new steam fire department of Boston is now fully organized, and not a single hand engine is in use througout the limits of the city. Under the old system between five and six hundred men were employed, under the new about two hundred and fifty. It is estimated that the annual expense will be decreased from about $105,000 to $75,000.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.
The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operated upon thoroughly. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.
Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

New Photographic Establishment.
Having fitted and furnished in modern style, large, pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with Sun Pictures of every description, from the smallest Miniature to life-size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., copied any size desired.
The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping pace with every useful improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.
All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.
Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1860.

LETTER FROM CALIFORNIA.

VALLEJO, Solano, Cal., Sept. 29th, 1860.

Times for the past year have been dull in this place, owing principally to the smallness of the yearly appropriation, but then we cannot complain. Though dull at the Navy Yard it has not been so with the country in this vicinity. Nearly all the available land has been broken up and sown with wheat; there has been a good harvest and a great yield, from twenty-five to forty-five bushels to the acre. The result is that we are enabled to ship wheat of the finest and first quality, to domestic and foreign ports. The ship Oracle is now loading at one of our wharves, (George street,) for Liverpool, England. She will take about thirty thousand sacks, of 102 lbs. each.

I should have mentioned that about three months ago, the property holders on George street built a fine new wharf to deep water, to accommodate ships of the largest tonnage. They got it completed in time for the first shipment. Through the exertions of Capt. J. B. Fisher, of this place, and said property holders, we are indebted for having the honor of sending the first ship load of produce to England from California. This is only the beginning; with our fine water front, smooth bay, deep water, and plenty of room, the anticipated terminus of the Vallejo and Marysville railroad, (now in course of construction,) fine climate, and the best kind of grain-producing land, Vallejo will soon rank second to no place on the Pacific coast.

Our Library is in a prosperous condition, notwithstanding the severe trial it has stood in loss of members, through removal to other places, for want of employment. We are out of debt, and our library is gradually increasing in number of books.

We have lost from the Navy Yard two of its chief officers, one by death, the other by removal. The former, Mr. D. Turner, Chief or Civil Engineer; he was a kind, noble, generous man, and a worthy member of our Association. He died regretted by all, and especially by those who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. The other gentleman, I. Hanscom, Esq., now Naval Constructor at the Navy Yard, Portsmouth, has left many friends here, who regret his absence with many kind wishes for his future prosperity.

There are now lying at the Navy Yard the ship Pampilush discharging coal, the U. S. steamer Saranac undergoing repairs, and H. B. M. steam frigate Termagant. She was stripped, and her guns taken out, preparatory to being docked. Last Saturday she was docked, and when almost out of water the connecting rods of one of the sections broke; and then the like accident happened to the other sections, and the frigate leaned over and sank. It was a fearful time for a few minutes! No lives were lost, and only one or two persons injured.

Of course no one is to blame for the accident. The sections had stood in need of repair for some time. The docks were not in a fit condition to take such a heavy vessel on, without new connecting rods and being repaired. The frigate ought to have been lightened a great deal before going on. The authority in power said she must go on; she went on, and smashed the dock. True to her name, (the Termagant) the ship proved like a bull in a china shop. She lay among the ruins of the dock until Monday morning following, when she was hauled off. She is going to lay here until the docks are repaired. Our new Naval Constructor, Mr. Simmons, was not at home at the time of the accident. No doubt he would have been prompt in his duty and prevented the vessel being docked.

It would be a great saving to the country if some of our naval heroes would go to sea for a while and study navigation, and learn to hand, reef and steer, instead of studying politics, interfering with naval constructor's duty, master workmen's men, and turning poor laboring Douglas Democrats out of employment, for daring to vote against the administration.

Yours truly, J. T.

☞ B. B. McCraw, one of the electors on the Bell and Everett ticket in Alabama, has gone over to Breckinridge. He heard Mr. S. F. Rice state in a speech at Danville that Mr. Everett was in favor of the doctrine of equality of the races; adducing as proof of the fact that he sent his children to school with negroes. He addressed Mr. Everett a letter, asking him this question: are you in favor of the equality of the two races? He received a reply, which he considered an affirmative answer.

BENEFITS OF SCARCITY, &c.—We notice in the World's Crisis, a letter from a New England woman now in Missouri, in which she describes the privations which she and her husband have undergone, in consequence of the drouth in Kansas and southern Missouri. She says:—

Of course provisions were up at starvation prices, and still rising. It was but little that we could obtain besides corn meal. (But I can say that the plain diet to which we subjected ourselves, out of necessity, has entirely cured me of the terrible scourge with which I have been afflicted for years, viz: sick headache, also dyspepsia, nervous spasms, etc.)

Plain diet is best, undoubtedly. The writer adds:—

Perhaps it would not be amiss here to note the unsafe feeling of the slave-holding population. The outbreak in Texas made a great commotion in the southern counties. The men who were the instigators were chased right by us, as it were. One man was caught and hung near us; another, a minister, was caught when he had almost gained free soil, and they hung him to a tree. They have frequently told me that they have never felt safe latterly, not knowing what night they might all be murdered in their beds. Fear predominates among all classes.

Now shall I tell you how they do things here when they come to meeting of a Sunday? (Sunday is a great visiting day, when they get up good dinners, if they starve the rest of the week.) The head ones, or any that wish, bring dinner for the whole congregation, and what they don't get in Gospel they do in "goodies." They have a jolly time over the "chicken fixins;" baked lamb, vegetables, pies, etc., etc. Of course the negroes have all the labor to perform. Then in preaching time their sermons are never less than two hours long. The colored women carry water to all the congregation. It is of no account if they lose some of the sermon—it is no loss.—Bro. Grant could hardly understand how professors of religion can guzzle whiskey as they do here. I often think of Bro. Burnham's saying, "God forbid I should be one (speaking of the oneness of the church,) with the whiskey guzzling deacons." Here they race horses, drink, swear, hang abolitionists, as accomplishments. Never heard of the Lord's coming.

RELIGIOUS BEQUESTS.—Miss Eliza Angell, of Providence, (grand-daughter of Com. Hopkins), who died on the 12th inst. at the age of 77 years, left property to the value of upward of $150,000, mainly real estate, the bulk of which she devised to religious objects. The homestead farm, and other property to the value of $400,000, are given in trust to Rev. Drs. Wayland, Caswell and Granger, for the erection of a Baptist church and parsonage house in North Providence, the church to be forever free. A large share of the remainder is bequeathed to the support of destitute Baptist clergymen and the education of their children, and several lots of land are given for sites for Baptist churches. Her library goes to Brown University.

REV. T. S. KING.—The papers are already beginning to speculate about the return of Rev. T. S. King to Boston. The following is from the pen of Mr. Clapp, of the Evening Gazette:—

We regret to learn that the Rev. Mr. King and some of his family, have suffered from severe illness in San Francisco, though the last accounts state that Mr. King was able to officiate half the day. The impression seems to be that at the expiration of the time when the Hollis Street Society granted Mr. King leave of absence, he will return and resume his pastoral connection in this city. We hope that such will be the case, as he is too valuable a man to be spared from the influence which he is capable of exerting among the young classes of this community.

☞ The effect of the October elections in the Pacific States remains to be seen. It will undoubtedly be very great, as the popular mind in that section is prepared for it. The Republicans and anti-Lecompton Democrats of Oregon have just chosen their two Senators. The thunder from Pennsylvania and Indiana will overwhelm the already defeated Breckinridgers, and will carry large sections of the Douglas Democrats into the Republican ranks. The same tendency will be quickened in California, where the Democratic feud is excessively bitter. For the first time, we now look on Oregon as probably safe for Lincoln, and on California as not sure against him.

☞ The following letter, says the Philadelphia Press, was written by Hon. Abraham Lincoln, the Republican candidate for the Presidency, to John M. Carson, Esq., Chairman of the Committee of Lectures of the Harrisou Literary Institute of Philadelphia. It is dated two months previous to the meeting of the Chicago Convention, and may be considered a curiosity in political literature. The italics are the compositor's:

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 7, 1860.

JOHN M. CARSON, ESQ.—Dear Sir:—Yours of March 14th, addressed to me at at Chicago, and seeking to arrange with me to lecture for the Harrison Literary Institute, has been received. I regret to say I cannot make such an arrangement. I am not a professional lecturer—have never got up but one lecture, and that, I think, a rather poor one. Besides, what time I can spare from my own business this season, I shall be compelled to give to politics.

Respectfully yours, A. LINCOLN.

☞ Rev. A. M. C. Neal, a Presbyterian clergyman at Centre Ridge, Ala., fell dead in the pulpit on Sunday, 14th inst.

THE PRINCE'S VISIT TO THE UNITED STATES.—The Philadelphia Press states that the Duke of Newcastle made the subjoined remarks to a gentleman in that city:

"I wish it could be stated, on my authority, that the visit of the Prince of Wales to the United States cannot have any other than the very best results. Everywhere he has perceived with what kindness—I might almost say affection—his mother, the Queen, is regarded by all classes; and he has been deeply touched by the consideration extended to him upon her account.—He has been able to compare the Canadas with the United States, and mark how different institutions have created different results. Above all, he carries back with him a sense of strong personal obligation for the warmth and kindness of his reception here, and—for the English are not ungratetul—this will be shared by all classes at home, who feel a kindess rendered to their Prince as if it were rendered to themselves. To be frank with you, this visit will decidedly make England and America better and warmer friends than ever. Should the question of a difference arise, depend upon it, the Prince will frankly protest against it, alleging in support of his views his personal familiarity with the character and inexhaustible resources of a country which rivals England in the arts of peace, and can summon three million of volunteer well-disciplined soldiers to fight for her, if the misfortune of a war should arise.

FROM BRITISH WEST INDIES.—St. Vincent advices of Sept. 8, state that the weather was oppressively warm, and copious showers were forwarding the sugar crop. Yellow fever was somewhat prevalent in the windward district, and many cases had proved fatal. The shipments of sugar, molasses, rum and arrowroot show an increase over last year.

At Barbadoes the crops were very promising, the sugar cane having, under the influence of copious rains, fully recovered from the late drouth. Business very dull. There had been ten arrivals from the States with cargoes of breadstuffs and fish.

CALIFORNIA AND OREGON.—St. Joseph, Oct. 25.—The Pony Express, with San Francisco dates of the 13th, has arrived.

The Commercial trade has slightly improved.

The general news is meagre. The political news absorbs everything.

There is great anxiety throughout California to hear from the Pennsylvania and Indiana elections.

Senator Gwin and General McDougal, in stumping the State, have been accusing each other of dishonestly representing the State of Washington. It is rumored that a duel between them is being arranged.

The President of the Oregon Senate was burnt in effigy for the course he took in coalescing with the Republicans and thereby electing a Republican Senator to Congress.

The Golden Age sailed from San Francisco on the 11th with 320 passengers and over one million of dollars in treasure, for New York.

☞ The night express train from New York to Boston, on Tuesday evening, ran over a man who was lying on the track at Warren, cutting entirely off his head and left shoulder, and throwing him into the river, on the side of the trace. His name was Jerry Dunn, of Ragged Hill, West Brookfield. From the fact that a bottle of liquor was found at the side of the track where the engine struck him, it is supposed the man was drunk, and in attempting to walk home fell on the track, from whinh he was unable to rise.

☞ Two thieves attempted to rob a dwelling house in New York of the silver plate, and had succeeded in bagging a large quantity of it, when the brave servant girl encountered the villains, took the bag away from them, gave each a "one, two, from the shoulder" before they escaped, and then afterwards identified them at the police station. She is an excellent article to have in a family. Her name is Maria Reardon, and she is of Irish extraction.

☞ The Ossipee (N.H.) Register says that a few nights since, some burglars entered the house occupied by the widow and daughter of the late John Roberts, of Ossipee, and took a large chest containing about $450 in money, with other articles, amounting to $600 in all, and carried the same away, although the inmates heard their operations and raised an alarm just after sufficient time had elapsed for the intruders to escape. The chest was found the next morning a few rods from the house broken open and robbed of its contents.

☞ It is reported that the Breckinridge men at Washington are indignant at the result in Oregon. They say that Douglasism is practically the same as Republicanism. We observe also that the Charleston Mercury derives no satisfaction from the Democratic gains of Congressmen in Pennsylvania and Ohio, observing that the new men are Douglasites, and therefore no better than Republicans.

☞ Mr. Lane's successor in the Senate, Mr. J. W. Nesmith, is a Douglas Democrat, an old resident of Oregon, and held the office of Territorial Marshal under Mr. Pierce. He also held an office in the Indian Bureau, under Mr. Buchanan, from which he was ousted through Gen. Lane's influence; he now ousts Gen. Lane from his warm seat in the national Senate.

ASYLUM FOR INEBRIATES.—The Medical Society of Virginia have appointed a committee to apply to the next Legislature for a house of refuge for inebriates. The establishment will be called the Virginia Washingtonian Home. There are only three similar institutions in the United States, despite the fact that drunkenness is so prevalent amongst those of high and low degree all over the country.

THE PIANO-FORTE.—We have evidence that the piano-forte was known in England about the year 1767, as it was introduced that year on the stage of Covent Garden Theatre, as "a new instrument." Backers, a German, is supposed to have been the first who manufactured the piano to any considerable extent in England, and the name-board of a piano, inscribed "Americus Backers, Factor et Inventor, Jermyn street, London, 1776," is still in existence.

☞ In the Superior Court at Norwich, R. I., Increase Stoddard has brought a suit to recover the amount for which his estate was levied upon and sold for the payment of taxes. He is a quadroon, and wants to find out whether he is a "person of color," or not. If the court decides he is not, then Increase wants to pay taxes and vote. If he is, then he cannot vote and does not want to pay taxes.

☞ The Cheshire County Temperance Alliance held its first annual meeting at the Town Hall in Keene, Thursday, Oct. 18th, 1860. This is designed to be an active body;—and the county will be greatly benefitted by it.

KINGSTON, March 10, 1841.—"This may certify that my son has had a humor which made its appearance when he was but a few days old; and it grew wore, causing large swellings and running sores. He has been cured by the use of Dr. Swett's Panacea and Humor Wash."

T. CURRIER.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and others of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Bronchitis.—This sore forerunner of Consumption can be instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. J. R. Stafford's Olive Tar and Iron & Sulphur Powders. The Olive Tar allays pain and heals soreness an inflammation, and the Iron & Sulphur Powders convert the waste or worn out particles of the blood into gases, which are ejected from the body by the pores instead of being deposited as Phlegm. The testimonials of many prominent and well-known persons are contained in a pamphlet, which will be sent, free by mail to any address. See advertisement in this paper.

SLEEPLESS, CRYING, TEETHING CHILDREN

All know how unpleasant are these accompaniments of childhood, but not intelligent persons know, also, the sad consequences to health, and often life, from the use of anodynes, cordials, and similar baby doses used to quiet them. HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC HOMEOPATHIC BABY'S PILLS, (a pleasant sugar pill,) which you may drop into the mouth at any time, give you everything to be desired from medicine. They calm excitement, allay the irritation of teething, relieve colic and bowel complaints, and procure natural and quiet rest, without the disadvantages of cordials or opiates. They have been used for many years, and are approved by all who use them or abhor dosing.

Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes $1.

Sent by mail or express, free of charge, on receipt of the price.

Address, DR F. HUMPHREYS & CO.,

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentery stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

PORTSMOUTH, Aug. 3, 1860.

MESSRS. S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston.—

Gents:—Please send me a dozen two dozen OXYGENATED BITTERS. With us there is an increasing demand for this excellent specific for Dyspepsia in its attendant evils, and we know of no remedy more fully entitled to the confidence of the public. This much we say, disclaiming any intention of puffing the article, as its own merits are a sufficient guarantee of all that it purports to be. Very respectfully yours,

S. J. COURT — PORTSMOUTH, Friday.

The whole day was occupied with the slaughter house case, State v. Nutter and Grants.

No. 11, Bassett v. Salisbury Manufacturing Co., is assigned for next Monday—and while the jury are gone out to view the premises, No. 131, Warren v. Scammon, is to be tried.

☞ The Portsmouth Wide Awakes, led off by Capt. Fuller, Capt. Wentworth of Kittery, and Gen. Whittem of the Ballot, marched through our streets to the Concord & Portsmouth railroad station, to music by the Portsmouth Cornet Band, on Friday forenoon. With their neat uniform, and handsome marching, they made a fine appearance here, and doubtless maintained their conscious respectability in Concord, where many companies of the same sort were gathered.

The Portsmouth Republican Club are making arrangements for a grand torch-light procession in this city, on Wednesday evening next. Delegations are expected from Kittery, Dover, Concord and other places. Houses will probably be illuminated, and a lively time is anticipated.

BASE DECEPTION.—Messrs. Editors:—On Thursday last, a married lady of respectable appearance and modest address arrived in the forenoon train from Portland, Me., designing to remain in the city a few weeks, for the purpose of accomplishing some secular business which must necessarily be performed in this State. When she stepped from the cars, a hack driver importuned her to take a seat in his vehicle, and inquired her place of destination. She told him she was a stranger in the city, and wished to be taken to a respectable boarding house. The driver took the lady to one of the most depraved houses that could be pointed out in this vicinity; and there he landed her. The lady was interrogated by the woman who kept the house,—and finding she was not of the character of the usual inmates of her house, told the virtuous woman she was not wanted there.

Other cases of similar character have occurred before. One where a young lady, a stranger in our community, arrived in an evening train, and asked to be conducted to some respectable place of abode.—She was carried to a house of ill-repute, where, after a few hours, she gave an alarm from her window, on the unwelcome intrusion of a scoundrel to her room,—and made good her retreat.

Officers of justice will be as watchful as possible. Strangers must watch as well as they can for themselves; and the owners of all public carriages will consult their own interest by having drivers of too much character to engage in such iniquity.

JUSTICE.

SLAUGHTER HOUSES.—Messrs. Editors: I notice that our butchers are in very natural commotion at this time, from the legal steps taken against them, for keeping offensive slaughter houses.

If these slaughter houses are nuisances, the difficulty might be obviated very much indeed, at least, if the butchers would have a vault under each slaughter house, some twenty feet long, ten feet wide and seven feet deep, with a platform over the vault.

Catch the blood in a trough, and throw the other offal upon the platform, and allow the swine to come on this platform, and eat what they wish, and have the rest of the offal scraped into the vault below. Throw lime or other disinfectants occasionally into the vault.

In this way they would feed as many swine, make as much manure, and the place be very much less offensive. Butchers should keep scrupulously neat their slaughterhouses; for although they may not be offensive to themselves and others who frequent them, yet they are very much so to all others who have not lost the use of their olfactory powers.

These vaults should be so constructed that they could be cleaned out during the four hottest months of the year. Slaughterhouses constructed and conducted as above suggested, would be very different in their effect on the atmosphere in their neighborhood, from those badly constructed and carelessly kept. *

☞ A car on the Fall River Railroad, near Myrick's, was upset about 4 o'clock Friday morning by the breaking of a rail over a culvert. A Mrs. Drinkwater's arm was broken off at the elbow; a Mrs. Pond, of Bucksport, Me., had her forearm broken. Others were hurt, but not so badly.

With nothing but a common rail to span a culvert of four feet and a half, and the sleepers at the sides decayed, it is not strange that the engine should break through.

☞ Rev. J. G. Adams was installed as pastor of the First Universalist Society in Providence, Thursday afternoon. Sermon by Rev. A. A. Miner, of Boston.

☞ News from Europe, one day later, viz., from Londonderry Oct. 12th.

The Paris correspondent of the Times says trustworthy accounts from the island of Sardinia speak of maneuvers there by secret agency for promoting annexation to France in the same manner and by the same means as were employed by French emissaries in Savoy and Nice.

Garibaldi was about to convoke the electoral colleges of the Two Sicilies for Oct. 21, to vote by universal suffrage.

The statement is confirmed that Spain had proposed a congress of the Catholic powers at Gaeta.

It is reported that the French army in Rome is to be increased to 60,000 men, and the garrison at Lyons to placed on a complete war footing.

Letters from Damascus say that since the departure of Fuad Pacha the Mussulmen had recommenced massacreing the Christians, and had already killed twenty.

Cook Stoves.
Autocrat of the Kitchen.—35,000 in use!
THE ORIGINAL P. P. STEWART,
FUEL-SAVING AND COMFORT-PRODUCING, LARGE OVEN, SUMMER AND WINTER
AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE,
FOR WOOD & ANTHRACITE OR BITUMINOUS COAL
Improved in 1859 with New and Extra Large Flues, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue.

Attention is invited to the following Points of Superiority:

DURABILITY.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

CAPACITY.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

ECONOMY.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

VENTILATION OF OVEN.—In the Stewart Stove alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (protected by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that, as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

ENTIRE CONTROL OF HEAT.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

THE DOUBLE SHEET BOTTOM FLUE.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

BROILING.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

HOT WATER RESERVOIR AND WARMING CLOSET.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

WATER BACK.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of P. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

RELIEF IN TEN MINUTES!
Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!
The most certain and speedy remedy ever discovered for all Diseases of the CHEST AND LUNGS, COUGHS, COLDS
Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis,
Influenza, Hoarseness,
Difficult Breathing, Sore Throat, &c, &c.
These Wafers give the most instantaneous and perfect relief, and when persevered with according to directions, never fail to effect a rapid and lasting cure. Thousands have been restored to perfect health who have tried other means in vain. To all classes and all constitutions they are a blessing and a cure—none need despair, no matter how long the disease may have existed, or however severe it may be, provided the organic structure of the vital organs is not hopelessly decayed. Every one afflicted should give them an impartial trial.
TO VOCALISTS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS
these Wafers are peculiarly valuable; they will ONE DAY remove the most severe occasional hoarseness; and their regular use for a few days will, at all times, increase the power and flexibility of the voice, greatly improving its tone, compass and clearness, for which purpose they are regularly used by many professional vocalists.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules, accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulphur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific to all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Dyslepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In no class of disease, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c. especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers are restricted through over-use, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, patent or official, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures, will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-similie signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

Humphreys' Specific Homeopathic Remedies for the People

THE Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and inspection of Prof. HUMPHREY, in order to meet that great and long realized want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which people suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight diarrhœa, a pain in the side, or a headache, or toothache, if not speedily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, Croup or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so you know at once what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and harmless in operation, while the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies for families and private persons, as being THE BEST IN USE, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST SPEEDY AND SAFE, AND CERTAIN.

Thousands are and have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, with invariable success, and will speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and among our hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

ZOLLICKOFFER'S

ANTI-RHEUMATIC CORDIAL,

A PREPARATION FOR THE CURE OF INFLAMMATORY AND CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC GOUT, NEURALGIC RHEUMATISM, SCIATICA, AND LUMBAGO.

Hundreds of testimonials to the good resulting from the use of this Cordial could be offered—but the following will suffice:

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Sept. 6, 1860.

I hereby certify that I have used a variety of preparations for the cure of Rheumatism, but have found none of them whose effect was so immediate and lasting as Zollickoffer's Anti-Rheumatic Cordial, and would advise all afflicted with that painful disease to give it a fair trial.

PROF. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR,

Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, resuscitates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in this form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Want of Appetite, Flatulency, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Lassitude, Dullness, and all that class of cases, so painfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements of Dyspepsia, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidney, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs. Pain in the Back, Side, and between the shoulders, predisposition to Fever, Cold, Coughs, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate half the diseases that flesh is heir to, only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from promoting health, vigor, and cure the disease at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting the flow of bile, and thus ridding the cerebrum of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water, hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a table-spoonful at least before eating. As it promotes cheerfulness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Medical Tonic. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about the Cordial it will do what it promises. Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your wives and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than make a disclosure, the latter, from the same feeling, are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal! Ladies, try one bottle of the Cordial, and you will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

Dr. Mott's

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE

PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbonic Acid by distillation in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Imparting to the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innumerous all and maladies have this been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

Twenty Leading Cardinal Affections: EMACIATION, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued exhaustion of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so debilitated as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent consumption, sanguineous exhaustion, hysterical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise to which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the ordinary, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, without the violent convulsive excess of medicines, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is that purgative, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchocked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, so obstinate, enervating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicine iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, and unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Sudden Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and exhibiting the dreadful curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Does.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove the most distressing pains in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are sure of speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts at $1.

CELEBRATION AT CHARLESTON.—A meeting took place in Charleston, N. H., on the 17th inst., on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the settlement of the Rev. Jeromiah Crosby, D. D., over the old Parish. He was called at the united voice of Parish, and that unanimity between the Pastor and People has existed to the present hour. The Doctor is now an octogenarian, but in very tolerable heath.

On this occasion, three of the brothers of the Doctor were present, their ages between 70 and 78—five sons, all in active life, and three daughters, one a widow, and the others with their husbands, Rev. Dr. Palfrey of Belfast, Maine, and Rev. Mr. Bridge of Dublin. The table was abundantly supplied by his lady parishioners, of which all partook. The Doctor's sermon preached in March last, on the 50th anniversary of his ministry, had been printed to be circulated on this anniversary of his ordination. Several letters had very liberal and substantial inclosures.

ALLIGATOR SKIN BOOTS.—While the Prince of Wales and suite were at the Revere House last week, conversation happening to turn upon sporting matters, the Marquis de Lousada and Lord Lyons were loud in their praises of the alligator skin boots, which are impervious to water. His Royal Highness immediately sent and ordered a pair, which were completed in forty-eight hours. For information of the curious we may state that the size of the princely foot is No 7. Of course the royal example was followed by his suite. The Duke of Newcastle, Col. Bruce and Lord Hinchenbroke each purchased an entire skin, and one was procured for Prince Albert. The fashion of alligator skin boots is now established by undoubted authority; first the nobs and then the snobs of England will order them, and a large increasing demand for skins and alligator boots may be expectec. —Shoe and Leather Reporter.

The London Court Journal says:—A divorce case, under peculiar circumstances, is likely to attract public attention. A lady, belonging to a distinguished family, long hesitated between two eligible suitors; she at length selected one of them and was married, but soon fancied she made a wrong selection, and eloped with her rejected suitor. Proceedings were instituted, and she was among the first to avail herself of Sir Cresswell's process of "Freedom made Easy," by marrying her guilty partner; but she seems scarcely to know her own mind, for she has since reeloped with her first husband. Casuists are puzzled as to which she may be disposed to like best.

The Boston Journal says:—"Everywhere the Douglas and the Bell parties are said to be losing ground at the South, while Breckinridge steadily gains. We doubt not if Bell carries anything more than Kentucky and Maryland. Still, we hope the Douglas and Bell men of the South will make a good fight, and secure a respectable force in the national House of Representatives."

ACQUITTED.—In the U. S. District Court for Vermont, Rev. Isaiah Huntley, of Essex, who has been under indictment for the past two years for forwarding false papers to the Bounty Land Office, at Washington, has been acquitted. The charges against him were proved utterly false.

FATAL RESULT.—Mr. Chas. C. Stearns, who was seriously scalded at the boiler explosion in Lowell, died Wednesday afternoon. The deceased was 30 years of age, and a native of New Ipswich, N. H.

☞ The slaves at the South have the impression that a "Black Republican" is a black man, and so if Mr. Lincoln should be chosen President, they would expect to be liberated through the victory of one of their own race. This comes from the nonsense uttered by brawlers.

☞ A new dwelling house at Keene, N. H., owned and occupied by Rev. Charles Greenwood, was destroyed by fire, with all its contents, on Monday night. Loss $5000, and no insurance. The fire was probably caused by an incendiary.

☞ The Grand Jury of Philadelphia have found a bill of indictment against Wm. Byerly, for making fraudulent returns of the vote for member of Congress in the Fourth Ward of that city, by which false returns John M. Butler, the Republican candidate, received the certificate of election as Representative to Congress.

☞ As the Constitution Union men and the Republicans of Delaware have cordially united on member of Congress, it is thought their candidate, Hon. George P. Fisher, stands an excellent chance of election.

☞ The New York Saturday Press places under the dramatic head the, account of the reception of the Prince of Wales in Trinity Church.

Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.
The nature of this invention consists of a metal lic sole for boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.
Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

New Photographic Establishment.
Having fitted and furnished in modern style, large, pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with Sun Pictures of every description, from the smallest Miniature to life-size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., taken and copied.
The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping pace with every useful improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.
All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.
Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1860.

THE ROMAN QUESTION.—A letter emanating from a friend of Archbishop Hughes, and dated Rome 22d September, gives a Roman Catholic view of events in Italy as follows:—

Humanly speaking, the Papal temporal power is in its agony. The Holy Father has been deceived by France. Napoleon first promised in writing to preserve intact the Roman States; when the Legations had been taken he promised to protect Rome and the patrimony. Now Gen. Guyon, just returned from Paris, tells the Holy Father his mission is to protect his Holiness and Rome. Gen. Guyon has even betrayed Gen. Lamoriciere. He promised the latter to defend the States from Terracina to Farni—the limit of the patrimony. The patrimony is now invaded, and the General who promised to aid the Holy Father, and that if he received orders to the contrary he would break his sword before he would betray Rome, now insults the Vicar of Christ! I fear in a short time France will abandon Rome to Victor Emmanuel. The Holy Father will either leave Rome or be forced away from it.

The Holy Father had better come to this country, and live on the beautiful hill where he nunnery was burnt down, near Boston. Money enough to build a good house for him there, could be obtained in Boston in a single week. To be sure he would not have much temporal power; but he might exert the spiritual, without anybody to molest him or make him afraid.

CITY POSTAL FACILITIES.—A Washington dispatch says that the position of the post office department in regard to city post routes, is this:—

The public demands facilities like those in London and Paris. The department anxious to grant them, claims that it can be done only by having a monopoly of the business, which it is now endeavoring to secure by the enforcement of the laws against private expresses. The opposition with which it meets, occasions much embarrassment.

☞ The New York Times Washington correspondent states that a high official in the Treasury Department has divulged the plan of disunion at the South. The plan, in case Lincoln is elected, is to convene the Southern Legislatures by proclamation, on the 8th day of November, and to declare the Union dissolved, pronouncing in favor of Breckinridge as the President of the Southern Union.

DEATH OF "GRIZZLY ADAMS."—Thousands of people in all parts of the country, from Maine to California, will learn with regret of the death of J. C. Adams, better known as "Old Grizzly Adams," by his numerous and perilous adventures with grizzly bears and other savage animals, accounts of many of which have been published in the newspapers. His eventful and somewhat heroic career closed peacefully, at the home of his daughter in Neponset, October 19th, in his 48th year.—The immediate cause of his death was the open wound on his head, received in one of his encounters with a grizzly bear, and which would never heal.

JAMES REDPATH IN HAYTI.—Mr. James Redpath, the well known abolitionist, was the recipient of a public dinner at Port au Prince on the 27th of September, on the occasion of his return to the United States. Mr. J. M. Duval, President of the Legislative Assembly, presided, and toasted Mr. Redpath, who responded in a brief speech. Mr. Redpath was especially honored as a friend of John Brown, and after the dinner he was escorted by a torchligh procession to the barque "Lex," and hailed with cheers.

FISHING SCHOONER LOST.—The Belfast Age learns of the fishing schooner Foaming Billow, Capt Condon, of that city, and all of her crew—thirteen in number—on Malpec Bar, a ledge a few hours' sail from Campeche, a port on Prince Edward Island, in a gale on the 6th inst.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—William Henry, Jr., a note broker, was arrested yesterday, charged with swindling Quick & L'Hommedieu out of $8000, which was nearly all lost in a few days at gambling.

Among the candidates admitted into the Naval Academy are George Coffin, Frank Wildes, Benjamin Heath, Charles Bush, Francis Cook and George Davis, all from Massachusetts; James Baldwin, H. D. Fuller, Cassius Meyer, George Craven, George Gilden, all from Maine; George Wallleigh, from New Hampshire.

RELIEF FOR KANSAS.—Atchison, Oct. 24. Seventeen thousand pounds of flour, corn meal and potatoes arrived here to-day, from Illinois. Several teams from a destitute portion of Southern Kansas, which were waiting, were loaded and started on their return. There has previously been distributed five hundred bushels of corn, twenty thousand pounds of flour, and other groceries were sent to Neosho county.

COL. CURTIN AT LAWRENCE.—Lawrence, Oct. 27.—Col. Curtin, while en route from Concord, N. H., to Boston was enthusiastically received here this noon.

For five minutes he addressed the people with much point and spirit. He pledged Pennsylvania for Old Abe by seventy-five thousand majority.

A HINT FOR RAILROAD MANAGERS. The railroad companies in France are about to put in operation a plan which cannot fail of being received with favor by the public. It is proposed to run, each week, a train of cars between distant points, for which tickets can be obtained in advance, and to which the companies will guaranty to admit only a limited number of passengers, four hundred, for example. All the places being occupied, the engine not carrying any dead weight, to use a technical expression, the traveller can be transported at the price of merchandise; and the companies, not only without any loss, but even with a certain and calculable profit, will apply to these special trains a tariff the great cheapness of which cannot fail of producing an immense business. By this arrangement the fare is about one-fifth the usual price.

☞ The negroes kidnapped from the northern part of Ohio, as reported in the Sun of Oct. 19th, were Henry Burns and Thomas Marshall, with their wives, and two other men. They had rented thirty acres of wild land, put up cabins and had good crops upon the ground. They were dragged away at night, and two infants, six months old, who were born in Ohio, were left with no one to care for them. Another child, two and a half years old, was found two days after, partly wrapped in a sheet, and having nearly perished from hunger and cold. The captors put their business through without any obstructive investigations before the Cincinnati Commissioner, as it is in all cases easy to do, if sufficient secrecy and rapidity can be given to the farce of examination.

☞ At the Supreme Court for Cheshire County, held at Keene, Nahum Putney of Richmond, was called to answer to three indictments found against him last October term, for illegally selling liquor. To the first he plead not. con. and to the others not guilty, but the jury thought otherwise and pronounced him guilty, whereupon, he was ordered to pay a fine of $50 in each case and cost of prosecution and stand committed until the order be performed. In default thereof he was sent to jail.

Calvin Chandler of Gilsum, was brought into Court to answer to two indictments for selling liquor; pleaded nolo contendere and was ordered in one case to pay a fine of $50 and costs, and in the other he was ordered to recognize for his further appearance, judgment being suspended. He paid up and was discharged.

Patrick Buckley answered to two indictments by saying nol. con., and was ordered to pay $100 and costs. In default thereof he was sent to jail.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—At the Essex County Court, in Lawrence, last week, Timothy Callagan, of Marblehead, for a felonious assault upon Adelaide M. Simond, was sentenced to ten days solitary confinement, and twenty years in the State prison. The young woman was in the field, looking for her little brother,—was assaulted by Callagan, became unconscious, and found herself in a pond, where he had thrown her to drown. Verily he meets his reward.

At the same court, Roger McCann of Haverhill, being called upon to receive sentence, requested permission to have an interview with his former employer from whom he had stolen, according to his own story, $223, as he was then desirous to restore the same. The court granted the prisoner leave to accompany an officer to Haverhill for that purpose. On proceeding to Court street, they entered the privy of Mr. John Sargent, and beneath the seat carefully tacked up, were the two one hundred dollar bills which he had placed there in August last, and which would have soon perished had they not been recovered.

☞ We have received the first number of the "Journal of Physical Culture," to be published monthly, by Dr. Dio Lewis of the Esex Street Gymnasium, Boston. This is not meant as a fair sample number, and seems to be little more than an advertisement of the Doctor's Gymnasium, an institution which ought to be advertised, and patronized to the fullest extent. Dr. Lewis is doing a good work in Boston, in throwing open to the public an excellent Gymnasium, and introducing a more rational and scientific style of using it. We only wish the movement be has so successfully advanced, was inaugurated everywhere.

MANCHESTER AND CANDIA RAILROAD. The Grantees of the Manchester and Candia Railroad met in preliminary meeting at Manchester on Friday, and accepted the acts of the Legislature. On Saturday, the organization of the corporation was effected. The following Directors were chosen: E. A. Straw, Manchester; Charles L. Frost, New York; Stephen Kendrick, Franklin; Edson Hill, Concord; D. A. Bunton, Frederick Smyth, and B. F. Martin, Manchester.

☞ The house and barn of Benj. Cass, of Bridgewater, Mass., were struck by lightning Friday afternoon, and entirely destroyed. Loss about $2000.

THANKSGIVING in Ohio and Indiana, Nov. 29th.

☞ The demonstration of the Wide-Awakes and Republicans, at Concord, Friday, was a lively affair. Gov. Curtin of Pennsylvania and Mr. Burlingame were the chief speakers.

After Gov. Curtin's speech, Gov. Goodwin addressed the meeting in a short and earnest speech. The torchlight procession was a most brilliant and successful demonstration. The procession was composed of 150 mounted Wide-Awakes commanded by Capt. E. H. Rollins; Portsmouth 100, Derry 48, Lake Village 60, Concord 400, and Manchester 400, besides delegations from Nashua and other places.

The private residences and public buildings were splendidly illuminated, and the whole affair was the most brilliant display ever witnessed in the State, rivaling in its way the recent muster of the citizen soldiery of the State. The order and decorum of the Wide-Wakes, the regularity of their march, and military precision of their drill, excited to the highest pitch the enthusiasm of the people, and the cheering of thousands thronged the streets to admire and encourage and welcome them. Such a multitude of uniformed torch-bearers assisted to make the streets as light as day.

The Portsmouth company came back between 12 and 1 o'clock, and marched thro' the city with their music and cheers.

BURLEIGH ON RYNDERS.—In his sprightly New York gossip for the Boston Journal, Burleigh says:—

Marshal Rynders' torchlight procession was a monster. Nothing like it has been seen in these parts. Twenty-five thousand is the number. But there was as much difference between the appearance of this demonstration and the Wide Awakes, as there is between an Irish and German Target Company and the National Guard. The streets were crammed, but it was with a class of men and women who sympathized with the procession, and it was as much as one's coat and head were worth to attempt to move along. The transparencies were few and decidedly partisan. The most numerous were square box transparencies, lighted by a candle, indicating that the holders did not mean to "give up the ship." A small company from Boston, sixty in number, called the "Everett Guard," bore a small banner, indicating that Boston was sure for Bell and Everett. Nearly all the Bell men had torches, to which were attached small bells, and a monster bell, borne on a car, kept up a solemn tolling on all the route, and the favorite pastime of the Empire Club was to unlimber their gun and startle and frighten women and children along the route. It was not till 2 o'clock in the morning that the procession ended.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonics and stomachics, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and others of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Bronchitis.—This sure forerunner of Consumption can be instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. J. R. Stafford's Olive Tar and Iron & Sulphur Powders. The Olive Tar allays pain and heals soreness as inflammation, and the Iron & Sulphur Powders convert the waste or worn out particles of the blood into gases, which are ejected from the body by the pores instead of being deposited as Phlegm. The testimonials of many prominent and well-known persons are contained in a pamphlet, which will be sent free by mail to any address. See advertisement in this paper.

SLEEPLESS, CRYING, TEETHING CHILDREN.

All know how unpleasant are these accompaniments of babyhood, and most intelligent persons know, also, the sad consequences to health, and often life, from the use of anodynes, cordials, and similar baby doses used to quiet them. HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC HOMEOPATHIC BABY'S PILLS, (a pleasant sugar pill,) which you may drop into the mouth at any time, give you everything to be desired from medicine. They calm excitement, allay the irritation of teething, relieve colic and worm complaints, and procure natural and quiet rest, without the disadvantages of cordials or opiates. They have been used for many years, and are approved by all who use them or their doing.

Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes $1.

Sent by mail or express, free of charge, on receipt of the price.

Address, DR F. HUMPHREYS & CO.,

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this Blood Food and be restored to health.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

MESSRS. S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston,

Gents:—Please send me by express two dozen OXYGENATED BITTERS. With us there is an increasing demand for this excellent specific for Dyspepsia and its attendant evils, and we know of no remedy more fully entitled to the confidence of the public. This much we say, disclaiming any intention of puffing the article, as its own merits are a sufficient guarantee of all that it purports to be. Very respectfully yours,

JUSTICE TO THE HACKMAN.—A communication signed "Justice," in Saturday's Morning Chronicle, stated that a woman of respectable appearance and modest address was carried to a house of bad character, by a hack driver, whom she requested to carry her to a respectable boarding-house.

This communication very properly brought the owner of several hacks, and the driver of the one in question, to investigate the case. With them we visited the lady referred to, who happened to be one of the only two ladies from the Portland train on Thursday morning, who took a hack, and the only one who was not well known here.

In answer to our questions, she said the driver before us was the one she employed, that she saw nothing improper in either of the two houses to which she was taken in the hack,—that at the first place she did not enter, but the lady of the house merely came to the door and said she could not accommodate her, as her house was full of court boarders; and that at the other house, where she staid some time, "they appeared to be nice people."

From her description of the localities, we know them both to be highly respectable and as free from suspicion as any two houses in the place. The charge in this case, then, is wholly unfounded, as shown by the testimony of the only competent witness, who found only civil treatment and proper attention in the driver.

This throws discredit on the other statement,—leaving it probable that that also is a fabrication, which, beginning small, has grown up to something frightful; when there was really no good ground for apprehension.

The hackmen of Portsmouth will be found as attentive and reliable as in any other city, and more so than in most; and the absence of motive for such conduct as "Justice" imputed to them, would make his communication ridiculous, if it were not so serious. We regret its inadvertent insertion, without the knowledge of the publisher.

INJUSTICE TO THE HACKMEN.—The statement's published in Saturday's Chronicle, by "Justice," the writer hereby avers were told to him by a person of reliable character, but who had been misinformed, as investigation has since clearly proved.

JUSTICE.

FOR GALVESTON.—Albert Blaisdell, Esq., the well-known contractor for the erection of Government Buildings, leaves this city to-day, for Galveston, Texas, where his firm have a contract to build a Custom House. The following workmen are engaged to go out, and will also leave to-day. Of the twenty-eight names, twenty-two or three are from Portsmouth. Five vessels, loaded with materials, have also started. The time to execute the contract expires on the first of June next; and with Mr. Blaisdell for Superintendent of construction, the building is most likely to be completed, and Galveston supplied with a new Custom House, by the appointed time. We wish all hands a pleasant ride, (they go by railroad,) a successful job, and safe return; and hope that some of them will keep their friends at home informed of their movements, through the Chronicle. Here is the roll: may it remain unbroken, and each man lose no time, but bring back a good "roll" for himself.

W. I. Merrill; Benjamin L. Lake; Frank Mason; C. W. Roberts; James W. Teague; John O. Kinsman; John H. Wentworth; Oliver Trefethen; Frank H. Blaisdell; Marcellus Stavers; W. W. Black; John G. Rand; Dennis H. Trefethen, Rye; James T. Collins; John Ford; James E. Stacy; Oliver C. Stacy; Sylvester Ham; Chas. W. Norton; Amos Clark; Hanson Hoyt; James Ayers; Pierpoint Hammond; Cornelius Lynch: Joseph Ackerman; Havillah Downing; Chas. Johnson; Albert B. Marden.

☞ Mr. Goodall, counsel for the plaintiff in the case of Hodgdon v. Shannon, complains of the report we published of that case, as defective and incorrect. He supplied the deficiency in the Journal, where it appears that the plaintiff never knew, until after this suit was commenced, that Elizabeth Sherburne claimed any interest in the farm; and that John N. Sherburne, from 1821 to 1852, had occupied and carried on the whole of said farm, and had leased it in his own name to Pickering, Dearborn and Pike, as tenants; that he had given all receipts and settled all accounts in regard to said farm in his own name. Dearborn and Pike testified that they never knew that any one else but John N. Sherburne had anything to do with said farm. Dearborn testified that Sherburne told him in 1840, that he owned the whole of said farm. It appears from Sherburne's given receipts to the plaintiff and other evidence, that the plaintiff's claim was for buildings and repairs done on this farm, and that J. N. S. gave his own note, and did not inform the plaintiff that Elizabeth J. had anything to do with it. After 1852, the defendant stated to Calvin S. Hodgdon that he held in trust for Mrs. Sherburne's grand-children.

S. J. COURT—PORTSMOUTH, Saturday.—In the case of the State vs. Nutter and Grant, the sealed verdict Not Guilty, was agreed upon last night, and brought in this morning. This decision is, in substance, that the slaughter houses complained of, are not nuisances. The Auburn street case only is yet examined—the South road nuisance comes next.

Some proceedings were had by the Court, on an old civil action, Tappan vs. Lowd,—without any decision announced,—and at half past 12 the Court adjourned to Monday morning, at half past 10 o'clock.

☞ If a slaughter-house which emits an odor so strong that you can see, hear, feel and taste it, as well as smell it, any where within half a mile—and can't help appreciating it in all these ways if you are possessed of "the seven senses"—if such a place isn't a "nuisance," actually and legally, we should like to know what is?

☞ The Kittery Wide Awakes are to have a torchlight procession, this evening, and the Wide Awakes of this city have accepted an invitation to participate. Members of the latter company are requested to meet at Rechabite Hall at 6 1-2 o'clock.

☞ In the great Wide-Awake procession at Concord, the Portsmouth delegation being the largest, and well drilled, was given the right. They numbered upwards of 100; and returned soon after midnight of Friday, and marched to their headquarters. The music of the Portsmouth Band sounded finely on the still night air, and answered all the purposes of a serenade. The mud was plenty enough in Concord to satisfy the most inveterate "Free Soiler."

☞ A rare opportunity to purchase one of the most beautiful, convenient, and in every way desirable residences in the city, is advertised this morning. It is located on one of the principal streets, and is one of the most inviting and home-like estates in the city.

PORTSMOUTH, Oct. 26th.

Messrs. Editors:—Will you please insert the following communication. Your paper of the 25th, commented rather severely on B. D. Watson, as to the company he had kept, &c. Now I wish to ask if it is not sufficient that the party has been convicted? or must he and his family suffer from the vile attacks of every cur who chooses to take a pen in hand, and who has not sufficient nerve to avow himself the author of his scandalous communications? Convicted, too, on a charge of stealing, when it is well known to many parties that he was trusted with the money to procure something for the prosecutor—but which evidence was not brought forward, owing to the unavoidable absence of the chief witness;* failing in which, the evidence adduced was done in a spirit of revenge, and not justice. As all are well aware, no man is so susceptible of injury, as the man intent upon injuring others: the schemer becomes outrageous at finding himself outwitted, and seeks revenge much quicker than the honest man,—who, by-the-by, very rarely gets beat.†

I make this statement not altogether in defence of the party now in jail, but to request the public to suspend their opinion until the facts are ascertained on both sides, (when it is possible that one now regarded as a dupe might be thought an accomplice,) and not censure one party quite so hard, because his character is set forth so elaborately by one of a class that exist in every community, who having no business of their own to attend to, very naturally devote their talents and energy to attending to the affairs of others, and would rather speak ill of any person than confess that they ignored them altogether.

Truly yours, GEORGE W. LORD.

*This "chief witness" is doubtless Watson's brother, who is accused of being an accomplice with him.

†Ah! indeed!—Ed. Chron.

SOME OF THE VETERANS.—Mr. Anthony F. Nowell, a few days since completed the fortieth year since he entered Market Street as a clerk. He is no doubt the oldest standard there; but is active, yet and as ready and willing as ever to wait upon customers—being now at the elegant store of Jones & Mendum.

Mr. John Harrat, we also chanced to learn, has just rounded up his first quarter of a century of occupancy of his grocery store in State street. His neighbor across the way, Col. Leonard Akerman, is a still older landmark.

ANOTHER PRESENT FROM THE PRINCE. We learn that Albert Edward presented an elegant token to Mr. Alexander H. Rowe, transportation master on the Portland, Saco and Portsmouth Railroad, who conducted his train from Portsmouth to Portland. The Prince entered the car in which Mr. Rowe was sitting, and was observed to hold an animated conversation with him upon the subject of railroading, learning many interesting facts. The depot of that road in Portland was handsomely decorated on the occasion.

FUEL-SAVING AND COMFORT-PRODUCING, LARGE OVEN, SUMMER AND WINTER

AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE,

FOR WOOD & ANTHRACITE OR BITUMINOUS COAL

Improved in 1859 with New and Extra Large Flues, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue.

Attention is invited to the following Points of Superiority:

DURABILITY.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

CAPACITY.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

ECONOMY.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

VENTILATION OF OVEN.—In the Stewart Stove alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (protected by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

ENTIRE CONTROL OF HEAT.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

THE DOUBLE SHEET BOTTOM FLUE.—By which a compressing and hurrying action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

BROILING.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

HOT WATER RESERVOIR AND WARMING CLOSET.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

WATER BACK.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of P. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

The Great English Remedy!

Sir Jas Clarke's celebrated Female Pills

Prepared from a Prescription of

SIR J. CLARKE, M.D.

Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

This well known medicine is no imposition, but a sure and safe remedy for Female Difficulties and Obstructions, from any cause whatever; and although a powerful remedy, it contains nothing hurtful to the Constitution.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Headache, Whites, and all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed.

These Pills have never been known to fail where the directions on the Second page of Pamphlet are well observed.

To married Ladies it is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

For full particulars, get a pamphlet, free, of any agent.

N. B.—$1 and six postage stamps enclosed to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills, by return mail.

☞ John B. Gough is said to receive $250 for each lecture he has given since his return. He has already acquired a property valued at upwards of $30,000, which he is likely to double in a few years.

Weight Of Individuals.—The average weight of men in Boston is about 147 pounds. In Portland it is about 153. It will be found still greater in the eastern part of Maine. The mean weight of the Dutch at Brussells is 140. In Paris it is 136; and at Cambridge, in England, taking persons between 18 and 28 years old, it was found to be 150. Later in life that would be increased, indicating that Englishmen excel in gross weight.

☞ Thomas Richards, an old and esteemed merchant of Philadelphia, died suddenly on Thursday morning last, at the moment when his friends were about celebrating his golden wedding, and the marriage of his daughter. He was in his 81st year, and quite infirm, and was somewhat excited in anticipation of the day's festivities.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globules, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance, which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulphur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific in all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through excess, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say this in all cases of Nervous and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as preeminent over all other preparations, patent or official, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures, will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canada upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $5 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-simile signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

Humphreys' Specific Homeopathic Remedies for the People

These Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and inspection of Prof. HUMPHREY, in order to meet that great and long realized want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight diarrhea, a pain in the side, or a headache, or hoarseness, at first easily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, Croup or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being so simple, so pure and harmless as none what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and hence occasioning no risk, while the curative effects are positive and certain, they are instantly at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies in families and private persons, as the THE BEST IN USE, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PROMPT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands are and have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, with almost invariable success. All speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and efficacy, and some our hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

ANTI-RHEUMATIC CORDIAL,

A PREPARATION FOR THE CURE OF

INFLAMMATORY AND CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC GOUT, NEURALGIC RHEUMATISM, SCIATICA, AND LUMBAGO.

Hundreds of testimonials to the good resulting from the use of this Cordial could be offered—but the following will suffice:

Portsmouth, N. H., Sept. 6, 1860.

I hereby certify that I have used a variety of preparations for the cure of Rheumatism, but have found none of them whose effect was so immediate and lasting as Zollickoffer's Anti-Rheumatic Cordial, and would advise all afflicted with that painful disease to give it a fair trial.

—AND—

is precisely what its name indicates, for, while it tends to the table, it is revivifying, invigorating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and at the time restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all, that is, perfectly safe and skillfully compounded as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence invigorate the stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also a wonderful medical agent in its effects, and is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is continually liable, such as, for example, the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Paintness, Nervous Irritability, Palpitation of the Heart, Hypochondria, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Lassitude, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so painfully familiar to thinking people, and lay the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is continually liable, such as, for example, the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Paintness, Nervous Irritability, Palpitation of the Heart, Hypochondria, Melancholy, Night Sweats, Lassitude, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so painfully familiar to thinking people, and lay the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is continually liable, Scalding or Incontinency of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, Premature Old Age, High Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will cure only the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already upon you. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent those deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a bottle upon arrival at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for it will infallibly prevent costiveness, and health and beauty cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Nothing Relief. Taken a mouth or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, by pointing you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

O. J. Wood, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Dr. Mott's

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE

PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Numerous in all manuals in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, INFLAMMATION, CONSUMPTION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, the effects of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids who have long been as lost have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if starting from a protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS DEBILITY, of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old one, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent fevers, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medical iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases particularly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Dose.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.

One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.

One dose will cure Heartburn.

Three doses will cure Indigestion.

One dose will give a good appetite.

One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much fore night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the Invigorating Spirit in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

GIVES IT UP.—The New York Herald of Friday concludes a long leader with the following paragraph:

Common justice to all concerned demands that this idea that "something may turn up" to reelem New York should be abandoned. New York will vote for Lincoln, and by a larger majority, we dare say, than any other State. Lincoln will be elected. There is no use in mincing the matter any longer. We are called upon to look this thing full in the face. The best that our Union forces can now do is to save all the odds and ends of the election within their reach, such as Congressmen, Assemblymen and county officers. Lincoln will be elected, and all parties concerned may as well just now shape their course to that event as to wait till the day after election.

☞ The Ladies' Washington National Monument Society are now engaged in sending out circulars in the way of appeal to the judges of elections, to editors, and the whole people of the United States, to aid them in the collection of funds to complete the monument, the contributions to be made at the polls on the day of the Presidential election.

☞ The United States Vice Consul, at Copenhagen, Denmark, furnishes the gratifying intelligence, that an official package from Dr. Hayes, commander of the Arctic Expedition, has been received by one of the Royal Greenland Company's vessels from Upernavik.

☞ Col. Washington has written a letter of thanks to Mr. Thaddeus Hyatt for using his influence so successfully in securing the return of the pistol which was presented by Lafayette to Washington, and which was carried off by some of the John Brown marauders.

DOES ADVERTISING PAY?—We notice that Messrs. Allen & Paine, now of Boston, keep on in their old habit of wholesale advertising. Among others, the Boston Journal has a full column from them, and the editor speaks in the highest terms of their enterprise, taste and skill.

E. F. Greenough, of Salisbury, who has been engaged in mercantile business in that town for many years past, has recently absconded, leaving many creditors and a large amount of indebtedness among the residents of the region. The larger portion of these debts was created but a little time before his departure, being notes given for purchases of wool, which commodity it is supposed was sold to manufacturers, and the proceeds constituted the funds which induced so sudden a leave-taking. He had sustained a high character for probity and honorable conduct. Nothing definite is now known as to his whereabouts. He left a family.—Statesman.

The excitement in Portland to see the Prince was mild compared to that in Boston. The people stared as him intently enough, but scarcely cheered at all. There is a feeling in the city that they have been "done" by the English; they have not recovered from their disapointment about the Great Eastern, and many were indignant that the Prince received any attention whatever.—Boston Courier.

The County of Merrimack, availing itself of a law of the present Legislature, is funding its floating debt, and makes $1000 by the operation. That is, the purchasers of its present issue of bonds, some $30,000 pay premiums amonting to about $1000. We think of "funding" our floating debt, and see what can be saved by the operation. Statesman.

Every person upon the Douglas Electoral Ticket in this State has an initial letter in his name, and every persou upon the Republican Electoral Ticket has none: the remark applying to candidates for President and Vice-President as well as Electors. Such a circumstance is of the rarest kind. Statesman.

Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.
The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.
Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

New Photographic Establishment.
Having fitted and furnished in modern style, large, pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with Sun Pictures of every description, from the smallest Miniature to life-size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., copied any size desired.
The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype days to the present time, keeping pace with every useful improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.
All work from this establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place, where first-class work is performed.
Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1860.

TIRED OF POLITICS.—The Boston Post of Monday has this article as editorial:

We shall be as glad as any of our readers when the sixth of November is past and we can print something more interesting than reports of political meetings.—These frequent elections are enough to weary the patience of Job—torchlight processions, long resolutions innumerable speeches, chairmen, secretaries, committees, reports, nominations, fusions, rangling, bets and brags are the order of the day and night too. But as soon as the present excitement has ended, how astonishingly some specimens of pompous humanity will shrink! The caucus spouter who has repeated his inane sentences, until they are familiar to his auditors as the signs over their doors, will sink to a level with his fellows, and his sonorous voice fall to the gentle cadence of ordinary business colloquies. Alas, for human greatness, how fleeting! The glorious pomp and circumstance of a political canvass are soon to be in the deep bosom of the ballot box buried, and rum and fusion will be quiet until another election day.

Very curiously indeed, the very next article, following the above, is an abstract and extracts of Hon. Caleb Cushing's speech at Bangor!

SUBLIME OR RIDICULOUS?—One of the pungent writers of that most pungent of all papers, the New York Saturday Press, thus speaks of the services at Trinity Church, on the occasion of the attendance of the Prince of Wales—which performances, as reported, do seem almost sacrilegious. Under the head of "Dramatic," the reporter says:

And, now, for the principal dramatic performance of the week,—a Matinee that came off on the 14th instant, in Trinity church, which, for the first (and, let us hope, for the last) time was converted into a theatre. I hardly know how to speak of it, for I was not there. The tickets were disposed of in advance, and were all taken up by the cream of the cream. The performances were opened with prayer.

The chief performers were the Sexton, four bishops, Dr. Guilmette, organist, thirty-six clergymen, forty policemen, and a large company of supernumaries, including church-wardens, choristers, vestrymen, and general hangers-on.

Scene: Before Jehovah's awful throne.

Time: Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity

Motive: The Reception of the Prince of Wales.

Plot: None in particular, the piece being an incoherent Travesty.

I am told that the performance was, throughout, an effective one,—the bishops, clergymen, choristers, sexton, bell-ringer, and even the policemen, acting with great spirit. The excitement was so great, that several young women were seriously affected, and one was carried out in a swoon.

The Prince and his suite thought the affair savoured a little of sacrilege, but considering all the circumstances (who was who, etc..) they deemed it best not to interfere, and accordingly the travesty was played all through, and the Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity was made forever memorable in the annals of the drama,

On the fourteenth of this month, the nineteeth Sunday after trinity, while "four Bishops and thirty-six clergymen, all in surplices" and assisted by the "seventeen men and boys of the choir, dressed also in surplices, these last being new," were conducting the religious services before the Prince, in Trinity Church, to which no one was admitted without a ticket, Mr. Faulkner and his assistant Mr. Roe, who were preaching in the open air, near the fountain in the park, to a crowd of some four hundred persons, upon the question of temperance, were arrested on the charge of preaching without a license, and held to bail in the sums, respectively, of $300 and $200.—N. Y. Sat. Press.

WE HAVE FOUND OUT HIS POLITICS. The other day a woman from Gloucester—a smart, full, dashing woman—was before the Court in Lawrence, charged with polygamy. Judge Putnam wanted to impress upon the jury in his charge, that they must be fully convinced that the man with whom she had previously lived was her husband, in order to sustain the indictment; so he said:—

"Gentlemen of the Jury, the first thing for you to consider is this: was this defendant ever married to Abraham Lincoln, for if she was legally the wife of Abraham Lincoln, and the said Abraham Lincoln being still alive, she married again," &c.

The court room was convulsed with laughter, as he went on associating the honored name of the Republican candidate for the Presidency. with a woman of ill repute.

☞ Ship Cerro Gordo, from New Orleans for Cork, went ashore on Loggerhead Shoal, Tortugas, 3d inst., and bilged on the 15th. Her cargo consisted of 1900 bales cotton, a third of which will be saved in a dry condition, and the remainder more or less damaged.

☞ The Prince of Wales purchased many of the political caricatures that have been issued in this Presidential campaign. Few Englishmen, we suspect, can understand their humor, and some of them have none to be understood.

Patrick Maloney, what do you say to the indictment—are you guilty or not guilty? "Arrah! musha, yer worship, how can I tell till I hear the evidence?"

THE PRINCE OF WALES' HASTY DEPARTURE.—In order to save the Prince's term at Oxford, it is necessary that he should reach home by the 4th proximo; so that the utmost expedition will be used by the fleet to reach the English landing-port, if possible, within twelve days of the time of sailing. This will save a suspension of the college laws in favor of His Royal Highness, and justify the strict order by which royal movements are regulated in England.

THE PRINCE OF WALES is neither dull nor stupid, but a youth of the noblest disposition and splendid education. Like his mother, he appeared ricketty and delicate in youth. He carries his head a little on one side now. He speaks French, German, Italian and Spanish, with fluency, besides being a good Greek and Latin scholar. He is well acquainted with law and the fine arts, a good soldier theoretically, and a good horseman. He dances enormously, like most of the English youths of the day. His form is not commanding.—He is no taller than many of the ladies who surround him, and his gait is not precisely graceful or vigorous. Thus far we discern little to enthusiastically prepossess. Simply a singularly quiet, rather diffident young gentleman, without any very marked elements of manly beauty to command attention, and in short, presenting his profusion of lofty titles as his only claim to eminent consideration.—Exchange.

THE BRIDGE.—The proposition of the Eastern Railroad Co. to the Newburyport Bridge corporation, was to make the structure two feet narrower than at present.—An iron bridge two feet narrower would still give more space for carriages than now, but the Bridge company refused. As the Bridge stock is selling at less than its value, paying eight per cent. per annum, and as the Railroad is obliged to keep the whole structure in repair, except the floor of the Bridge track, the Railroad has interest enough to purchase, and then do as they please with it.

AMERICANS IN PARIS.—"Malakoff," writes in his last letter to the New York Times:—"At last Sunday's race at the Bois de Bologne, a young American who was present on horseback, Mr. Mayo, of Richmond, Va., had the two bones of his leg broken and splintered by a fall of his horse. Mr. Mayo, who is the nephew of Mrs. Gen. Winfield Scott, had taken passage with Mrs. Scott for the next trip of the Adriatic from Havre to New York, but this accident will of course prevent the voyage so far as regards Mr. Mayo. Mrs. Scott will go home under the protection of Col. Lay, of the United States army, who has just finished a European tour. Mrs. Scott, whose health is better in the climate of France, has lived in Paris many years, and has not made a visit home since 1850. Mrs. Commodore Stewart has also resided permanently in Paris for a great many years."

PREDICTED EVENTS.—The Paris correspondent of the London Post says:

We must now expect two events—the flight of the Pope from Rome and the retirement of Francis II from Gaeta. It is impossible, after what has taken place, for Pius IX to remain in the eternal city. He has, by the advice of Antonelli, sought to burn, pillage and destroy the property and persons of the people of his States. He has failed. His army of hirelings is beaten. His criminal intentions have been prevented by heaven. Pius IX must go.

ACCIDENT FROM A SINGULAR CAUSE.—As Mr. John Tappan, one of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens, was walking along Milk street Boston, Sunday afternoon, in endeavoring to pass a lady, one of his feet became entangled in the bars or wires of her hoop skirt, causing him to fall to the sidewalk, by which one of his arms was broken. Recently one of the reporters of this paper measured his extended length on the sidewalk in Court street, from a similar cause. The men—or else the women—ought to guard against these accidents. The next accident may be to a man's neck. Who knows?—Atlas.

A JOKE AT THE BAR.—The Circuit Court has been engaged for two or three days on assault and battery case, which contains no very interesting points for the judical mind. Yesterday afternoon the Assistant District Attorney who appears for the Government, asked Judge Clifford how long he proposed to sit, as the shades of evening were gathering, and the Attorney's dinner hour was past. "I shall sit pretty late," said the Judge; "the hearing of this case is not all the business of life."

"No, your honor," said the Attorney, "but if you sit much longer I am afraid it will be all the business of my life." (Applause.)

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 27.—The contract was made here for iron for the entire length of the Lexington & St. Louis Railroad, from Farmers' City to Lexington, a distance of sixty miles. The road connects at the former place with the Pacific Road, and is to be completed in twelve months.—The contract involves a quarter of a million. The rails are to be of Missouri iron.

CHINA.—[Via St. Petersburg.]—Six thousand of the Pekin militia had been sent to act against the English, but the Pekinese generally were favorable to them.

The Chinese insurrection continued to extend.

FROM NEW MEXICO.—St. Louis, Oct. 26.—Judge Ketherly, who introduced a bill into the last Legislature of New Mexico, for the repeal of slavery, has been re-elected without opposition.

THE PANIC.—The New York Herald mentions a report that the political and financial operators, who have got up the panic in New York, propose to postpone it until after November 6th.

ITALIAN NEWS.

The arrival of the Asia from Queenstown, Oct. 14, gives some interesting items from Italy.

The Garibaldians have taken the south bastion at Capua, the Royalists were retiring towards Gaeta.

Victor Emanuel has set out for Naples, had issued a manifesto to southern Italy.

The Sardinians, under Victor Emanuel in person, would enter the Neapolitan territory at three different points on the 9th.

The Austrians were reinforcing Istria and Dalmatia.

The Pope remained at Rome.

The French occupy Viterbo, Velletri, Civita Vecchia, Castelanovo, Tivoli, Palestrina, Frascati, Albano and Valmontone.

The programme of a future Congress on Italian affairs will be examined at Warsaw and then submitted to the English and French Governors for approval.

The Pope's official journal has published an article claiming Peter's pence from all the faithful, but declares that the Pope will accept no subsidy from any secular power.

The semi-official Constitutionnel has an article complaining of Sardinia, and pointing to a Congress as the means of setting matters right.

The Paris Bourse was animated, and rentes had advanced to 69f. 15c.

The cannonading of Capua commenced on the 9th, and the Garibaldians gained fresh positions. Hostilities were suspended for 24 hours to bury the dead, and recommenced on the 10th, and continued the 11th.

It is reported that Garibaldi was wounded at the battle of Volturno.

A decree had been issued for a vote on the 21st inst., by universal suffrage as to the Union of Italy under Vicctor Emanuel.

The Sardinian Chamber of Deputies had adopted an order of the day, rendering homage to Garibaldi. It also approved the project of a law for annexation by a vote of 290 to 6.

Previous to the taking of a vote Count Cavour made a speech defining his policy. He urged union, and said he desired Rome to be the capital of Italy, and uttered a menace against Venitia.

It is denied that Russia and Prussia had sent a protest to Turin identical with that of Austria.

Victor Emanuel had arrived at Grottamore.

The lights on the Austrian coast in the Adriatic had been reestablished.

The Presse says that all the great powers, except England, have notified the Cabinet of Turin that they shall not recognize the blockade Gaeta.

The Patrie states that Victor Emanuel will enter Naples on the 17th.

☞ The Queen of England was expected to arrive in London from the Continent, Tuesday, October 16.

Late advices from the west coast of Africa say that the steamer City of Norfolk got away with 1300 slaves.

The missing African mail steamer Cleopatra was returning to England under canvas, her machinery having been broken.

☞ Ship Oliver Putnam foundered at sea July 26th. Capt. Ammi Smith, Joseph Ellis, second mate, Thomas Prout, steward, Robert Bell, cook, and four seamen, were picked up by ship Indiaman, now on her way to Boston. The captain reports that owing to continuous heavy gales, she sprung aleak; the pumps became choked, and they were compelled to abandon the ship.—While getting ready to disembark, one boat missed rope from the ship, which boat has arrived at Mawnta. Another boat was stove; and a small boat, with Thomas Briggs, chief mate, and John Mack, Frank Libby, James Smith, Charles Heenan and John Pedro, of the crew, are yet to be heard from. The Oliver Putnam was owned and insured in Boston.

"THE WIDE WORLD" is the title of a new, large and handsome Weekly paper, just started in Boston, by J. H. Brigham & Co. It is much after the style of the popular True Flag; and as there seems to be no end to the making of many papers, and good ones too, there is no doubt but that this will succeed, as it well deserves.—Mr. Ichabod N. Fernald, of this city, (always called "John," however,—neither he nor we can tell why,) is one of the publishers. The Wide World may be had at the periodical stores, or of the publishers.

FATAL RESULT.—Jos ephine Ada Meads about eight years of age, daughter of John B. Meads, living on Fifth street, South Boston, died of congestion of the brain, on Thursday, caused by a wound on the head by a fall while at school.

NEW YORK, Oct.29.—A Washington dispatch says Gov. Letcher of Va. reports that four batteries will be at Richmond this week, and that nineteen companies of cavalry are reported to him as being organized.

Have they seen the ghost of John Brown? or what?

FOUR GOVERNORS ALL IN A ROW.—Gov. Banks of Massachusetts, Gov. Goodwin of New Hampshire, Hon. Israel Washburn, Jr., Governor elect of Maine, and Col. Curtin, Governor elect of Pennsylvania, all met at the Revere House in Boston, on Thursday evening. More singular still, the meeting was purely accidental.—Newburyport Herald.

REVIVAL IN WALTHAM.—The Baptists in Waltham are getting up a revival. It has been running three weeks. Rev. Mr. Earle, a sensation preacher, is at the bottom of it. The regular pastor of the church is said to look with distrustful eye on the movement.—Atlas.

oct20 FRANK JONES.

KINGSTON, March 10, 1841.—"This may certify that my son has had a humor which made its appearance when he was but a few days old; and it grew worse, causing large swellings and running sores. He has been cured by the use of Dr. Swett's Panacea and Humor Wash."

T. CURRIER.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and others of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Bronchitis.—This sure forerunner of Consumption can be instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. J. Rose's Olive Tar and Iron & Sulphur Powders. The Olive Tar allays pain and heals soreness and inflammation, and the Iron & Sulphur Powders convert the waste or worn out particles of the blood into gases, which are ejected from the body by the pores instead of being deposited as Phlegm. The testimonials of many prominent and well-known persons are contained in a pamphlet, which will be sent free by mail to any address. See advertisement in this paper.

SLEEPLESS, CRYING, TEETHING CHILDREN

All know how unpleasant are these accompaniments of babyhood, and most intelligent persons know, also, the sad consequences to health, and often life, from the use of anodynes, cordials, and similar baby drugs used to quiet them. HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC HOMEOPATHIC BABY'S PILLS, (a pleasant sugar pill,) which you may drop into the mouth at any time, give you everything to be desired from medicine. They calm excitement, allay the irritation of teething, relieve colic and bowel complaints, and procure natural and quiet rest, without the disadvantages of cordials or opiates. They have been used for many years, and are approved by all who use them or advise dosing. Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes $1.

Sent by mail or express, free of charge, on receipt of the price.

Address, DR F. HUMPHREYS & CO.,
632 Broadway, New York.

Sold in Portsmouth by THACHER.
See advertisement in another column.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

PORTSMOUTH, Aug. 8, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & Co., Boston.—

Gents:—Please send me by express two dozen OXYGENATED BITTERS. With us there is an increasing demand for this excellent specific for Dyspepsia and its attendant evils, and we know of no remedy more fully entitled to the confidence of the public. This much we say, disclaiming any intention of puffing the article, as its own merits are a sufficient guarantee of all that it purports to be. Very respectfully yours,

WANTON MISCHIEF.—Under cover of night, some misguided rioters, probably great boys or idle and dissolute young men, have recently broken some windows of an unoccupied house (known as the Stiles house) on High street; and of the large old house north corner Deer and Market street, formerly the residence of Governor Vaughan.

Last Friday evening, a considerable crowd gathered near the latter place, and threw missiles at the remaining glass in the windows, but they were dispersed by the City Marshal and his assistants.

On Saturday evening, a much larger crowd gathered there at an early hour, remained till toward midnight, and were very noisy and troublesome, in spite of the efforts of the police. The Marshal estimates the number at five or six hundred and could see no object in their assemblage, except the unlawful one to destroy the house.

The building is old; and the owner, who does not live in the city, wishes to sell the house and land: but it is now occupied only by one Irish family, against whom the mob could have no grudge, but must, it would seem, desire to do a piece of foolish, gratuitous, wanton mischief.

It must also have been a premeditated assemblage, as the marshal informs us every section of the city was represented.—It was also bent on riot and mischief; and was suppressed with great difficulty by the marshal and the small police force. A Justice of the Peace was called, who read the Riot Act, while one officer went for the Mayor, to his residence. The Mayor was on the spot at half past 10, when the crowd had much diminished; and his presence aided materially in the restoration of quiet.

FROM PRISON, AGAIN.—Messrs. Editors Chronicle:—I have read in your paper of the 26th, the communication of 'Bob Short,' and also that of 'Rep.' In reply to the former, I will inform him that owing to the kind treatment of Sheriff Adams and my friends, I have not suffered so much as he would like to have me. As to his remark about quibbles, I do not think he is very well posted in law;—rather short,—I think. However, I will allow him to know it all.

In replying to Rep., I will say I have kept company with some pretty high-toned birds, in my time. As for my wincing or fluttering, that is news to me. In regard to that "tree and its fruits," I must tell him that I came from very good stock. Rep. asks if I am such and such a man, and then brings up Albert J. Tirrell's and Charles D. Cater's names. I don't know as their affairs have anything to do with mine. As for Tirrell, he was tried and acquitted, and is now in business at Weymouth, Mass., respected by all his townspeople. As for Cater, I knew nothing about his affairs; nor did I associate with, or recognize him after he left this city, as I had good reason not to. In regard to Mr. Hilton losing any money in the manner he has stated—I pronounce false. I am asked if we paid Hilton any money? If I know myself, I have not, nor shall I. As for the public opinion, I have nothing to say, but would ask them to suspend their opinion for a short time.—Should any one want to find out my affairs in the meantime, they will please call on my counsel. B. D. WATSON.

Portsmouth, Oct. 27.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

To my Democratic Friend,—Sir:—As you have so kindly offered to a person who is abundantly able to pay his own legal fees, the use of your money, if he would commence a prosecution against me, for trying to fulfill the duties assigned me by the authorities, on the day of H. R. H. passing through this place—I will say to you, my friend, that I am ready to meet any person whom you may find, at any Court of justice in this County, or elsewhere.—So, my friend, pitch in.

But should you not find any person who will accept your very liberal and patriotic offer, perhaps you had better offer your spare change to some of those persons who were ashamed of their conduct on that day, and went directly from the ground and engaged legal counsel to defend them in case they should have a warrant served on them for making and abetting in a brawl and tumult in the public highway. Some of them may need it, while one or more of them have abundant means of their own—but which, I regret to say, has not made gentlemen of them. B. NORTON,

Portsmouth, Oct. 29. City Marshal.

S. J. COURT—PORTSMOUTH, Monday. The forenoon was devoted to calling the docket.

In the afternoon, the case A. K. Warren v. Stephen Scammon, was commenced.—This suit is for $200, the alleged value of a colt belonging to plaintiff, which died, as he alleges, from the unskillfulness of a surgical operation by the defendant, and by his neglect. The jury is composed as follows:

Zenas Clement, Portsmouth; Joseph C. Tilton, Sandown; William H. Noyes, Windham; Ebenezer M. Leavitt, Auburn; Wm. Kimball, Brentwood; Geo. W. Wilcomb, Charles Chase, Chester; Nathan B. Tilton, East Kingston; Thos. Marston, Thos. M. Norton, Greenland; John Brown, Raymond; Moses N. Sanborn, Fremont.

THE TORCH-LIGHT PROCESSION Of the Republicans of Portsmouth and vicinity will take place on Wednesday evening, October 31, and will consist of a cavalcade, companies of Wide Awakes, and Republicans not in uniform.

Invitations have been sent abroad, and delegations may be expected.

The Cornet Band will furnish music.

All persons desirous of joining the cavalcade will meet in Pleasant street near the Universalist Church at 6 1-2 o'clock.

Wide Awakes and citizens will form on Market Square at 7 o'clock.

The Procession will move at half past 7 o'clock, through the following streets:—From Market Square, through High, Deer, Elm, North, Prospect, Dennett, North, Elm, Vaughan, Congress, Islington, Cabot, Austin, Summer, Middle, Court, Pleasant, Water, State and Middle streets, to Congress street, where it will be dissolved.

Citizens living along the route or elsewhere, are respectfully invited to illuminate their houses and stores.

C. C. JACKSON, Chief Marshal.

THE TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION.—We publish the route of the procession on Wednesday evening, and at the request of numerous Republicans, express the hope that the decorations and illuminations on the occasion will be creditable in numbers and variety. So universal was the illumination of private residences on Friday evening last, at Concord, that Col. Curtin of Philadelphia was led to inquire where the Democrats lived. The expense of a cheerful light in each window, or a dozen or two of Chinese lanterns outside the walls, is too trifling to mention, when we consider that every additional light seems as a welcome to "Wide-Awakes' from abroad and an encouragement to our own. Let, then, the illuminations be general and attractive. *

SHIP LAUNCH.—The fine ship called the "Santee," owned by J. M. Tredick, Esq., of this city, will be launched from the yard of Messrs. Tobey & Littlefield, on Noble's Island, this day, (Tuesday,) at or soon after half past twelve o'clock.

☞ Mr. A. F. Nowell requests us to say that he is not such an old fellow as we took him to be; but that Col. Stephen H. Simes is the veteran of Market street, having begun there forty-five years ago.

☞ We are very much obliged to our thoughtful Greenland friends, for that barrel of apples—and shall wish the donors a pleasant Thanksgiving, Merry Christmas and Happy New Year—to enjoy all which, their "sweet courtesy" will materially assist us.

NOTICE—TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

All persons who may now pay $4 for the Daily Chronicle, or $1 for the Weekly Chronicle, for the year 1861,—will be furnished with the paper without charge, from this time to Jan. 1. tf

JOB AND CARD PRINTING of all sorts is promptly done at the Chronicle Office.

THE ORIGINAL P. P. STEWART,

FUEL-SAVING AND COMFORT-PRODUCING, LARGE OVEN, SUMMER AND WINTER

AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE,

FOR WOOD & ANTHRACITE OR BITUMINOUS COAL

Improved in 1859 with New and Extra Large Flues, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue.

Attention is invited to the following Points of Superiority:

DURABILITY.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

CAPACITY.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

ECONOMY.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

VENTILATION OF OVEN.—In the Stewart Stove alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (protected by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that, as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

ENTIRE CONTROL OF HEAT.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

THE DOUBLE SHEET BOTTOM FLUE.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

BROILING.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

HOT WATER RESERVOIR AND WARMING CLOSET.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

WATER BACK.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of P. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

RELIEF IN TEN MINUTES!

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

The most certain and speedy remedy ever discovered for all Diseases of the

CHEST AND LUNGS, COUGHS, COLDS
Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis,
Influenza, Hoarseness,
Difficult Breathing, Sore Throat, &c., &c.

These Wafers give the most instantaneous and perfect relief, and when persevered with according to directions, never fail to effect a rapid and lasting cure. Thousands have been restored to perfect health who have tried other means in vain. To all classes and all constitutions they are a blessing and a cure—none need despair, no matter how long the disease may have existed, or however severe it may be, provided the organic structure of the vital organs is not hopelessly decayed. Every one afflicted should give them an impartial trial.

TO VOCALISTS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS these Wafers are peculiarly valuable; they will ONE DAY remove the most severe occasions hoarseness; and their regular use for a few days will, at all times, increase the power and flexibility of the voice, greatly improving its tone, compass and clearness, for which purpose they are regularly used by many professional vocalists.

The Great English Remedy!

Sir Jas Clarke's celebrated Female Pills

Prepared from a Prescription of

SIR J. CLARKE, M. D.,
Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

This well known medicine is no imposition, but a sure and safe remedy for Female Difficulties and Obstructions, from any cause whatever; and although a powerful remedy, it contains nothing hurtful to the Constitution.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections Pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Headache, Whites, and all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed.

These Pills have never been known to fail where the directions on the Second page of Pamphlet are well observed.

To married Ladies it is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

For full particulars, get a pamphlet, free, of any agent.

N. B.—$1 and six postage stamps enclosed to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle, containing over 50 pills, by return mail.

Morning Chronicle.

The Manchester American says: We regret to hear that the County Institutes in this part of the State are thinly attended this fall. The system ought either to be well sustained or abandoned.

The practice and principle of insurance is of great antiquity, and was well known in the time of Claudius Cæsar, A D 43.—It is certain that assurance of ships at sea was practiced as early as the year 45 A D.

It matters not from what stock we are descended, so long as we have virtue; for that alone is true nobility.

There is one thing that the most unobservant person manages to see—that which we do not wish him to see.

A head properly constituted, can accommodate itself to whatever pillows the vicissitudes of fortune may place under it.

Why will Stephen A. Douglas after election have a royal title?

Because he will be the Prince of Walts.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rich glow of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulphur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific to all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In the class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through overtasks, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, prepared or claimed, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures, will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $5 for six bottles. Be careful in all orders to take none but that having our fac-similie signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specific Remedies for the People

The Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and inspection of Prof. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet that great and long realized want of the public, a reliable family medicine, at a price common and simple ailments of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight diarrhœa, a pain in the side, or a headache, or hoarseness, at first easily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, Croup or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies simply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so you know at once what to take—plaindrugs, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and hence occasioning no risk, while the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the cause is broken and the disease subdued.

Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies for families and private persons, as being free from all danger, intricacy and inconvenience, BEING ALWAYS PROMPT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands are and have been using them for some time, in every part of the country, with almost invariable success. All speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and among our hundreds of testimonials, the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

ZOLLICKOFFER'S
ANTI-RHEUMATIC CORDIAL,

A PREPARATION FOR THE CURE OF INFLAMMATORY AND CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC GOUT, NEURALGIC RHEUMATISM, SCIATICA, AND LUMBAGO.

Hundreds of testimonials to the good resulting from the use of this Cordial could be offered—but the following will suffice:

Portsmouth, N. H., Sept. 6, 1860.

I hereby certify that I have used a variety of preparations for the cure of Rheumatism, but have found none of them whose effect was so immediate and lasting as Zollickoffer's Anti-Rheumatic Cordial, and would advise all afflicted with that painful disease to give it a fair trial.

BLOOD RENOVATOR,

is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It is the most powerful and tone-up like agent in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully compounded as to be a powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe this weakest in every form, and tone up the debilitated, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by any reaction or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the system open to the ravages of the many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Nightmare, Lassitude, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses. Also, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Habitual Costiveness, Scanty Secretion, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will speedily cure the debility, ending Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, giving the liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any disease arising from following the change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a teaspoonful at least before retiring. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and military men. And all ladies not untomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist where these irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, it will pass the ordeal of fearful with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it!—And to you we appeal to stay the hand of death in behalf of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go on from bad to worse, rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business and pleasure, that they hurry on towards travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always watchful, and will be constantly urging for we are sure your never-failing affection will unceasingly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

O. J. WOOD; Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St. Louis, and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Dr. Mott's

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE

PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combination in Hydrogen, recommended by the Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with its impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in every case of debility or disease. Innoxious to all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, IMSMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether arising from disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female patients, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and stimulating, and gently, regularly and surely, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, for which it has gained its name, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the heavily balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its use in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects—Good appetite, quick digestion, and acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and Dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a strictly manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become debilitated, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Dose.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Dyspepsia.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dysentery.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach and Bowels are invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the Invigorating Spirit in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

IN A TIGHT PLACE.—A lawyer had his attention unpleasantly drawn to him the other day, in the Court House at Lawrence. A man was charged with attempting a rape in Andover, and one of the witnesses was an elderly lady who was asked if she could identify the offender. She thought she could. The prisoner was by the side of his counsel with several lawyers, sitting as demure as a deacon. "If you can see the person in the court room. "said the prosecuting attorney, "please point him out! The woman gazed intently into each face, and at last pointing to a young lawyer, says —"that is he." The limb of the law absolutely shook with surprise, while his brethren of the green bag enormously enjoyed the laugh that was upon him; but the woman, nothing daunted, still persisted that he was the fellow, and probably was confirmed in her opinion by the laughter, which she thought was an approval of her discernment—of her hitting the right man in the crowd.

TAKING CHILDREN TO CHURCH.—A minister's wife says: "The first time I took my eldest boy to church, when he was two years and a half old. I managed, with caresses and frowns and candy to keep him very still till the sermon was half done. By this time his patience was exhausted, and he climbed to his feet, and stood on the seat, looking at the preacher (his father) quite intently. Then, as if he had hit upon a certain relief for his troubles, he pulled me by the chin to attract my attention, and exclaimed, in a distinct voice, "Mamma, make papa say Amen!"

A young man, rather verdant, and very sentimental, while making himself interesting to a young lady the other evening, by quoting from the poets, to the other choice and rare extracts he added: "There's no place like home." "Do you really think so?" said the young lady. "Oh, yes!" was the reply. "Then," said calico, "why don't you stay there?"

A CHANGE IN THE FASHION.—It is reported that a very important change is to be made in ladies' dresses; they are to wear them longer at the upper end and shorter at the lower end. There will be no saving in cloth, but they will afford better protection, kick up less dust in a dry day, and drag less mud in a wet one.

"May it please your honor," said a lawyer, addressing one of the city judges, "I brought the prisoner from jail on a habeas corpus." "Well," said a fellow, in an undertone, who stood in the rear of Court, "these lawyers will say anything; I saw the man get out of a cab at the Court door."

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., copied any size desired.

The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping pace with every useful improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.

All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.

Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1860.

☞ Englishmen's ways of wearing hats, are not like those of Yankees. Many years ago, we remarked to an Englishman, that French hats kept their color better than American. I know it, says he,—but then it is of no consequence to you,—for every American buys a new hat every year, and some of them buy one every three months. But in England when a man gets a hat, he wears it, and wears it, till he wears it out. We said, poor men do this. Yes, was his reply, and rich men too, noblemen, gentry and all.

His words are well confirmed by the royal party who lately passed through our city, not one of whom wore a hat that would bring a dollar in one of our hat stores, but all felt quite at ease under a set of shocking bad hats.

A cotemporary says, the truth is that the English carry out the national characteristic in relation to the hat, which prevails in all their toilette—they get the best at start, and wear it the longest possible time. When it fails to be decent, it is discarded. The Duke of Newcastle does not spend, we venture to assert, more than one-half the amount per year on his wardrobe, of two-thirds of the clerks in America, whose salary is not above $600.

MR. GANGOOLY'S BOOK.—Crosby, Nichols, Lee & Co., of Boston, have just published a most interesting volume of 306 pages, entitled the "Life and Religion of the Hindoos. With a Sketch of my own Life and Experience. By Joseph Ch nder Gangooly. [Baptised Philip.]"

Mr. Gangooly's sketch of his own life, is delightful for its freshness, naturalness, and simplicity. His description of the Hindoos is invaluable, coming as it does from a high caste Bramin, transformed into the earnest and truthful christian disciple.

The editor, Rev. Dr. Ellis, informs us that he has left Mr. Gangooly's work mostly unaltered; and he has embodied in his Preface, a letter from Rev. Mr. Bush, who was Mr. Gangooly's tutor, which letter gives us a very clear idea of Mr. G.'s private American life.

The book will be widely circulated in this country and in England; and is worthy of perusal wherever the English language is read.

It is for sale in Portsmouth, by Mr. J. H. Foster.

☞ Some negroes at Perryville, (Tenn.) were attracted by the cries of a female, and upon examination, found, near the road, a woman lying by the fire with her husband, both confined by a log across them. They were travelling, had stopped to camp, and had built their fire near a dead tree, which caught fire, (after they had fallen asleep,) and burning off near the ground, fell across them, breaking both of the woman's legs, just below the knee, and killing the man almost instantly. The tree had fallen across them several hours before day, and her husband lived long enough to tell her what to do after he was dead. She said she called till she could call no longer, for some one to come to her relief after her husband died (not being able to extricate herself.)—The husband's name was Jefferson Kelly; they had been married about three months, and were going across Tennessee River where corn was cheaper. The scene was most horrifying, and the cries of the poor woman when taken away from her husband were enough to melt the most obdurate heart.

☞ John Mackintosh, the man who was struck on the head with a handspike by Elbridge Lewis, on board the fishing schooner American Eagle, died at the City Hospital, at Portland, Saturday morning, having remained insensible from the time he received the blow, to his death.

The skull was badly cracked, diagonally, almost from ear to ear, and from the crown of the head to the nape of the neck, and extravasated blood was found upon the brain. The verdict of the jury was that he came to his death by blows inflicted by Elbridge Lewis. Mackintosh was to have been married on Friday evening. Lewis remains in jail, and the crew of the vessel gave bail as witnesses. Lewis will be tried in November.

FIGHT IN A THEATRE.—A French and a Spanish creole dancer both appeared on the stage together at Melbourne some time since, when the creole drew thunders of applause, to the prejudice of the Parisian.—The Parisian fell to the floor in distress, was enraged, and the two fell upon each other, and tore hair and scratched until the poor creole was carried bleeding and senseless from the stage. Then there was a row, in which the instruments in the orchestra were broken and other damage done, while the ladies screamed and fainted.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Marshal Rynders was before the Court this morning, charged with assault and battery on Lewis Tappan. The hearing was postponed to Wednesday.

THERE'S NOTHING LIKE LEATHER

In looking over our papers from California, we notice in the "California Farmer," published at San Francisco, a very large picture, filling half a page of that paper, representing the immense Saddlery establishment of Messrs. Main & Winchester, in that city; and as these gentlemen are well known in Portsmouth and vicinity, as among the most enterprising and successful pioneers to the Pacific from this region,—and the piece is also decidedly readable,—we copy some extracts from the Farmer's article, concerning their mode of doing business—which their numerous friends here, will be glad to know is prospering so well. The Farmer says:

We present not only a view of one of the finest warehouses of the mechanic art on our coast, but we intend it shall be a lesson to all, who will see in this engraving a picture that represents the just reward of honest industry and perseverance, and untiring labor. The engraving represents the warehouse of Messrs. Main & Winchester, manufacturers and importers of saddlery and harness goods, a place of important business to our citizens all over the State, and a source of pride and credit to the business community; for such a house, by the number of hands employed and by the capital used, confers great good upon an entire community.

When we visit a place of business like this, and see the vast numbers of workmen employed, and remember that these men, too, in their circle, employ others, or buy and give business to the butcher, baker, miller and trader; that by and through the success of such a house, a thousand avenues to trade and commerce are set in motion; we deeply feel that

"Like clocks, one wheel another one must drive; Affairs by diligent labor only thrive,"

—and thus we look upon two men, who, standing at the head of such an establishment, represent the great wheels of a clock, we know they are indeed the movers of a power that always keeps time, and works for good to a large circle of the industrious classes. As an illustration of this truth, we will first show the wheels that this noble pile of industry keep in motion.

The Warehouse is 110 feet deep, by 36 feet wide, and four stories high, filled with materials for their business from the cellar to the top loft, with fine yard room for goods or packing purposes. This building is constructed of the best materials, being Boston pressed brick, with door and window sills and caps of Quincy granite, the timber and wood-work of the heaviest and best, and fastened together strongly by bolts, bars and links of iron; the doors are of solid mahogany, and every part of the building in all the interior finishing of shelving and racks for goods, counters and drawers. The building fronts on Battery street, with a fine entrance also on Richmond street. This fine structure was built in 1852–3, and cost nearly $100,000. The entire establishment is fire-proof in reality.

The cellar is always full of heavy goods in cases, for wholesale, one-half of the room being occupied for leather; and to show the extent of leather used by this house; they purchase the entire quantity manufac- at Santa Cruz, one of the largest tanneries in the State, besides large quantities from other tanneries in the State, and also the best brand from the best tanneries in Oregon. Their trade, in this article alone, must amount to many thousands a month.

The first floor is their show and sales rooms, and here is displayed the finest lot of saddlery and harness work to be found in California; coach trimmings, saddlery and harness furniture, whips, laces, and everything appertaining to such a business.

The second floor is the saddle and harness rooms,—an exhibition worth seeing; saddles at wholesale from $60 per dozen to $100 each, and the fine finished ones from $100 to $200 each, and some for ladies worth $200 and $250 each. Harnesses from $20 to $100 each, and superior ones from $100 to $250 each. To this department is now added the salesrooms of the celebrated Concord harnesses, Messrs. M. & W. being the sole agents on this coast of that famous manufacturer, J. R. Hill of Concord, N. H. These, however, are so widely and well known, the mention of this fact is sufficient for all purposes.

The third floor contains the work rooms; and here you find the hum of active life indeed, and hear the song of contentment. It is a well established truth that a good and faithful man at high wages is always better than a tolerable good one at half price, or a poor workman for nothing.—This firm employ about twenty hands, and they are the best men that can be had, as proved by their many years of labor in the same employ. The amount of business done by this house is immense, for this extensive warehouse, larger and better filled than any other warehouse in the State, can be found the most complete and best stock of goods in this line, of any similar establishment in the whole Union! This statement we can verify; not even New York has an equal to it; and without any disparagement to any other concern, we can say this firm has an amount of goods on hand, in transitu, and in progress of making, equal to the balance of the entire State; and their trade, name and reputation is as well known in New York as in San Francisco. With such a well established house, with a credit unbounded, and a name unsullied, we can say this house is established forever.

We have spoken of the warehouse, and we have spoken of the business, and we have a few words to say of the men themselves; in this we use the privilege and right of our position, to "speak of men as we find them." Messrs. Main & Winchester are both pioneers in every sense of the word. They are California pioneers indeed, being among the first comers to our shores; they are pioneers in their present business, pioneers of their own present prosperous position, and pioneers of their own fortunes.

Both were very early comers to our shores. Mr. Main brought with him a large amount of the tools of his present trade, and Mr. Winchester brought with him a quantity of leather. Both had served regular apprenticeships, and had been bred to this business; they met and joined their labors and material in 1850, and then we see them in those early days in a little ordinary workshop such as was the best in those days in this city; those were the times that tried men's metal. True men were not ashamed to show their metal and work; and so this firm were found early and late at work; like true pioneers they cooked their own food, did their own washing, and slept in their own workshop; and thus by economy laid the foundation for their present deserved good fortune. We see them before that day, at work in the mines, or sick, or relieving the sick; rowing the ferry boat at Vernon, or trading, making mattresses,—anything for honest labor. We need not wish prosperity to such men; they have already achieved it.

LIQUOR NUISANCES.—Before the Superior Court for Middlesex county, at Lowell, Hosea Whitney, Augustus C. Swasey, Morris Fitzgerald, Michael Callahan, Hannah McQue, and William Ford, keepers of liquor saloons in Charlestown, have been tried and all convicted, for maintaining liquor nuisances. Swasey was fined $30 and costs, the sentence being light, on account of his giving up the business. Callahan received two months in the House of Correction; Hannah McQue three months in the Workhouse, and Ford was fined $50 and costs.

FIRES IN BRIGHTON.—There were three incendiary fires in Brighton, on Sunday morning. The first was about 3 o'clock, when a barn and slaughter house were consumed. At 6 o'clock fire was issuing from the shed and stable opposite the hotel of Jeremiah Dempsey, which was destroyed.

At 8 o'clock flames were issuing from the large barn in the rear of the Cattle Field Hotel Corporation, which was leased Mr. Benj. F. Ricker. It was completely destroyed, with most of its contents. Mr. Ricker had in the barn about seven tons of hay, which was entirely destroyed, and six horses. Three of these were burned with the building, but one was got out alive, with its eyes destroyed and its tongue burnt off. It was shot during the day. One of the horses, a valuable stallion, cost $375, and was valued at $1000. The others were worth $200 or $300 each. Mr. Ricker's insurance does not cover his loss by $1000.

When the fires had begun to cause general excitement, an attempt was made to ring the bell of the Unitarian church, but it was found that the rope had been cut off by the incendiaries.

RUM'S DOINGS.—As the fishing schooner American Eagle, of Searsport, was hauling out of the dock in Portland, two of the crew who were intoxicated, got into a quarrel, when they were separated by the crew. Shortly after, while the other hands were engaged in warping out the schooner, McIntosh came out of the forecastle, when Lewis seized one of the handspikes and struck McIntosh a heavy blow directly on the top of his head, cutting open the scalp for a space of three inches, and prostrating him at once. McIntosh was found to be unconscious, with one side completely paralyzed, and was sent to the Hospital, fatally injured. Lewis was arrested, and the crew detained as witnesses. Now that the liquor is out of Lewis, he expresses great regret, as they had for a long time been good friends, and it was only under the maddening influences of liquor that he could have raised his hand against his shipmate.

It is worthy of note that shortly before this affray, the crew had held a discussion on board upon the folly of drinking, for a part of them are temperate men. How soon was their own decks to furnish another sad illustration of the evil of drinking habits.—Portland Ade.

FOOT RACE.—John Casey, a workman in the Amoskeag Machine Shop at Manchester, ran three miles in seventeen minutes and twenty-seven seconds, in that city on Saturday last, for a purse of $50. He was matched against time, 18 minutes, and was not allowed any training prior to the race. Another purse of $50 is to be made up, which Casey is to receive on condition that he runs five miles in thirty minutes.

THE RACE between Geo. M. Patchen and Flora Temple at Geneva, N. Y., on Saturday, resulted as follows:—

The first heat Flora Temple won in 2:32, Patchen won the second heat in 2:28;—Flora the third heat in 2:29. Patchen distanced Flora in the fourth heat. Very heavy track.

TORCHLIGHT PROCESSIONS were designed more than two thousand years ago. See 1 Maccabees, iv. 22, wherein account is given of the high priest Jason, who escorted King Antiochus into Jerusalem "with torchlight and great shoutings." Jason lived in the fourth century B. C.

☞ There is an apple tree in Norwich, Ct., which has borne neither bud, blossom nor fruit all summer, but now comes out in white fragrant blossoms.

SLAVES EMANCIPATED.—The Paris (Ky.) Citizen says: Mr. Noah Spear left here the other day for Xenia, Ohio, taking with him a family of valuable negroes, consisting of a man, his wife and two children, whom he has emancipated and handsomely provided for. He purchased them an excellent farm at a cost of nearly $50 an acre, gave them a wagon and pair of mules, a large quantity of provisions, &c. The man's name is Edom; he is an industrious, sober man, who will do better, when thrown upon his own resources, than most of his class. This is the second lot of negroes Mr. Spear has taken to the same place.

KINGSTON, March 10, 1841.—"This may certify that my son has had a humor which made its appearance when he was but a few days old; and it grew worse, causing large swellings and running sores. He has been cured by the use of Dr. Swett's Panacea and Humor Wash."
T. CURRIER.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and others of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Bronchitis.—This sure forerunner of Consumption can be instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. J. R. Shaw's Olive Tar and Iron & Sulphur Powders. The Olive Tar allays pain and heals soreness and inflammation, and the Iron & Sulphur Powders convert the waste or worn out particles of the blood into gases, which are ejected from the body by the pores instead of being deposited as Phlegm. The testimonials of many prominent and well-known persons are contained in a pamphlet, which will be sent free by mail to any address. See advertisement in this paper.

SLEEPLESS, CRYING, TEETHING CHILDREN

All know how unpleasant are these accompaniments of babyhood, and most intelligent persons know, also, the sad consequences to health, and often life, from the use of stupefactives, cordials, and similar baby doses used to quiet them. HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC HOMEOPATHIC BABY'S PILLS, (a pleasant sugar pill,) which you may drop into the mouth at any time, give you every thing to be desired from medicine. They calm excitement, delay the irritation of teething, relieve colic and bowel complaints, and procure natural and quiet rest, without the disadvantages of cordials or opiates. They have been used for many years, and are approved by all who use them or abhor dosing.

Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes $1.

Sent by mail or express, free of charge, on receipt of the price.

Address, DR. F. HUMPHREYS & CO.,

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOM FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural to nature, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

Gentlemen—Please send me by express two dozen OXYGENATED BITTERS. With us there is an increasing demand for this excellent specific for Dyspepsia and its attendant evils, and we know of no remedy more fully entitled to the confidence of the public. This much we say, disclaiming any intention of puffing the article, as its merits are a sufficient guarantee of all that it purports to be. Very respectfully yours,

S. J. COURT—PORTSMOUTH, Tuesday.

The trial of the case, Warren vs. Scammon, to recover the value of a colt, was continued and closed, occupying the forenoon. Verdict for the defendant.

In the afternoon the civil action, Gardner Towle vs. Charles R. Meserve, was on trial before the Court, without a jury.

☞ There was a grand demonstration by the Wide Awakes of Kittery, assisted by the Portsmouth Club, on Monday evening. At 7 o'clock the Kittery company, under command of Capt. Wentworth, was formed at the eastern extremity of the Portsmouth Bridge, where the Portsmouth Wide Awakes were received with military honors, and were escorted to Kittery Point, where they were taken in charge by the Point company, and after a somewhat fatiguing and lengthy march, the whole party was invited to an excellent collation in Gunnison's Hall, prepared by the ladies residing in the vicinity. This portion of the demonstration proved very acceptable to all, and the company returned from the hall in the best possible spirits, after giving vent to their enthusiasm in hearty cheers for their fair hosts.

Along the route of the procession nearly every house was illuminated, and the two hundred torches borne by the Wide Awakes presented a spectacle not often witnessed in old Kittery. The Portsmouth Cornet Band furnished excellent music, and the occasion was marked by an unusual degree of enthusiasm.

The visit of the Portsmouth Club to Kittery,is to be returned by the Wide Awakes of that town this evening.

☞ We learn that a gentleman residing on the Kittery road,—and one of the most public spirited men in this vicinity,—not being aware that his Republican neighbors were about to illuminate for the "Wide Awake" procession, on Monday evening, was much mortified at being unprepared, and insisted on making up a deficiency of five dollars in the pay for the Portsmouth Cornet Band.

☞ The fine new ship "Santee," of about 1000 tons, was launched in the successful and neat manner usual to Portsmouth yards, about noon of Tuesday—from the ways of Tobey & Littlefield, Noble's Island. She is owned by Messrs. Jona. M. & T. Salter Tredick; and no pains or expense has been spared to render her one of the staunchest ships afloat.

"SERVED 'EM RIGHT."—This was the unanimous verdict of the city yesterday morning, which has hardly yet ceased laughing at the clever retort of Gov. Chase upon those persons whose bad manners permitted them to carry around, in the great procession night before last, the caricature of a huge negro, and underneath the inscription:—"The successor of Abraham Lincoln in 1864." Gov. Chase was detained in his carriage by the procession, and saw this offensive placard. "It seems," said he, in opening his remarks, "that our friends on the other side have already nominated their candidate. They concede our success, and care for nothing but the succession, and they have in advance nominated an African gentleman for the succession."

The great Wide Awake procession and the fusion demonstration which immediately succeeded it, had none of the offensive carricatures which abounded in the ranks of the fusionists night before last.—New York World.

A COURT SCENE.—A man, who had never seen the inside of a court house until he was introduced as a witness in a case pending in one of our courts sitting last fall in the northern part of New York, being sworn, took a position with his back to the jury, and began telling his story to the judge. Judge R——n, in his bland and courteous manner, said: "Address yourself to the jury, sir." The man made a short pause; but not comprehending what was said to him, continued his narrative. His Honor was then more explicit, and said to him: "Speak to the jury, sir—the men sitting behind you on the benches." The witness then turned round and, making an awkward bow, said, with great gravity of manner: "Good morning, gentlemen!"

☞ There are thirty newspapers published in Brazil, but none of them contain independent ideas, but merely news, paragraphs, government proceedings, advertisements, &c. In the whole United States there are nearly six times as many journals as Great Britain.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29.—Brig Nahum Stetson from Tampico 19th has arrived.—Gov. Ozea has issued a decree declaring that all dues at the custom houses in Tampico and Matamoras must be paid in gold and silver.

Three hundred bales of cotton in the Union press yard were burned yesterday. Loss $15,000; insured.

The Arizona, from Brazos 24th, has arrived with one hundred and sixty-four thousand dollars in specie.

☞ Advices from China state that the Allies had attacked the Tartar camp, and the Chinese had fled in disorder. A grand attack on the Taku forts was to be made on the 15th of August.

The Benicia Boy and his trainer called upon the Rev. Mr. Beecher, in Brooklyn, a few days since, "to pay their respects," so it is stated. Mr. Beecher received the bruisers with politeness, said he perfectly agreed with them as to the necessity of improving the American physique by the development of muscle, but had serious objections to the ring and its surroundings. Heenan then handed the pastor a pair of boxing gloves, and they do say the use he made of them fully persuaded his visitors that Mr. Beecher possessed considerable "science."—Boston Post.

KANSAS.—The Kansas land sales are not to be postponed, the interference of the Secretary of the Interior having been refused. So, in addition to the horrors of a famine, the people of Kansas are to be exposed to the loss of their homesteads, from lack of means to bid in their claims.—Boston Journal.

Mr. Heenan's divorce case, in which Miss (or Mrs. ?) Ada Whatsbername is the other party, is, or was, before the New York Marine Court, because, we may suppose, every trial that grows out of marriage, real or imputed,—and how numerous such trials are!—may be said to proceed from "a sea of troubles."

The Great Eastern is so "shook up" that it is believed the sea would think her worthy only of being swallowed. She is unseaworthy, that is. Perhaps she got "the shakes" when over here. Her history has shaken the faith of men in big ships.

CONTENTMENT.—Happiness in part is imaginary, and its possession depends almost entirely upon ourselves; contentment is the key which unlocks the treasure house, and with "godliness is great gain."

THE TORCH-LIGHT PROCESSION

Of the Republicans of Portsmouth and vicinity will take place this Wednesday evening, October 31, and will consist of a cavalcade, companies of Wide Awakes, and Republicans not in uniform.

Invitations have been sent abroad, and delegations may be expected.

The Cornet Band will furnish music.

All persons desirous of joining the cavalcade will meet in Pleasant street near the Universalist Church at 6 1-2 o'clock.

Wide Awakes and citizens will form on Market Square at 7 o'clock.

The Procession will move at half past 7 o'clock, and the arrangement being changed, will pass through the following streets: From Market Square, through High, Deer, Elm, North, Prospect, Dennett, North, Elm, Vaughan, Congress, Islington, Anthony, Middle, Austin, Cabot and State streets to the Middle street Church; through Court, Pleasant, Water, State and Middle streets, to Congress street, where it will be dissolved.

Citizens living along the route or elsewhere, are respectfully invited to illuminate their houses and stores.

THE ORIGINAL P. P. STEWART,

FUEL-SAVING AND COMFORT-PRODUCING, LARGE OVEN, SUMMER AND WINTER

AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE,

FOR WOOD & ANTHRACITE OR BITUMINOUS COAL

Improved in 1859 with New and Extra Large Flues, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue.

Attention is invited to the following Points of Superiority:

DURABILITY.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

CAPACITY.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

ECONOMY.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

VENTILATION OF OVEN.—In the Stewart Stove alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (protected by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that, as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

ENTIRE CONTROL OF HEAT.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

THE DOUBLE SHEET BOTTOM FLUE.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

BROILING.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

HOT WATER RESERVOIR AND WARMING CLOSET.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

WATER BACK.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of P. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
Under the act of 1837.

76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions, and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and his accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability in his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,
FOR MAKING
Bread, Tea Cakes,
All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,
MANUFACTURED BY
EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house-keepers, bakers, &c., &c.

Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, natural taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.

It is available baking in less time, is portable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all ordinary circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.

It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a sack of flour, which yields four of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is increased nearly 50 per cent. in order to generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a more perfect, healthy, efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a large and considerable effect is produced by this common method ordinarily makes about 250 lbs., gives by this process 250 lbs., thus effecting the very important object of a 10 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention can be instructed in the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.

"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in the fermenting dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, and I find no objection to its vegetable salt, which is essentially a desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained from it by the aid of yeast while the sweet and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.

The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."

HOW TO USE IT.

We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.

BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter the size of an egg, and make the paste the paste with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to prevent running; the less handling should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.

LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.

GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and half a teacup full of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.

BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonful of Leaven in one pint of meal, and one pint of corn meal, all well sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.

BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and bake on a griddle.

DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and bake in a steamer.

CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.

CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; flavor with two teaspoonful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.

JUMBLES.—Rub together one quart of flour and three tea spoonfuls of Leaven; rub in one teacupful of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, and spice to the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.

ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup and half of butter, a pound of currants, one of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.

CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add one gill of molasses and two eggs; make thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.

GUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with cold milk, and put a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.

LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonful of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.

WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of flour, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk and two eggs; fruit and spice to the taste. Bake about half an hour.

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, invigorates and renovates the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and yet so powerful as to cure, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or prostration of spirits, it is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility, for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Intermittent Hypondria, Night Sweats, Lassitude, Debility, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if unstemmed to in time, called Female Weaknesses, Also Diseases of the Urinary organs or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidney, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Coughs, Hasten Consumption, Difficult Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following the above diseases, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary organs, causing the Liver to act promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following, such as change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a bottle occasionally to prevent sickness. As a tonic it imparts vigor to the system, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and others, and all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and powerful remedy for all those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above troubles are allowed to prevail. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the period of gestation with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal, ye fathers, if your wives are declining out only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go to premature graves, the latter, from ignorance of the dangerous nature of their complaints, which should always be on hand in time of need.

Dr. Mott's

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE

PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that the preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate the necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHOEA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of disease, or of long continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative will be sufficient to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

IN NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting, and a powerful, and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

IN DYSPEPSIA, immediately on its entrance, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally prompt and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent heats, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, the mediated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most elegantly balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a grateful and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat flectal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for, at least, twelve years, without a failure. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance, St Vitus Dance, Exhausted Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, will receive instructions in a course to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Nausea.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will cure the obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much lower night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the cheeks of the fairest lo.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qu $1.

Morning Chronicle.

MARRIED TWENTY MINUTES.—The Lockport Courier says, a lady and gentleman called a day or two since into a fashionable hat and fur store in that village to make some purchases. The lady was talkative, and purchased one or two articles. When the twain were about to take their leave the accommodating salesman (the proprietor of the establishment) asked the lady, who had done the talking and paid the bill, if she would not purchase one or more of his tasteful hats for boys. The lady, assuming the dignity of Queen Elizabeth, said, "I have only been married about twenty minutes. I have no boys yet!" The salesman had not another word to say.

DOUBT FROM INACTIVITY.—We cannot give the philosophy of it, but this is the fact—Christians who have nothing to do but to sit sentimentalizing—or mysticizing—are almost sure to become the prey of dark, black misgivings. John struggling in the desert, needs no proof that Jesus is the Christ. John shut up becomes morbid and doubtful immediately. The history of a human soul is marvelous. We are mysterious; but here is the history of all—for sadness, for suffering, for misgiving there is no remedy but stirring and doing.—Robertson.

GAINING NOTORIETY.—Dr. Richard Mead, of England, was the first to introduce the custom of having himself called out of church; but he practised this ruse under more favorable advantages than most could. His father was a clergyman, with a large congregation, and when the doctor was summoned out would say, "Dear brethren, let us offer a prayer for the poor sufferer to whose relief my son Richard has been called."

To all who desire delicious Pastry, Bread or Cake, we would say, buy a paper of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, which, from the purity of its manufacture, excels every other on this continent. Do not be put off with any other. It is much better than soda to use with cream tartar. Try it. Grocers and druggists sell it.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.
The nature of this invention consists of a metal lic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.
Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping pace with every and all improvements, assures almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him, and by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.
All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.
Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1860.

KANSAS SUFFERING.—The condition of the inhabitants of certain portions of Kansas demand the sympthy and aid of every benevolent man and woman in New England. We have heard of numerous cases of extreme suffering already, for food and raiment. One, formerly a resident of this city, stated in a letter from Topeka, Kansas, that his family were in an almost starving condition, having provisions enough to last them but a month, and without a sufficient amount of clothing, to cover them;—and appealed to their friends in this city, to lend them a helping hand. We are happy to state that this pitiful request was responded to in a liberal manner; a large quantity of clothing and quite an amount of money was immediately transmitted to the unfortunate sufferers. This is not a solitary case of extreme necessity: there are hundreds, and possibly thousands, who know not how they are to survive the coming winter. They appeal to all us for aid. Shall they have it? A. B.

HIRED JEWELS.—Messrs. Ball, Black & Co., jewelers, of New York, have written a spicy letter to Rev. Dr. Tyng, denying his statement made from the pulpit that the ladies attendant upon the Prince's ball had paid them money enough for jewels hired upon that occasion to defray the rent of their store for a year. One of their clerks carried the letter to the Reverend gentleman, who pronounced it "insulting," and would not make any reply. He informed the firm that they might seek redress in any way they thought proper.

Burleigh says that perhaps they might not pay quite so much as the Doctor says,—but it is notoriously true, that many ladies in New York do hire jewelry, furs, &c., on occasions of great parties, balls, &c.

☞ A singular trial took place lately, before the Paris Correctional Tribunal. For several years past, a blind man, apparently reduced to the last stage of poverty, has daily taken his station on the steps of the Church des Petit Peres, in Paris, and by his pitiful aspect, solicited the charity of the congregation and passers-by. It recently came to the knowledge of the authorities that this beggar had just effected the purchase of a furnished hotel, at the price of 32,000 francs, and had at once paid 12,000 francs of the purchase money.

He was immediately arrested for illegal mendicity. Upon searching his lodgings, the police found his domicile comfortably furnished, and a considerable amount of gold, railway stock, shares of the Credit Foncier and commercial notes for 3000 francs on the premises. In court, it was shown that the blind mendicant owned several farms and other real estate, and that he had deposited a large sum of money in the hands of a provincial notary. Not satisfied with all this, the impostor had had the impudence to send numerous petitions to the Empress and to the members of the Cabinet, begging for pecuniary aid and government pension. He was sentenced to six months' imprisonment, the maximum of punishment provided by law for unauthorized mendicity.

☞ What must the little women do? asks a New York paper. It is a serious question, for, according to present indications, they will soon have nothing to wear in sad reality, nothing having been provided for them. All the newest goods, the richest silks, the most elegant cloaks, the tartan shawls, the broadly depressed bonnets, seem to be expressly intended for a race of female giantesses. They require the height of a grenadier, and the magnificent proportions of Venus de Medici, to display them to advantage. What will the little women do?

☞ In the U. S. District Court of Louisiana, a fellow by the name of Lee, mate of the schooner Carrie Sanford, of Pensacola, is being tried for beating, bruising, maltreating and murdering a seamen named Williams, in a most inhuman manner—knocking him down, stamping upon him, and kicking him on the head. Williams, unable to endure the torture, jumped overboard and was drowned, neither the captain or mate manifesting any disposition to save him.

☞ Joseph G. Hernandez, keeper of a store in Boston, tried to kill a young girl named Fanny May, and then to kill himself, by shooting with a revolver, on Tuesday afternoon, in his store. The girl will get well; the man is in some danger of death. He is a married man, and has three children. A letter of his, to his wife, confesses a criminal intimacy, and attributes his ruin to Fanny May,—while Fanny tells a different story. She is a second cousin of Mrs. H.

Mrs. Partington says that she has noticed that whether flour was dear or cheap, she had invariably to pay the same money for half a dollars' worth.

HOAX.—A Gloucester mackerel catcher, says the Boston Journal, which left the Bay of St. Lawrence last month with full fare, when just outside of Cape Canso, during the night, in a thick fog, was run down by a steamer, carrying away her bowsprit and foremast, and staving in her bows. What damage the steamer sustained is not known, as she passed on without offering any assistance to the schooner. The wind blowing fresh from the northward, they found it impossible to reach Nova Scotia, and after drifting about two days, headed for the Western Islands, but had proceeded but twenty-four hours when she became waterlogged. Seven of the crew were washed overboard, and the remaining nine took to the boat. They were in the boat two days, when it capsized, and before they could get her righted, two men were devoured by sharks. They lost all their provisions, water and oars. In this condition they floated about for four days, during which time two men died from exhaustion. One of the bodies was thrown overboard, and the other was kept to satisfy the hunger which was consuming them; but just as they were about to partake of this horrid meal, a sail hove in sight, which rapidly neared and rescued them more dead than alive.

The vessel which rescued them was a Portugese. She carried them to St. Domingo, where they were kindly treated and sent home by the American Consul. The name of the schooner is not given, neither the names of the captain or crew. The steamer was probably one outward bound, as no intelligence of such a collision has been received on this side of the Atlantic.

The above is the substance of an article abridged from the Boston Journal, where it appeared from a Gloucester correspondent. But on enquiry by a messenger from the Boston Post, the Gloucester people pronounce the story a miserable hoax, and say no vessel is now missing from that port. The author of the hoax, if a sane man, should be made to smart for it.

ELECTORS BOUND OVER TO KEEP THE PEACE.—The Breckinridge and Bell Electors of Norfolk District, Va., have been bound over to keep the peace. Hostilities arose between them at a discussion in Norfolk, some time ago. Chandler, the Bell Elector, charged Lamb, (of the Southern Argus) the Breckenridge Elector, with being inconsistent and a disunionist. In reply, Lamb accused Chandler of being a Free Soil Massachusetts Whig, in 1848, which Chandler denounced as a lie. Lamb immediately resented the insult with a blow. For a time the affair showed every indication of being more serious, but the law stepped in and bound the belligerent individuals rather taut.

DISTINGUISHED BEASTS.—The California menagerie, recently under the management of "Grizzly Adams," whose sudden death we lately recorded, has been re-organized by Mr. Barnum, and shipped to Havana, where it is to be exhibited under the management of Colonel Wood. As the collection is perfectly unique, Mr. Barnum contemplates shipping them to England when their Cuban term is ended. An old California trapper will be the successor of "Grizzly Adams" in the management of the bears.

☞ An immense barrack is to be built in Paris, on the island in the Seine called the Cite—the most ancient quarter of the capital. No less than one hundred and six houses are to be torn down, to make room for this new military headquarters, destined to be occupied by the Garde de Paris, or military police, a corps composed of the picked men of the army, and selected for honesty, temperance, and faithfulness to duty.

☞ The Breckinridge Democrats of Lowell had a meeting, Monday evening, which was addressed by Hon. B. F. Butler of that city. Gen. B. was severe on his brethren of the Douglas wing, and predicted the election of Abraham Lincoln by the vote of every free State, with two, and possibly only one, exception. He also stated that Breckinridge would carry every State, with possibly one or two exceptions, and one, or possibly two free States. He did not believe that Douglas could carry a single State.

☞ A man generally respected, died a few months ago at New Hampton, leaving a good family, and some wealth; but a writer in the Manchester Mirror states that his papers show him to have been a burglar in Quebec, from 1816 to 1819; when he came to New Hampshire, with $6000 ill gotten booty. In his informal will he bequeathed $8000 to Anthony Craig of Quebec, whom he had probably robbed. And the executor has paid the money to two of Craig's grand children, being the only representatives he could find.

☞ At a torch-light procession, or Democratic rally in South Boston, Tuesday night, some of the clubs had transparencies, as follows: "Douglas, the second Jackson, must be elected, by the Eternal!" and "Old Abe can split rails, but he can't split the Union."

☞ The New York World of Monday says:

There are unemployed hands enough in the city of New York to earn as much money in a week as we import from California in a month. Nay, we may safely affirm that there are two or three hundred thousand persons, who would gladly perform work, if they had the opportunity, worth on an average half a dollar a day, or more than half a million per week. This is twenty-six millions per annum. If any reader should be disposed to question such an estimate, let him make one of his own; and it must necessarily be large enough to present an important result, while the moral advantages connected with the pecuniary gain would offer a still larger mass of good to individuals and the public.

☞ On Friday evening last Mr. Wm. H. Davis was found in the road near Dover, N. H., badly injured on the head, and in an insensible and almost lifeless condition, from which injuries he died Saturday morning. He had evidently been beaten over the head, but by whom it is unknown. He was seen intoxicated during the afternoon.

☞ Delusion Smith turns up once more. The Oregon Times, Democratic, says of Delaxon Smith, the man run by the Breckinridge members of the Legislature for Senator, that he is a "man who above all others has created the breach in the Democracy of the State, and who is but a stench in their nostrils."

☞ Quilp says that women who insist on the privileges, should exhibit the qualities of their sex. She who shows the impudence of the rowdy, has no right to expect the deference which is due to a lady. In short, if a woman forgets the delicacy of her sex, no gentleman is bound to remember it for her.

☞ There are 100,000 warriors on the right side of the Caucasus, who are vigorously defending their independence. The capture of Schamyl did not end the war, so a great Russian expedition is now talked of, to see if it cannot be done during the next two years.

☞ The Prince of Wales partook of a collation at the house of a resident of one of our Western cities, and it is said that when the daughter of the host walked to the window with the Prince in order to point out a fine view, the father rushed up in the most familiar manner, and cried out, 'I shall have to look after you young people.'

☞ Fanny Ellsler's son died in Nubia a short time ago. Fanny is now Madame von Barnim, and resides in Vienna. The Prince Adalbert of Prussia is united to her by a morganatic marriage, and this was his child.

CONVICTED OF FORGING ELECTION RETURNS.—Philadelphia, Oct. 30.—Wm. Byrely was found guilty, this morning, of forging the election returns from the 1st District, thus defeating the election of Lehmann, Democrat.

☞ Mrs Elizabeth Blount, aged sixty eight, was married at Kinston, N. C., last week, to A. V. Bulger, aged twenty-five.—The fair widow had $70,000 to counteract the "summers" which have passed over her head.

Notwithstanding that South Carolina is to go out of the Union so soon, there are half a score of persons seeking to be chosen to the U. S. Senate by the Legislature of that sucking Kingdom.

☞ The New York World estimates that 700,000 people in New York city don't go to church Sundays. The World laments the fact, but doesn't seem to know what to do about it.

John Randolph met a personal enemy in the street one day, who refused to give him half the sidewalk, saying that he never turned out for a rascal. "I do," said Randolph, stepping aside, and politely raising his hat—"pass on, sir, pass on!"

☞ Three girls escaped from the State Reform School at Manchester, N. H., on Saturday last. One of them was recaptured at Auburn on Monday; the other two have not yet been found.

THE ANTI-RENT SUITS DECIDED.—Albany, N. Y., Oct. 30.—A final disposition of the anti-rent suits was made in the Supreme Court this morning. The decision is in favor of the landlords, who can issue executions for the recovery of their rents with costs.

☞ By the new law the polls in Massachusetts on the day of election must close at sunset. On the 6th day of November the sun sets at forty-nine minutes past four

PAYING REGARD TO THE MANAGER'S WISHES.—"I wish you would pay a little attention, sir," said a stage manager to a careless actor. "Well I'm paying as little attention as I can," was the calm reply.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 30.—A severe storm occurred on the Plains on the 26th, terminating with a fall of snow at the Julesburg station. As emigrant trains line the route, there will be much suffering.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 30.—Pastor Reimus, who recently absconded from Havana with $20,000 belonging to a firm for which he was book-keeper, was arrested here yesterday.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Steamer Star of the West, from Havana 27th, has arrived. She reports that a slave vessel with 400 negroes, had been brought into Havana by a Spanish war vessel.

AFFAIRS IN SYRIA.—Beirut, Sept. 14. Yesterday 400 Zouaves arrived. Fuad Pasha intends making Hasbeiya the centre of his operations. At Damascus, on the 19th inst., nine persons were hanged in different parts of the city; two of them were cavasses of the Prussian Consul. The Christians in the Moslem houses are dying off in numbers; no furniture or bedding was given them. The government seems to be doing no more, and thousands of the murderers are still at large. One hundred and fifty more prisoners have arrived from Damascus and have been sent to Rhodes.

Sept. 25.—Yesterday a messenger from Fuad Pasha to the French General arrived, and this morning the French troops, in two detachments, have left, one for Ain Sofar, on the Damascus road, and the other for Bteddin. Three hundred prisoners from Sidon have arrived, sent up by Fuad Pasha's orders, as concerned in the Sidon massacres. A French war vessel, with 1000 soldiers, has arrived.

Sept. 26.—The mortality in Damascus is increasing; and the deaths among the children of the Damascenes here is astonishing. About 3000 of the Damascenes are at a place called the quarantine buildings; and out of 600 children, 100 have already died of diarrhea and dysentery.

Sept. 27.—The French army were preceded by some people from Deir el Kouer, who, on their way, took two Druses, and on arriving at Ainab, (where they encamped the first night, nine miles from this place, on the Deir el Kouer,) killed them; the Druses of that place fired on them, and the French commander, it is said, gave orders to sack the village, which was done.

Sept. 28.—The French army, on arriving at Bishefeu, on the evening of the 26th, plundered it; the people of that village were deeply complicated in the massacre at Deir el Kouer.

DOUGLAS IN ALABAMA.—The Cincinnati Enquirer of the 26th, contains the following:—

We saw a gentleman last evening, direct from Alabama, who gave us the most cheering news from that State. He says that it is generally conceded there that Douglas will carry the State. The Yanceyites have in a measure given it up, and mainly occupy themselves in trying to arouse the people to a preparation for dissolution. They are satisfied Lincoln will be elected, and so care but little whether Douglas, Bell or Breckinridge carries the State. The expected visit of of Douglas is creating intense excitement, and his arrival will infuse a spirit into the National Democracy that will make him irresistible. The Yanceyites would like to have him mobbed, but that, our informant says, would be a dangerous experiment.

RARE CHANCE FOR BUSINESS.

The undersigned, having unexpectedly just received a very liberal offer to engage in business elsewhere, offers for sale the Stock, Fixtures, Lease and Good Will of the BOOK, STATIONERY AND MUSIC STORE, in Exchange Buildings. This old stand has now a good run of profitable trade; the stock is new and fresh, and this is a rare chance for any one wishing to engage in a pleasant and remunerative business. Possession given immediately. CHAS. C. HARVEY.
Portsmouth, Oct. 18.

RARE CHANCE
TO INVEST IN A SAFE AND PROFITABLE BUSINESS.

The subscriber, having to devote his time to other business, offers for sale the Lease, Stock and Good Will of his STOVE AND TIN WARE ESTABLISHMENT, No. 61 Market Street. Terms easy, and made known on application to oct20 FRANK JONES.

KINGSTON, March 10, 1841.—"This may certify that my son has had a humor which made its appearance when he was but a few days old; and it grew worse, causing large swelled things and running sores. He has been cured by the use of Dr. Swett's Panacea and Humor Wash."
T. CURRIER.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SUMNER SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and others of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Bronchitis.—This sure forerunner of Consumption can be instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. R. Shallenberger's Olive Tar and Iron & Sulphur Powders. The Olive Tar allays pain and heals soreness an inflammation, and the Iron & Sulphur Powders convert the waste or worn out particles of the blood into gases, which are ejected from the body by the pores instead of being deposited as Phlegm. The testimonials of many prominent and well-known persons are contained in a pamphlet, which will be sent free by mail to any address. See advertisement in this paper.

SLEEPLESS, CRYING, TEETHING CHILDREN

All know how unpleasant are these accompaniments of babyhood, and most intelligent persons know, also, the sad consequences to health, and often life, from the use of anodynes, cordials, and similar baby doses used to quiet them. HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC HOMEOPATHIC BABY'S FILLS, (a pleasant sugar pill,) which you may drop into the mouth at any time, give you everything to be desired from medicine. They calm excitement, allay the irritation of teething, relieve colic and bowel complaints, and procure natural and quiet rest, without the disadvantages of cordials or opiates. They have been used for many years, and are approved by all who use them or abhor dosing.

Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes $1.

Sent by mail or express, free of charge, on receipt of the price.

Address, DR. F. HUMPHREYS & CO.,
562 Broadway, New York.

Sold in Portsmouth by THACHER.
See advertisement in another column.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what our grains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

Read the following Comments.

From a prominent Druggist of Portsmouth, N.H.

PORTSMOUTH, Aug. 3, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston,—

Gents:—Please send me by express two dozen OXYGENATED BITTERS. With us there is an increasing demand for this excellent specific for Dyspepsia and its attendant evils, and we know of no remedy more fully entitled to the confidence of the public. This much we say, disclaiming any intention of puffing the article, as its own merits are a sufficient guarantee of all that it purports to be. Very respectfully yours,
WM. R. FRESTON.

From a prominent Druggist in Bath, Me.

BATH, Aug. 14.

Messrs. SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston:—

Gents:—Please to send me a new supply of the OXYGENATED BITTERS by the Eastern Express.—So far as I can learn, these Bitters give the best satisfaction to the dyspeptic invalid, and afford a relief not hitherto found in the list of the same species before the public at the present time.

Very respectfully yours, GEO. D. H. FAY.

S. J. COURT, PORTSMOUTH, Wednesday.

In the afternoon, the case of Z. Dow Creighton vs. John Aiken was put on trial. The suit is founded on a promissory note.

POLICE COURT.

Oct. 29.—Before Justice Odell.—Thomas Reiley was found guilty of assault on John Holland, and was fined $5, and costs, $6.68. The same Thomas was found guilty of throwing stones through the window of John Holland, and he was fined $10, and costs, $5.74.

Oct. 30.—Patrick Buckley was sentenced to two months in the House of Correction, and to pay costs of prosecution, taxed at $3.86, for being a common drunkard.

Mirah Adams was sentenced to the House of Correction for four months,—and to pay costs of prosecution, taxed at $3 86, for being a vagrant.

Lavina Lockhard, also a vagrant, was sent up for three months; costs $3.86.

U. S. COMMISSIONER'S COURT,—Portsmouth—Before Horace Webster, Com'r.—Thomas Nelson, Samuel Sleeper, Thomas Savage and John McCafferty, four seamen brought to this port from the west coast of Africa in the U. S. steamer Mohican, charged with voluntarily serving on board the slaver Erie, was completed Wednesday, and resulted in their being held for trial at the U. S. Circuit Court in this city on the 20th of November.

☞ The Republican Wide Awake Torch-Light Procession, last night, was a brilliant turn-out: and the decorations and illuminations were very general, and in many cases beautiful. But the Chroniclers were themselves too much interested and occupied with enjoying the display,—to a late hour,—to care about giving a very particular detailed report of proceedings, this morning. Besides, as in all similar cases, most of those who care to know the particulars, were "there to see" for themselves.

☞ The coure of lectures for the benefit of the Freewill Baptist Society in this city, are to commence in about two weeks, at the Temple. Revs. O. R. Batchelder, M. D., for twelve years a missionary in India; D. Mott of Lowell; A. P. Peabody, D. D., of Cambridge, Mass., and other equally distinguished lecturers are engaged. Due notice of each will be given in the Daily Chronicle.

The course is designed, not only to aid a worthy object, but to be valuable and attractive in itself. The lecture of Dr. Batchelder will be illustrated by drawings made in India by a competent artist. The illustrations themselves would form one good entertainment,—and they add materially to the interest of the lecture to which they apply.

☞ We are pleased to learn that Rev. Mr. Beebe, of Gosport, whose health has suffered from exposure in his arduous labors as pastor, schoolmaster, physician, and counsellor general at the Shoals—has been given a vacation by his people, and is to spend the winter in a less trying situation. His society have also very liberally offered to supply his place themselves, during his absence, and will probably secure the services of Rev. George S. Crosby, formerly of Michigan, for this purpose. Mr. C. has preached at the Shoals in times past, with good acceptance, and is now there.

"OLD FOLKS AT HOME."—The citizens of Hampton are to give an Antiquarian Entertainment at their New Town Hall, This (Thursday) Evening, Nov. 1. An amply furnished table, after the style of our forefathers, will be served free. Tableaux Vivants, representing scenes of the olden time, will interest the occasion. Some of the leading domestic occupations of our good old grandmothers and their maiden sisters, will be enacted, as in the days of yore. The Exeter Cornet Band will supply the Music. All who wish to see the art of spinning, weaving, churning, &c., by the Old Folks in ancient costume, should attend. Doors open at half past six; admittance 20 cents.

Should the weather be unfavorable, the entertainment will be postponed to the next fair evening.—So say their bills.

WRITING FOR THE PRESS.—There is no class of people more frequently sneered at than editors. It is the easiest thing in the world to charge them with being mercenary; to say that such and such an article was paid for; that anybody can have anything praised or abused in a paper, if he will pay for it; and says a wiseacre, every now and then; "If I had a newspaper here, wouldn't I pitch into this or that, and wouldn't I show the people what an independent paper is?" Well, my friend and pitcher, why not establish a paper and pitch into everything and everybody?—Nobody can possibly object to your doing so. The papers that are in the habit of pitching into everything are the easiest edited in the world. It is only well-practiced, matured editors that possess that wisdom or true independence which consists in refusing to "pitch in;" that manliness which can withstand a public clamor, that can scorn personalities, and that can treat public questions with the dignityand soberness that can alone secure respect for the press.—Wide World.

FROM CALIFORNIA.—St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 30.—The Pony Express from San Francisco 17th has arrived.

The San Francisco market was slightly firmer, with an improved country demand.

The E. F. Willetts, for New York, has for part of her cargo California wine, which has now become a regular article of export.

Great anxiety is felt to hear from the Pennsylvania election, It is conceded that if the Republicans have triumphed in that State, there will be great danger of California going for the Republicans.

Col. Baker, Senator elect from Oregon, is to make a political tour in California for the Republicans.

The cabin passengers from New York, Sept. 1st have published a card censuring the officers of the steamer Ariel for not furnishing the ordinary necessaries of life, &c.

The rainy season has fairly commenced.

Fifteen Douglas members of the Oregon Legislature have issued an address justifying their course in electing Col. Baker to the U. S. Senate. They close by saying he will reflect more credit upon the State than the foumer Senators have done.

MORE HANGING IN TEXAS.—The reader will remember that a few weeks since we stated, on the authority of a letter received at Fairview, that Dr. Shreeves and Mr. Foster, with their families had been warned by the ruffians who hold sway in Texas, to leave that State, and were making preparations to return to Illinois. On Thursday last Mr. Wm. Bybee, a resident of Texas, well known to many of our citizens as a dealer in cattle and horses, arrived from that State, and brought to the friends at Fairview the melancholy intelligence that Dr. Shreeves and Mrs. Foster had fallen victims to the spirit of outrage which runs riot in Texas.

The two families, it seems, had complied with the ruthless command expelling them from their homes and were on their way towards this State, when they were overtaken by their persecutors and Dr. Shreeves and Mrs. Foster summarily secured and hung to a tree. Mr. Foster and the remainder of the families escaped.—Canton (Ill.) Register, 23d.

LEAVENWORTH, Oct. 30.—The Southern Kansas correspondent of the Times says that Capt. Sturgis, with sixty dragoons, has been driving settlers from the Cherokee neutral ground, and had burnt seventy-four dwelling houses. Much excitement prevailed there.

At a meeting held here last evening, committees were appointed to devise means to obtain immediate relief from the East, and a general conference is to be held in Lawrence Nov. 14th.

RECOINAGE OF GOLD DOLLARS.—Washington, Oct. 30—The recoinage of gold dollars affects only the first issue of that coin, over two millions of which have been recoined into the larger size of the same denomination.

NOTICE—TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

All persons who may now pay $4 for the Daily Chronicle, or $1 for the Weekly Chronicle, for the year 1861,—will be furnished with the paper without charge, from this time to Jan. 1. tf

JOB AND CARD PRINTING of all sorts is promptly done at the Chronicle Office.

SAVE YOUR DOCTOR'S BILLS.—When Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will cure coughs, colds, bleeding at the lungs, and arrest the fell destroyer, consumption, it does more than most physicians can do. A single trial will satisfy the incredulous.

THE ORIGINAL P. P. STEWART,

FUEL-SAVING AND COMFORT-PRODUCING LARGE OVEN, SUMMER AND WINTER

AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE,

FOR WOOD & ANTHRACITE OR BITUMINOUS COAL

Improved in 1859 with New and Extra Large Flues, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue.

Attention is invited to the following Points of Superiority:

DURABILITY.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

CAPACITY.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

ECONOMY.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

VENTILATION OF OVEN.—In the Stewart Stove alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (protected by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that, as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

ENTIRE CONTROL OF HEAT.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

THE DOUBLE SHEET BOTTOM FLUE.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

BROILING.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

HOT WATER RESERVOIR AND WARMING CLOSET.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

WATER BACK.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of P. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
Under the act of 1837.

79 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications of Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the entire Patent Laws and Decisions, by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it the inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than those who have had as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, besides the extensive labor and other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense property of the subscriber during twenty year past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides the extensive library of mechanical and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MAGSON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twenty rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonics and stomachics, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pints as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

ONIONS.

200 bushels Silver Skin Onions for sale by
MATHES & VARRELL

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,
FOR MAKING
Broad, Tea Cakes,
All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,
MANUFACTURED BY
EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to the production of a perfect quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house-keepers, bakers, &c., &c.

Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; it keeps a sweeter, natural taste; is less liable to sour! will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven does not exceed a half hour.

It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, or at one. In all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.

It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the nourishment of the grain is given by the evolution of carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. In the Concentrated Leaven, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys part of the nutritive value of flour, and in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method ordinarily makes about 50 loaves by the process 200 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any inexperienced person, without attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,
Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.

"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. The article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, good bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.

The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."

HOW TO USE IT.

We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.

BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of flour,) to one quart of flour; rub it thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter of half the size of an egg, and make the paste stiff with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired forms, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.

LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together; add one egg, the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.

GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.

BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven in one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal; all well sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.

BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make a batter of one quart of flour, add then three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.

DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and one teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.

CHAMBER SWEET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.

CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; flavor with two teaspoonful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.

JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in one teacupful of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out; bake in a quick oven.

ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, half a cupfull of wine, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.

COFFEE CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together: add one gill of molasses and two eggs; mix thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.

CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.

LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven; add to either one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.

WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of flour, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, half a cup of milk, one cup of currants and spice to the taste. Bake about half an hour.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR,

Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system impervious to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. It is chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, that it does not disturb the stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet free from or followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and anodyne properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, but it has been strangely shifted in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is exposed. Such diseases are, among the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Paleness, Nervous Debility, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Lassitude, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if neglected, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary Organs of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and be tween the shoulders, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many others, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the disease in a short if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a table-spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their health and happiness. Health cannot without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Nursing Cordial. Takes a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no other Cordial like it—it is all we claim for it—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to avert the fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal for we are sure your love for your children, and for we are sure your love for your children, and your sympathy for your husbands, will prompt you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in the house. Q. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Dr. Mott's

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE

PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable form. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operations of this preparation of iron may be reasonably be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and stimulating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for those symptoms which it does appear to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most balanced preparations, combined of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

R. B. LOCKE & CO., General Agents.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirum Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full, as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Dyspepsia.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach is cleared of Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much lower night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

PRECOCIOUS.—A lad, a day or two since, was called as a witness at the Common Pleas Court, whose tender years raised doubt as to his competency as a witness, by not understanding the nature and obligations of an oath. The first question put was—"Are you a son of the plaintiff?" The little fellow crossed his legs, and deliberately putting about half a paper of tobacco into his mouth, replied with the utmost coolness, "Well, so it's reported." He testified.

A merchant in the N. Y. Herald says that he and his merchant friends have hundreds of thousands of dollars, yes, millions, at stake in this contest. He calls upon them to take their knapsacks on their backs, with some clean linen, and start on a tour of the State begging and beseeching votes for the fusion ticket.

The Charleston S. C. Banks refuse to cash cotton drafts payable after Nov. 1st, and some of the logger-heads point to this as the first evidence of an "impending crisis." Perhaps it does portend an impending crisis with the Banks.

In a court, a witness speaking in a very harsh and loud voice, the lawyer employed on the other side, exclaimed: "Fellow, why dost thou bark so furiously?" "Because," says the rustic, "I think I see a thief."

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.
The nature of this invention consists of a metal lic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.
Boot and Shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

New Photographic Establishment.
Having fitted and furnished in modern style, large, pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with Sun Pictures of every description, from the smallest Miniature to life-size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, Ro. ... size desired.
The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping pace with every useful improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.
All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.
Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1860.

SLAUGHTER HOUSES.

Messrs. Editors:—The Sanitary Committee of the board of health in Philadelphia, in 1854, took up the slaughter houses among the nuisances then in that city, and reported to the board of health, recommending the passing of two resolutions:

Resolved, That slaughter houses not having paved and graded floors, and a direct communication with sewers or wells for the purpose of carrying off the fluid offal, or are without hydrants or pump water within the yard, or paved and graded yards, or where the refuse of slaughtered animals is allowed to remain and accumulate about the premises, are hereby declared to be nuisances prejudicial to public health; that the owners, agents or occupants, be required to remove the nuisance within thirty days from the date of this public notice, and if not done, to be done by the health officer at the expense of the owners, and the parties prosecuted for the penaly of maintaining a nuisance.

Resolved, That the owners, agents or occupants of all slaughter houses within the city, including those in the rural districts, be required, during quarantine season, to distribute twice each week not less than twenty-five pounds of chloride of lime about their premises, and also to remove the contents of their blood-pits twice each week, the same premises and contents of blood-pits being hereby declared to be nuisances prejudicial to public health without frequent disinfection and removal, and if the above requirements are not complied with, that the health officer be directed to carry out the order of the board by disinfection and removing the same at the expense of the owners, and prosecute them for the penalty of maintaining a nuisance.

If our Council would pass an ordinance embracing the substance of the above resolutions, and enforce it, we should have very little to complain of in regard to offensive slaughter houses.

In a book called a "Faggot of French Sticks," will be found an account of a visit to the slaughter houses of Paris. It will be seen that no slaughter houses are allowed within the city, all of them are outside of its walls. In one of these slaughter-houses are slaughtered some nine hundred oxen, four hundred cows, six hundred and fifty calves, and thirty-five hundred sheep each week, and no one could tell from any odor perceived in walking around its high walled yard, what was the business transacted within the yard; the whole business done there is conducted so systematically, and under the control of public officers.

The same can be said of another establishment there, where three hundred hogs are slaughtered each week. No butcher loses any thing by conducting his business neatly. Who has not heard it said over and over agyin by numerous persons, that they would buy of this or that butcher because his stall or cart, his frock or his personal appearance generally were so neat and inviting, and would not buy of certain others, because the reverse was the case with them? It costs very little to keep a neat establishment, in proportion to the additional amount of business the proprietor will do. What a contrast there must be between the Paris, or the Philadelphia slaughter houses, and some of the slaughter houses of Portsmouth; those of the former places of no inconvenience to the community, and some of Portsmouth are so offensive as to check a person with its stench, to go into the neighborhood of them. Indeed, they are so offensive that strangers who make Portsmouth a Summer residence, look upon them as one of the prominent and offensive features of the place. All of those who visit here in Summer must inhale the nauseous odor, in going to and from the beach and cemetery, which visits are made every pleasant day by more or less of them. †

VERMONT LEGISLATURE.—A bill has been introduced into the Vermont Legislature to incorporate the Eastern Vermont Railroad Company, and empowering said Company to build a railroad connecting the Grand Trunk from Island Pond with the Passumpsic at St. Johnsbury or Lyndon, which would have the effect to damage the Passumpsic north of the point of junction.

A bill has also been introduced exempting one dog in each family from taxation.

The question of plurality elections of town Representatives has been brought before the Legislature, in the shape of a House bill, providing that the highest candidate on the third ballot shall be declared elected,

☞ In Boston, the shooter Hernandez is getting along very comfortably, and there is no doubt of his recovery. The ball was extracted, being found near the back bone.—A warrant was issued from the Police Court, charging him with an assault on Miss May, with intent to kill and murder, and he was placed under arrest. He remains at his residence under the surveillance of a policeman.

ARKANSAS.—The population of Arkansas is likely to exceed 500,000, and she will probably be entitled to four, if not five Representatives to Congres. She now sends but two.

A HUMOROUS REPORT.—At the Sagadahoc Agricultural Fair, Rev. George E. Adams, D. D., of Brunswick, was appointed Chairman of the Committee on "Preserves, Pickles, &c." His report is very readable, full of humor and good sense, and flashes of wit, which, when read, convulsed the audience present with laughter. He first ascertains the duty of the committee, by an analysis of the meaning of the term "preserves, pickles, and so forth," giving definitions from Webster and citations from Shakspeare—and admits that the committee are in a fine pickle, having to adjudicate the contending claims of a parcel of notable housewives.

"How cam'st thou in this pickle?"

After awarding the premiums the Reverend gentleman concludes with a series of recipes, which will, we doubt not, be read with pleasure by all. We have the following:

To make vinegar of the strongest kind.—Take one quart of milk of human kindness such as the poet sings of, pour into an earthern pan, set on a table, with a chair in front facing the sun. Place in the chair a regular old-fashioned, tattling, mischief-making gossip, spectacles on nose, snuff box in left hand, a large pinch between thumb and finger of the right; let her look intently at the aforesaid milk fifteen minutes by the kitchen clock, without winking; and if isn't sour and sharp at the end of fifteen minutes—report to the Committee, and they'll drink it.

To impart a double relish to preserves and pickles.—Send a small jar of each, with best respects, to your minister. Or if you should hear that a neighbor has got the start of you, a peck of peas or a bushel of potatoes, or a few rolls first premium butter will answer.

N. B.—Never mind the printer. He lives on gas.

To keep good-natured, never quarrel. If it should fail, give something to somebody every day.

To keep up a neighborhood quarrel.—Stir it once a week; adding if needful a few drops of "ile o' vitril." It will be as good a hundred years since as it is to-day.

To keep a good name.—Be a good man, and above all never be a candidate for Governor or President.

To preserve an old foggy.—Put in a barrel and head up. There's pepper and vinegar enough in him to keep him, without further application, as long as the world wants him.

To preserve beauty.—Say your prayers every morning, read your Bible every night, and the newspaper every week. Never scold your husband, for every scolding causes two wrinkles, one in the scolder, the other in the scoldee. Cultivate your mind, cultivate your affections—for there is no genuine beauty without intellect and heart. Never be impatient. Ever return smiles for frowns.

To keep a beau.—First—as Mrs. Glass in her cook book says about the turbot—catch him. Then, if your beau being fairly (or unfairly) caught, belongs to the genus homo, if, in other words, he is a real man, treat him once a week—any time but Saturday nights, lest he should sleep in meeting on Sunday—to a dish composed of two parts good frank common sense, and one part hearty womanly kindness. But if he belong to the genus simia, which is, being interpreted, dandy, apply soft soft, laid on pretty thick; and he will be sure to last till the next crop comes in, when you can easily get another of the same sort, just as good.

To keep a beau.—[Miss——'s way.]—Take him into the kitchen, the store-room, the cellar, show him the preserves and pickles and all the nice things your own fair hands (or your mother's) have made, suggesting the anticipation of many sweet and good things in years to come.

To keep a beau when all other methods fail—shortest, cheapest, surest way of all.—Send for the chairman of the committee on preserves, pickles, and so forth, who will quickly put the poor young man into a pickle, which he will not quickly get out of.

All of which is most respectfully submitted.

A FEMALE DECK HAND.—The New Orleans Courant says that a short, well built youth was brought to the bar of Recorder Emerson's Court, a few days since, when to the surprise of the spectators the name of Minna Brown was called, and the Recorder, addressing the lad, who was smiling, blushing, and spitting tobacco-juice, fined her $10. The woman, for such was the lad, was questioned as to the reasons that led her to adopt the masculine garb. She said she could not get along as a woman, making but small wages and not getting paid half the time, and being strong and healthy, she had shipped as a deck hand on board a steamboat, and had been following that profession for the last six months, and liked it well. She was a "good fellow," and had rather remain a man anyhow.

☞ The Manchestor Mirror states that Gen. Robt. N. Corning, long and favorably known as Conductor on the Concord (& Boston) Railroad, has resigned his situation. Gen. Corning is also widely known as one of the proprietors of the famous Phenix Hotel, at Concord, (by Corning & Dumas,)—the largest and most elegant public house in the State; and is one of the most pleasant and popular of men, in any position.

☞ The store of Gookin & Dunlap, town liquor agents, at West Salisbury, N. H., was entered on Tuesday night and about $100 worth of the best liquors in the stock carried off.

☞ In Baltimore, Josiah Lee & Co., bankers, have failed. Appleton & Co. have also closed. There are rumors of other failures.

☞ The Wide Awake parade and Republican demonstration previous to the election, came off in this city Wednesday evening. A cavalcade of 50 or 60 horses, ridon by torch bearers, under command of C. C. Jackson, Esq., Chief Marshal, was followed by a handsome show of Wide Awakes and other torch bearers, of this city, and Kittery, Me.

This moving spectacle was a very fine one; and it was responded to by the illuminations and decorations of many shops, stores and residences, so many that we could not well enumerate them, with a variety of devices, mottoes, flags, &c.

Among the houses conspicuous for decoration, was that of Gov. Goodwin, before which the procession halted with cheers, and were answered by the Governor in a brief and pertinent address, after which with more cheers, the pageant moved on.

The most observable features of the evening, were good nature and good order, in the spectators as well as in the procession; and the weather being favorable, everything passed off pleasantly.

EUROPEAN ITEMS, via Southampton, Oct. 17th:—

Hobbs, the famous locksmith, was about to return to America.

Sheridan Knowles, the author, was lost in a steamer, on a voyage from Hull to Cronstadt.

The fortifications at Cherbourg and Algiers are to be strengthened.

A number of steel cased frigates are to be built in France.

The garrison at Marseilles is to be reinforced.

The French fleet is to be recalled from Naples.

Advices from Syria state that the French have established a provisional municipality at Deir Alkammar, and reinstated the Christians in houses built by French soldiers.

The Paris flour market was higher in consequence of rainy weather.

Melbourne dates of Aug. 25th have been received. The trade was worse. Four ships had left for England, with 200,000 ounces of gold.

A telegram from Constantinople announces the burning of twenty-two ships.

An insane man had attempted to shoot the Queen of Spain, but failed.

Garribaldi's Ministry and the Pro Dictator of Naples has resigned.

The departure of additional French troops for Naples is postponed for the present.

MISSOURI AND NEBRASKA.—St. Louis, Oct. 31.—Later and full returns from Nebraska elect Dailey, Republican, to Congress by 111 majority.

There was a collision last night between the Douglas and Breckinridge processions. The fire department was called out, but no serious damage was done.

Senator Greene spoke last night, in Boolville. He declared that but for Douglas, Kansas would have been a slave State. He favored Congressional legislation for the protection of slave property. He said he would not vote for Douglas to defeat Lincoln, and declared that he did not consider the election of the latter as affording any ground for secession.

Frank Blair spoke here last night. In the course of his remarks, he said that if Mr. Douglas asserted that he (Blair) ever sought an interview with him on political subjects, and then furnished Breckinridge papers with charges against him based on that private conversation, he (Douglas) was was guilty of wilful falsehood.

UNOCCUPIED HOUSES.—From the scattered census returns that have been reported, it is estimated that there were about twenty-five hundred unoccupied houses in Massachusetts last June. By far the largest part of these vacant dwellings are in the rural districts, remote from railways, or near the districts where ship building is usually carried on.

☞ The earthquke which lately visited this region, the Journal of Agriculture thinks "may be attributed to the recent political demonstrations, or possibly to the presence of the Prince of Wales in New England! although it is hard to believe that old mother earth would take the pains to shake herself for either—unless it might be in disgust at humbug and tomfoolery."

☞ Rev. E. C. Hooker has accepted the call of the North church, Newburyport, unanimously extended to him to become their pastor. He will be the fourth pastor of that church, all of them unanimously called to the duties. He succeeds Rev. Dr. Dimmick.

☞ A little lynching occurrence in Navarro, Texas, resulted in the death by strangulation of four members of the County Court, whose legal prejudices had excited the ire of certain free-thinking members of society in that place given to horse stealing, murder and such mad pranks.

SUICIDE.—Dana B. Fox, of Tuftonboroug, committed suicide in that place on the 12th inst., by hanging. A morbid state of feeling in connection with a dream that he should end his life this fall, is stated as the probable cause.

MAKING A QUICK TRIP.—In a trial before a Squire the following queer colloquy occurred: Counsel—"Did'nt you tell P. to go the devil?" Witness—"I rather think I did." Counsel—"Well, did he go?"—Witness—"I guess not; but if he did, he made a quick trip of it, for I met him the next day."

For the Chronicle.

THE TIPPLER.—I met him the other day, and was surprised at his altered appearance. I was reminded of the address Milton relates was made to one of the devils after he had fallen from his former high state:

"It thou are he—but oh, how fallen!"

This man was once prosperous. He attended an institution of learning, and then taught school. He professed an interest in piety, and I heard him take part in social meetings. He married, and his wife dying he married again, both women being very worthy and respectable persons.

But for years he indulged in the use of the cup, wasted his property, and at length became a confirmed tippler. When I met him he was so poorly clad that he looked miserably; but then the worst of it was his features. His eye was dim, his face red and somewhat bloated, and his lips almost twisted out of place. But little sign of intelligence was there, and he looked as if having a hard time. O, the misery of those who are slaves to unnatural appetite! I have been told that his own son, who at times sold rum, had applied the horse whip to him in a rage for his bad conduct when under the inebriating influence of liquor.—The dealers in the awful poison are sometimes compelled to see to what a condition they are bringing those to whom they sell.

This man might have been in good circumstances if he had abstained from drink. He might have been respectable and happy. O, when will the curse of intemperance be removed? When will the intelligent and virtuous arise and put down this great evil? We hope soon, that thousands now happy may be saved from the drunkard's doom. J. F.

S. J. COURT—PORTSMOUTH, Thursday.

In the suit commenced Wednesday, Z. Dow Creighton v. John Aiken, the verdict was given for the amount of the note and interest.

Michael Brown v. Edward C. Brown now on trial.

☞ It will be seen by our advertising columns—among other things—that Fisher Brothers are selling off cheap, preparatory to moving to New York; that Bachman & Co. have fitted up rooms for the manufacture of Ladies Cloaks, &c., and have also a handsome display of Millinery, in addition to their usual attractive stock of Dry Goods; that Moses & Downie have an uncommonly large amount of Boys' Clothing, often very difficult to find; that the furriers and tradesmen generally, seem to think Winter is coming, in spite of our present delightful summer weather.

IF NOT, WHY NOT?—Because two or three town teams which were promised for the late Rockingham Fair in Portsmouth, and other contributions which were reasonably expected from neighboring towns, did not all happen to come—the Exeter Ballot inferred that the rural districts were dissatisfied at the selection of location, or the management of things.

Well, on Wednesday evening, delegations of Wide Awakes were expected from various places, but came not. So shall we take it for granted that they also are dissatisfied with something? And if not, why not?

☞ A business friend of ours, who has seen many Torch-Light Processions, Illuminations, &c., by all parties,—tells us that he has seen nothing outside of Boston, equal in extent and beauty to the Republican display of Wednesday evening in Portsmouth.

☞ It is the Rev. Geo. S. Osborn who is to be at the Shoals this winter—not Crosby.

ROBBERS CAUGHT.—Louis Stebbins, for some years baggage master on the night express train from Boston to New York, and who was on the train when the Adams Express Co.'s safe was thrown from the car some months since, was arrested at Bridgeport on Tuesday. He confessed the crime, and implicated three others, who have been arrested. Stebbins was detected by being seen with one of the $500 bills stolen from the safe. The safe contained $16,000. As yet none o the money has been recovered.

Wm. H. Robbins, clerk in the Boston ticket office of the N. Y. Central Railroad, was arrested on Wednesday in Boston, for robbing the safe in his office of $2000, about ten days ago. He confessed the crime. Thomas Wright, a shipping agent, is also arrested as a receiver of the stolen money.

☞ It is rumored that the Democrats (the Douglasites we presume) in this city and vicinity are to have a Torch-Light Procession on Monday evening next. Well, if they are to have one at all, this is their last chance, for, according to the indications, they won't feel much like illuminating after that time.

☞ Mass for the souls of the soldiers who have fallen in defence of Papacy, was sung at St. Patrick's Cathedral, Montreal, on Monday morning.

☞ In New York, Udolpho Wolfe has withdrawn in favor of Elijah Ward for Congress.

☞ News from Europe, via Londonderry Oct. 19th, gives the important intelligence that the Pope's Nuncio had left Paris.

The Times Paris correspondent says this was considered a forerunner of the departure of the Pope from Rome. The same authority says that seldom has the spirit of hostility been so general in the church in France. Pastoral circulars, allocutions and sermons denounce and all but implore vengeance on the invaders of the Papal States, and by implication upon the Emperor.

The Queen and Court had arrived at Windsor from Germany. The Queen had entirely recovered from her indisposition.

The London Times has an editorial article rejoicing at the fate of Gen. Walker, the fillibuster, and defending Capt. Salmon from the imputations cast upon him for surrendering Walker, who it asserts had forfeited by his own acts all the assurances he had ever received.

☞ The Trustees of Phillips Academy at Andover, having noticed the increased expenses of the graduating exercises of the Senior Class, which, to a class of fifty members, ranges from a thousand to fifteen hundred dollars, recommended that the expenses be diminished so that no member may be burdened or compelled to forego the pleasures of the class by the heavy expenses heretofore incurred.

A new article of commerce, is the leaves of the common sumach tree. Several loads, from half a ton to a ton each, were brought in last week, and bought for tanning purposes at about thirty dollars per ton.—Bangor Courier.

☞ The champion game at the billiard tournament in New York, was won by Dudley Kavanaugh, who beat Tieman by 254 in a thousand points.

LYNCHBURG, VA., Oct. 31.—Travel on the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad has been interrupted by a freshet. It is feared the connections will not be made for a week.

Lieut. Bartlett, father of the girl in the "diamond wedding," has fallen into great contempt. A tradesman tried to collect a bill of him the other day, when he made an assault on the man, and has been arrested for it.

OPIUM EATING.—At the last meeting of the "Boston Society for Medical Improvement," Dr. Jackson said the practice of opium eating was exceedingly common in our country towns, and this opinion was confirmed by other physicians present.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

PORTSMOUTH, Aug. 3, 1860.

MESSRS. S. W. FOWLE & CO., BOSTON,

Gents:—Please send me by express two dozen OXYGENATED BITTERS. With us there is an increasing demand for this excellent specific for Dyspepsia and its attendant evils, and we know of no remedy more fully entitled to the confidence of the public. This much we say, disclaiming any intention of puffing the article, as its own merits are sufficient guarantee of all that it pur ports to be. Very respectfully yours,

WM. R. PRESTON.

THE ORIGINAL P. P. STEWART,

FUEL-SAVING AND COMFORT-PRODUCING LARGE OVEN, SUMMER AND WINTER

AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE,

FOR WOOD & ANTHRACITE OR BITUMINOUS COAL

Improved in 1859 with New and Extra Large Flues, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue.

Attention is invited to the following Points of Superiority:

DURABILITY.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

CAPACITY.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

ECONOMY.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

VENTILATION OF OVEN.—In the Stewart Stove alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (protected by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that, as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

ENTIRE CONTROL OF HEAT.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held thereth and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

THE DOUBLE SHEET BOTTOM FLUE.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

BROILING.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

HOT WATER RESERVOIR AND WARMING CLOSET.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

WATER BACK.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of P. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

American and Foreign Patents.

E. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington,
Under the act of 1837.

36 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by transmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in the form to secure them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. E. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is pending. I think this unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE REJECTED APPLICATIONS, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, Jan. 1, 1860. R. H. EDDY.

ATWOOD'S QUININE TONIC BITTERS,

The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY

For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonics and stomachics, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous system after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pints as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

MATHES & VARRELL.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,

FOR MAKING

Broad, Tea Cakes,

All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,

MANUFACTURED BY

EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,

Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house keepers, bakers, &c., &c.

Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, nutty, sweet taste; is free from liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.

It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.

It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into alcohol and gas, and spent it, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, the alcohol and gas are retained, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour; one pound of the contents of a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method ordinarily makes about 200 lbs. gives by this process 207 lbs., thus effecting the important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person can, without great skill or attention, may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES.

Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.

"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a digestible food in bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce a more wholesome, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.

The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extensive use. A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1859."

HOW TO USE IT.

We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.

BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonsful of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing the flour three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter of half the size of an egg, and make the paste the paste with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.

LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the rubbing in of the butter; add cold water; knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.

GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonsful of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.

BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonsful of Leaven in one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal; all well sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.

BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one pint; add one egg; one spoonful then three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.

DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.

CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.

CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs; the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; flavor with two teaspoonsful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.

JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; add one cup beaten to a froth; add one gill of molasses and two eggs; mix thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.

EGG BISCUITS.—Sift one quart of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.

CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add one gill of molasses and two eggs; mix thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.

CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.

ZOLLICKOFFER'S

ANTI-RHEUMATIC CORDIAL,

A PREPARATION FOR THE CURE OF

INFLAMMATORY AND CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC GOUT, NEURALGIC RHEUMATISM, SCIATICA, AND LUMBAGO.

Hundreds of testimonials to the good resulting from the use of this Cordial could be offered—but the following will suffice:

I hereby certify that I have used a variety of preparations for the cure of Rheumatism, but have found none of them whose effect was so immediate and lasting as Zollickoffer's Anti-Rheumatic Cordial, and would advise all afflicted with that painful disease to give it a fair trial.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

As precisely what its name indicates, for while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, while it tones up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and yet powerful to repair the injury. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the profession and by medical reformers, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and that the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. For example, such as following Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Nervous Affections, and Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Hacking and Obstinate Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at the same time, and in a short time. And as for Dyspepsia, it will infallibly prevent it, with its deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a bottle occasionally at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not unused to much out-door exercise should always use it. It may be used in any weather, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without perfect health, and no female can be free from irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two previous to the time, she will pass the fearful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, from the former, from ignorance, which is often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known; in time, the latter are often so relaxed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to prevent their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never failing affection will be spontaneous in your behalf. Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need. Prepared only by the proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Dr. Mott's

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE

PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innocious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION'S CONSTIPATION, DIARRHEA, DYSEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this preparation has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from prolonged travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is that latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispelling the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iron, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently fixed to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—the latter, however, more severe—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

R. B. LOCKE & CO., General Agents.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is commended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupify.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their minds made shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel happy and in good effect of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in nicked headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

New Photographic Establishment.

Having fitted up and furnished in modern style, large, pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with Sun Pictures of every description, from the smallest Miniature to the Life Size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., copied into desired size.

The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping pace with every useful improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.

All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.

Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1860.

SINGULAR CASE OF POISONING BY A BOY.—A remarkable case of attempted murder by poison has occurred lately, as we learn from the Burlington Free Press, at Montpelier, Vt. A little child of Hon. C. W. Willard, while drinking his milk, was seized with violent vomiting. The milk was examined and found to contain corrosive sublimate enough to kill a dozen men. The poison had evidently been put into the milk after it had been poured into the child's cup, and the sudden violent reaction of the child's stomach was all that saved his life. The wonder was, who could have done it?—for the servants, a girl and an Irish boy named John Roakes were considered trusty, and both were exceedingly fond of the child.

Finally suspicion fell upon Roakes, who confessed that he put the poison in the child's cup, not from any ill will to Mr. and Mrs. W., who had always treated him kindly, or to the baby, but simply from hatred to the servant girl, with whom he had some trivial quarrel, and on whom he hoped the suspicion of committing the crime would fall. He owned also to having taken and destroyed by burning them, several valuable articles of clothing which had disappeared from time to time, expecting that the girl would be charged with the theft.—He was immediately arraigned before the court in session at the time, plead guilty, and was sentenced to eight years' imprisonment, Judge Poland very properly adding to the sentence a lecture on the inconceivable heartlessness and depravity which could induce so wicked a deed.

☞ The Lewiston Journal states that a few days since one of the young ladies connected with the Seminary observed a man opposite the Institution trying to force along a refractory horse by beating him unmercifully. She bore the sight as long as she could, when she went out into the road and remonstrated with the man, who evidently began to be ashamed of his conduct. She then went up to the horse's head, spoke kindly to him, caressed him a few minutes, and taking hold of the reins the horse hastened to move on, overcome by the young lady's kindness. As she returned to the buildings, the horse turned his head towards his protector, and indicated thanks by signs that could not be mistaken.

☞ A strong-minded and strong-limbed woman, named Paulina G. Roberts, has undertaken to cultivate a farm in Pekin, Niagara county, N. Y., with the assistance of five daughters. They have been at it over a year. The New York Tribune prints a letter from the mother of these strapping daughters, in which she says they have succeeded beyond their expectations. They have under cultivation five acres sowed corn, thirty of Hungarian grass, five of spring wheat, eight of carrots, and sixty of oats, besides patches of planted corn, onions, &c. They have a "small dairy" of 19 cows. All the labor required for the prosecution of this extensive business, the writer says, has been performed by these six women, with the assistance of a hired girl of sixteen, and about seven days' work from men.

☞ Count Arrivabere, who rode forward at Garibaldi's call for one hundred men at the crisis of the fight at Volturno, was for some years an Italian refugee in London. He was suspected, naturally enough, by Bombalino, of being disaffected to the Neapolitan rule, and to save the sbirri trouble on his account, Arrivabere fled to London. There he subsisted by giving lessons in Italian, and by delivering recitations from Alfieri, under the patronage of sundry of the leading ladies in English society, who sympathized with the persecuted. On Garibaldi's call for troops he was one of the first to join the expedition to Sicily.

VERDICT AGAINST THE CITY OF LOWELL.—Mrs. Delia Prescott of Lowell, has obtained in the Supreme Court a verdict of $1500 against that city, for damages for injuries sustained by her husband, (resulting in death,) in consequence of a horse taking fright from the screening of coal in a building near the street on which it was being driven.

☞ A California correspondent of the New York World writes:—

Madame Biscaccianti, whilom prima donna of the Italian opera, has fallen somewhat in the scale of professional respectability, as well as in the estimation of her former friends. Madame B. has accepted an engagement with the management of the Atheneum, a cheap place of amusement, exclusively for masculine pleasure-seekers, and where lager beer and other stimulants are served in the auditory by flashily-dressed young women, of no reputation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The revolution in New Granada is now considered to be ended.—At the action of Ovatorio 600 men out of the 3000 engaged were killed, and at Maduzales, Maquera lost 300 men out of 2000 engaged.

EUROPEAN ITEMS, by the Europa, from Queenstown, Oct. 21.

The weather in England continued stormy and unsettled.

A Saxe Gotha newspaper supposes that the only daughter of the Duke Saxe Newminger just turned seventeen, is the affianced bride of the Prince of Wales.

The human sacrifice at Dahomey, in Africa, far exceeded the number reported.—The victims are reckoned by thousands.

The Times Paris correspondent says that the Papal Nuncio at the Tuilleries had been seen for the last time at the Imperial Court in the character of Representative of the Holy Father.

This was the common belief at Paris.

The movements of the French troops upon Viterbo and other places within fifty miles of Rome, caused great dissatisfaction among the inhabitants. Petitions to the King of Sardinia and Emperor of France were being almost unanimously signed at various places.

It was reiterated that Austrian troops were strongly concentrated on the frontiers, and there were unfounded rumors that 4000 Austrian soldiers from Mantua had crossed the Po.

The London Times says that Lord John Russell was not authorized to say England will teach the King of Sardinia political morality or defend the treaties of the holy or any other alliance against the natural interests of the Italian race.

The Times urges upon Victor Emanuel the necessity of taking speedy action at Naples, as Warsaw may take advantage of the delay and throw its protection around France. It is quite certain that Victor Emanuel has scattered the Bourbon forts and driven away the Bourbon King. Further delay is inexcusable.

The Daily News says the Emperor of France will not be so far duped as to join the Warsaw conference.

The Times does not think the dead set of the French Episcopacy, or the strong pressure of Austria and Russia, will induce the Emperor to waver in his Italian policy, by which he has cemented and confirmed England's favor.

Judicial proceedings had been commenced against Rodriguo Rervia, the man who fired at the Queen of Spain. He has confessed, and says he was employed by Honore Prade, a deputy of the Cortes Alli.

☞ The Houlton (Me.) Times states that recently as Messrs. Kinney & Tobin of that town, were at the anvil, Mr. Kinney's hammer accidentally slipped off the handle, striking Mr. Tobin in the face, inflicting a severe wound, badly cutting his lips and breaking out three of his teeth.

☞ While one of the Portland policemen was keeping his eye peeled for pickpockets during the embarkation of the Prince, a thief stole a lady's purse, rifled it of the cash, and deposited the empty purse in the policeman's pocket for safe keeping, as well as a practical satire on official vigilance.

☞ The Portland Courier states that there is now about half a million of Atlantic & St. Lawrence Railroad Stock in the hands of stockholders in that city and vicinity, the rest having been sold to English capitalists.

☞ The Aroostook Herald states that Mr. Kelley, who resides in Township No. 12, R. 5, dropped dead in the road in front of his house, recently, while conversing with two men. He leaves a wife and five children.

☞ Chas. D. Johnson, Esq., editor of the Coos Democrat, died at North Stratford, on Monday last, at about the age of 25 years. He had been out of health during the past season, and had exercised considerably, lifting heavy weights and swinging upon a rope, which occasioned bleeding at the lungs and resulted in his death.

☞ The ladies of Corwin, Ohio, went to a liquor seller's house on Saturday, and poured all his liquor out upon the ground, and afterwards deliberately walked across the street, notified another engaged in the same calling, that if he did not relinquish the business in ten days, his liquor would share the same fate.

A book printed in 1668 speaks of physicians who were called "forenoon men," because patients "that would speak to them to any purpose must come in the morning, because commonly they are drunk in the afternoon."

☞ James C. Brown, an estimable citizen of Taunton, died recently from the effect—as the physicians say—of long use of water drawn from his well through a lead pipe.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—It seems that the occupancy of Panama by the American and British forces was at the request of the Intendente, whilst his forces were pursuing the negro insurgents. They withdrew as soon as their services were not required.

☞ Horace McKinney, of Monroe, the great farmer and stock grower of Waldo county, Me., has this fall harvested from forty-one and one-half square rods, or a trifle more than one-fourth of an acre, 472 bushels of beets by weight, allowing fifty pounds to the bushel.

☞ Rev. Henry G. Guinness of Ireland is expected to arrive in Boston about the 1st of November, by the steamer Europa. He will resume his labors as an evangelist there and continue his tour through the United States.

☞ The St. Paul Democrat, the leading Douglas organ in Minnesota, in view of Pennsylvania and Ohio elections, advises all its friends to vote for Lincoln, "as Douglas and his principles are no longer at issue in this campaign."

BAD ODORS, AS NUISANCES.

BOSTON, Nov. 1st, 1860.

Messrs. Editors:—Although for the last few months we have been absent from our little "city by the sea," we have not been unmindful of her, but as the old saying hath it—"distance lends enchantment to the view"—so our interest in the things relating to her welfare, has rather been increased by absence; a feeling not uncommon to the sons of Portsmouth, we believe. The medium through which we have been kept posted in regard to her affairs has been the ever welcome face of the Daily Chronicle. It would seem that besides the wide-spread and general excitement of politics, that a number of matters are agitating the surface of our body politic. But the only one which we wish to refer to at present is the slaughter house nuisance case, of which we have had the first chapter in the case of ex. rel. Nutter and Grant.

If we understand this matter, the ground for these proceedings of the City Government, is the effluvia which arises from these places, to the disgust and inconvenience of the public. Now these proceedings are all well enough, and are to be commended by every man, woman and child, whose seven senses are complete, and in good working order. Certainly these places are nuisances, as they now exist, and active measures should at once be carried into execution to rid the community of such pests. But allowing all this to be true, and the City Government is quite right in its proceedings, are not our City Fathers guilty of favoritism in thus pitching into the butchers so exclusively? Are there not as great, aye, greater nuisances in Portsmouth? We refer to the breweries, and especially that which is now in full blast both night and day, concocting an intoxicating beverage, and sending forth on the air such fumes! t'were enough to make our beer-bibbers forswear their lager forever, and to force anybody but our City Fathers to the conclusion that slaughter houses are not the worst smelling places in the city.

Do our city authorities love their lager better than their morning steaks? or do they never protrude their sensitive noses into the atmosphere which surrounds the neighborhood of the Creek? Let them hold one of their deliberations in that vicinity; let the soft wind waft the odor of brewery slops in their faces; let their olfactory nerves be greeted by the stench which hangs over that locality, and if they can endure such an ordeal without decamping at once, they will then and there declare the source of these exhalations an intolerable nuisance, or hereafter the butchers will remain undisturbed.

Now what common justice and candor demand in this case, is, that no discrimination should be made. Setting aside the moral distinction between the two,—which is most emphatically in favor of the slaughter houses,—no one can deny that the breweries are by far the most unendurable of the two, and are tolerated to the discomfort of a greater number of persons. Then why should breweries—which are making drunkards of thousands of young men, and sowing intemperance broadcast—be allowed to remain unmolested, while the butchers are driven from the places of the preparation of their merchandise for the market, to remote and inconvenient localities. Certainly the butchers are a highly respectable craft, and there are few who would like to do without them.

If our City Government is to bring about a reform, let them strike at the greatest evil first, and then, if successful, all further operations are comparatively easy; but if the slaughter houses must be removed, let their proprietors remain firm until the breweries go with them. More anon.

NIX SHICKERSOFFER.

A SENSATION.—Some boys from Witch Trot, who were up at the Trotting Ground, (near where once stood the famous "Foss Tavern" in Rochester,) got jumping down the sand bank, which at that place descends seventy-five feet to Salmon Falls river, and uncovered a human skull. Searching farther they found an under jaw, shoulder-blade and ribs. Since that time Madam Rumor has been busy in that locality.

Near that place once lived a Perkins family, not unknown in Dover, and of some renown in other parts. Its members have sometimes resorted to your public institutions as a respite from bodily labor, for which they had little taste. The story goes that some twelve or fourteen years ago, a young man, named Webster, came from Massachusetts to pay court to a daughter, and had a rival, and there was a fight, and after a short time his father came here to find him, but could learn no trace of him after being there.

Some seven or eight years ago, the wife of the old man died, and it was said at the time she expressed a wish to make a communication to a good Elder living near, on the other side of the river; after which she had the closest attention and constraint, instead of neglect. The turnout at the funeral was large, owing to the rumors then afloat. When the Old House was afterwards moved off the cellar was all dug over by curious persons, and now, since the finding of these bones, the old stories and suspicions against the place since most of us were boys, are recounted over again. —Dover Enquirer.

Good weather has enabled the farmers in Aroostook to secure their rich grain crops without damage.

BOLD HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Tuesday afternoon an Irishman named Daniel Barrett was knocked down on the highway at Newton Centre, and robbed of one hundred and forty dollars in five dollar gold pieces. The robber failed to secure the contents of another pocket, in which was stowed two hundred dollars of the same sort. The robber's name is James Ryan; a man about 5 feet nine inches high, with the ends of his fore and second fingers cut off, and some of his front teeth gone. The money taken was the hard earnings of years.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—The Douglas poles in Lancaster were struck by lightning during the storm of Friday of last week, which came very near being fatal in its effects. Some men were engaged in lowering the flag, among whom was Mr. John G. Derby, who was standing upon a dry plank, isolated from the ground, and holding one end of the halliards, when a bolt struck the pole, blackening the ball and eagle at the top, and passed down the halliards through his hands. He probably owes his escape from death to his isolated position. So says the Coos Republican.

THE PEMBERTON MILL.—The new Pemberton Mill, at Lawrence, which was commenced last March, is now roofed in, and will be in full operation in January next, giving employment to 1000 hands, male and female, in making ticking, shirting stripes, cotton flannels, cotton pantaloon cloths, cottonades, cotton vestings and ginghams. The mill has been rebuilt in the most thorough manner. It is 84 feet wide, 284 feet deep, 60 feet high to the cornice, and a double attic, 91 feet high to its highest point. It has 480 windows, 4 feet wide and 9 feet high, 4 feet 4 inches apart. The number of bricks were set down at 2,200,000. The cost of the mill when completed, will exceed $60,000.

☞ Father Gavazzi preached a little while since in the square of San Francco, in Naples, in behalf of the wounded, and roused by his eloquence an immense amount of contributions; sheets, shirts, sugar, oranges, &c., were poured in. At last a person threw down his handkerchief, which example was instantly followed by the impulsive crowd, and a mountain of handkerchiefs arose at the feet of the orator.

A LARGE POTATO.—The Northern Visitor, a good Methodist paper, tells the following, which probably puts an end to all potato stories for this season:—

Mr. Lock of Lowell, Vt., has raised a California potato which weighs 7 3-4 lbs. in length 22 inches.

Disunion rumors are rife at the South, and cockade companies are forming in South Carolina, and rumor says, are arming with Colt's revolvers. Probably the most killing weapons are pocket pistols loaded with rifle whiskey.—Bath Times.

☞ A Rhode Island paper does not believe the rumor that 30 members of Congress will resign if Lincoln is elected; the unbelieving paper cannot think that these gentlemen will permit the Union to burst up and owe them $1500 each; and adds that "patriotism is not so dead as that yet."

A SENSIBLE DEMOCRAT.—That was a shrewd suggestion of one of the unterrified who said:—"The Democracy are a powerfull nation, but I don't believe they can elect two Presidents in one year."

☞ Snow having fallen in South Carolina on the fourteenth, a wag suggests that it is just cause for a dissolution of the Union, the calamity evidently being a Yankee incursion into the sunny South.

KINGSTON, March 10, 1841.—"This may certify that my son has been a sufferer which made its appearance when he was but a few days old; and it grew worse, causing large swellings and running sores. He has been cured by the use of Dr. Swett's Panacea and Humor Wash."

T. CURRIER.

"Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and others of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

SLEEPLESS, CRYING, TEETHING CHILDREN

All know how unpleasant are these common ailments of childhood, and most intelligent mothers know, also, the sad consequences to health, and often life, from the use of anodynes, cordials, and similar baby doses used to quiet them. HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC HOMEOPATHIC BABY'S PILLS, (a pleasant sugar pill,) which you may drop into the mouth at any time, give you everything to be desired from medicine. They calm excitement, allay the irritation of teething, relieve colic and bowel complaints, and procure natural and quiet rest, without the disadvantages of cordials or opiates. They have been used for many years, and are approved by all who use them for their abilities.

Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes $1.

Bronchitis.—This sore forerunner of Consumption can be instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. J. R. Stafford's Olive Tar and Iron & Sulphur Powders. The Olive Tar allays pain and heals soreness as inflammation, and the Iron & Sulphur Powders convert the waste or worn out particles of the blood into gases, which are ejected from the body by the pores instead of being deposited as Phlegm. The testimonials of many prominent and well-known persons are contained in a pamphlet, which will be sent free by mail to any address. See advertisement in this paper.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

J. COURT—PORTSMOUTH, Friday.

In the case Michael Brown v. Edward Brown, the verdict was for the plaintiff, $30.57. This was an action by the plaintiff to recover various sums of money loaned to his son, the deft. The deft. failed in business in Northwood about the time this action was brought, and it was defended by subsequent attaching creditors on the ground of fraud.

No. 147, Bennett & als. v. Edward C. Brown and George D. Brown is on trial.—This case is connected with the above.

The Court will adjourn on Saturday to Wednesday of next week.

IMPROVEMENT AT THE CREEK BRIDGE. We notice that Stephen Kenrick, Esq., President of the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad, is engaged with a gang of laborers, in extending the culvert near the Creek Bridge northerly towards the Brewery of Messrs. Fisher & Co. This is to be covered and the surrounding space filled in with gravel, by which a large area of land will be made, which will be a continuation of Cate St. to the Railroad crossing, and will doubtless afford a great protection to persons crossing the track with horses which are liable to be frightened by the cars, as it will allow the drivers to turn into Cate St., and avoid collisions with the trains. The work is done at the request of the city government, and there will be a convenient space for discharging wood and freight from the cars, intended for the breweries, in that vicinity.

☞ One train a day only, is to be run over the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad during the Winter, beginning next Monday. Passengers and freight for Concord and way stations, will leave Portsmouth at 10 minutes past 4 in the afternoon; and leave Concord for Portsmouth, at 7 o'clock in the morning.

Sandy Marden will begin to run his Wagon Express on the same Monday morning at 9:15, to carry passengers, baggage, and express matter to Newmarket Junction from this city, which will partly supply the deficiency.

We suppose the railway managers understand their own business better than any body else does:—but it seems a pity that two trains a day cannot be run with profit. For particulars, see the regular advertisements.

Messrs. Editors:—What are we to do for literary entertainments the coming winter? cannot the public-spirited young men of the Mercantile Library Association take hold of the matter and give us something in the way of a course of first class lectures?

To my mind something of the kind would be just what we need, and would be patronized and appreciated by the public. I hope the M. L. A. will take hold of the thing, and see that we are provided with suitable literary entertainments some of these long winter evenings. Young men, will you move in this matter? INQUIRER.

The inquiry is answered in part, by the lectures announced to be given at the Temple, as arranged by the Freewill Baptist society. There may be farther answers.

☞ The verdict of the jury of inquest, at Dover, the body of William H. Davis, who was found in the road, last week, was that the said Davis came to his death by reason of wounds inflicted upon him by some person to the jury unknown.

☞ The Douglas Democracy of New Jersey utterly repudiate the fusion whereby a few wire-workers assumed to sell out their votes and give a majority of electors to Bell and Breckinridge. They have reinstated the clean Douglas ticket, and will support that, and that only, to the end.

☞ Mr. Daniel E. Adams, of Keene, son of Rev. D. Adams, a graduate of Bangor Theological Seminary, has received an unanimous call from the Congregational church and society at East Wilton, to settle over them. He will, we learn, accept the call.

"What a poor slave is he who has learned to chew tobacco. He must always have a paper in his pocket, a quid in his mouth, and a dish for the juice. Poor fellow! if he had no company in this filthy habit, everybody would believe him crazy. You say you "can leave it whenever you choose"? Then clean out your pockets, your mouth; get your linen purified and bleached; burn cotton till the disgusting odor is removed, and quit.—Lewis' Gymnasium.

ARREST OF A RUNAWAY.—A boy named Patrick Quinn, who was, on the 1st of December, 1857, sentenced to the Massachusetts Reform School during his minority, and effected his escape from the institution in the month of July following, was arrested on Wednesday, while lying dead drunk on a sidewalk in North Cambridge. He has been sent back to Westboro'.

The cost of hauling a passenger or a ton of goods a mile on an English railroad is about one-half only of what it is in America—Reason:—English roads are better constructed and require less power to do the work.

☞ Gov. Letcher and ex-Gov. Wise of Virginia are getting into a quarrel about the proper way to meet the "crisis." This reminds us of what Mr. P. W. Chandler said in a recent speech:

There are not five prominent men in the Union who are agreed upon the time, the mode and the circumstances of any nullification project. If you should put Jefferson Davis, Mr. Keitt, Mr. Rhett, Mr. Pryor, Mr. Yancey and Gov. Wise in a room together, to harmonize on these points, there would a dozen or more duels within a week.

"PUT NONE BUT IRISHMEN ON GUARD." At a Douglas Demonstration on Fort Hill, Boston last Wednesday night, and during the speaking, a banner was displayed, bearing the names of the Douglas Presidential and Gubernatorial candidates and, beneath these words:—"Put None But Irishmen on Guard;" "Down with the Black Republicans." The banner was also displayed in several streets, through which the procession passed, but was finally suppressed.—Charlestown Advertiser.

POPULATION AND GROWTH OF OHIO. The U. S. Marshals return the population of Ohio at present as only 2,343,982, which is an increase of 364,000, or 18 1-2 per cent. A few hundreds will be added to this by correction, but probably not a great deal. This is about 100,000 less than we might reasonably expect. The principal cause is the emigration to the West. So says the Cincinnati Gazette.

☞ The Belfast Journal states that at the recent session of the Supreme Judicial Court for Lincoln Co; the town of Bremen was muleted in the sum of $3525 damages, for an injury to a lady, occasioned by a defective highway. Wouldn't it be as cheap to keep roads in repair?

The New York Tribune says:—

We can inform our friends in the country that never, since the opening of the Presidential canvass, has the cause of Lincoln and Hamlin made such progress in this city as it has within the last week.

☞ Fort Kearney and Fayetteville advices report severe weather with snow.—There was much suffering by emigrants.—The commander of Fort Kearney was besieged with the sick and indigent of returning Pike's Peakers.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 2.—The Wide-Awake procession last night was assaulted and scattered, losing their torches, transparencies, They afterwards organized a meeting in Front street Theatre, when short speeches were made. The meeting then adjourned.

☞ It is said the American claims on Peru have been rejected by that government. This would compel the American Minister to demand his passports.

OMAHA, N.T., Nov. 1.—The official count of votes for delegate to Congress, shows 14 majority for Morton, Dem., over Daily, Rep. Morton has been awarded the certificate of election.

☞ Col. Hardee, a military tactician, has obtained permission of the Secretary of War to attend the cavalry encampment at Virginia to give instructions.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 1.—The steamer H. R. W. Hill from Memphis, exploded on Wednesday night. There were thirty killed and forty or fifty wounded.

SUGGESTIVE NAME FOR A HEN.—"Pray, Madam, why did you name your old hen Macduff?" "Because, sir, I want her to 'lay on!'"

THE ORIGINAL P. P. STEWART,

FUEL-SAVING AND COMFORT-PRODUCING LARGE OVEN, SUMMER AND WINTER

AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE,

FOR WOOD & ANTHRACITE OR BITUMINOUS COAL

Improved in 1859 with New and Extra Large Flues, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue.

Attention is invited to the following Points of Superiority:

DURABILITY.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1836.

CAPACITY.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

ECONOMY.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

VENTILATION OF OVEN.—In the Stewart Stove Alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (protected by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that, as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

ENTIRE CONTROL OF HEAT.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

THE DOUBLE SHEET BOTTOM FLUE.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

BOILING.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

HOT WATER RESERVOIR AND WARMING CLOSET.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

WATER BACK.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of F. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

From the Gazette.

☞ We regret to learn that Hon. Abner Greenleaf, of this city, was seriously injured on Saturday last, by a fall from an apple tree. He was engaged in picking apples, when the limb upon which he was standing broke beneath his weight, precipitating him to the ground, a distance of about ten feet, striking upon his back. He was taken up helpless, and carried to his house. He is now somewhat better, so as to be able to move about his room, and we hope, in a few days, to learn of his recovery—though it is doubtful, from his advanced age, whether he will ever get entirely over the effects of the fall.

☞ Hon. Robert Morrison, the National Democratic Candidate for Congress in the first District, spread to the breeze the first American flag hoisted in this State bearing the name of Andrew Jackson for the Presidency. The flag was manufactured by his wife, who is as strong in the Democratic faith as her husband. Mr. Morrison who has voted for the nominees of the Democracy at every election since he has been a voter, and will cast his vote on Tuesday next for the National Democratic Electors, is one of the individuals whom the Patriot styles "factionists and disorganizers."

☞ Some of the political paragraphs in the Douglas papers are laughable. In almost any one of them, published in New England, may be found denials of the Democracy of the supporters of Breckinridge and Lane, and in the same sheets we read of Democratic victories in Delaware, Florida, Texas, and Mississippi, and in Southern cities where elections have been held and which resulted successfully for the National party. They also boast of their strength in the U. S. Senate—talk largely of the Democratic majority in that body—when there are at present only two of their friends holding seats—Messrs. Douglas and Pugh—the latter of whom retires on the 4th of March next. In acknowledging the Democracy of the majority in the Senate they deny their own right to fellowship.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health, while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance, — which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, but Iron alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton form with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific to all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervous Debility, Diabetes, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Spinal Weakness, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, prostration, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have in almost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all those who are conscious of a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through excess, either of the mind or body. We feel that it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, this preparation has a celeim superior to all other medicines which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, patent or official, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures, will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having the signature of Lewis Lyons on the wrapper. None other is genuine.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specific Remedies for the People

The Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and inspection of Prof. HUMPHREY, in simple, ready-for-use vials, which will meet the wants of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight derangement of the stomach, a headache, or heartburn, at first easily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, dropsy or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, and you know what they what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and hence convincing to rich, while the curative effects are positive and prompt. They are sure, and at once the spell is broken and the danger averted.

Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies for the last twenty years, during which time they have stood the test of time, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PROMPT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands are now daily using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, with almost invariable success. All speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and among our hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

ZOLLICKOFFER'S

ANTI-RHEUMATIC CORDIAL,

A PREPARATION FOR THE CURE OF

INFLAMMATORY AND CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC GOUT, NEURALGIC RHEUMATISM, SCIATICA, AND LUMBAGO.

Hundreds of testimonials to the good resulting from the use of this Cordial could be offered—but the following will suffice:

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Sept. 6, 1869.

I hereby certify that I have used a variety of preparations for the cure of Rheumatism, but have found none of them whose effect was so immediate and lasting as Zollickoffer's Anti-Rheumatic Cordial, and would advise all afflicted with that painful disease to give it a fair trial.

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR,

is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers, it also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence works this wonderful cure, and yet so mild and pleasant to the taste, and always allay nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by any reaction whatever, as being the most concentrated and powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence works this wonderful cure, and yet so mild and pleasant to the taste, and always allay nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by any reaction whatever, as being the most concentrated and powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence works this wonderful cure

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.
Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

New Photographic Establishment.
Having fitted up and furnished in modern style, large, pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with Sun Pictures of every description, from the smallest Miniature to life-size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., copied any size desired.
The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping pace with every useful improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.
All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.
Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1860.

FAMINE IN KANSAS.

We have before us a circular, signed by six eminent citizens of Kansas, asking immediate aid for a suffering people.

This appeal is endorsed by twenty-seven eminent men in Boston, of all sects and parties,—and material aid may be sent to Dr. Thos. H. Webb, 3 Winter street, by those who have no other way of reaching the needy in Kansas.

Thaddeus Hyatt has recently spent a month in the territory, traveling throughout its whole extent, conversing with the people and attending meetings called to take measures for the relief of the people, and has published the result of his observations in pamphlet form. According to his statement, of over a hundred thousand people in Kansas six months ago, one-third has already left, and of the remainder it may be said that forty thousand see nothing but starvation or exodus before them within sixty days: thousands cannot subsist another month without aid, and thousands more are now subsisting on the little their neighbors deprive themselves of to give them—neighbors equally unfortunate, and with whom the starvation is merely a question of a few days longer, it being equally certain at last. Some have already died, and many are dying daily, while thousands are waiting the succor which the angel of Death will bring them unless it speedily arrives through human instrumentality.

Mr. Hyatt will immediately make a tour of the country, visiting our principal cities for the purpose of organizing a system of relief, and we trust that the large churches and wealthy men of piety who have ever showed such unbounded zeal in the welfare of far distant savages, will come forward with liberal contributions to save the lives of their own friends and kindred.

President Buchanan has offered $5000 from his private purse, and has suggested to Secretary Thompson the necessity of sending out a commission to take official cognizance of the state of affairs.

ANOTHER FEAT OF THE GRACE DARLING FAMILY.—The Grace Darling family have again performed a humane act. On the evening of October 8th, the sloop Trio, for Leith, left Shields with a fair wind, and was overtaken by a gale on Wednesday, off North Sunderland; got as far as Skate Roads, when they let go both anchors, which, during a perfect hurricane, were snapped, and the vessel drifted on the Longstone rock, where the Forfarshire was lost. The master and crew had great difficulty in getting from the vessel, and after being twelve hours on the rock were picked off by the father, a brother and two nephews of that heroine, Grace Darling, the father now being in his 75th year, fifty of which he has been in the light-house service.

A PERUVIAN SHIPWRECK.—A frightful accident occurred on the 10th of October in the dry dock at San Lorenzo, involving the entire destruction of the Peruvian frigate Callao, formerly the Amperimac, and a great loss of life. She was being docked, with all her crew on board, when the stanchions of the dock gave way, causing her to capsize and to rapidly fill with water. A great number of men, women and children, and the sick were below, all of whom perished. It was believed that the number of the killed would reach 150. The number of the wounded, with broken heads, arms and legs, was very great. The Callao was a forty-four gun frigate, built in England six years ago.—The dry dock was so badly damaged as to be rendered entirely useless.

PRONOUNCED A SNOB.—The question, "what is a snob?" is likely to be satisfactorily answered, through the discussion now being carried on among the military men and hotel-keepers of New York. It appears that Gov. Morgan, having invited one of his staff, who also kept a hotel, to the Prince of Wales' dinner, recalled the invitation, because he was assured it was not etiquette for a Prince to dine with a hotel-keeper. The military and the gentlemen who keep hotels have voted the Governor a "snob," and remind him that he, as a grocer and a vender of molasses and nutmegs, had not any great advantage over a hotel-keeper. The insulted Boniface has resigned his military commission.

☞ The Saturday Gazette mentions a rumor that the Duke of Newcastle hinted to a prominent gentleman of Boston that another year this county and Canada might receive a visit from a royal personage, whose presence would be signalized, he did not doubt, by even a more glorious reception than had been extended to the Prince.—When that personage comes, the question will be, "Who shall dance with the Queen?"

☞ A French circus performer has been engaged in London for one year, at a salary of $25,000!

THE ANTIQUARIAN ENTERTAINMENT at the New Town Hall in Hampton, Tuesday evening, was a complete success. As we have before stated, the old Meeting House has been converted into a good large Hall,—or rather two Halls, being now of two stories, and affording in each a spacious room. And on this occasion, the whole building was crammed with people, old and young, bent on enjoying themselves—and they did it. The Tableaux were well gotten up, and gave great satisfaction to those who were there in season (which we were not) and could get room to see them. The display of the preparation of flax, and the carding, spinning, weaving, &c., were novel and laughable to the young folks, and to many who are almost getting to be set down with the "old." The Collation or supper (baked beans by the acre, being the chief dish, with hot coffee, cake, pies, &c., &c.,) was bountiful and capital—as were also the appetites of the partakers, including some who had ridden a dozen miles or so to attend.

The Exeter Band played well; and the whole affair was appropriately and pleasantly wound up with a social dance! Yes, shades of the Puritans! a cotillon in this old ark of the covenant? "Does the world move?"

The receipts, we were told, were upwards of $100. Messrs. Lamprey, M. M. Coffin, J. J. Leavitt, and other gentlemen we did not know, were prominent in the arrangements—and the ladies of course were untiring in their efforts. Guess you would have thought so, had you seen the mountains of beans, the loads of bread, and the oceans of tea and coffee. In the lack of accommodations for the night at the hotel in Hampton, we were under great obligations to Mr. Leavitt and his estimable lady, for the most cordial hospitalities of the occasion. Among the visitors, we noticed a prominent citizen of Portsmouth, who never forgets his allegiance to old Hampton, and who it is said materially aided a proposed movement for a new and larger bell for the singular but handsome tower of the Hall.

There is quite a lively discussion now going on in England on the question, "Shall the New Foreign Office be Gothic or Classic?" Lord Palmerston has taken up arms against the Gothic style, and Sir Francis Scott appears as his leading opponent.—The Premier allows that the Gothic style, "might be admirably suited for a monastic building, or a Jesuits' college," but he avers that "it is not suited, either externally or internally for the purpose to which it is now proposed to apply it." Present appearances indicate that the Prime Minister will carry the day in regard to the style of the new government building.

☞ The American Bank Note Company of this country have a contract with the Russian Government for bank note engravings to a large amount. A vessel in which had been placed the first instalment of the engravings, &c., contracted for, with seven persons in the employ of the Company to work off the bank notes, has been lost on the voyage from England to Russia, with all the materials, and one of the printers was drowned.

The Gardiner Me. Home Journal states that the house occupied by Joshua Robinson, in that town, was struck by lightning on the 26th ult., and the fluid struck Mrs. Robinson upon her knee, making a hole nearly as large as a hen's egg through her dress and quilted skirt, taking the skin off both legs as it passed down from the knees, and completely benumbing her feet. The lady's injuries were not serious, though quite painful upon the restoration of the circulation to the benumbed parts. The house was but slightly damaged.

☞ The editor of the Lewiston Falls (Me.) Journal has seen a section of a hen's gizzard in which nine common brass pins were partially imbedded. The hen was over a year old, and when killed was in excellent condition, the pins having evidently not injured her digestion.

☞ Four hundred men have left Thomaston (Me.) and the towns in the vicinity, within a few weeks mostly to engage in the cutting and preparation of ship timber at the South.

SAD ACCIDENT.—While Mr. George Cutting of this town, was loading his horse power and threshing machine upon the wheels, on Sunday evening last, one of the rests, on which the machine was sliding, broke, and the whole, weighing some 2,500 lbs., came down upon Mr. Cutting, completely crushing the right leg below the knee, and fracturing the left leg. He survived till last night (Wednesday) when he expired.—Newport Republican.

☞ Mr. Samuel Gladding, a citizen of Newport, Rhode Island, who accompanied the Wide Awakes to Providence on Thursday evening as a drummer, fell dead shortly after arrival, probably from disease of the heart.

An enthusiastic female scandalized the Trojans, on Saturday night, by parading the streets beating a bass drum and shouting "wide awake!" any remonstrance was met by a thwack on the head with the drum-stick.

An Irish Republican says that the Democracy ought to put two Kilkenny cats instead of the American eagle upon their banners!

☞ The Oxford (Miss.) Mercury reports that a duel was on the tapis between Hon. Jefferson Davis and Hon. H. S. Foote.

POLITICS.

EXETER, N. H., Nov. 3.

Messrs. Editors:—The time of the great National election is at hand, and it becomes the duty of every citizen to vote as he honestly believes is for the best interest of the country, independent of party feeling, or personal interest. Four years ago, when called upon to decide this matter, I voted for Buchanan, and have never regretted that vote, not by any means that I approve of the worse than blunders of his puerile administration, but that as far as I was then able to judge, it was the best that could be done. No one could then foresee his infamous desertion of the spirit and letter of the platform of the party and his inaugural address.

Having always been a democrat, of course, in the split that occurred in the Lecompton question, I sided with Douglas and Broderick, in their gallant and victorious fight against the administration. The murder of Broderick followed his triumph, and the administration became the tool of the rabid pro-slavery disunionists, discharging from every petty office, the men who had put them in power, and who refused to desert the principles of the party. Again when the party met in convention, by its factious opposition to the choice of the people, the administration succeeded in breaking up the party, thus virtually electing Lincoln. Bogus candidates, put forward by the disunionists, are sustained by the patronage and power of the administration, and the government is turned into a vast electioneering club; its whole aim being to defeat a choice of President by the people. By these influences, it seems probable that the regular democratic candidate, though he may stand second in the popular vote, will not receive a single electoral vote.

Supposing the election goes to the House; Lincoln, Bell and Breckinridge are the candidates. The only object of the Breckinridge men would be to send it ty the Senate, because they prefer Lane to Breckinridge, and they would do it.

The choice is thus narrowed down; and we must elect Lincoln by the people, or Lane will be elected by the Senate,—Lane, the most servile tool of the Administration, the man after Buchanan's "own heart."

Besides all this, the Republican is the only party that has entered the contest with a distinct and not to be misunderstood enunciation of principles. Then, again, the result of the October elections indicate that Lincoln is certain to be elected: and as his electoral vote must come from the North it is for the best good of the country that that vote should be as large as possible.

These considerations, Messrs. Editors, and many others, have determined me to give my vote to the Republican candidates on Tuesday next. Yours truly,

L. G. DAVIS.

THE GREAT STOCK-GAMBLING OPERATION.—"Occasional" writes from Washington to the Philadelphia Press:—"I have information to the effect that the panic movement, by which certain securities were to be stricken down, and hundreds of good men ruined thereby, originated in New York, and had been in course of preparation for months past. It is said that several hundred thousand dollars will be realized by the parties secretly interested in this great 'bear' organization. In a few days I expect to get the names of the engineers."

This humbug panic was based on pretended political information, and was used in a few papers to make political capital. It created many failures in business,—but as a political machine, it is itself a failure. It occurred just in season to collapse a week before election, and will re-act on its inventors.

ONE FIGURE WRONG.—Those who say figures can't lie, must be careful how they use figures. A great many papers have spoken of Antiochus being received at Jerusalem by torchlight, as recorded in I. Maccabees, 4:22. A friend told us he could not find it there. No wonder, for it happens to be in II. Maccabees, 4:22.

☞ Three young men or boys, in Boscawen, broke open a house there, on the first Sunday in September, while the family were at church; stole $80 in money, spoons, clothes, &c. Two of the boys were sons of a neighbor. All three are arrested.

RUNAWAY GIRLS.—The two missing girls who escaped from the State Reform School at Manchester, N.H., were arrested on Wednesday night by Deputy Sheriff James B. Shapleigh of Great Falls, N. H., at South Berwick, Me.

TENDENCY OF THE TIMES.—Mr. Horace Holden, a well known elder of the Brick Church in New York city, declares that "the Church will be engulfed with the world" if the present unchristian tendencies of societies are not corrected. "The scenes witnessed at dancing and waltzing parties do not look much like waging war with the world! Here I am in a vortex; I am surrounded by fashionable dancing, late-party Christians. My children are exposed to their influence. We have no other society. What am I to do?"

☞ H. M. Bates, late State Treasurer in Vermont, has just absconded, a defaulter of $42,000 or over. The bondsmen's property has been attached.

The Democratic estimate of the vote of New York city is 28,000 Republican and 75,000 Fusion. There is no probability of this vote being reached, amidst the jealousy and secret animosity which prevails in the ranks of the allies; but even if it should be and the majority be in accordance with the highest estimates, 48,000 in New York and 10,000 in Brooklyn, we think Lincoln will carry the State by a majority not far from 20,000.—Exchange.

Senator Seward's estimate of 30,000, or 50,000, may be quite as likely—as fusion looks now.

ECCLESIASTICAL COUNCIL IN MEDFORD.—The Council convened by the Mystic Church and society in Medford, Mass., to consider the question of dismissing Rev. Mr. Nason from his pastoral charge, decided unanimously in favor of his remaining where he is. Mr. Nason, it will be remembered, has recently been called to Exeter.

M. D' Aiguieres has published Tables sanfin, the result of ten years' labor. By these the product of multipliers and multiplicands of three figures is read by inspection, and thus it is easy to multiply any or divide with any number of figures by the use of a little addition and subtraction. His simplifications are so great that the squares of the hundred thousand first numbers, which would otherwise form a large volume of nine hundred pages, are contained in a little book of less than a hundred pages.

☞ On the 26th of October, a boy about ten years of age, a son of Henry Greeley, Jr., of Mount Vernon, Mass., was instantly killed by a stroke of lightning while standing in the door of a barn. A horse in the barn was killed at the same time.

LEGACIES.—The late Abijah Kingsbury of Keene, bequeathed to the American Board, the American Home Missionary Society, the American Bible Society, and the American Tract Society at Boston, $350 each, and $175 to the American Congregation Union for building churches.—Congregational Journal.

ATWOOD'S QUININE TONIC BITTERS,

The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY

For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

Catarrh is the most difficult of any of the Diseases of the Breathing Organs to relieve or to cure. The Rev. Joshua Leavitt, editor of the Independent of New York, who had the Catarrh for more than twenty years, has been cured by using Dr. J. R. Stafford's Olive Tar and Iron and Sulphur Powders, which are advertised in this paper. His testimonial is published in a pamphlet among others equally prominent who have been cured of chronic Throats and Lung difficulties, which will be sent free by mail.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

PORTSMOUTH, Aug. 8, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston,—

Gents:—Please send me by express two dozen OXYGENATED BITTERS. With us there is an increasing demand for this excellent specific for Dyspepsia and its attendant evils, and we know of no remedy more fully entitled to the confidence of the public. This much we say, disclaiming the intention of puffing the article, as its own merits are a sufficient guarantee of its value, if purports to be. Very respectfully yours,

WM. R. PRESTON.

BATH, Aug. 14.

Messrs. SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston,—

Gents:—Please to send me a new supply of the OXYGENATED BITTERS by the Eastern Express.—So far as I can learn, these Bitters give the best satisfaction to the dyspeptic invalid, and afford a relief not hitherto found in the list of the same specifics before the public at the present time.

Very respectfully yours, GEO. D. H. FAY.

NUISANCES.—Messrs. Editors:— What are nuisances, actual or legal—in fact, or law? It is easy enough for an individual or a community to give their opinion in the matter, but not so clear what is justice; and as to the Courts—keep out of them, if you can. "One man's meat is another man's poison," actually holds true in principle through all the business of life; and it becomes us all to watch and be wary, lest we unjustly trouble our neighbors, while complaining of them. The slaughter houses, we say, are a nuisance—but that jury and the butchers (nobody else that we know of) say they are not. We say the tobacco smokers are a more intolerable and less necessary nuisance than even the stinking slaughter-houses—besides being strictly, unquestionably illegal when in our streets; but a majority of the people to-day would decide against us in that opinion.

So also of the breweries—which your correspondent "Nix Shickersoffer" is so severe upon. He thinks these institutions (for such they have come to be, all over the land) are less to be tolerated, than the slaughter-houses. Perhaps all the meat-eaters who swig no ale, will agree with him; but certainly the slaughter-houses emit an hundred times louder smell—and without doubt, the vegetarians would decide against the pig-pens and in favor of malt.

As for us, we should rather be dieted on poultry and oysters, (Providence River brand, for instance,) than buffet with the "hogo" at the South End; and we wish the City Marshal would clear the streets of the nasty smokers—chewing, snuffing and dipping not illegal, yet, we believe.

Nothing ails us, so we don't drink any ale; but we don't deem the breweries—though they do sometimes emit an odor of sour swill,—we don't regard them as a nuisance greater than that loud-mouthed, screeching whistle of the Sagamore Mill! There you have it, again—one man or body of men is continually "running across" somebody else—and it becomes us all, to learn to "luff and bear away." (If this isn't nautical, it certainly can't be called naughty, advice.)

I write only to help all to a fair understanding of these matters if possible; and shall close by saying that there is a vast amount of beer now made in this city—and drank, too, and that by many of our wisest and best men; and it is not a question so easy to be decided, whether ale is a blessing or a curse. The brewers we all know to be enterprising and active business men; and if their premises are not properly arranged and drained, we have no doubt they could be induced to improve them. We are told by a neighbor, that the offensive smell comes mainly or wholly from the lees or drainings, and that there is never anything objectionable emitted from the establishment of M. Fisher & Co, that being thoroughly drained underground.

Yours for Justice, SCRIBO.

S. J. COURT—PORTSMOUTH, Friday. No. 147, Bennett & als. v. Edward C. Brown and George D. Brown was commenced and occupied the day. This was a suit to recover of the defendants—one of whom resides in Northwood—an account for clothing, amounting to $184.

The defence was that the debt had been compounded, for a per centage, which had been paid, and the deft. had been discharged.

The plaintiff admitted the discharge, but set up the plea that it was obtained by fraud. The case went to the Jury Friday evening. The verdict was returned Saturday morning, for the defendant.

Wheeler for plff; Hackett for deft.

The Court adjourned on Saturday to Wednesday at half past 10 o'clock, A. M.

POLICE COURT.—Before Justice Odell. —Those persons concerned in the riot a few nights since were brought up on a charge of riotous conduct. Plea not guilty. The case was continued to Nov. 5th, at half past 9 A. M.

George Willey was arraigned for an assault on John Ricker. He plead not guilty, but was considered guilty, and sentenced to the county jail for twenty days, pay costs of prosecution, ($5.75,) and to recognize with sufficient sureties in fifty dollars to keep the peace. Mittimus issued.

SOCIAL AMUSEMENT.—Messrs. Editors: A favored few (parents and friends of scholars,) were delighted with the exhibition of the Class of Mr. Samuel Lamprey, at Irving Hall, on Thursday evening.—Among the numerous dances, the spectators were particularly pleased with the execution of the Prince Imperial, Polka Redowa, Schottische and Lancers' Quadrille.—Such precision in time, such graceful deportment, ease and address, convinced those present that the polite art of dancing can be taught in a style to suit the most fastidious, by our fellow citizen, Prof. Lamprey. After having witnessed so satisfactory an entertainment, we can safely decide that Prof. Lamprey ranks among the first of teachers. And as such, all interested in young dancers, will do well to remember him; and furthermore, to give him their patronage. A. PARENT.

LYCEUM LECTURES.—Messrs. Editors: We take pleasure in informing your correspondent "Inquirer" that the Mercantile Library Association contemplate giving a course of lectures during the coming winter, to commence after the political campaign has ceased, and the course of events has returned to its accustomed channel.—Of course much will depend upon the encouragement given by the community. The lectures, if given, will be by the best speakers in the country, and will no doubt meet the approbation of all who attend. And as the proceeds are to be applied to the enlargement of the library of the Association, they should be liberally patronized.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!
THE MODEL COOK
FOR WOOD OR COAL,
MADE BY
THE BARSTOW STOVE COMPANY,
Of Providence, R. I.

In introducing a new Cook Stove, of singularly novel construction and arrangement, it is proper that we speak of its peculiar merits.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking giving an oven nearly 3 ft. long! or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! The advantages of this arrangement over that adopted for roasting in the Stewart and other stoves, by extending the oven, with a tin roaster in front of the fire, are obvious, viz:

1st. This permanent extension of the stove costs no more than the temporary extension by a tin roaster, while this is the most durable, tasteful and useful.

2d. As the flues of the stove extend over and under the entire size of the oven, it is more easily and surely heated than a tin roaster, which receives no heat except what it borrows from the baking oven.

3d. By this arrangement the processes of roasting and baking are entirely separated, while by the others they are carried on together, the fumes of both being intermingled.

4th. By this arrangement the roasting oven can be attached to the baking oven in a single moment of time, when occasion requires: or it can be used for a hot closet when not required for baking or roasting.

5th. By this extension an additional boiler hole and other room is gained on the top of the stove, while, at the same time the stove occupies no more room on the floor.

We might make extended notice of some other things peculiar to this stove, as compared with other high-priced Air-Tight Cook Stoves, but will barely allude to them, viz:

1st. The double plates each side of the fire prevent any leak of ashes into the oven and make the stove more durable.

2d. The admission of external air between these plates, for the ventilation of the roasting oven, tends also to the preservation of the plates most exposed to destruction.

3d. The durable dump grate, with the ash box of ample size to receive the ashes and coals, is an attractive feature of the stove.

4th. The draft door, at each end of the fire box, is a great convenience when a quick fire is wanted.

5th. The movable ash pan, which, though it forms a hearth to the stove, need not be used except once or twice a day for taking up and carrying away the ashes.

6th. The stove has but one damper, and but one division of flues on the back of and under the oven, ensuring a very quick bake.

7th The stove is made in the most thorough manner; the doors and roasting oven are lined with tin, and tin jackets are provided for the back and bottom plates. A hot closet and tank can be added if required. With any reasonable care, the stove will last a life-time, and we know it to be "perfect in its operation."

This stove was thoroughly tested before brought into the market, and we know that all that is said of it will be found true on trial of the stove.

John Trundy, Esq., one of our most practical and scientific mechanics, who has had large experience in the construction of stove patterns in years past, and has for many years been using one of the Stewart Stoves, has purchased one of the MODEL COOKS, and after a fair trial pronounces it far superior to the Stewart or any stove he has ever seen, for economy, convenience and dispatch We might also refer to several other parties who are using the stove, and who award it the very highest praise.

The MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be the stove for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is wanted

We have nought to say against any other stove, believing that a man can sell his own goods without running his neighbors; but this we do say, that we honestly believe this is the best stove that can be found in the world; and what is more, we think others will agree with us after a trial of it. We invite any one to examine the stove, whether they wish to purchase or not.

For sale, with a great variety of
Furnaces, Ranges, Cooking, Office and Parlor Stoves; Coal Hods, Sifters, Funnel, Stove-Repairing Pieces, Parlor Grates, Etc.

THE ORIGINAL P. P. STEWART,
FUEL-SAVING AND COMFORT-PRODUCING LARGE OVEN, SUMMER AND WINTER
AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE,
FOR WOOD & ANTHRACITE OF BITUMINOUS COAL
Improved in 1859 with New and Extra Large Flues, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue.

Attention is invited to the following Points of Superiority:

DURABILITY.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

CAPACITY.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

ECONOMY.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

VENTILATION OF OVEN.—In the Stewart Stove alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (protected by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that, as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

ENTIRE CONTROL OF HEAT.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

THE DOUBLE SHEET BOTTOM FLUE.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

BROILING.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

HOT WATER RESERVOIR AND WARMING CLOSET.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

WATER BACK.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of P. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a considerable degree of vitality in the skin,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules; but we contend that Iron alone, Sulpur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the colors, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific to all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vito's Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is manifest and instantaneous. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a dry harsh feeling of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily condition has become impaired from over-use, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Body or Buffer, the preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, patent or official, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures, will be sent free when desired. Sent forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canada, upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 for six bottles. Be sure and ask for the article, none but that having our fac-simile signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

BININGER'S OLD DOMINION WHEAT-TONIC

—FOR—

FAMILY AND MEDICINAL USE.

This natural product of the most nutritious grain, presents itself as a tonic, and in a concentrated form the nutritive properties of Wheat, and has received the highest encomiums from eminent medical authorities, as possessing qualities that are absolutely PATTENING; this desideratum renders it invaluable to those who are suffering from Consumption, Nervous Prostration, Want of Strength, Lack of Vital Energy, and all diseases which, in their nature, require only a generous diet, and a mild and invigorating, nourishing stimulant.

Put up in quart bottles, in iron-bound cases of one and two dozen each, and sold by all prominent Druggists, Grocers and Town Agents.

Hum Phreys' Specific Homeopathic Remedies for the People

The Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and inspection of Prof. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet that great and long realized want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight disorder, a pain in the side, or a headache, or heartburn, at first easily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, Croup or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so you know at once what to take—prompt in use so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and hence occasioning no risk, while the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the ailment is cured—HENCE THEY SELL.

Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies for families and private persons, as being the sure, safe, simple, PLEASANT AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PROMPT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands are and have been using them for some five years, and the demand increases, as they try, with almost invariable success. All speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and among our hundreds of scrolls the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

ZOLLICKOFFER'S
ANTI-RHEUMATIC CORDIAL,

A PREPARATION FOR THE CURE OF

INFLAMMATORY AND CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC GOUT, NEURALGIC RHEUMATISM, SCIATICA, AND LUMBAGO.

Hundreds of testimonials to the good resulting from the use of this Journal could be offered—but see following will suffice:

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Sept. 6, 1860.

I hereby certify that I have used a variety of preparations for the cure of Rheumatism, but have found none of them whose effect was so immediate and lasting as Zollickoffer's Anti-Rheumatic Cordial, and would advise all afflicted with that painful disease to give it a fair trial.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—OR—
BLOOD RENOVATOR,

Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, rebalances and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully compounded as to be free from all harmful ingredients, so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence with the weakest stomach, and alone in the digestive organs, and in no other nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by those who have suffered from debility, for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attack of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the Typhus or Typhoid Fever, Scarlet Fever, Measles, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weakness and Irregularities. Also for Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Habitual or Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the blood, strengthening the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following sudden change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a tablespoonful at bed time before eating. As it purifies, creates, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the first trial, she will pass through the period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, and remember the former, from false delicacy often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often lost to you by neglecting a portion of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late they would find it all. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never failing affection will speedily persuade you to try Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need. O. A. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Dr. Mott's

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE

PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen: Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, expression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Impurities in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, ERADICATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MILIARY ERUPTION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES AND BLOTCHES, &c.

In CHRONIC DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally prompt and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally follow INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as allaying pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free by safe conveyance on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Indigestion, Costive Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and depressed spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to the horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will relieve all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much lover night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual system, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

New Photographic Establishment.

Having fitted and furnished in modern style, large, pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with Sun Pictures of every description, from the smallest Miniature to life-size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., copied any size desired.

The subscriber having had many years' experience, and the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping pace with every useful improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.

All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.

Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

NEW WAY OF GETTING A LIVING.—Coleman in his work on Butterflies, gives the following description:

A deadly enemy to the whole race of caterpillars is ever on the alert, winging about in the shape of a small black fly, in search of an exposed and defenceless caterpillar. Having first selected her victim, the fly pierces his body with a sharp cutting instrument she is armed with, and in the wound deposits an egg; the caterpillar winces a little at this treatment, but seems to attach little importance to it. Meanwhile his enemy repeats his thrusts until some thirty or forty eggs, germs of the destroyers, are safely lodged in his body, and his doom is certain beyond hope. The eggs quickly hatch into grubs, who begin to gnaw away at the unhappy creature's flesh, reducing him gradually, but by a profound instinct, keeping clear of the vital organs, as if knowing full well that the creature must keep on feeding and digesting, too, or their own supply would speedily fail—just as usurers, while draining a client, keep up his credit with the world as long as they can. Weaker grows the caterpillar, as the gnawing worms within grow stronger and nearer maturity; sometimes he has strength left to take the chrysalis shape, but out of this he never comes a butterfly; the consuming grubs now finish vitals and all, turn to pupæ in his empty skin, and come out soon black flies like the parent.

We publish the above extract, partly because it is readable and interesting; but chiefly to condemn the sentiment of the sentence we have put in italics. Why should, why does everybody denounce "usurers"—money-letters? Has not a man or set of men, as good a right to let money, as houses, lands, or any other property? "The world"—not to mention "the flesh, and the devil"—commends industry, economy, thrift; but the moment a man gets a hundred or a thousand dollars, or a hundred thousand, no matter by what exertions—he must either give it all away, or (what is less satisfactory) lend to every irresponsible, shiftless applicant, or else be set down a defrauder, as in the above paragraph. We always rejoice when "labor" receives its due "hire;" but it would seem to us nothing more than consistency, to allow a man to use to his own best advantage, without reproach, the wealth he is always encouraged by the world's maxims, to accumulate.

Besides, unfortunately for the truth of the above comparison—"the usurer" never "lights on" a man, to make him "a client," as above referred to, like the black fly—but the client often besieges the (sometimes more fortunate but usually only more discreet) usurer, until he is obliged (often to his own disadvantage) to become his creditor. We have never had great experience in the business of money-letting—nor, thanks to our good "fortune," in hiring either; but it has always seemed to us that this business is as legitimate and as fairly transacted as any other. Why not?

NATIONAL ELECTION.—The election of President, taking place this day, has been preceded in this city by a period of stillness and quietude unexampled since 1820,—and quite different from that time, in its causes.

It is well understood, on all hands, that only one ticket can be elected to-day, viz. Lincoln and Hamlin;—and equally well understood, that the only hope of defeating that ticket, is in carrying New York State for a fusion ticket, electing nobody, and leaving Lincoln's chance rather the best in the House for President, and giving Lane the Presidency beyond a doubt, through the Senate.

It is not believed by republicans, nor supposed by intelligent men generally, that New York will be carried in that way,—but on the contrary, it is generally expected that New York and the Union will go for the Republican ticket by a large majority of electoral votes.

Every voter should bear it in mind, that in a popular election like ours, the vote is, or ought to be, an expression of opinion, conviction, principle, and conscience; that political opponents are not, or ought not to be, enemies;—and that undue elation at success, and undue depression at failure, are unworthy of American citizens.

Possessing the reins of government, any man or set of men are responsible for their use or abuse.

On the occasion of the Prince's visit to Cambridge, a collation was provided at Harvard Hall. The Prince beckoned to a waiter, and requested him to get him a glass of wine. The waiter promptly replied that they 'haven't got any.' President Felton here remarked to the Prince, in his bland manner, that it was not in accordance with usage on such occasions to provide wine. 'Then,' said the Prince, turning to the waiter, 'get me a glass of beer.' For the second time he was obliged to reply, 'haven't got any.'

The Prince learnt one thing, then, by going to Cambridge, viz. that the college does not make tipplers.

☞ One David Jackman Flanders, a native of Boscawen, has been arrested for stealing sheep in his native town. He sold the pelts and buried the carcases.

"A PATCH ON BOTH KNEES, AND GLOVES ON."—Some years ago George S. Hillard, Esq., wrote a very genial article in imitation of Dr. Franklin, which was based upon a chapter in his personal experience when a small lad. According to the story, the mother of the boy, being about to send him to a neighbor in better circumstances than herself, dressed him up so that he should make as good an appearance as possible, and put his hands in the unfamiliar casing of a pair of gloves. The youth sallied on his errand, and on his way encountered a bigger boy, who at once saw thro' the inconsistency of the small lad's attire, and scornfully exclaimed with a laugh of derision, "A patch on both knees, and gloves on!" This incident Mr. Hillard used as a text to illustrate the practical inconsistencies which so often mark the conduct of mankind.

THE BIBLE FOR SALE IN NAPLES.—The Naples correspondent of the London Times, under date of Sept. 26, says:

The greatest wonder of the day, and the fact which inspires the greatest hope for this country is, that the Bible and the New Testament were exposed for sale in the Toledo yesterday. I have never seen them before, though they may have been lying there for some days; but let the 25th of September be written in red letters in the history of the Two Sicilies, as the day when the true light of freedom was shed in this country—Dio dati's Bibles selling in the streets af Naples! Who could ever have believed it? They were English editions, and in the duodecimo form, and were a marvellous sight for the Neapolitans, for I have no hesitation in saying that not one man in a thousand has ever seen a Bible—vast numbers could not have read it had they seen it—and certainly not one woman in a hundred could have read it—though the kingdom is teeming with priests, who assume to be the lights of the world."

QUEEN VICTORIA'S IRISH DESCENT.—A correspondent of the Dublin Evening Packet says:—

"On reading the address of Marshal McMahon, in which allusion is so pointedly made to his descent from the ancient monarchs of of Ireland, I find that the presenters are not unaware that our beloved Sovereign is Queen of Ireland by virtue of her descent from the family of Furbus the Irish Prince, among whose subject were included the General's ancestors, and other families which subsequently attained royal dignity in the country. Also, that since Edward IV (the lineal descendant through the families of Mortimer, &c., of the Irish king, Dermot MacMurrough) has Irish royalty (as the Saxon previously and the Scottish subsequently—merged in the occupant of the throne of the British Isles."

☞ Berries and fruit in California are not sold by the box or other measure, but by the pound. Rev. T. Starr King, in a very interesting letter to the Boston Transcript, on California fruits, says:

The first of May, strawberries were just coming into market. They are not sold here by the box, as at East, but by the pound.—It takes about a pound and a half to make a box The price, about the first of May, was a dollar a pound. For two or three weeks later they did not go below seventy-five cents a pound; but early in June they could be had for twenty-five cents, which would be at the rate of thirty-seven cents a box in Boston. In the latter part of the season, for a week or two, fifteen cents was the price of quite handsome ones; but good ones were never any cheaper.

☞ The N. Y. Journal of Commerce is almost driven to despair. It says:

Thus it appears that there is not a single Congressional district in the city where the success of the Republicans is not possible. and there are two or three districts in which the Republicans are sure of winning, unless some of the national candidates can be coaxed or driven out of the field. Is it too late for the committee of fifteen to take the matter in hand? The exigency requires bold and decisive action, like that which forced the reluctant electoral ticket.

THE INDIAN SUMMER, that unclassified asteroid struck off from the corners of the regular seasons, and revolving in its own independent orbit between autumn and winter, is upon us with all its gorgeousness and glory; it dwells in the warm smoky atmosphere, it whispers in the eddying currents that rustle the red and yellow leaves along garden walks; it sits behind the purple curtains that drape the distant hill-tops.—Out in the country the orchards are fragrant with the smell of apples and cider, and the forests blush beneath the rays of the October sun, like garments dyed in blood. There is no season so sweet and delicious as the Indian summer. It robes nature in the beauty of ripeness before entombment, and whispers the hope of resurrection in the very hour of death.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ James C. Ayer, M. D., of Lowell, publishes a card in the N. Y. Herald, in which he asserts that Gov. Banks and lady were insulted or slighted in Boston at the Princes Ball, because Gov. Banks approved the law for putting restrictions on proxy voting in factory and other stock companies.

☞ The oldest man in Portland, Mr. Robert Horton, about ninety-eight years of age, was run over on Friday by a train on the Kennebec Railroad, below Bramhall's Hill, where Mr. H. pastured his cow. The whistle was sounded, but Mr. H. being deaf he did not hear it, was thrown down and two cars passed over his legs. He died on Friday night.

EXPRESS STORIES.

Burleigh, in his New York gossip of Oct. 29th, says:—

Adams & Co.'s express office was a scene of much excitement this morning. Among the freight that came on from the South were three slaves, a mother and two children, all bound to Newport, and were consigned to the care of Rev. Mr. Brooks.—The daughter, 19 years of age, is quite white. The boy is not more than five, and is black as charcoal. It appears that their home is in Mobile, and their mistress, who is old and quite unwell, resolved to free the family, and not knowing what might befal the family after death, saw her intention put in force before her death. The girl is finely educated, speaks French and German very fluently, and intends to keep school. The party started to-night for Rhode Island. The family attracted much attention while in the office, and answered all the questions put to them by visitors.—The mother liked the South, and said the colored people were well enough off. But the girl liked the North, and was glad to get out of the way of her owner.

A short time since one of the many agents that are abroad selecting musical talent for America, sent on to the care of this house a French girl, who was engaged to teach for one year in a Southern institution on a salary of $900 a year. On her way to New York, she saw a German merchant of this city, who was smitten with her, for she was a young girl of dazzling beauty. He followed her to New York, and made a formal proposal for her hand. The gentleman was well known to the head of the house of Adams & Co. as a gentleman of wealth and standing. But the young teacher declined the proposal, at least till her contract for teaching should expire, and the consent of her parents obtained. But the genteman was not to be put off. The lady had great confidence in the integrity of the company, and relied on what the house of Adams & Co. said of the honor and position of the supplicant. She relented and yielded, and cards are now out for the wedding at one of our most fashionable hotels, and this young adventurer, with nothing but her talents and beauty, will soon be at the head of an establishment, with a husband worth $300,000.

FATAL RESULT OF A SINGULAR CUSTOM—PENNING VOTERS.—The following letter from Columbia, S. C., to the Savannah Republican, explains a very singular practice in South Carolina, called bell penning;—

"The abominable system of penning voters was also in force. In one room on Main street there were about fifty confined during Sunday night, One of the number, a North Carolinian, died there about dark on Sunday night, and his death was not discovered until Monday. An inquest was held and the verdict was that he died from congestion produced by too much eating and drinking The jury of inquest entered on their verdict their condemnation of this atrocious system of penning, calling the attention of the grand jury to it, but the papers of this city were too tender-footed to publish the verdict, or even to make any allusion to it. It is a disgrace to republican institutions, this plan of catching and penning men up like sheep, and then marching them up to the polls under guard and voting them. It is to be hoped the grand jury will have the independence to make a suitable presentment, so that the legislature will interfere to prevent the disgraceful scenes that are enacted at each recurring election."

A REMARKABLE CASE.—A singular fact is related of two citizens of Southbridge, who have jointly owned and occupied a farm in that town for sixteen years, but have lately dissolved partnership. During the whole of this period no accounts of any kind have been kept by either of the parties. Both individuals were men of family, occupying different portions of the same house; and when either wished to use cash he went to the drawer in which it was kept, and took it. Yet in all these sixteen years not a word of fault was spoken, no ill-feeling, jealousy or suspicion was shown, and perfect harmony subsisted between the parties to the day of their separation. The final dissolution in business was occasioned by the marriage of a member of one of the families, when it was thought the house might not be able to contain "the consequences," so one party raised the value of one half the premises in cash, paid it over to the retiring partner, who quietly left.—We believe this to be an unparelleled case of honesty and confidence.—Webster Times.

This speaks well for human nature, certainly—and no doubt both these men must have been honest.

We know of two brothers, in a town not far from Portsmouth, both having families; who live together—and the ladies of the two families respectively, take turns in doing the joint house work, by alternate weeks.

We also once knew three partners in a newspaper business, only one of whom settled or ever examined the accounts. And one dying, the other two continued business for a year without any sort of partnership articles or agreement whatever; and then, without reckoning at all as to the assets, (there were no debts,) one named his price to sell out, and in five minutes the bargain was closed—because both were willing to do the fair thing, and each had confidence in the other.

THE GREAT EASTERN.—The Great Eastern is being repainted and put in trim. It is said that all hands are to be paid off this month, and the ship shut up for the present. She will remain in her present position for some months, as the tides will not again be sufficiently high until Christmas to float her.

LATE NEWS FROM EUROPE, via Galway Oct. 23.—The Emperors of Russia and Austria and the Prince Regent of Prussia, with several prominent ministers, met at Warsaw. It is asserted that Russia positively refused to enter into any arrangements with Austria that might lead to a war. The latest despatches from Naples state that the vote in favor of annexation was almost unanimous. There was much enthusiasm, but no disturbance. The King of Naples had issued a protest declaring that he should consider the vote null and void. It is said that after the annexation, the title of Prince and the rank of General will be offered to Garibaldi. A portion of Garibaldi's forces had a successful encounter with a portion of the Neapolitan army The official Weiner Zeitung publishes a reform manifesto from the Emperor of Austria, in which many important changes in the Constitution are proposed

The Constitutionnel announces that the Emperor has received an autograph letter from the Czar, explaining the nature of the Warsaw meeting, and denying that it has any political significance hostile to France.

A Naples telegram of the 21st says that Garibaldi has officially declared that he would lay down the Dictatorship after the arrival of Victor Emanuel.

The Piedmontese troops were encamping at Rieti, ten miles from Rome.

The text of the Prussian dispatch relative to the invasion of the Papal States, has been published. It censures the action of Sardinia and rejects Cavour's justification, but does not threaten any active hostility on the part of Prussia.

☞ Advices from Europe, via Southampton Oct. 28.—It is said that the ambassadors of Prussia, Spain and Portugal are preparing to quit Turin.

Victor Emmanuel was to be in Naples on the 28th ult.

The Papal Nuncio left Paris in consequence of orders from Rome.

It is reported that great agitation prevails in Damascus, and that threats had been made against the Christians in consequence of the war tax.

☞ From the Cape Cod papers we learn that the fishing fleet of Wellfleet, numbering about one hundred vessels, are bringing in full fares, and the prospect is of a good year's business; they are dropping lines off Truro. Eight new vessels are to be added to the tonnage of the place this fall.

"WHAT HIT HIM?"—The Douglas flag staff in Lancaster, N. H., was struck by lightning during the storm last week, while men were engaged in lowering the flag, blacking the ball and the eagle at the top, and passing down the halliards through a man's hands. Wonder if all the Douglas flags won't be "struck" to-day?

ATWOOD'S QUININE TONIC BITTERS,

The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY

For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonics and stomachics, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

oct20 FRANK JONES

KINGSTON, March 10, 1841.—"This may certify that my son has had a humor which made its appearance when he was but a few days old; and it grew worse, causing large swellings and running sores. He has been cured by the use of Dr. Swett's Panacea and Humor Wash."

T. CURRIER.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and others of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

SLEEPLESS, CRYING, TEETHING CHILDREN

All know how unpleasant are these accompaniments of babyhood, and most intelligent persons know, also, the sad consequences to health, and often life, from the use of anodyne, cordials, and similar baby doses used to quiet them. HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC HOMEOPATHIC BABY'S PILLS, (a pleasant sugar pill,) which you may drop into the mouth at any time, give you everything to be desired from medicine. They calm excitement, allay the irritation of teething, relieve colic and bowel complaints, and procure natural and quiet rest, without the disadvantages of cordials or opiates. They have been used many years, and are approved by all who use them or advise dosing.

Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes $1.

Sent by mail or express, free of charge, on receipt of the price.

Address, DR. F. HUMPHREYS & CO., 562 Broadway, New York.

Sold in Portsmouth by THACHER.

See advertisement in another column.

Catarrh is the most difficult of any of the Diseases of the Breathing Organs to relieve or to cure. The Dr. Joshua Leavitt, editor of the Independent of New York, who had the Catarrh for more than twenty years, has been cured by using Dr. J. R. Stafford's Olive Tar and Iron and Sulphur Powders, which are advertised in this paper. His testimonial is published in a pamphlet among others equally prominent who have been cured of chronic Throats and Lung difficulties, which will be sent free by mail.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c.; find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

PORTSMOUTH, Aug. 3, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston.

Gents:—Please send me by express two dozen OXYGENATED BITTERS. With us there is an increasing demand for this excellent specific for Dyspepsia and its attendant evils, and we know of no remedy more fully entitled to the confidence of the public. This much we say, disclaiming any intention of puffing the article, as its own merits are a sufficient guarantee of all that it purports to be. Very respectfully yours,

WM. E. PRESTON.

POLICE COURT—Monday—Before Justice Odell—William H. Raynes and Oliver P. Tucker were bound over in $100 each, to appear at the Supreme Judicial Court at Exeter in April next, to answer for partaking in the riot at the old Chase House.

[The old House was sold by Mr. Daniel Ham, of Great Falls, to city marshal Norton, on Friday evening. He sold it to Mr. James Conner on Saturday, and on Monday Mr. C. began to tear it down.]

He was a graduate of Dartmouth College, a counsellor-at-law, and a highly esteemed citizen.

RETURNS OF VOTES.—Our friends in Kittery, Eliot, New Castle, Newington, Rye, Greenland, and other towns near us, are requested to send in their returns of votes as early as possible this afternoon or evening.

We shall publish to-morrow all that can be obtained by telegraph to-night.

☞ The New Hampshire Baptist State Convention held its annual session in the Baptist church in Newport, Oct. 17. The Pastoral Association met the day previous. Rev. D. Gage was chosen moderator, and Rev. K. S. Hall Secretary.

The committee on moral questions made a report upon the question of temperance, which elicited animated discussion, but which was finally adopted.

THE PORTFOLIO PAPER FILE advertised by Mr. J. H. Foster, will be found a very neat and convenient article for any lady or gentleman—for use at home or in the counting room. Besides preventing much injury and waste of sheet music, and any other papers desirable for preservation; it will also enable you to keep them in the neatest and handiest form possible.

The first newspaper published in New Hampshire was commenced at Portsmouth Oct. 7, 1756. That paper is published now. It is the N. H. Gazette.

☞ A detention of half an hour occurred on the Staten Island Railroad, on Monday morning of last week. The leaves from the forest trees along the side of the road had fallen upon the rails to such an extent that they had formed a slippery bed, and causing the wheels of the locomotive to slip, detained the train until the track could be cleared.

☞ Wednesday night was tolerably lively in St. Louis, according to the statements of the papers of that city. The Breckinridge and Douglas wings of the Democracy had a set-to in the streets, which the Democrat describes as a "grand battle between the seceders and squatters."

☞ The Portland Advertiser reports that Mr. Ward, the agent of the Barings, has been in that city, and attached for his principals, the rolling stock belonging to the Grand Trunk Railway, on the American side of the line.

☞ A correspondent of the Charleston Mercury sagely suggests to its readers that if no dissolution of the Union should take place upon the election of Lincoln, the Legislature of South Carolina is to elect a United States Senator, and names Gov. Wm. H. Gist as a suitable candidate.

FRATERNAL ADVICE.—The Bath Times (Douglas,) cautions its friends to watch the ballot box, for this among other reasons, "to see that the Breckinridge men do not deceive honest Democrats by palming off their bastard ticket for the legitimate Democratic Douglas ticket."

☞ The breaking out of small pox in the East Maine Conference Seminary, at Bucksport, has caused a stampede, and the fall term is about broken up on account of the panic.

☞ At a meeting of the Trustees of Dartmouth College, Nov. 1st, William P. Haines, Esq., of Biddeford, Me., was by a unanimous vote, elected a Trustee of the College, in the place of Judge Joel Parker, who has resigned.

John Wilkes used to say that anecdotage is an old man's dotage.

BURGLAR SHOT IN NEWBURYPORT.—A negro burglar was shot and killed in Newburyport Sunday night, under the following circumstances: A number of residences on High st. have recently been robbed. Deputy Sheriff Wooster Smith stationed himself in the house of Mrs. Wills, and between 1 and 2 o'clock a burglar endeavored to open a window by cutting out a pane. The windows being double, however, this operation did not work, and applying a "jimmy" to the sash, the burglar soon made a sufficient opening. He then proceeded to climb in. Mr. Smith at this moment discharged a gun loaded with buckshot at the fellow, and the charge took effect in his breast. The burglar dropped from the window and ran, but soon fell.—Mr. Smith followed, and on reaching him the burglar, who proved to be a negro, said he was dying. He lived only four hours.—The fellow had entered his name at the Franklin House as J. F. Pickering of California. Before dying he confessed that he had committed all the late burglaries in Newburyport.

The New Orleans Courier says arrangements are being made in that city for the publication of a Republican paper, in the event of Lincoln's election. If Lincoln is elected, look out for dirt eating and for all sorts of coming down stairs to the Southern feeling, on part of the Republicans. They will, in their anxiety to prove themselves sound on the goose, get down upon their bellies and crawl before the "Southern oligarchy."—Bath Times.

There are many Democrats about the country whose preferences are for Douglas, but who will vote for Lincoln just to see what the disunionists are "going to do about it." Such men say, "Things have reached a pretty pass if men cannot vote as they please, without intimidation from disorganizers and Union splitters."—Statesman.

THE OREGON ELECTION.—New York, Nov. 3.—The Lower House of the Oregon Legislature have passed a bill nullifying the late Congressional election, when a Breckinridge Democrat was chosen, and providing for a new election in November.

The Douglas Democracy of New Jersey have utterly refused all compromises with the Breckinridgers. They are determined to stand right on principle, sink or swim.—Bath Times.

THE ORIGINAL P. P. STEWART,

FUEL-SAVING AND COMFORT-PRODUCING LARGE OVEN, SUMMER AND WINTER

AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE,

FOR WOOD & ANTHRACITE OR BITUMINOUS COAL

Improved in 1859 with New and Extra Large Flues, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue.

Attention is invited to the following Points of Superiority:

DURABILITY.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

CAPACITY.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

ECONOMY.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

VENTILATION OF OVEN.—In the Stewart Stove alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (patented by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that, as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

ENTIRE CONTROL OF HEAT.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

THE DOUBLE SHEET BOTTOM FLUE.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

BROILING.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

HOT WATER RESERVOIR AND WARMING CLOSET.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

WATER BACK.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of P. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL,

MADE BY

THE BARSTOW STOVE COMPANY,

Of Providence, R. I.

In introducing a new Cook Stove, of singularly novel construction and arrangement, it is proper that we speak of its peculiar merits.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a single plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking giving an oven nearly 3 ft. long! or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! The advantages of this arrangement over that adopted for roasting in the Stewart and other stoves, by extending the oven, with a tin roaster in front of the fire, are obvious, viz:

1st. This permanent extension of the stove costs no more than the temporary extension by a tin roaster, while this is the most durable, tasteful and useful.

2d. As the flues of the stove extend over and under the entire size of the oven, it is more easily and surely heated than a tin roaster, which receives no heat except what it borrows from the baking oven.

3d. By this arrangement the processes of roasting and baking are entirely separated, while by the others they are carried on together, the fumes of both being intermingled.

4th. By this arrangement the roasting oven can be attached to the baking oven in a single moment of time, when occasion requires; or it can be used for a hot closet when not required for baking or roasting.

5th. By this extension an additional boiler hole and other room is gained on the top of the stove, while, at the same time the stove occupies no more room on the floor.

We might make extended notice of some other things peculiar to this stove, as compared with other high-priced Air-Tight Cook Stoves, but will barely allude to them, viz:

1st. The double plates each side of the fire prevent any leak of ashes into the oven and make the stove more durable.

2d. The admission of external air between these plates, for the ventilation of the roasting oven, tends also to the preservation of the plates most exposed to destruction.

3d. The durable dump grate, with the ash box of ample size to receive the ashes and coals, is an attractive feature of the stove.

4th. The draft door, at each end of the fire box, is a great convenience when a quick fire is wanted.

5th. The movable ash pan, which, though it forms a hearth to the stove, need not be used except once or twice a day for taking up and carrying away the ashes.

6th. The stove has but one damper, and but one division of flues on the back of and under the oven, ensuring a very quick bake.

7th The stove is made in the most thorough manner; the doors and roasting oven are lined with tin, and tin jackets are provided for the back and bottom plates. A hot closet and tank can be added if required. With any reasonable care, the stove will last a life-time, and we know it to be "perfect in its operation."

This stove was thoroughly tested before brought into the market, and we know that all that is said of it will be found true on trial of the stove.

John Trundy, Esq., one of our most practical and scientific mechanics, who has had large experience in the construction of stove patterns in years past, and has for many years been using one of the Stewart Stoves, has purchased one of the MODEL COOKS, and after a fair trial pronounces it far superior to the Stewart or any stove he has ever seen, for economy, convenience and dispatch. We might also refer to several other parties who are using the stove, and who award it the very highest praise.

The MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be the stove for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is wanted.

We have nought to say against any other stove, believing that a man can sell his own goods without running his neighbors; but this we do say, that we honestly believe this is the best stove that can be found in the world; and what is more, we think others will agree with us after a trial of it. We invite any one to examine the stove, whether they wish to purchase or not.

For sale, with a great variety of

Furnaces, Ranges, Cooking, Office and Parlor Stoves; Coal Hods, Sifters, Funnel, Stove-Repairing Pieces, Parlor Grates, Etc.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analysis of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexions and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulphur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before at tained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the protracting night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific in all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In the chronic diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a disagreeable yellow of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the highest certificates of remarkable cures, the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers have been impaired through excess, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all cases of Nervous Debility, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the approval testimony we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, containing no alcohol, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures, will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price, viz: Four Bottles, $6 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-simile signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

BININGER'S OLD DOMINION WHEAT-TONIC

—FOR—

FAMILY AND MEDICINAL USE.

This natural product of the most nutritious grain, recommends itself as presenting in a concentrated form the nutritive properties of Wheat, and has received the highest encomiums from critical medical authorities, as possessing qualities that are absolutely PATHENOMIC; this distinguishes it from all other preparations of Wheat, and renders it invaluable to those who are suffering from Consumption, Lung Complaints, Impaired Strength, Lack of Vital Energy, and all diseases which, in their incipient stages, require only a generous diet, and an invigorating, nourishing stimulant.

Put up in quart bottles, in iron-bound cases of one and two dozen each, and sold by all prominent Druggists, Grocers and Town Agents.

Humphreys' Specific Homeopathic Remedies for the People

The Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and independence of Dr. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet that great and long realized want of the public, ready remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were at first but slight ailments, easily cured, if attended to in time. A mere cold, a slight diarrhea, a pain in the side, or a headache, or hoarseness, at first easily cured and subdued, in due season, may confirmed Consumption, Fever, a dangerous dysentery, Croup or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Hence these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so you know at once what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and hence admissible to all, and yet the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has proved that they are the best remedies for families and private persons, as being THE ONLY IN USE, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PLEASANT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands are and have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, who testify to their efficacy, and rank them in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and among our hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

RESTORATIVE STRUCTURE

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR,

is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is refreshing, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system impervious to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all, so chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe this wrecked stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also invaluable in cases of nervous debility, whether arising from a mere cold, a slight diarrhea, a pain in the side, or a headache, or hoarseness, at first easily cured and subdued, in due season, may confirmed Consumption, Fever, a dangerous dysentery, Croup or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Hence these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so you know at once what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and hence admissible to all, and yet the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has proved that they are the best remedies for families and private persons, as being THE ONLY IN USE, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PLEASANT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands are and have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, who testify to their efficacy, and rank them in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and among our hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE

PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON prepared of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innumerable testimonials of its use has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, CONSTIPATION, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOUS, SALT RHEUM, FEMALE DECORATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, and prescribed in their practice, has proved successful to an extent which no description may warrant attention would render credible. Invalids so long bedridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from purgatory, or from the dead. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, and consumption, and critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic services to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the opportunity of this preparation of iron supervenes rarely be salutary; for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-bearing; and gently, regularly, and mild, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its forms, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the Bilious Constipation.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been quick, positive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and resultant hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most carefully balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both acute and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat fat metal boxes containing 50 pills each, price 25 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance, Sick Headache, Exhilarate, Invigorates, but—will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other disorders of the stomach and bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and unfitted for the duties of life, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.

One dose will prevent all Bad Spirits.

One dose will cure Heartburn.

Three doses will cure Indigestion.

One dose will give you a good appetite.

One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much lower night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual system, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is trial, and to induce this, he puts up the Invigorating Spirits in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

MINIATURE COWS.—A writer in the Agricultural Gazette, England, thus describes the Bretonne cow imported from Brittany, France, one of which he has lately purchased:—She stands three feet high, will calve shortly, and promises to have a bag of milk nearly, if not quite, equal to an Alderney. She is two years old. Two dairymen have pronounced judgement upon her to the effect that she is a perfect little wonder, and will be likely to give eight quarts of milk per day with her first calf. These animals are just suited for gentlemen's families. They are of diminutive size, hardy, and little eaters, and furnish pure milk for a family's consumption." [Would not this breed be the very thing for our suburban residences, where an acre or so of lawn is all that can be afforded? Our agricultural societies have been paying premiums for the largest breeds, who will encourage importers to furnish us smaller animals, say of convenient pocket size!—Ed. Agricul.]

LIVE WITHIN YOUR MEANS.—Never involve yourself in debt. Pay your debts, so that other people may pay theirs. Be sure to owe no man anything but love.—Next to the slavery of intemperance, passion, appetite, the galling yoke of oppression, is that of indebtedness, to be harrassed with duns and lawsuits. Pride and extravagance make slaves of thousands, and sometimes bring them to a beggar's door. The man who is everybody's debtor, is everybody's slave, and is in a much worse condition than he who serves a single master.

For the sake of the present, then, as well as for the sake of the future, we would most earnestly urge upon every working man and boy, to live within his means. Let him lay up something every day; if it be a penny be it a penny; it is better than nothing, infinitely better than running in debt a week. If he can earn a dollar, let him try the experiment of living on ninety cents.—He will like it.

By strict temperance and economy in all things, you may by and by enjoy a comfortable home, have a place to lay your head, food and raiment, and a surplus for charity.

TO DRIVE AWAY RATS.—A correspondent of the Gardener's Monthly says: "I tried the effect of introducing into the entrance of their numerous holes, runs or hiding places, small portions of chloride of lime, or bleaching powder, wrapped in calico stuffed into the entrance holes, and thrown loose by spoonfulls into the drain from the house. This drove the rats away for a twelvemonth, when they returned to it. They were treated in the same manner with like effect. The cure was most complete. I presume it was the chloride gas, which did not agree with their olfactories."

An interesting paper on the life and services of William Jarvis, the first importer of Merino sheep into Vermont, was read, at the last meeting of the Historical Society in that State, by his son-in-law, Hampden Cutts.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.
The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and it is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.
Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

New Photographic Establishment.
Having fitted and furnished in modern style, large, pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with the pictures of every description, from the smallest Miniature to life-size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., copied any size desired.
The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping pace with every useful improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him, and, by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.
All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.
Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1860.

CHILD MURDER IN INDIA.

Every body who has read missionary books or papers, or heard much preaching or talk on missions to India, is well aware that the heathenism there is charged with four enormities, viz: 1, the foolish and wicked Caste; 2, the burning of widows at their husbands' funeral pyre; 3, the voluntary death by the car of Juggernaut; and 4, the drowning of infants in the Ganges, by their fanatical mothers.

Mr. Gangooly, in his new book, treats all these subjects with the utmost apparent candor and impartiality. And as he certainly knows all about the matter, and at the same time can have no conceivable temptation to tell anything else than the truth in the case, his testimony goes to condemn the whole system of Caste, as evil and only evil, indeed the great curse of the country.

As to the burning of widows, his testimony confirms the statement that suttees have taken place, and to some extent may still do so, being sanctioned and occasioned by their superstition. They are, however, voluntary.

The deaths at the feast of Juggernaut, he says, are all accidental, and never designed; for no human sacrifice is, or ever was, offered to that deity.

As to the Drowning of the Infants, or throwing them into the Ganges, by their mothers, or by any body else, it is an enormity which he never heard of till he got into this country.

His testimony on this matter is so decisive, and at the same time so interesting, that we copy it in full, from the appendix to his "Life and Religion of the Hindoos."

MR. GANGOOLY'S STATEMENT.

Ever since my arrival in America I have heard with great surprise the statement, received on the authority of the missionaries, that the Hindoo mothers throw their infants into the river Ganges. Almost every man, woman, boy, or girl, in these United States knows it, and has seen illustrations of it in various books. During my tour over some sixteen States and the Canadas, I noticed that the Hindoo mother, her baby, and the alligator, were the subjects of constant inquiry. The story of the infants being thrown into the Ganges by their heartless mistaken mothers, is believed by the people of this country to be either a custom or a religious institution of the Hindoos.

I am aware that to speak against this prevalent belief is to falsify the reports of travellers, and to criticise the statements of foreign writers who have disseminated this report throughout the whole length and breadth of the land. On the other hand, I cannot suffer a groundless and strange story to run so freely through the Christian community, and bring upon the innocent women of India such undeserved reproach.

do not wish to cover the really defective institutions of my country. Her religion, rather than custom, sanctions suicide in different ways, as manifested in the voluntary offering of the widows upon the funeral fire of their husbands. The throwing of babies into the Ganges or to the alligators, then, I would say never was in the customs or religious ordinances of India.—I never heard of it even as a grandmother's story; while, on the other hand, my mother and other friends often spoke of the widows who burned themselves alive with their dead husbands, of their preparation, their bidding farewell to their children, committing them to the care of some kind relative, etc. It seems strange to me, that, being a native of India, a Hindoo, yea, a Brahmin, by birth, I did not know nor hear of this custom of my own country, which is known to the people who live nearly eighteen thousand miles from the same.—What did not come to my knowledge during my twenty-one years of life in India, came to my ear on the day I reached America. "What is this?" they ask me. "What do they mean? Hindoo mothers throw their babies into the Ganges to be devoured by alligators! Horrible!! Hindoo mothers do such things!! The same mothers that sit with malshas (earthern pans) with fire burning upon them, on their heads, shoulders, hands, laps, before the goddess Doorga, and solicit the health and life of their children! The same that lie down without food and drink before the temple, in case of the severe illness of their children, and who vow to appear before the goddess with an axe tied round their necks, or to shed blood by voluntarily tearing the flesh from their own breasts as an expression of gratitude for the recovery of their children?"

The Hindoo parents love their children as well as do any parents in Christendom; or perhaps I should say more, for some reasons of which Christians are ignorant.—The redemption of the Hindoo parents depends in a great measure upon the lives of the children, who send their spirits to their destination by a peculiar ceremony.—[Note.—It might perhaps be said by some, that, as the Hindoos do not regard the female child worthy to redeem the soul of her parent by Shrautho (as I have myself observed in the first part of this book), they might throw her into the water. To this I reply, that a male child of a daughter has the same privileg with the sons of the father, to make the Shrautho. Hence, in India, the daughter cannot inherit her parents' property, but her son is the heir of the same.] They believe the childless person has no heaven to inherit, no celestial pleasures to enjoy. The Hindoo religion commands a man to marry several wives, in order to raise up seed needed for his spiritual welfare, to say nothing of his temporal. In case of failure, he secures the birthright of a male child by adoption.

Now the question comes, Did these honest travellers and the revered missionaries report a falsehood? In reply, I would say, I have no right to answer for them. They know the grounds of their assertion, whether it is based upon their personal knowledge of the case, or upon the story of some fabuleller, who often takes advantage of our ignorance and deceives us accordingly. I have shown, by reasons drawn from the Hindoo scripture, as well as from custom, that the sacrifice of an infant is as monstrous in the sight of a woman of India as of America. I will allege further, that the maternal affection is everywhere the same, implanted in the human breast by the Creator.

I thought that perhaps some traveller might have seen it done in certain portions of India, away from the civilized and learned communities. In fact, several of my friends here said, perhaps I do not know this. I was in Bengal; it might have taken place among the ignorant people in the wild regions. To my great surprise I met the following in a large pictorial work on India, published in Boston. "Here (from the Saugor island) thousands of mothers have thrown their children into the Ganges to be devoured by alligators; not because they were destitute of maternal affection, but because a mother's love was overpowered by her fears of the wrath of some offended deity." Those who have ever visited Calcutta, know that the Saugor island is at the mouth of the Ganges, and only a few hundred miles from the city of wealth, learning and refinement. To present this matter in its true light, I will describe this island and the sanctity attached to it. It is less settled by men than by wild beasts. It has a population of tigers, monkeys, and wolves. Very few children of Adam dare to dwell among these disagreeable inmates of the isle. There is a lighthouse, however, built by the British. The men who take care of the light, and a few solitary monks who live there, are considered the destined prey of the tigers, who are ready, whenever an opportunity occurs, to make their meal of them, or, to use a Hindoo expression, "if not a breakfast, a dinner, or a supper." This place being near the confluence of the river Ganges with the sea, is regarded as sacred by the Hindoos, who resort there in the month of January to bathe, and spend three days in tents pitched on the sandy banks of the river. Its sanctity draws immense crowds only once a year, when hardly any mother carries her child with her, as the place, as well as the river, is very dreadful. The efficacy consists in the bathing in this place, not in throwing children into the river.—Those who go there go for the purpose of purifying themselves with the sacred water, and not to commit so cruel a murder as throwing children into the river.

So much for the Saugor island. I have sometimes looked at this matter in a different way; that a traveller had seen perhaps an insane woman throw her child into the water, which he interpreted as the institution of the "heathens." But it seems to me an unjust inference, to name the fruit of insanity, as the custom of a people, to stigmatize a whole people for the folly of one, or a few even. I read in a Boston paper, that the number of suicides in the United States is nine per week. Will it be proper for me to report in India that suicide is the custom of the American people? No, I cannot tell such a story.—When I am asked about it, I will ascribe it to insanity, or drunkenness. Once more, I will say, then, as a Brahmun, I never knew or heard of the story of children, thrown by their mothers into the Ganges. If a Hindoo mother hears this story she will press her babe close to her heart and say "Sweet treasure, I have drained the ocean for you. My tender kiss is more genial to you than the sharp lips of the alligator. My loving lap is a better place for you than the unconscious bed of the Ganges!"

KILLED BY LIGHTNING. — Mr. Cyrus Greeley, of Lewiston, Me., informs the Journal of that town that during the thunder storm on Friday of last week, a boy about ten years of age, son of Mr. G.'s brother, Henry Greeley, Jr., of Mount Vernon, was instantly killed by a stroke of lightning. When the shower came up, the boy was in the barn with his father and another man, threshing. During the progress of shower, the boy went out of the barn, and had just stepped his foot upon the sill to return, when the lightning struck the barn, and passing down one of the door posts, hit him, instantly killing him, and also killing one of the horses in the threshing machine, besides severely shocking both of the men in the barn. The horror-stricken father immediately seized his boy, carried him to a pump, and applied cold water.—But it was too late. The stroke had instantly killed him. The boy was an uncommonly promising youth, and his sad and sudden death is a most severe blow to his grief-stricken parents.

OPENING OF THE BOSTON AND LYNN HORSE RAILROAD.—We learn from the Lynn Reporter that the first car on this road passed through Lynn on Friday last, about one o'clock, having left Boston about twelve. It was drawn by four beautiful black horses, who wore plumes to their headstalls, and handsome harnesses. The car belonged to the Winnisimmet Railroad Company, the Lynn cars not being quite completed. Some of them, however, are nearly finished, and will be placed on the road in about a week.

Will some one who is well versed in railroad matters, tell us why a Horse Railroad would not answer a good purpose, between Candia and Manchester.

☞ Rev. C. Tenny, a native of Chester, late pastor of the Congregational Church in Plaistow, is now preaching in Biddeford, Me. The society contemplate erecting a new house of worship, 80 by 45 feet.

☞ We have published the statement that a Council of Churches at Medford, have decided unanimously in favor of Rev. Mr. Nason's remaining there, though he was called to Exeter. The Exeter News Letter of Monday publishes the same, and then adds the following note:

Since the above was in type, we learn that the Rev. Mr. Nason has accepted the call from the First Congregational Society in Exeter, and he will be installed on Monday, Nov. 26.

FATAL AFFRAY AT NEW HAVEN.—George S. Stafford, who was struck by a slung shot and stabbed in a drinking house in New Haven, on Saturday night last, by some students of Yale, (to their shame be it said,) died of his wounds the same evening. The names of the students are Nelson A. Baldwin, of Newark, and B. K. Bolden of Brooklyn, medical students, and W. H. McCullen of Albany, law student. The case creates considerable excitement in New Haven.

LITTLE BY LITTLE, or the Cruise of the Flyaway. This is a story for Young Folks, by Oliver Optic, author of the Boat Club, All Aboard, Now or Never, Try Again, Poor and Proud, In Doors and Out, &c., &c. It is a neat volume of 230 pages, in blue and gilt, just published by Crosby, Nichols, Lee & Co., Boston, and for sale in Portsmouth by James F. Shores jr.

This is one of the best Holiday Books for Youth, though it has come six weeks or so beforehand. The name of Oliver Optic is ample guaranty that the book will be bought and read by those who have read its five predecessors, written by the same author.

His books are all of good moral tendency, and all within the bounds of reasonable imagination, and pleasant as well as profitable fiction. "Little by Little" is a sea story, with its principal scenes laid on our own coast, from Boston to Portland, including Portsmouth harbor, Kittery Point, the Shoals, &c.; and the story will be read with interest and benefit by many a boy, and by not a few girls.

BRIDGE ON FIRE.—On Saturday the Central Bridge at Lowell came near being destroyed by fire. There was a leak in the gas pipe, and an Irishman in the employ of the company while endeavoring to find it, ignited the gas with his pipe. It was extinguished before obtaining much headway.

The very obvious moral is, Don't set men with pipes in their mouths, about any business of importance, unless you wish it ruined.

HOMEOPATHISTS.—A German journal says there are now in practice 3254 homeopathic physicians. Of these there are 1612 in America, 566 in Germany, 403 in France, 244 in England, 94 in Spain, 26 in Belgium, 7 in Holland, 141 in Italy, 34 in Switzerland, 67 in Russia, 47 in Portugal, 4 in Asia, and 6 in Africa.

☞ It is said that the weekly consumption of gold leaf by the book-binders in London, in enriching the exterior of books, amounts to 3,000,000 square inches; and the weight of paper shavings sold annually by the binders, cut off the edges of books, is about 350 tons.

☞ It appears that the old man Robert Horton, of Portland, who was lately killed on the railroad, aged 98, was in his youth, a vender of fruit about the streets, and was the first to introduce hot coffee as a beverage in place of the eleven or four o'clock dram.

☞ Godey's Lady's Book for December contains the close of Two Ways of Keeping a Wife, with other interesting literature;—and it is profusely illustrated, containing a double Fashion Plate, Brides and Bridesmaids, Christmas in the City, Christmas in the Country; with many more.

☞ The colored population of Philadelphia is from twenty to twenty-five thousand. They own property to the amount of nearly three million dollars, and have schools and churches valued at from four to five hundred thousand dollars.

☞ A venerable Methodist minister, Rev. Asa Kent, recently died in Massachusetts at an advanced age. In 1809 he preached in Poplin, now Fremont, and not far from the same time in Portsmouth.

SHINGLES FOR BROGANS.—During the past year six acres of pine timber are said to have been used in and about Natick for the manufacture of shingles for the soles of brogans.

A daughter of D. W. C. Wentworth of Wakefield, a year and eight months old, died on the 10th ult., of small pox. There had been about a dozen cases in that town, but it is hoped the disease has nearly subsided. So says the Carroll County Register.

☞ At the Newmarket (England) races Mr. Tenbroeck's American horse "Umpire" beat "Tom Bowline" in a match for 1000 sovereigns.

TO DYSPEPTICS.—Soda, Magnesia, and all Alkalics, either afford but temporary relief, or confirm the disease into a chronic affection. The Oxygenated Bitters immediately relieve and permanently cure all forms of Dyspepsia, and stomach difficulties.

OVER-WORKED WOMEN.—An overworked woman is always a sad sight—sadder a great deal than an over-worked man, because she is so much more fertile in capacities of suffering than a man. She has so many varieties of headache—sometimes as if Jael were driving the nail that killed Sisera into her temples—sometimes letting her work with half her brain, while the other half throbs as if would go to pieces—sometimes tightening round the brows as if her cap band were Luke's iron crown—and then her neuralgias, and her backaches, and fits of depression, in which she thinks she is nothing, and less than nothing, and those paroxysms which men speak slightingly of as hysterical—convulsions that is all, only not commonly fatal ones—so many trials which belong to her fine and mobile structure, that she is always entitled to pity, when she is placed in conditions which develop her nervous tendencies.—Dr. O. W. Holmes.

A BEE IN A MAN'S EAR.—Charles C. Clark, of Bolton, Saratoga county, New York, while hiving a swarm of bees more than two years ago, was stung by one in the left ear, which very soon swelled and became very painful. After a short time, however, the inflammatory symptoms subsided, leaving some little degree of deafness.—Since that time he has had an occasional ear-ache and a strange feeling in the head. On the 24th ult. Dr. Maine, of Bolton made an examination of the ear, and extracted therefrom a large honey bee, in perfect shape and form, that had been thus preserved for more than two years.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and others of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Catarrh is the most difficult of any of the Diseases of the Breathing Organs to relieve or to cure. The Rev. Joshua Leavitt, editor of the Independent of New York, who had the Catarrh for more than twenty years, has been cured by using Dr. J. R. Stafford's Olive Tar and Iron and Sulphur Powders, which are advertised in this paper. His testimonial is published in a pamphlet among others equally prominent who have been cured of chronic Throats and Lung difficulties, which will be sent free by mail.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

PORTSMOUTH, Aug. 3, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & Co., Boston.

Gents:—Please send me by express two dozen OXYGENATED BITTERS. With us there is an increasing demand for this excellent specific for Dyspepsia and its attendant evils, and we know of no remedy more fully entitled to the confidence of the public. Without any, disclaiming any intention of puffing the article, as its own merits are a sufficient guarantee of all that it purports to be. Very respectfully yours,

WM. R. PRESTON.

Governor Vote, 1860.
Goodwin	343	366	112	821
Cate	243	218	208	669
				1490

The majority for Fremont in this city, was 59. Lincoln's majority is 219.

☞ In Ward 1, a voter threw a ballot for the following revolutionary patriots, long since deceased.

John Langdon, Wm. Whipple, Josiah Bartlett, Matthew Thornton, Pierce Long.

☞ The Portsmouth Wide Awakes, under command of Capt. Fuller, paraded for the last time prior to election, on Monday evening, visiting the highways and by-ways, rather than the principal streets. The parade was not anticipated by our citizens, consequently the illuminations were by no means general; but one patriotic citizen, Capt. Charles Chase, getting an inkling of the fact that the portion of Water St. upon which his residence is situated was to be visited, received the undaunted Wide Awakes with a blaze of light from every pane,—with transparencies and banners, and the still greater adornment of a bevy of beauty in and about the dwelling. The company was halted and with three ringing cheers acknowledged the compliment thus unexpectedly paid.

At the close of the parade, Capt. Fuller took occasion to thank the Wide Awakes for the efficient service rendered by them during the campaign, for their soldierly and gentlemanly deportment, and the alacrity with which they had at all times obeyed the orders of their officers, and advised that the organization be continued until the March election of 1861, which suggestion appeared to meet the approbation of all present.

☞ The Kittery Wide Awaks, under command of Capt. Wentworth, visited Old York by invitation on Monday evening, and after a lengthy march, partook of an excellent collation, provided for them by the Republicans of York. The "wee small hours" were not far distant when the invincible torch-bearers of Kittery reached their homes.

Newcastle also had its demonstration in which all Republicans participated, and the occasion was one of much enthusiasm.

THE CANDIA BRANCH RAILROAD.—The Manchester Mirror of Nov. 5, says: "The Candia Railroad is to be built some time, and how soon depends somewhat on the liberality of the people along the line of the route. The corporation has employed James A. Weston, of Manchester, to make the preliminary surveys, and he has already commenced upon them. Whether it will pass by Massabesic Pond or Rowe's Corner depends upon circumstances. The leading business men of the city have determined that the road shall be built, and are willing to subscribe liberally for the stock. The best trade that Manchester has, comes from the little New Hampshire Central, even now after its head and neck have been cut off. The Branch would be of more service to our trade. It would open to us the whole line of towns from here to Portsmouth, now almost strangers to us. It would make the shortest route of travel from Portland to New York and the cheapest, as there would be no need of trucking baggage. It would be of more advantage to Manchester than several large cotton mills, and we rejoice in the belief that it will be built. It would be of great value to the city of Portsmouth, as from there we should be likely to take our cotton, coal, salt and heavy articles."

☞ The Manchester Mirror says that Mr. George Noyes who has lately been conductor on a train that is discontinued on the Concord and Portsmouth railroad, commenced to run on the Concord and Boston road, Monday morning, filling for the present or until an appointment is made, the vacancy in the conductorship of that road, occasioned by the resignation of Gen. Corning.

Messrs. Editors:—I am pleased to see that some of our City Ordinances have been so thoroughly carried into effect by our efficient City Marshal. If a certain class of persons, who have been so badly persecuted (as they think) by said Marshal, would examine sections 4, 7 and 8 of our City Ordinances, Act No. 8, providing for the appointment and prescribing the duties of the City Marshal, the laws might tend to alter various opinions which they entertain.

MIZON.

THE ELECTION.

We give below all the returns received by private hands, mail, express, and telegraph, up to 3 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The result thus far show a signal triumph of the Republicans; and undoubtedly Lincoln and Hamlin are President and Vice President elect of the United States. The defeat of Burlingame, Congressional candidate in the 5th district of Massachusetes, caused great rejoicing on the part of his opponents, and much disappointment among his friends.

MAINE.

Fifteen towns in Maine give a Republican gain of 2,044 over State election.

Lincoln 15,743; Douglas 7093; Breck. 1405; Bell 743. In the city of Portland the vote is as follows:—Lincoln 2631; Douglas 1027; Breck. 120; Bell 138; being a republican net gain over the September election, of 386. Other towns show the same result; the Republicans having everything their own way.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

	Lincoln	Doug.	Breck.	Bell
Portsmouth	778	418	126	13
Newington	73	44	14	2
Greenland	84	31	11	4
N. Hampton	82	36	58	1
Hampton	141	53	39	1
Hamp. Falls	84	30	10
Seabrook	162	17	84

We were unable to get the respective vote of each town in New Hampshire, but the result in 131 towns give Lincoln 27,445; Douglas 18,314; Breck. 1511; Bell 309.—Lincoln's plurality will reach near 10,000.

VERMONT.

Returns show that Vermont has gone for Lincoln by twenty-five thousand maj.

MASSACHUSETTS.

The vote of 59 towns in Massachusetts gives Lincoln 24,858; Douglas 7,146;—Breckinridge 1,188; Bell 5,587.

For Governor—Andrew, 17,416; Lawrence 4,661; Beach 5,392; Butler 1,006.

In the 5th District, Burlingame 7,723; Appleton 7,898. Rice elected in 4th District by a heavy majority. It appears by the foregoing figures that Burlingame is defeated; but it is doubted by many.

Later.—149 towns in Massachusetts (not including Boston) give Lincoln 53,299; Douglas 15,724; Bell 12,238; Breck. 3197. These towns give about half the vote of the State. Andrew (Rep.) is elected Governor by a heavy majority. Legislature largely republican.

The vote of Boston foots up for Lincoln 9,723; Bell 5,166; Douglas 4,606; Breck. 876. All republican members of Congress elected in the State, except Burlingame, who has been defeated by 187 votes.

RHODE ISLAND.

PROVIDENCE, 5 o'clock, P. M.—This city has probably given Lincoln 1000 majority; and the State has given over 2500 majority. [The dispatches are very irregular, and much confused.]

CONNECTICUT.

Lincoln's majority will be several thousand in the whole State.

NEW YORK.

Kings county, including six wards in Brooklyn, also Flatbush and Flatland give 52 maj. for Lincoln. In New York city, 3d ward gives the Union ticket 571, and the Republican 285. In the 5th ward, Union 2151; Rep. 1133. 10th ward, Union 2193; Rep. 1462. 11th ward, Union 4205; Rep. 1940. 9th ward, Union 3944; Rep. 2938. The Union majority in New York city will not exceed 30,000.

Returns from 29 small towns in New York State show large Republican gains.—The State is undoubtedly gone for Lincoln by from forty to fifty thousand majority.

NEW JERSEY.

Scattering returns from New Jersey indicate the success of the Republican ticket.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Thirty-one districts heard from give Lincoln 2,300 increased majority over October election; consequently carrying the State by an overwhelming majority.

VIRGINIA.

Results show that Virginia has gone for Bell.

NORTH CAROLINA

Raleigh gives Bell 231 majority. The State has probably gone for Breckinridge.

MARYLAND.

Baltimore complete, gives Breck. 14,850; Bell 12,619; Douglas 1562; Lincoln 1032. The Bell men claim to have carried Maryland by 2000 majority.

☞ At about two o'clock on Wednesday morning, the Portsmouth Wide Awakes, under command of Capt. Fuller, proceeded to the house of Gov. Goodwin, to communicate to him the result of the Presidential contest. Capt. F., in behalf of the Wide Awakes addressed His Excellency with a brief and appropriate speech, asking his sympathy and congratulation on the success of the Republicans; to which the Governor responded in a pithy manner. After marching through the principal streets the Company returned to their Headquarters, and from thence departed for their several homes, to join the society of the Fast Asleeps.

☞ The alarm of fire at 11 o'clock on Tuesday night, was occasioned by the burning of a portion of the North Mill, occupied by Mr. Rand and Daniel Mason. The northerly portion of the building was entirely consumed, and it was only by the most strenuous exertions that any part of the structure was saved. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary, it having been set below, while the occupants were at work in the upper story. Mr. Mason suffers the heaviest loss, as the fire was set in the part which he occupied. His property destroyed (which consisted of blinds, sashes, &c.,) was valued at about $1400; together with a large quantity of tools, valued at $600. The whole was insured for $1000.

Cook Stoves.

Autocrat of the Kitchen.—35,000 in use

THE ORIGINAL P. P. STEWART,

FUEL-SAVING AND COMFORT-PRODUCING LARGE OVEN, SUMMER AND WINTER

AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE,

FOR WOOD & ANTHRACITE OR BITUMINOUS COAL Improved in 1859 with New and Extra Large Flues, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue.

Attention is invited to the following Points of Superiority:

DURABILITY.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

CAPACITY.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

ECONOMY.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

VENTILATION OF OVEN.—In the Stewart Stove alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (protected by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that, as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

ENTIRE CONTROL OF HEAT.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

THE DOUBLE SHEET BOTTOM FLUE.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

BROILING.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

HOT WATER RESERVOIR AND WARMING CLOSET.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

WATER BACK.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of P. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL,

MADE BY

THE BARSTOW STOVE COMPANY,

Of Providence, R. I.

In introducing a new Cook Stove, of singularly novel construction and arrangement, it is proper that we speak of its peculiar merits.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking giving an oven nearly 3 ft. long! or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! The advantages of this arrangement over that adopted for roasting in the Stewart and other stoves, by extending the oven, with a tin roaster in front of the fire, are obvious, viz:

1st. This permanent extension of the stove costs no more than the temporary extension by a tin roaster, while this is the most durable, tasteful and useful.

2d. As the flues of the stove extend over and under the entire size of the oven, it is more easily and surely heated than a tin roaster, which receives no heat except what it borrows from the baking oven.

3d. By this arrangement the processes of roasting and baking are entirely separated, while by the others they are carried on together, the fumes of both being intermingled.

4th. By this arrangement the roasting oven can be attached to the baking oven in a single moment of time, when occasion requires; or it can be used for a hot closet when not required for baking or roasting.

5th. By this extension an additional boiler hole and other room is gained on the top of the stove, while, at the same time the stove occupies no more room on the floor.

We might make extended notice of some other things peculiar to this stove, as compared with other high-priced Air-Tight Cook Stoves, but will barely allude to them, viz:

1st. The double plates each side of the fire prevent any leak of ashes into the oven and make the stove more durable.

2d. The admission of external air between these plates, for the ventilation of the roasting oven, tends also to the preservation of the plates most exposed to destruction.

3d. The durable dump grate, with the ash box of ample size to receive the ashes and coals, is an attractive feature of the stove.

4th. The draft door, at each end of the fire box, is a great convenience when a quick fire is wanted.

5th. The movable ash pan, which, though it forms a hearth to the stove, need not be used except once or twice a day for taking up and carrying away the ashes.

6th. The stove has but one damper, and but one division of flues on the back of and under the oven, ensuring a very quick bake.

7th The stove is made in the most thorough manner; the doors and roasting oven are lined with tin, and tin jackets are provided for the back and bottom plates. A hot closet and tank can be added if required. With any reasonable care, the stove will last a life-time, and we know it to be "perfect in its operation."

This stove was thoroughly tested before brought into the market, and we know that all that is said of it will be found true on trial of the stove.

John Trundy, Esq., one of our most practical and scientific mechanics, who has had large experience in the construction of stove patterns in years past, and has for many years been using one of the Stewart Stoves, has purchased one of the MODEL COOKS, and after a fair trial pronounces it far superior to the Stewart or any stove he has ever seen, for economy, convenience and dispatch. We might also refer to several other parties who are using the stove, and who award it the very highest praise.

The MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be the stove for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is wanted.

We have nought to say against any other stove, believing that a man can sell his own goods without running his neighbors; but this we do say, that we honestly believe this is the best stove that can be found in the world; and what is more, we think others will agree with us after a trial of it. We invite any one to examine the stove, whether they wish to purchase or not.

For sale, with a great variety of

Furnaces, Ranges, Cooking, Office and Parlor Stoves; Coal Hods, Sifters, Funnel, Stove-Repairing Pieces, Parlor Grates, Etc.

SABBATH AT ALL TIMES.—By different nations every day in the week is set apart for public worship—Sunday by the Christians, Monday by the Greeks, Tuesday by the Persians, Wednesday by the Assyrians, Thursday by the Egyptians, Friday, by the Turks, and Saturday by the Jews. Add to this, the fact of the diurnal revolution of the earth, giving every variation of longitude a different hour, and it becomes apparent that every moment is Sabbath somewhere.

ANTI-RHEUMATIC CORDIAL,

A PREPARATION FOR THE CURE OF INFLAMMATORY AND CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC GOUT, NEURALGIC RHEUMATISM, SCIATICA, AND LUMBAGO.

Hundreds of testimonials to the good resulting from the use of this Cordial could be offered—but the following will suffice:

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Sept. 6, 1860.

I hereby certify that I have used a variety of preparations for the cure of Rheumatism, but have found none of them whose effect was so immediate and lasting as Zollickoffer's Anti-Rheumatic Cordial, and would advise all afflicted with that painful disease to give it a fair trial.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, Under the act of 1837.

78 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions, and opinions rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them, elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND RELIABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office at Washington can offer the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to form a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 5, 1858.

"Mr. E. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that, one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAYLOR.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected application, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,

FOR MAKING

Bread, Tea Cakes,

All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,

MANUFACTURED BY

EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,

Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded within a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house-keepers, bakers, &c., &c.

Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, nutty flavor, is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.

It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast cannot be obtained, or is not good. In all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other leaven, frequently of the most inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.

It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the sacrificial value of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating the cavity in the dough. By the using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious, fermentation, as has been shown, is left as a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method would make about 320 lbs., gives by this process 250 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions in each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,

Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.

"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, which, in the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.

The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers and prove the compound worthy of public approval and extended use.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
18 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860.

HOW TO USE IT.

We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.

BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter the size of an egg, and make the paste the paste with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.

LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.

GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add an egg and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.

BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg; then three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.

DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter the size of an egg; make a stiff cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.

CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; add a cup of butter and two cups of sugar and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.

CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.

JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three tea spoonfuls of Leaven; rub in one teacupful of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; make stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.

ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, six pounds of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.

CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add the gill of molasses and two eggs; mix thin with milk and bake in a slow oven.

CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all beaten together; mix with milk, and add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.

LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the whites of six eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.

WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of flour, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, pound of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to the taste. Bake about half an hour.

PROF. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also invigorates, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully compounded as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe this wonderful stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the profession, skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility is the cause of most diseases, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Debility, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so decidedly fatal if unattended to in time, and Female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidney, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, pretty nigh all the Delight Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate pretty nigh all the ills of humanity. Or to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic influences, and cure the disease at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travelers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a table-spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not untoned to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty, but beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Blood Renovator. Take a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—all that Wood is all we claim.

Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, but of your sons, for, ere they are aware, they are bounds, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their mothers know their ills, the latter, if there are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would leave the downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal for we are sure you will never failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in case of need.

Dr. Mott's

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE

PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combination in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice. Very mild in operation, and so perfect that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the Blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, SKIN-RESTORATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, if critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

IN NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the oil of iron, it is vigorously toxic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Pills, of this kind, has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to the DYSENTERY, attended with pain, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local symptoms of LOW fever, strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has always met the views of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy, as a tonic and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Blood appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

Dr. Darius Ham's

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance, Dysentery, Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy dyspeptic, or nervous invalid, restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the most racking pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaint, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

New Photographic Establishment.

Having fitted and furnished in modern style, the pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with Sun Pictures of every description, from the smallest Miniature to life-size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., copied and improved to desired.

The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping pace with every useful improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.

All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.

Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1860.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

A PROCLAMATION

For a Day of Public Thanksgiving and Praise.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY ICHABOD GOODWIN.

It becomes us, as the disciples of Christ, at all times to confess our humble gratitude to God, for his mercy and goodness; and especially should we acknowledge the beneficence which, through the past Year, has continued us as a people in the enjoyment of civil and religious liberty, and which has preserved us from pestilence and war.

General health has prevailed to an unusual degree, industrial pursuits have prospered, and the labors of the husbandman have been abundantly crowned with success.

On the ingathering of the harvest, it has been our custom to set apart a day on which to return thanks for these and countless other blessings; and in accordance therewith, I do, with advice of the Executive Council, appoint Thursday, the twenty-ninth of November, for this object; and I recommend to all the people of the State, that they assemble on that day, with grateful hearts, in their usual places of public worship;—and that while happy in social and family re-union, they will not forget to distribute out of their abundance to those less prosperous and favored than themselves.

Given at the Council Chamber, in Concord, this eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-fifth.

ICHABOD GOODWIN.

By His Excellency the Governor, with advice of Council.

THOMAS L. TULLOCK, Secretary of State.

☞ When George IV. visited France after the restoration of the Bourbons, his royal brother Louis XVIII. was sadly troubled with the gout, so as to be unable to stand up, and was obliged to receive in a sitting posture the King of England. But it would not do for the latter to stand in the presence of the seated King of France. So it was arranged that two state chairs should be provided, one for each sovereign, and the two monarchs should thus be trundled towards each other from opposite ends of a hall, and both sitting, exchange greeting without sacrifice of their peerage.

☞ The Queen of England has conferred the honor of knighthood upon Edward Jordon, of Kingston, Jamaica, a colored man. We wonder, says the Christian Era, what some of those who expended their thousands for the Prince's Ball in Boston or New York would have said had they known at the time what his mother had done? So it is—an English Knight could not be an American citizen, on account of his color!

NEXT TO THE LAST.—At Montgomery, Alabama, on Friday evening last, the deck of the steamer Virginia gave way while Mr. Douglas was making his farewell speech.—He with the crowd was precipitated below. Fortunately no one was hurt. Mrs. Douglas held on to to the railing of the steamer and was rescued uninjured. Both returned immediately to the hotel. One other breakdown befell Douglas and his friends on Tuesday, when his whole platform gave way and let them all down.

☞ The St. Louis, Mo., Democrat states that a total of 80,000 Buffalo robes have been received in that city during the present year. These robes are all tanned by the Indian squaws; their lords of creation do not stoop to such works of art—they do the hunting. We understand that, owing to the last winter being so warm, no less than 50,000 robes were left on the hands of dealers.

☞ Hans Christian Andersen, the genial, child-loving man, is an old bachelor, and is believed to have never been in love. So Lamb and Irving were unmarried, though more lovable men never lived. Perhaps we are all the richer for the celibacy of these kindly men, since they have lavished on the public the generous feelings which other men confine to their own families.

☞ The Philadelphia North American notices the arrival in that city of a number of quadroons, who have preferred to leave Charleston rather than submit to the law recently passed by the Legislature, obliging all free colored people to wear a distinctive badge.

THE ELECTION.

It is remarked, we think truly, that no doubt is expressed by the Democrats, of Lincoln's election by the unanimous vote of all the Northern States this side the Rocky Mountains.

Newburyport has voted Republican for the first time. What the Herald says of that city is mainly true of this, viz., "that during the whole day there was no noise or confusion at the polls; and when the work was over, it was so well done that everybody was pleased. The Republicans turned out in procession, with torches, banners and music; held a meeting for speeches, and partook of a collation. The Douglas men were satisfied at the result, as having travelled several months towards the Republicans they had at last overtaken them, and when they turned to pack up the spoils of victory, the two embraced as loving brothers. The Bell-Everetts rejoiced at the defeat of Burlingame; that was enough to light their pipes. And never were there more fortunate fellows than the Breckinridgers, for not having any candidates, they had nothing to gain and nothing to lose—no hope to rise or fear to fall."

Here the Breckinridge party had candidates, and threw quite a vote.

We see it stated in many papers that the loss of members of the House, will throw the Republicans into a minority in both Houses of Congress. This is not strictly true—for they are in a minority now, and have never had a majority at all. Their Speaker in the House was chosen, once by a plurality, and once by a coalition; and for aught we see, one of these things will be done again, and we think easier and better than before. No other party, of the four, can come near them for numbers.

In the Senate, the Republicans are gaining steadily, and with the Oregon coalition with the Douglas party, the free interest as opposed to slavery dictation, is gaining so rapidly as to give it increased strength.

The success of the Bell ticket in several of the middle States, just south of the line of division, and the known conservatism of the large States which voted for Lincoln, are quite satisfactory to the mass of Republican voters everywhere.

It is true that during the canvass, papers at the North have pretended, and many persons at the South may have believed that the Republican party were revolutionary and incendiary, and that they invade, or try to invade, the constitutional privileges of the slave-holding States, and some have absurdly pretended that they would countenance an armed invasion of the States themselves.

It is not true, however, of any voting abolition party, that they pretend to possess any power to interfere, politically or legally, with slavery in the States. And even the non-voters, Mr. Garrison among them, —do not set up for any such pretence. The Republicans are very far from it, and especially Mr. Lincoln, who has placed his views on record most unmistakably, in his debate with Mr. Douglas.

Lincoln and Hamlin both, on this subject, will stand where Washington, Jefferson, and the Adamses stood, where Madison placed his record; they will resist, as best they may, the encroachments of slavery on the freedom of white men and black.

And in this the country will sustain them! not merely the Republican, but more than half the late Douglas party, more than three-quarters of those who voted for Bell, and not a few who voted for Breckinridge.

CENSUS OF THE NORTHWEST.—The census returns are now so nearly completed that we can approximate closely to the population of the Northwest. It will stand as follows:

Ohio,	2,500,000
Indiana,	1,400,000
Illinois,	1,600,000
Wisconsin,	900,000
Michigan,	750,000
Iowa,	700,000
Minnesota,	180,000
Total,	8,030,000

This is equal to the white population of the fifteen slave States. More than one-fourth of the population of the United States is now in the Northwest. Its population is nearly to New York, Pennsylvania and New England combined.

PAPAL PROTRACTED MEETING.—A correspondent of the Congregationalist, writing from Lawrence, says:—

The Roman Catholics of this city have been holding a protracted meeting. Some missionaries from New York have been here for the last two weeks, preaching every day, and have been listened to by thousands. At five o'clock every morning, their cathedral would be crowded, and in the evening the operatives of the factories, and the laborers on the highways, and the servants of nearly every house in Lawrence, would hurry from their work, to their holy place, and hang on the lips of the preacher with great apparent eagerness until ten o'clock. Some of the sermons were, in part, quite evangelical. The terrors of the judgment and of an eternal hell were set before the people in a most vivid manner, and by figures calculated greatly to alarm them—yet one could not help feeling that thoughts of the comforting absolution of the confessional and the prayers which money could purchase, to deliver them from purgatory, would ward off the most terrific appeals of that kind.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Herald telegraphs under date of Nov. 1st, as follows:—

Intelligence received this morning from Baltimore states that a terrible panic exists in that city, and that all branches of business, commercial as well as financial, is completely paralyzed. This city is also largely affected by the panic, and real estate has depreciated fifty per cent. within the last two weeks. Our merchants are making no purchases, waiting with breathless anxiety the result of the Presidential election. The election of Lincoln will certainly produce a revulsion, the like of which never has been known in this or any other country, and one for which it is more than probable no remedy can be found.

☞ Among the curiosities to be seen at the Mechanics' Fair in Richmond, Va., is a doll which has been played with by five generations, deposited by Miss Georgia Powell; a diamond ring three hundred years old, deposited by Mrs. A. P. Alten; and last, but not least, the cradle in which Henry Clay was rocked.

☞ The New Orleans papers report the descent of the police on a regular African "Incantation." Half a dozen naked African women were dancing around a cauldron in which a snake was boiling. The object of the "voudouk rites" was to deliver a man from the city prison. The "witches" were taken to the lock-up.

☞ Pinkerton Academy in Derry has had 133 different students the past year.—The High School in Candia under the instruction of Rev. A. B. Bradley has about 35. That at Raymond in charge of Mr. Chase has about 25.

☞ Niphon, the name given by the Japanese to their country, means "the rising of the sun." They call their country Niphon, because it is the most easterly point of Asia. They know nothing of "Japan."

The Churchman is engaged in a bitter warfare upon the Rev. Dr. Tyng, for having assisted in laying the corner stone of a Methodist chapel, and for having appeared in the pulpit of a Presbyterian church as a participant in the proceedings of the Evangelical Alliance. On both these occasions The Churchman thinks "that the public behavior of the Rev. Dr. Tyng is grossly inconsistent with his obligations as a Prester of the church, and quite as disgraceful to himself as if it were intended for the purpose of deriding Christianity." "We most earnestly and seriously beg to draw the attention of the Provisional Bishop of this Diocese to the conduct of one of the presbyters under his charge. This is a case in which the Bishop is imperatively bound to exercise his Episcopal authority, and we trust that Dr. Potter will at once bring his erratic and unruly presbyter to an account for his conduct."

The agitations of the current time forcibly recall the shrewd remark of Fisher Ames, that eminent philosophic stateman of the early period of our history, when he said "that a monarchy is a merchantman which sails well, but will sometimes strike on a rock and go to the bottom; whilst a Republic is a raft, which may never sink, but then your feet are always in water."

Some things come by odd names. The most uncommon quality in man is called "common sense;" a paper half a mile long is a "brief;" and a melancholy ditty, devoid of sense or meaning, is a "glee."

A good deed, a kind word, a generous act, a smile, a kiss from the heart as well as the lip—these are blossoms of life, and which make humanity good, true and beautiful.

FROM AFRICA.—The Salem Gazette has a file of Sierra Leone papers of late date. From their location, the subject of slavery and the slave trade naturally occupies much of their space. Mr. Sumner's last speech in the Senate of the United States is published in full.—The most common accident recorded, is that of being caught by sharks while bathing. Native correspondents complain that the more distant villages of the colony show signs of a retrograde state; and the editor thinks that some system of self-sustaining municipal government might be devised, like those of America. On the 27th of July, the editor stated that during the month the fall of rain averaged an inch per day.

A Strange Sight for the Natives.—During the month of May, Mrs. Messenger accompanied her husband up the Cavalla river to Bohlen station.

It was a thing of great interest to the people who had never seen a white woman before. All crowded round so as to get a look at, and touch her. Great astonishment was expressed upon feeling her hair.

The king of Nyinomo tribe called her "very fine," and complimented her husband greatly for his taste in selecting her. And when she told him he might see other white women who would surpass her, he said that would either never be, or else a very long time.

Owing to her presence, the attendance on preaching was extraordinarily large.

During her stay for several days at the station, she was visited by some hundreds of people, some of whom said they could feel satisfied to die now that they had seen such a wonderful thing as a white woman. —Cavalla Messenger.

All men look to happiness in the future. To every eye heaven and earth seem to embrace in the distance.

KINGSTON, March 10, 1841.—"This may certify that my son has had a humor which made its appearance when he was but a few days old; and it grew worse, causing large swellings and running sores. He has been cured by the use of Dr. Swett's Panacea and Humor Wash."

T. CURRIER.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and others of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Catarrh is the most difficult of any of the Diseases of the Breathing Organs to cure, or even to cure. The Rev. Joshua Leavitt, editor of the Independent of New York, who had the Catarrh for more than twenty years, has been cured by using Dr. J. R. Stafford's Olive Tar and Iron and Sulphur Powders, which are advertised in this paper. His testimonial is published in a pamphlet among others equally prominent who have been cured of chronic Throats and Lung difficulties, which will be sent free by mail.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

NOTICE—TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

All persons who may now pay $4 for the Daily Chronicle, or $1 for the Weekly Chronicle, for the year 1861,—will be furnished with the paper without charge, from this time to Jan. 1. tf

☞ The North Mills and their contents were sadly damaged by fire, smoke and water, on Tuesday night. We understand there were 500 bushels of meal there, on a part or all of which there was insurance.

There can be no doubt it was an incendiary fire. One morning, about ten days ago, a pane of glass was found broken, in a front window of the Mill, and three cards of matches had been thrown in, one of which was scorched, but the fire had gone out.

Shutters were made to cover the front windows, and a good watch kept. But the new fire was kindled on a floor close down to the water; and the owner supposes that the incendiary approached the lower windows in a boat, broke a pane of glass, and threw in matches among the shavings, while the mills were going in the upper rooms.

Happenny surely did not burn this, for he is in the State's Prison; but some bad penny or other has returned, or turned up, to trouble the firemen, and disturb the citizens.

☞ Tuesday was "a rainy day for election," as usual. But, despite the mud and rain, and dirt, there was more of nature's beauty displayed than we commonly have in one day. At sunrise the heavens were glorious with bright colors; before noon there was a beautiful rainbow hung in the east; and when the bright sun emerged from the clouds after one of the showers, in the afternoon, the rain-drops on the trees glistened like myriad crystals, precisely as if the twigs were covered with icicles. Truly, Nature is beautiful in her changes.

And then in the evening, the stars shone with almost the brilliancy and beauty of an arctic winter's night—not to mention the luminous torches of the jubilant Wide Awakes, the lurid glare of tar-balls, and the like.

MECHANIC ASSOCIATION.—At the annual meeting of the Association held at the Court House, on Tuesday evening, (Bro. Henry S. Rand in the chair,) the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Samuel W. Moses, President;
Marcellus Bufford, Vice President;
Alfred T. Joy, Treasurer;
James Larrabee, } Trustees,
Lewis W. Brewster, }
John Knowlton 2d, Secretary;
Benjamin M. Parker, Dep. Secretary;
William C. Hatch, Marshal;
Franklin N. Paul, Dep. Marshal;
Joseph W. Marden 2d, Standard Bearer;
Henry S. Rand, } Auditors.
Edmund M. Brown, }
Charles W. Brewster, }

POLICE COURT, Nov. 7.—Before Justice Odell.—Nathaniel Danielson was found guilty of an assault and threats on William Rutledge;—sentenced to pay costs of prosecution, $6.51, and give bonds to keep the peace till next term of Court.

S. L. Russell was found guilty of an assault on Charles W. Simpson, police officer; fined $5; cost $3.86.

☞ Sometime Tuesday night, after 11 o'clock, the house of Dea. Charles Duncan, at Kittery Point, near the Bridge, was entered by some burglar through the cellar, and the silver ware of the family stolen, consisting of eighteen teaspoons, a butter knife and table spoon. The thief also took $20 in money, and a pair of new shirts, belonging to another family in he house.—A liberal reward is offered or detection and recovery.

☞ We understand that the Republicans of this city intend to fire a salute of 100 guns this evening; and on Friday evening it is proposed to have a torchlight procession of Wide-Awakes and Republicans generally, and illumination of houses. We think they had better spend their money for music, instead of powder, if they must make a noise.

TEN WAYS TO COMMIT SUICIDE.—Wearing thin shoes and stockings and insufficient clothing in rainy weather; leading a lazy, excited, theatre-going, dancing life; sleeping on feathers in a 7 by 9 room; eating hot, stimulating food, too fast and at improper times; beginning with tea and coffee in childhood, and adding tobacco and spirits in due time; marrying in haste and living in continual ferment, thereafter; following unhealthy occupations to make money; taking bitters and confectionary, gormandizing between meals; giving way to passion, or keeping in a perpetual worry; going to bed at midnight and getting up at noon, and eating when you catch it. To which may be added a recipe for killing children; paregoric, cordials, candy and rich cake, and when they are made sick thereby, mercury, tartar-emetic, castor oil, and sulphur.

LIGHT.—The mercurial electric light, now in use in England, is said to be the strongest and purest light in the known world—the nearest approach to sunlight that modern science has yet produced. It is caused by the application of electricity from a voltaic battery to a thin stream of quicksilver, which is heated to a white heat; it is as impossible to look at with the naked eye, as the sun at noonday.

ELECTION RETURNS.—By special dispatches to Wednesday evening's Traveller, it is reported that Douglas has carried Missouri.

Returns from Arkansas show that the State has gone for Breckinridge.

New York State—Republican majority 38,209, which will be increased by further returns. 22 Republican Congressmen are elected, to eleven Democrats.

A dispatch from New Orleans says Louisiana has probably gone for Bell.

Reports from New Jersey indicate a close vote, but it is thought Lincoln has carried the State by a small majority. T. J. Perry, Dem., is probably elected in Pennington's district. Steele is elected to Congress over Adrain.

Rhode Island gives Lincoln 4400 maj.

A special dispatch to the Boston Journal of Wednesday evening, from St. Louis, says Missouri has probably gone for Bell.

South Carolina Legislature, as a matter of course, chose eight Breckinridge electors, all said to be secessionists.

Pennsylvania—100,000 majority for Lincoln.

☞ The Presidential vote in Rye, was as follows:—Lincoln 93; Douglas 79; Breckinridge 58. Total 230.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 2—James McLean, Cashier of the Boone County Bank, J. B. Hussey, Albert H. Hager, Miles A. Bidley and J. D. Chipman, connected with the same institution, were arrested to-day, charged with forgery and with having circulated money fraudulently issued. They were all committed in default of bail. It is supposed that they have circulated from three to five hundred thousand dollars in Indiana, Iowa, Illinois and Missouri. A. Spooner, President of the Bank, escaped. About $100,000 of this counterfeit money has been received by bankers here from correspondents in the West. Several hundred dollars were redeemed at the Bank at Lebanon yesterday.

FRENCH WORDS.—The partiality of our people for the French language shows itself in the preference of many French over corresponding English words; for instance, "depot" for "station," "bureau" for "drawers," "vest" for "waistcoat."

Take care of your health and that of your children, and use no other Saleratus except Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. It is acknowledged as being the only perfectly harmless article in the market; is peculiarly adapted to benefit weak stomachs and dyspeptic persons. Try one paper, and you will have no other. Use it instead of soda. It is much better. Grocers and Druggists sell it.

There is another article in the market put up in similar colored papers. Do not be deceived by it. See that the name of HERRICK ALLEN is on the wrapper, and no mistake can occur. Manufactured by Allen & Taylor, corner of Canal and Centre streets, New York, and sold at wholesale by Israel Nash & Co., Boston. M&F is

TO DYSPEPTICS.—Soda, Magnesia, and all Alkalies, either afford but temporary relief, or confirm the disease into a chronic affection. The Oxygenated Bitters immediately relieve and permanently cure all forms of Dyspepsia, and stomach difficulties.

Autocrat of the Kitchen.—35,000 in use

THE ORIGINAL P. P. STEWART,

FUEL-SAVING AND COMFORT-PRODUCING LARGE OVEN, SUMMER AND WINTER

AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE,

FOR WOOD & ANTHRACITE OR BITUMINOUS COAL

Improved in 1859 with New and Extra Large Flues, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue.

Attention is invited to the following Points of Superiority:

DURABILITY.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

CAPACITY.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

ECONOMY.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

VENTILATION OF OVEN.—In the Stewart Stove alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (protected by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that, as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

ENTIRE CONTROL OF HEAT.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

THE DOUBLE SHEET BOTTOM FLUE.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

BROILING.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

HOT WATER RESERVOIR AND WARMING CLOSET.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

WATER BACK.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of P. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL,

MADE BY

THE BARSTOW STOVE COMPANY,

Of Providence, R. I.

In introducing a new Cook Stove, of singularly novel construction and arrangement, it is proper that we speak of its peculiar merits.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking giving an oven nearly 3 ft. long! or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! The advantages of this arrangement over that adopted for roasting in the Stewart and other stoves, by extending the oven, with a tin roaster in front of the fire, are obvious, viz:

1st. This permanent extension of the stove costs no more than the temporary extension by a tin roaster, while this is the most durable, tasteful and useful.

2d. As the flues of the stove extend over and under the entire size of the oven, it is more easily and surely heated than a tin roaster, which receives no heat except what it borrows from the baking oven.

3d. By this arrangement the processes of roasting and baking are entirely separated, while by the others they are carried on together, the fumes of both being intermingled.

4th. By this arrangement the roasting oven can be attached to the baking oven in a single moment of time, when occasion requires: or it can be used for a hot closet when not required for baking or roasting.

5th. By this extension an additional boiler hole and other room is gained on the top of the stove, while, at the same time the stove occupies no more room on the floor.

We might make extended notice of some other things peculiar to this stove, as compared with other high-priced Air-tight Cook Stoves, but will barely allude to them, viz:

1st. The double plates each side of the fire prevent any leak of ashes into the oven and make the stove more durable.

2d. The admission of external air between these plates, for the ventilation of the roasting oven, tends also to the preservation of the plates most exposed to destruction.

3d. The durable dump grate, with the ash box of ample size to receive the ashes and coals, is an attractive feature of the stove.

4th. The draft door, at each end of the fire box, is a great convenience when a quick fire is wanted.

5th. The movable ash pan, which, though it forms a hearth to the stove, need not be used except once or twice a day for taking up and carrying away the ashes.

6th. The stove has but one damper, and but one division of flues on the back of and under the oven, ensuring a very quick bake.

7th. The stove is made in the most thorough manner; the doors and roasting oven are lined with tin, and tin jackets are provided for the back and bottom plates. A hot closet and tank can be added if required. With any reasonable care, the stove will last a life-time, and we know it to be "perfect in its operation."

This stove was thoroughly tested before brought into the market, and we know that all that is said of it will be found true on trial of the stove.

John Trundy, Esq., one of our most practical and scientific mechanics, who has had large experience in the construction of stove patterns in years past, and has for many years been using one of the Stewart Stoves, has purchased one of the MODEL COOKS, and after a fair trial pronounces it far superior to the Stewart or any stove he has ever seen, for economy, convenience and dispatch. We might also refer to several other parties who are using the stove, and who award it the very highest praise.

The MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be the stove for farmers, mechanics or professional men, for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is wanted.

We have nought to say against any other stove, believing that a man can sell his own goods without running his neighbors; but this we do say, that we honestly believe this is the best stove that can be found in the world; and what is more, we think others will agree with us after a trial of it. We invite any one to examine the stove, whether they wish to purchase, or not.

For sale, with a great variety of

Furnaces, Ranges, Cooking, Office and Parlor Stoves; Coal Hods, Sifters, Funnel, Stove-Repairing Pieces, Parlor Grates, Etc.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,

The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY

For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, combining all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonics and stomachics, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, Under the act of 1837.

75 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions. Advice gratuitously rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or concerning the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any other agency or office in the United States. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that his is other charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, with his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved to inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1859.

Mr. R. H. Eddy, has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Boston, Jan. 1, 1859. R. H. EDDY.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,

FOR MAKING

Bread, Tea Cakes,

All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,

MANUFACTURED BY

EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works.
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with new & peculiar brands of far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with confidence to the judgment and discriminating house-keepers, bakers, &c., &c.

Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, nuts al taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.

It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be restored, by a slight heating, and at any time when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating the difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.

It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is increased solely for the purpose of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally natural and scientific. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common method ordinarily makes about 250 lbs., gives by this process 290 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES.

Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.

"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of light in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is eventually a desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.

The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use.

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."

HOW TO USE IT.

We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.

BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour,) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing the dry ingredients through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter of half the size of an egg, and make the paste the paste with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) just stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.

LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiffer; knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.

GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.

BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonsful of Leaven in one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal, all well sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses, make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.

BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.

DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.

CRAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.

CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of sifted flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonsfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonsful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.

JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven; rub in one teacupful of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.

ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.

COFFEE CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add one gill of molasses and two eggs; mix thin with milk and bake in a slow oven.

JULY CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of raisins, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.

LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.

WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of flour, three teaspoonsfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one cup of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; add and spice to the taste. Bake about half an hour.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD REVIVATOR.

Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revitalizing, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and cause even the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, are the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so painfully familiar to mankind, but which have female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and loins, Dropsy, Costiveness, Piles, Jaundice, Night Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might continue to enumerate almost all the ills incident to our-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and effectual remedy against those ills which robs them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health; and health cannot exist while the above diseases continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful ordeal with pain and suffering. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Mothers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the first symptom of your wives and daughters, before it is too late, but also, your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave, the latter will let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business and life as not to realize the fearful rapid travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to her we confidently appeal, for we are sure your never failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Dr. Mott's

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE

PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by hydrogen in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable form. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued exhaustion of a sedentary or regular employment, or chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description or written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world, and returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic symptoms so alike and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the opiate properties of this preparation, if not positively be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gentle purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably efficacious and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also seems to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tension, which produces them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the more habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently mortal, its effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and confirmed night sweats, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicinal iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy; and restorative, in the essentially affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been found unlike well-tried remedies, alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

Dyspepsia Remedy

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupify.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous system shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost instantly, find a most invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Does,—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Dyspepsia.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as a cure for Sick Headache, the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary Passages.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the cancerous face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations of the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metal lic sole for boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

New Photographic Establishment.

Having fitted and furnished in modern style, large, pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with Sun Pictures of every description, from the small Miniature to life size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., copied and improved.

The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping pace with every useful improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.

All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.

Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1860.

ELECTIONS — By Thursday's Mail.— New Jersey seems to be the battle-ground of returns. We had it first 6000 majority for Lincoln. Now read this:

Trenton, Nov. 7.—Returns come in slowly. It is thought that the Union ticket has carried the State by 4000 majority. 33 Unionists and Democrats and 28 Republicans are elected to the Assembly. The following members of Congress are elected: 1st district, Nixon, Republican; 2d, Stratton, Republican; 3d, Steele, Democrat;—4th, Cobb, Democrat; 5th, Price, Dem.

The Boston Advertiser of Thursday deems it probable that one or more of the Republican Electors is chosen in New Jersey.

New York.—The Albany Evening Journal estimates Lincoln's majority at 40,000.

Delaware.—Breckinridge has carried the State by 2000 majority.

Ohio.—Republican majority in the State 40,000.

Illinois.—The Republicans claim to have carried the State by 15,000 majority. The Southern part of the State has not yet been heard from. Four Republican Congressmen are elected from the Northern districts.

Wisconsin.—The Republicans have gained in all the State, and Lincoln has undoubtedly 10,000 majority. All the Republican congressmen are elected.

Iowa.—The Republican State ticket is undoubtedly elected.

Virginia.—The Bellites and Breckinridge Democrats are both confident of success.

North Carolina.—Additional returns increase Breckinridge's majority.

Georgia.—Fifteen counties officially give Bell 6665, Breckinridge 5267, Douglas 4260. Result uncertain.

Missouri. — By special dispatches to Wednesday evening's Traveller, it is reported that Douglas has carried Missouri.

A special dispatch to the Boston Journal of Wednesday evening, from St. Louis, says Missouri has probably gone for Bell.

Returns from Arkansas show that the State has gone for Breckinridge.

A dispatch from New Orleans says Louisiana has probably gone for Bell.

Rhode Island gives Lincoln 4400 maj.

South Carolina Legislature, as a matter of course, chose eight Breckinridge electors, all said to be secessionists.

Pennsylvania—100,000 majority for Lincoln.

ONE CONSOLATION.—The N. Y. Journal of Commerce, noting the election of Lincoln, says,

One consolation remains to us as conservative men, viz., that We have both Houses of Congress.

It is a question of some interest, Who are the WE that have both Houses of Congress?

O, says the Journal of Commerce, the Conservative Men, of course.

Indeed! we take it then, that the secessionists of South Carolina, the fire-eaters of Arkansas, and the slave code men generally, are conservatives.

But how about the majority in both houses? It was put down in somebody's programme that one or two States, or more, would secede, the moment a black republican was elected president, or at all events as soon as he was inaugurated. Well then, the Representatives and Senators of these States will not take their seats in Congress, because their States cannot very well be in the Union and out of it, at one and the same time; and so the Republicans will have an absolute majority.

Do you say they will take their seats and no secession take place?

Very well, that is exactly what we have supposed all along; and the threats were mere bugbears.

There is no doubt there are are conservative men enough, and progressive men enough to make a good Congress; perhaps as good as we have ever had.

☞ The Portland, Me. Argus of Nov. 7, intimates that the plurality for Mr. Lincoln will exceed 25,000, and says:—

There is little if any doubt of Lincoln's election. This result has seemed a foregone conclusion since the October election, altho' hopes had been entertained that New York might have been able to stem the tide of fanaticism and avert the dangers which the triumph of sectionalism can hardly fail to inaugurate. This hope has failed and the crisis is upon us. We have now only to await the development of the next step in the progress of the "irrepressible conflict."

It calls Mr. Burlingame's defeat, "A Bright Spot."

BUSINESS PANIC IN WASHINGTON.—The banks in Washington have refused to discount any paper for sixty days to come, and great distress prevails in business circles in consequence.

The discontented man finds no easy chair.

RECOLLECTIONS OF MOBS. — Sunday, Oct. 21st, 1860, completed twenty-five years since the famous riot in Boston, known as the "Mob of Gentlemen in Broadcloth," when an abolition meeting was broken up, and Wm. Lloyd Garrison came near losing his life. The riot occurred in the afternoon of the day,—that part of Washington street between State street and Dock square being filled with people, who began expressing their animosity with shouts of derision at a small meeting of abolitionists gathered in a building near the entrance of Dock square. A sign of the Boston Liberator was torn down and broken. Finally the mob got upon the tracks of Mr. Garrison, who, as he was making his way thro' the buildings to Wilson's lane, was seized, and a rope placed about his neck with the idea of hanging him from a window.

At this point, however, he was rescued and taken to the City Hall, then at the head of State street. No other place of safety could be found but the jail, and to that place he was taken in a carriage, by the Mayor, and kept for the night. On the way, however, the mob, who were in sharp pursuit, nearly overturned the carriage by casting ropes around it. The next morning, the Boston Advocate, edited by Hon. B. F. Hallett, came out in a powerful leader, denouncing the inertness of the authorities, and declaring that it was the duty of the Mayor, if he could not disperse the mob by any other means, to plant cannon and sweep the street. It is a curious fact that Rev. Samuel J. May, a firm abolitionist, was mobbed at Montpelier, and Gerritt Smith and Beriah Green, at Utica, New York, on the same day, October 21st, 1835. Minor outbreaks, of the same kind, occurred in other places.—Most of the actors were ashamed of their conduct afterwards.

RECOINAGE OF OLD CENTS.—The Director of Philadelphia Mint, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has arranged with the Adams Express Co. for the transportation, free of cost, of old copper cents, in sums of twenty dollars and upwards, to the Mint; and of the new cents in return to all points in the Atlantic States accessible by railroad and steamboat, and all other places which can be reached by means of conveyance not incurring unreasonable expense. Adams's Express Co. act as agents for forwarding coins to and exchanging them at the Mint. Each parcel of copper cents should be securely enveloped and fastened.

☞ A man having lost a cow in Dubuque, suspected that a certain butcher had converted her into beef. He even found the very hides warm and fresh in the butcher's stall, and boldly charged the butcher with the theft, inviting him to pay $25 or stand a prosecution. The butcher chose the latter, whereupon the man, returning home for additional evidence, found the missing quadruped ruminating near his house, with hide, hoofs and fly-switcher, all in their proper places.

☞ The Lebanon Free Press states that eleven students have been suspended from Dartmouth College for their participation in the late outrages on young Fowler, and the insults offered his father. Some twenty have submitted a confession to the faculty, of complicity in the affair, a part of whom have been sent off, and the rest allowed to remain on probation. The Faculty are still prosecuting their investigations.

☞ Professor Francis Leiber has brought upon himself the heavy censure of the Eurphradian Society of the South Carolina College, which has expelled him from honorary membership. Moreover, his bust and portrait are to be removed from the halls of the society. His offence is that he presided over a German Republican meeting in New York city on the 19th ult. Such atrocity cannot be pardoned by the South.

☞ Ship Gov. Langdon, Stone, on her passage from Philadelphia to Liverpool, where she arrived Oct. 25th, encountered heavy gales from WNW. On the 8th, she was struck by a sea, which stove booby hatch, washed off after hatches, carried away starboard quarter boat, and filled the cabin and poop with water.

SAD ACCIDENT IN WEBSTER.—The only child of John F. Hinds of Webster, a lad of about 12 years, was so badly burned during the Wide Awake demonstration on Thursday evening, by the ignition of a pan of burning fluid in which some boys were soaking wicking for fire balls, that he died next the next day.

☞ During the gale on Saturday night, the spire of the Wooster Place Baptist Church, in New Haven, was blown over, and fell on the square. It was very slender, about 240 feet high, and had long been a terror to the neighbors; but happily they have neither been disappointed nor damaged by the result.

☞ Three men were badly wounded by a swivel or small cannon, at West Newbery, while firing a Lincoln salute.

A CAPITAL CASE TRIED BY A JUDGE. In the Criminal Court of the city of Baltimore, on Thursday last, Judge Bond presiding, Erasmus Levy, indicted for the wilful murder of Franklin H. Naff, was placed at the bar for trial. Just as a jury in the case was about to be empanneled, the prisoner, through his counsel, said he had chosen to be tried by the court, as he had the right under the Maryland code. There was some argument between counsel on the matter, but the Judge decided that the law was peremptory, and the court was therefore bound to try the case. If he failed to do justice, the responsibility would rest upon the prisoner and his counsel. Judge Bond accordingly heard all the evidence in the case, and the argument of counsel. On Saturday he was to give his decision.

BLONDIN AT TROY.—He Gets a Fall.—The daring rope walker has been performing at the theater in Troy, and on Tuesday evening met with an accident. The Times of that city says: "The same or similar mishaps at the Falls would have landed him in the seething waters below the cataract, and the little Frenchman would have been heard of on the other side of eternity. While performing on stilts he attempted to turn a summersault, but the crotch that sustained the rope suddenly gave way, and he fell amongst the seats and people below. He was considerably hurt by the fall, and one of his arms appeared to be partially paralyzed by contact with the hard substance on the back of a seat. After picking himself up and repairing damages, he essayed the feat with more success, but in making a subsequent turn over, with stilts or balancing pole, he again lost his balance and came near falling, and was witnessed with anxiety for his safety by the audience. We think much of his ill success was owing to the imperfect manner in which the rope was adjusted. The 'professor' will doubtless guard against mishaps hereafter."—Buffalo Republic.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—After the Republicans left their headquarters, on receiving the news that Lincoln was elected, an attack was made on the building by the National Volunteers (Breckinridge) Association. The windows were smashed, and Wide Awake uniforms were destroyed, and they were throwing the type into pi, when the police interfered.

Cheers for Lincoln on the Avenue brought on several fights, but the chivalry finally retired.

Not a "drum was heard, or a funeral note" at the White House. The Constitution is held back until afternoon.

IDLENESS NOT HAPPINESS.—The most common error of men and women is that of looking for happiness somewhere outside of useful work. It has never yet been found when thus sought; and never will be, while the world stands, and the sooner this truth is learned the better for every one. If you doubt the proposition, glance round among your friends and acquaintances, and select those who appear to have the most enjoyment through life. Are they idlers and pleasure-seekers, or the earnest workers? We know what your answer will be. Of all the miserable human beings it has been our fortune or misfortune to know, they were the most wretched who had retired from useful employment, in order to enjoy themselves. Why, the slave at his enforced labor, or the hungry toiler for bread, were supremely happy in comparison.

This charming season is called the Indian summer, a name which is derived from the natives, who believe that it is caused by a wind, which comes immediately from the court of their great and benevolent god Cautantowwit, or the southwestern god, the god who is superior to all other beings, who sends them every blessing which they enjoy, and to whom the souls of their fathers go, after their decease.—Freeman's Sermon.

☞ The familiar question—"How do you get along?" becomes in England, How do you get on? and strangely enough in Scotland, How do you get endways?

"Pa, what is French for an egg?" said a little girl sitting at the breakfast-table. We replied, "An egg is un œuf." "Well," said she, immediately, "an egg is not enough for me, this morning; I want two."

☞ At Chicago, on Wednesday night, six of Joy & Frisbie's ice-houses were burned. Loss $40,000. Eighteen thousand tons of ice melted.

A little eight year old orphan boy, who went round shovelling snow last winter, was asked by a lady if he did not fear that he should not get on. Looking up in her face he said—why don't you think God will take care of a feller, if he puts his trust in him and does the best he can?

☞ Paradise Lost, Robinson Crusoe, Pelham, the Vestiges of Creation, Jane Eyre, were all rejected by publishers, prior to their appearance in print.

The Ballot seasonably and properly "suggests to the people of the state capital that Concord is not the only place in the state, and that the Wide Awakes of other towns can do better than to pay visits that are not reciprocated."

☞ Since the erection of the first Methodist church in America, in 1760, there have been 14,000 erected—an average of three a week.

Each day brings its own duties, and carries them along with it; and they are as waves broken on the shore, many like them coming after, but none ever the same.

☞ Rev. T. H. Miller is to preach at Nottingham, North Summer street, on Sunday Nov. 17.

Time never passes so slowly and tediously as it does to the idle and listless. The best cure for dullness is to keep busy.

☞ On Tuesday evening, as Mr. N., a respectable citizen of this city, was returning home from the Republican headquarters, he observed a well dressed man sitting on some door-steps, with his arms hanging listlessly by his side, apparently intoxicated. Mr. N. addressed him, asking if he should assist him to get home. The stranger arose slowly, and after going a short distance drew back and made a pass at his guide, threatening to shoot him. Mr. N. remonstrated, telling him that he was his friend, and intended no harm. But finding the fellow was bent on fighting, he clenched, and throwing him upon the ground, held him there till the man begged to get up; promising to behave well, &c. Mr. N. then released him, but no sooner had he regained his feet than he attacked him again more vehemently than before.—Again he was placed on his back in the mud, and kept there until he solemnly promised to go about his business, and behave properly. A second time he was permitted to get up, but exhibited his treachery by again assailing Mr. N., this time scratching his face severely. The latter, having no weapon of defence, and believing the old adage, that "He who fights, and then runs away,

Will live to fight another day," took to his heels, and his antagonist after him. He had just time to get inside of his house, and close the door, when the man came up; and after pounding on the door and breaking out a side-light, went off.

Mr. N. says that during the whole affray, he never struck the fellow; and did not know him, never having seen him before.

☞ The Lecture on the "Hindoos," advertised for this (Friday) evening, is not one of the regular Course of the Freewill Baptist Society, but is a special entertainment, given by and for the benefit of the Missionary himself. It would seem, from the numerous and cordial recommendations which are adduced from competent and reliable judges, that the speaker can hardly fail to present his most interesting and fruitful subject in an acceptable manner.

S. J. COURT, PORTSMOUTH, Wednesday. The case on trial, was John Harvey and wife vs. the City of Portsmouth, for damage sustained by Mrs. H., who stumbled and fell in consequence of an alleged defect of a sidewalk in Market street.

The case was given to the jury on Thursday afternoon.

☞ The U. S. ship Cumberland sailed from this naval station on Wednesday afternoon for New York—which port she will soon leave to join the Gulf Squadron.

Virginia has carried the excitement in politics so far that it has reached the slaves, and on account of anonymous warnings, Gov. Letcher ordered the military to be ready to quell insurrection on Tuesday. At 1856 the South pursued the same course, denouncing Fremont as an abolitionist, and the result was that the slaves anticipated emancipation on his election, and a formidable insurrection was organized, extending far through several States. This shows them what will take place if they push their scheme of secession to revolution.—The negroes all over the South would be in arms, and as in the days of the Revolution, South Carolina said she needed her men for protection at home, and could not perform her duty against the English, so the fifteen Southern States would have their hands full to look after their plantation servants. Newburyport Herald.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—A dispatch to the World says rumors are current at Washington of the seizure by the secessionists of Fort Moultrie at Charleston. They are not credited at Washington, although prominent South Carolinians are said to be in consultation with the functionaries at Washington.

The Constitution yesterday had a brief disunion article, but both the evening Democratic papers have able articles in favor of Lincoln's administration.

THE WIDOW'S MITE.—There is an old and infirm widow lady residing in the city, who is dependent for support in part upon the charities of friends and the city. At the Wide Awake parade on Thursday evening, she burnt the only two candles which she owned, to illuminate the procession in its march by her house, and was compelled to go to bed in the dark.—Lowell Citizen.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE IN NEW YORK.—New York, unlike Massachusetts, has a property qualification for negroes to vote, and the proposition to repeal that requirement and admit them to political equality with the whites, was submitted to the people on Tuesday and defeated.

ANTIDOTE TO ARSENIC.—In England, on the 6th ult, nineteen dogs were poisoned with arsenic, in order to test the value of an antidote—Sulphuret and Sesquioxide of Iron. Five of the animals were left to their fate, and all died; out of the fourteen others, to whom large doses of the antidote were given, only two died.

☞ A salute of —— guns in honor of the election of Lincoln and Hamlin, was fired for the Republicans of Portsmouth, on Thursday evening at sunset, by Commissary General Sides.

☞ We learn that the proposed torch light demonstration in honor of the Republican victory, is postponed to next week.

PATRIOTIC COMMENTS.—The Concord, N. H. Patriot of November 7, says:—

Black Republicanism has triumphed!—Abraham Lincoln of Illinois is elected President. The Democracy have been defeated by their own folly and madness—or rather by the folly and madness of a few men of commanding influence in their ranks.

As to the result in New Hampshire, the same Patriot says:

There are about 8000 Democrats in the State who did not vote; very few who voted with us last March, have now voted for Lincoln. Thousands were disgusted and provoked by the suicidal division in the Democratic party, caused by the selfish, malignant and reckless conduct of men whom they had long honored as true Democrats and patriotic Statesmen; others said "it is of no use to vote;" others were unwilling to vote for Douglas, and would not join themselves nor give countenance to the miserable faction whose leaders have proved their purpose to break up the Democratic organization in this State and destroy its prospects of future success. These and other similar reasons induced full 8000 Democrats to stay away from the polls on Tuesday. They are generally among the truest men of the party—men who are always ready to lend a helping hand, by vote, personal effort and "material aid," whenever there is a chance to promote the success of the Democratic cause.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—A private dispatch received from Richmond says that when the news of Lincoln's election reached Charleston, Judge Magrath, District Attorney, and the Collector of Charleston, resigned their offices.

☞ A coroner's inquest was held in Newburyport upon the body of the burglar shot by Deputy Sheriff Smith, and the jury returned a verdict of justifiable homicide.

THE VALUE OF ACCURACY.—Accuracy is an invaluable mark of good training in a man. Accuracy in observation, accuracy in speech, accuracy in the transaction of affairs. What is done in business must be well done; for it is better to accomplish perfectly a small amount of work, than to half do ten times as much. A wise man used to say, "Stay a little that we may make an end the sooner." Too little attention, however, is paid to this highly important quality of accuracy. As a man eminent in practical science lately observed to us, "It is astonishing how few people I have met in the course of my experience who can define a fact acurately." Yet in business affairs, it is the manner in which even small matters are transacted, that often decide men for or against you. With virtue, capacity, and good conduct, in other respects, the person who is habitually inaccurate cannot be trusted; his work has to be gone over again; and thus causes endless annoyance, vexation and trouble.

Sorrow comes soon enough without despondency; it does a man no good to carry around a lightning rod to attract trouble.

BOARD OF INSTRUCTION.
Chas. Northend, of New Britain, Conn.
B. G. Northrup, Saxonville, Mass.
Henry S. Boltwood, late Com. of Schools.

Teachers and the friends of education generally are earnestly solicited to be present.

Satisfactory arrangements have been made in regard to board. W. S. ABBOTT, School Com. for Rockingham Co.
Raymond, Oct. 24, 1860.

A SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION

Will be holden at the NORTH CHURCH in PORTSMOUTH, on WNESDAY, Nov. 21st.

The morning session, commencing at 10½ o'clk. will be devoted to the discussion of such subjects as may be brought forward at the time.

At 2 o'clock P. M., the children are invited to be present, and appropriate addresses will be made to them, interspersed with Singing by the Children from the SABBATH BELL, after which the discussions may be resumed.

In the evening at 7½ o'clock the Convention will be addressed by Rev. J. L. JENKINS of Lowell, Mass.

It is arranged that the children from the neighboring towns shall carry their own refreshments, and for their accommodation the vestry will be open and warm. Coffee, Tea and Cake will be entertained by friends in Portsmouth.

At this Convention originated in the Piscataqua Association, it is hoped that all the Schools within its limits will be well represented by teachers and scholars O. T. LANPHEAR, Exeter, Oct. 31. For Committee.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the end more than one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

Read the following Commendation.

From a prominent Druggist of Portsmouth, N. H.

Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston,—

Gents:—Please send me by express two dozen OXYGENATED BITTERS. With us there is an increasing demand for this excellent specific for Dyspepsia and its attendant evils, and we know of no remedy more fully entitled to the confidence of the public. This much we say, disclaiming any intention of puffing the article, as its own merits are a sufficient guarantee of all that it purports to be. Very respectfully yours,
WM. R. PRESTON.

From a prominent Druggist in Bath, Me.

BATH, Aug. 14.

Messrs. SETH W. FOWLE & Co., Boston,—

Gents:—Please to send me a new supply of the OXYGENATED BITTERS by the Eastern Express—So far as I can learn, these Bitters give the best satisfaction to the dyspeptic invalid, and afford a relief not hitherto found in the list of the same specifics before the public at the present time.

Very respectfully yours, GEO. D. H. FAY.

Kingston, March 10, 1841.—"This may certify that my son has had a humor which made its appearance when he was but a few days old; and it grew wore, causing large swellings and running sores. He has been cured by the use of Dr. Swett's Panacea and Humor Wash."
T. Currier.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and others of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Catarrh is the most difficult of any of the Diseases of the Breathing Organs to relieve or to cure. The Rev. Joshua Leavitt, editor of the Independent of New York, who had the Catarrh for more than twenty years, has been cured by using Dr. J. R. Stafford's Olive Tar and Iron and Sulphur Powders, which are advertised in this paper. His testimonial is published in a pamphlet among others equally prominent who have been cured of chronic Throats and Lung difficulties, which will be sent free by mail.

Cook Stoves.

Autocrat of the Kitchen.—35,000 in use

THE ORIGINAL P. P. STEWART,

FUEL-SAVING AND COMFORT-PRODUCING LARGE OVEN, SUMMER AND WINTER

AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE,

For Wood & Anthracite or Bituminous Coal

Improved in 1859 with New and Extra Large Flues, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue.

Attention is invited to the following Points of Superiority:

Durability.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

Capacity.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

Economy.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

Ventilation of Oven.—In the Stewart Stove alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (protected by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that, as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

Entire Control of Heat.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

The Double Sheet Bottom Flue.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

Broiling.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

Hot Water Reservoir and Warming Closet.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

Water Back.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of P. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

MADE BY

THE BARSTOW STOVE COMPANY,

Of Providence, R. I.

In introducing a new Cook Stove, of singularly novel construction and arrangement, it is proper that we speak of its peculiar merits.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a single plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking giving an oven nearly 3 ft. long! or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! The advantages of this arrangement over that adopted for roasting in the Stewart and other stoves, by extending the oven, with a tin roaster in front of the fire, are obvious, viz:

1st. This permanent extension of the stove costs no more than the temporary extension by a tin roaster, while this is the most durable, tasteful and useful.

2d. As the flues of the stove extend over and under the entire size of the oven, it is more easily and surely heated than a tin roaster, which receives no heat except what it borrows from the baking oven.

3d. By this arrangement the processes of roasting and baking are entirely separated, while by the others they are carried on together, the fumes of both being intermingled.

4th. By this arrangement the roasting oven can be attached to the baking oven in a single moment of time, when occasion requires; or it can be used for a hot closet when not required for baking or roasting.

5th. By this extension an additional boiler hole and other room is gained on the top of the stove, while, at the same time the stove occupies no more room on the floor.

We might make extended notice of some other things peculiar to this stove, as compared with other high-priced Air-Tight Cook Stoves, but will barely allude to them, viz:

1st. The double plates each side of the fire prevent any leak of ashes into the oven and make the stove more durable.

2d. The admission of external air between these plates, for the ventilation of the roasting oven, tends also to the preservation of the plates most exposed to destruction.

3d. The durable dump grate, with the ash box of ample size to receive the ashes and coals, is an attractive feature of the stove.

4th. The draft door, at each end of the fire box, is a great convenience when a quick fire is wanted.

5th. The movable ash pan, which, though it forms a hearth to the stove, need not be used except once or twice a day for taking up and carrying away the ashes.

6th. The stove has but one damper, and but one division of flues on the back of and under the oven, ensuring a very quick bake.

7th. The stove is made in the most thorough manner; the doors and roasting oven are lined with tin, and tin jackets are provided for the back and bottom plates. A hot closet and tank can be added if required. With any reasonable care, the stove will last a life-time, and we know it to be "perfect in its operation."

This stove was thoroughly tested before brought into the market, and we know that all that is said of it will be found true on trial of the stove.

John Trundy, Esq., one of our most practical and scientific mechanics, who has had large experience in the construction of stove patterns in years past, and has for many years been using one of the Stewart Stoves, has purchased one of the MODEL COOKS, and after a fair trial pronounces it far superior to the Stewart or any stove he has ever seen, for economy, convenience and dispatch. We might also refer to several other parties who are using the stove, and who award it the very highest praise.

The MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be the stove for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is wanted.

We have nought to say against any other stove, believing that a man can sell his own goods without depreciating his neighbors; but this we do say, that we honestly believe this is the best stove that can be found in the world; and what is more, we think others will agree with us after a trial of it. We invite any one to examine the stove, whether they wish to purchase or not.

For sale, with a great variety of

Furnaces, Ranges, Cooking, Office and Parlor Stoves! Coal Hods, Sifters, Funnel, Stove-Repairing Pieces, Parlor Grates, Etc.

Hundreds of testimonials to the good resulting from the use of this Cordial could be offered—but the following will suffice:

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Sept. 6, 1860.

I hereby certify that I have used a variety of preparations for the cure of Rheumatism, but have found none of them effected in the immediate and lasting as Zollickoffer's Anti-Rheumatic Cordial, and would advise all afflicted with that painful disease to give it a fair trial.

ATWOOD'S QUININE TONIC BITTERS,

The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY

For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of much of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pints as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, Under the act of 1837.

70 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any other agency offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him peculiarly competent to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, as all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such success, I believe, is unusual, and I cheerfully and gladly do my part towards his to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on behalf of rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Boston, Jan. 1, 1860. R. H. EDDY.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,

FOR MAKING

Bread, Tea Cakes,

All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,

MANUFACTURED BY

EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,
Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,
NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers submit it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house-keepers, bakers, &c., &c.

Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, nutty flavor, and is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.

It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in any climate, at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thereby obviating the difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.

It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the nutritious substance of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred solely for the purpose of generating a mere mechanical lightness. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, consumes a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, which by the common baking would yield but about 250 lbs., gives by this process 290 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 15 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conforming to the directions in each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,

Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.

"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded, from perfectly pure materials, and in its leaving, is not a vegetable salt, which is essentially a desirable food in the bread. It raises the dough without consuming the sugar or any other product in the flour, and is perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more sweet, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast, while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.

The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove the compound worthy of public approval and extended use.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.
16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1860."

HOW TO USE IT.

We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all other kinds of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.

BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour), to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; add a little salt; rub in a piece of lard, also an egg, and make the paste the paste with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Bake in a quick oven; the dough should be cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.

LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.

GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.

BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven in one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal, all well sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.

BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.

DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.

CHAMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; add half a cup of butter and a cup and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.

CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add the juice and a gill of mace, one cup of water, and three teaspoonfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.

JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three tea spoonfuls of Leaven; rub in one teacupful of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, and flavor to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.

ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together, and a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.

CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add one gill of molasses and two eggs; mix thin with milk and bake in a slow oven.

CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; sifted together; add one cup of butter, two cups of sugar, and two eggs; all well beat together; mix with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.

LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; add the yolks of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.

WEDDER CAKE.—Five cups of flour, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to the taste. Bake about half an hour.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL —AND— BLOOD RENOVATOR,

Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and cause no offence to the stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and it never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and leaves the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Prostrability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully and fatal in their results, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Derangement of the Kidneys, Scalding or Increase of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, Pleurisy, Pneumonia, Night Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might continue almost without limit, but we have done only to say, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from intermittent influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will effectually prevent many deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a table-spoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty, for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial pie in the Bloom's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no exaggeration in the above. Trifled with at all its dangers. Makers, try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known, the latter, if they are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal, for assurance your sacrificing affections will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

Dr. Mott's CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, impairment of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innocious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, the trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Instances in which long bedridden cases have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no nomenclature.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old chalybeates, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and curative action, by dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Pills will do more than has sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known ill effects.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects—good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and Dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a simple manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Dose.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disgreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidneys, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaint, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two; and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and partaking of the fashionable liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them cheerful and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the cheeks.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents per bottle.

A THEOLOGICAL DARKEY.—A Southern gentleman owned a slave, a very intelligent fellow, who was a Universalist. On one occasion he illustrated the intellectual character of his religion in the following manner: A certain slave had obtained a license of the Baptists to preach. He was holding forth in the presence of many of his colored brethren at one time, when he undertook to describe the process of Adam's creation. Said he, 'When God made Adam, he stooped down, scraped up a little dirt, wet it a little, warm it a little in his hands, and squeeze it in de right shape, and den lean it up against de fence to dry. 'Top dere,' said our Universalist darkey. 'You say dat is de fastest man ever made?' 'Sartain,' said the preacher. 'Den,' said the other 'jest tell a feller whar dat ar fence come from?' 'Hush!' said the preacher; 'two more questions like dat would spile all the feology in de world.'

THE QUEEN AND THE LETTER A.—Here is a discovery! Byron had a passion for the name of Mary, and our gracious Queen has a passion for the letter A.—Here is the proof:—Alexandria Victoria, Queen; Albert, Prince Consort; Adelaide, Princess Royal; Albert, Prince of Wales; Alice, second daughter; Alfred, second son; Augusta, third daughter; Albert, fourth son; Beatrice, fifth daughter. Every son and daughter of the Queen, born before the present year, has one name, at least, beginning with the letter A, and some of them more. Her Majesty evidently thinks her family to be A 1, and a trifle beyond—a right good motherly feeling, in palace or in cot. In April, when the last was born, A being exhausted, her Majesty moved on to B.—London Paper.

A STRONG DEFENSE.—A case was tried last week before the Supreme Judicial Court at Bangor, in which Rufus Newcomb sued the town of Newbury for damages occasioned by a defect in the highway. The defense was:—"No such town as Newbury; no such man as Newcomb; no road; no hole in the road; no horse ever injured; horse injured did not belong to plaintiff; plaintiff's finger was not hurt; plaintiff's finger was injured two years before; plaintiff injured his own finger by pounding it with a rock two years previous to the alleged cause of action against the town, in anticipation of and in preparation for the same. The jury found a verdict for the defendant town.—Eastern Argus.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.
The nature of this invention consists of a metal. He sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.
Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

New Photographic Establishment.
Having fitted and furnished in modern style, large, pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with Sun Pictures of every description, from the smallest Miniature to life size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., copied any size desired.
The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping pace with every useful improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.
All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.
Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

NOTICE—TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

All persons who may now pay $4 for the Daily Chronicle, or $1 for the Weekly Chronicle, for the year 1861,—will be furnished with the paper without charge, from this time to Jan. 1. tf

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1860.

No Fraud at all.—Some republican papers having ventured to suggest that there were frauds in Ward One, Boston, where Burlingame was defeated, Mr. John Glancy, clerk of that ward, comes out with a card, in which he says:

There never was such an absurdity as to say there was even a single instance of fraud perpetrated on that day in the Ward.

Everybody must be convinced, and rest satisfied, now.

☞ A Halifax correspondent of the London Morning Star, noticing the return of the Admiral's flag ship Nile from Canada, where it had gone escorting the royal squadron up the St. Lawrence, catalogues a series of sad calamities which attended the voyage. During the rejoicing five men were killed by the discharge of over-loaded cannon, and one who had been standing near a gun on the quarter-deck of one of the ships at Montreal was literally blown to atoms. The fragments fell in their descent on the St. Lawrence, and were swept away with the current in a moment. The Admiral, Sir Alexander Milne, lost while in the harbor of Quebec, his eldest son, a fine boy, who died suddenly of scarlet fever. Three sailors connected with the Nile were drowned in making for the ship when they were laboring under intoxication. At Quebec, and at Montreal, some thirty or forty of the sailors under the admiral's charge deserted, and fled to the United States.

"Who is the Ass?"—General Benedek, who is talked of as Commander-in-Chief of the Austrian army in Italy, is the son of an apothecary, and does not, for that reason, stand well with the Austrian aristocracy. They have already damaged Benedek in imperial estimation by relating an anecdote of him:

In the battle of Solferino the corps commanded by Benedek was the only one which gained anything like success. While the others were soon cast into confusion, he drove the enemy before him; but in the midst of his advantage, an aid-de-camp arrived with an order for him to beat a retreat. "Who is the great ass," he cried in a rage, "who can have issued such a stupid order?" It was the Emperor himself.—The courtiers, accordingly, are dinning into the Emperor's ear, "Sire, he called your Majesty an ass!"

☞ The Macedonian cry of Kansas, now in a state of destitution, is meeting with a generous response from the opulent regions of the East. Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and the other peninsular States, have contributed from their abundance to relieve their necessities, and exhibit an enthusiasm of benevolence as rare as it is grateful. One county in Illinois recently forwarded twelve hundred bushels of potatoes, and sent an agent to superintend their distribution.—Others have emulated them in good deeds, and there is ground for hope that when the sympathies of the people are fully awakened, the great burden of this calamity may be partially arrested.

☞ A decision of some interest to drovers has just been rendered in Westchester county, in a case against the Hudson River Railroad for the value of two bullocks smothered in the cars in consequence of the grated door becoming broken, and the conductor closing the tight door, on the passage from Troy to New York. The case has been tried in the lower court, and $100 damages decreed, from which the road appealed; but the higher Court sustained the original judgment, deciding that the printed formula on the drover's pass, in relation to his taking it and his freight at his own risk, was null, because the drover had never consented to such an agreement to release the road from any claim for damages.

Venerable Voters.—Ebenezer Mower, who completed his one hundredth year in October last, voted in Worcester, Mass., on Tuesday. He has voted at every Presidential election, commencing with a vote for Washington in 1789.

Ralph Farnham voted the Lincoln ticket in Acton, Me.

In Norton, Mass., David Makepeace, now in his ninety-fourth year, who voted for Washington, and at every Presidential election since Washington, was at the polls and voted the Republican ticket. He is the oldest man in the town, nearly six feet tall, and walks as erect as when in the prime of life.

Dr. Lyman Beecher, who cast his first vote for Washington, was taken by his son, on Tuesday, to the polls that he might cast his last vote for Lincoln. As the venerable man, with flowing and silvery locks, entered the room, the crowd parted right and left, and silently made way for him.

☞ The Mayor of Savannah, Ga., has appointed the 8th of November as a day of Thanksgiving in that city.

Progress of Heathenism in New York.—It is a noteworthy fact, says the N. Y. World, that in the lower part of the Fifteenth ward, there are now no less than five church edifices for sale. In the wards below, the number of churches have been continually diminishing, so that now in the First there is but one, Trinity; in the Second but three; in the Third but two, St. Paul's and the Roman Catholic, St. Peter's; in the Fourth but three; in the Seventh with a population of 35,000, but six, and they so small as to be able to accommodate only 5,000 persons; and the Eleventh, with a population of 80,000, has church accommodations for only ten thousand. During the last twenty years, thirty two churches have been sold out below Grand street, and no others have been erected in their places, though, notwithstanding all the encroachments of business, the resident population below that line is now far larger than then. The World continues:—

We will not speak of the painful thinness of the congregations in the few churches that are left—averaging probably not more than four hundred each. Nor will we dwell upon the character of those congregations generally; but they certainly do not consist of those who have the most need of religious instruction. They include very few of that great multitude of poor working men, whose only opportunity of improvement in metal, moral and religious character is on the Sabbath.

Old Editor as Author.—Mr. Cyrus Redding, the Nestor among English editors, who must now be on the verge of the eighties, has just ready for publication a novel called "Keeping up Appearances," which purports to describe "the interior of English life." Mr. Redding is best known as the author of a pleasant book on wines.—He was the right-hand man of Thomas Campbell, when that very irregular personage enjoyed the position and salary, and neglected the duties, of a London magazine editor.

☞ The railway desecration of the Sabbath, in England, says a letter writer, is complete and absolute. I presume there is five times as much travel in this country by railway on the Sabbath as on any other day. Excursion trains go out of London in almost every direction, especially toward the sea coast, at very low fares on Sabbath morning, and they are advertised all over the metropolis by enormous handbills or posters, and the utmost capacity of the roads is taxed to convey all who flock to the termini.

☞ Mr. Rarey is imparting his knowledge of the horse to classes of twenty-five pupils each, at Aldershott, Eng., and so great has been his success that horses operated upon have been put into the ranks at the end of three days. Mr. Rarey expects to leave England about the middle of November.

☞ Queen Victoria and the Prince Consort, on the occasion of their visit to Coburg, gave a sum of 1000 florins to the poor of the town, and 800 florins to the poor of the country; and have also granted 100 florins to the Model School at Neustadt, in recognition of the works of the scholars which were laid before the Queen and Prince Consort.

☞ A printer named Pasco lately went from Troy, N. Y., to Charleston, S. C., to work on the Mercury. He was arrested by the "vigilants" as a suspicious character, and was ordered to leave the State in twenty-four hours, or be publicly flogged, and the guaranty of his employers that he was not an abolitionist was not taken.

☞ According to Edward Everett, the use of alcoholic beverages has cost the United States directly in 10 years $120,000,000, has burnt or otherwise destroyed $5,000,000 worth of property, destroyed 30,000 lives, sent 100,000 children to the poor house, caused 15,000 murders and 5,000 suicides, bequeathed 1,000,000 orphan children, and sent 250,000 persons to prison.

☞ Rev. Milton Palmer Braman, D. D., of Danvers, Mass., has resigned his pastorship to take effect April 1, 1861. He has preached there thirty-four years. He has been known as a lecturer and a humorist; and years ago, as an opponent of Rev. Thos. Whittemore, in an oral debate on Universalism.

☞ A correspondent of the Charleston (S. C.) Courier devotes half a column to proving that Maria Edgeworth's "Popular Tales" are unfit to be read by young Southerners. The "Grateful Negro" is held up as especially objectionable.

☞ Dr. George W. Pierson of Biddeford, Me., was found dead in a pasture at Saco, on Thursday, having committed suicide by taking strychnine.

☞ The Astor House in New York was damaged by fire on Thursday morning, on the Vesey street side. Great damage was done to the furniture by smoke and water.

☞ The house of Aaron Simmons, in Fall River, Mass., was struck by lightning on Tuesday last, and seriously damaged.—None of the occupants of the house were injured.

Action of Alcohol upon the Animal Economy.—According to the usually received opinion, alcohol introduced into the circulation by absorption from the alimentary canal, becomes rapidly destroyed by the combustion with the oxygen of respiration. Carbonic acid and water may be the immediate results; or, as is more generally admitted, the alcohol passes through a series of transformations, presenting derivatives more and more oxygenated, as aldehyde, acetic acid, oxalic acid, and finally, carbonic acid. The results of a series of experiments instituted by MM. Duroy, Lallevyrand and Perrin, point to different conclusions. According to these, alcohol is not destroyed in the blood, since it may be found in all liquids found there; and, moreover, it is eliminated by certain channels, as the lungs, the skin, and especially the kidneys.

They conclude—1. That alcohol is not an alimentary substance, it acting only as a modifier of the nervous system; 2. It is neither destroyed nor transformed in the economy; 2. It becomes especially concentrated in the liver and in the brain; 4. These facts explain the production of certain organic and functional changes in the liver, brain and kidneys.—Gaz. Med., No. 46.

Dogs Mourning over the Dead Body of their Master.—A man of a singular character died in New Orleans on Monday last. He was seventy-two years of age, and of late years had for his only companions a number of dogs. The Picayune says that on the discovery of his death by the neighbors, a number entered his dwelling and found the body surrounded by a score and a half of grown-up dogs and puppies, some licking affectionately his face and hands, and some others howling mournfully. Two of the puppies were found dead near his body, perhaps out of sympathy for their poor, good, old master.

Fire at North Bridgwater.—The old building in North Bridgwater, formerly the First Congregational Church, but recently known as Baker & Kingsman's Hall, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday night. The building was worth $5000 or $7000, partially insured. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary. The Congregational Church near by, was saved with great difficulty.

Elopement.—Adoniram J. Shorey of West Waterville, a young married man, stole his father's horse and buggy, and forged his name to a note for $20, which he obtained the money for, on Saturday last, and then decamped with a young woman named Blaisdell, leaving behind him a wife and two small children in destitute circumstances. The same evening on which he decamped, the house in which his family lived, took fire and was destroyed, with nearly all its contents.—Port. Argus.

Some think he fired the house.

An Albamian has lately been afflicted with a singular and extraordinary hallucination arising from a tendency to apoplexy, and of daily recurrence for a long time. Every day exactly at two—the hour at which he dined—he seemed to see an old hag of a frowning and incensed countenance enter the room, even when the door was bolted, rush up to him with every evidence of spite and indignation, and uttering something unintelligible, strike him a severe blow with her fist, causing him to fall into a swoon of longer or shorter duration. The man has since been relieved by blood letting.

A Romantic Affair.—A young lady in Berlin, having got hold of a challenge addressed to her lover, dressed herself in male apparel, met the challenger, fought and "winged" him in the shoulder. As he had only seen his intended antagonist once, and that in the night, he did not discover the substitution, but was fully "satisfied."

☞ Lieut. Maury is soon to visit England to arrange for the publication there of an important work, on which he has long been engaged, "The Meteorology of the Ocean,"

Fusion fizzled, and Compromises Condemned.—The zealous, timid, overanxious friends of Judge Douglas never committed a more fatal mistake than when they consented to a fusion with bolters and disorganizers, as they did in New York.—Bath Times.

☞ Mrs. Doherty, a drunken woman, was burnt to death in Boston, Thursday evening.

☞ Rev. Mr. Guinness, a revivalist, has just arrived in Boston, from Europe, and is about commencing operations there.

☞ The Phrenological, and the Water Cure Journals, for November, are before us. The Phrenological contains portraits Prince Albert Edward, Rembrandt Peale, and Andrew Jackson, with appropriate notices.

☞ The Religious Educator, No. 11, just received from Walker, Wise & Co., publishers, Boston.

☞ Mrs. Abigail Grout of Monroe, Me., was killed by lightning on the 16th ult. She was in the act of throwing a pail of water from the door, when the lightning struck and killed her instantly. Her age was 72.

☞ At St. Anne's, the Episcopal Church in Calais, there is a finely carved chair in the chancel, like the desk and pulpit, the work of the skillful hands of the Rector.

Charles F. likes fun, and he says that he applied two months since for the contract to furnish alcohol for "dissolving the Union."

The Philadelphia Bribery Case.—The Governor of Pennsylvania has issued a proclamation declaring Lehman, Democrat, elected to Congress instead of Butler.

Illinois.—Chicago, Nov. 8.—Forty-eight counties give Lincoln 38,000 majority.—Giving the Democrats all the doubtful districts, the house will stand 41 Republicans to 34 Democrats; and the Senate 13 Republicans to 9 Democrats.

Maryland.—Philadelphia, Nov. 8—Breckinridge carried Maryland by a small majority.

Missouri.—St. Louis, Nov. 8—Ten counties give Douglas 43,072; Lincoln 10,131: Breckinridge 4294.

Louisiana.—New Orleans, Nov. 7.—The State has gone for Breckinridge.

Dissolution of the Union.—Augusta, Ga., Nov. 8.—Members of the South Carolina Legislature say that there is little doubt of a Convention being called and that State secede, thus dissolving the Union.

KINGSTON, March 10, 1841.—"This may certify that my son has had a humor which made its appearance when he was but a few days old; and it grew worse, causing large swellings and running sores. He has been cured by the use of Dr. Swett's Panacea and Humor Wash."
T. CURRIER.
Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and others of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Catarrh is the most difficult of any of the Diseases of the Breathing Organs to relieve or to cure. The Rev. Joshua Leavitt, editor of the Independent of New York, who had the Catarrh for more than twenty years, has been cured by using Dr. J. R. Stafford's Olive Tar and Iron and Sulphur Powders, which are advertised in this paper. His testimonial is published in a pamphlet among others equally prominent who have been cured of chronic Throats and Lung difficulties, which will be sent free by mail.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called Blood Food. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this Blood Food and be restored to health.

SLEEPLESS, CRYING, TEETHING CHILDREN
All know how unpleasant are these accompaniments of babyhood, and most intelligent persons know, also, the sad consequences to health, and often life, from the use of anodynes, cordials, and similar baby doses used to quiet them. HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC HOMŒOPATHIC BABY'S PILLS, (a pleasant sugar pill,) which you may drop into the mouth at any time, give you everything to be desired from medicine. They calm excitement, allay the irritation of teething, relieve colic and bowel complaints, and procure natural and quiet rest, without the disadvantages of cordials or opiates. They have been used for many years, and are approved by all who use them or advise dosing.
Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes $1.
Sent by mail or express, free of charge, on receipt of the price.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.
Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.
THE OXYGENATED BITTERS
Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica supplies for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

Gents:—Please send me by express two dozen Oxygenated Bitters. With us there is a increasing demand for this excellent specific for Dyspepsia and its attendant evils, and we know of no remedy more fully entitled to the confidence of the public. This much we say, disclaiming any intention of puffing the article, as its own merits are a sufficient guarantee of all that it purports to be. Very respectfully yours,

S. J. COURT—PORTSMOUTH, Friday.

The suit John M. Harvey and wife vs. City of Portsmouth, which we mentioned as given to the jury on Thursday afternoon, was, strange to say, decided by a verdict for the city.

The injury was alleged to have been occasioned to Eliza Harvey by falling into a hole in the sidewalk in front of the Goodrich Block, on Market street, while the block was being rebuilt, in August, 1859.

The successful defence was that proclamation was taken to protect the public from injury, and that on the evening of the accident the hole was carefully covered with planks.

At the close of this case the jurors were dismissed until Monday, when the State case against Sarah Ann Healey and Richard S. Richardson is to be taken up. Several cases are to be tried in the interim by the Court, by agreement of parties.

The only case now for trial by the jury, except the criminal case, is the Farmer Will case, which is to come up week after next, unless disposed of previously otherwise.

M. L. S.—SPECIAL NOTICE.

An adjourned meeting of the Mercantile Library Association will be held this (Saturday) evening, at half past 8 o'clock, to decide about holding a course of Lyceum Lectures during the present season. Let every member be on hand.

JOSEPH FOSTER, Sec.

☞ Rev. Mr. Bacheller gave an interesting and valuable Lecture on the Hindoos, at the Temple, last evening. See his advertisement, and send all the children to hear him and see his pictures this (Saturday) afternoon. Admittance only five cents.

☞ Rev. O. R. Bacheller, M.D., for twenty years a Missionary to India, will preach at the Pearl Street Church to-morrow.

☞ The following extracts are from a fusion paper, out of New England, just before Election:—

Lincoln is out of the question. The South is unanimous against him, and the North is fast giving him up.

Vote for Lincoln and Hamlin! If you wish to see acknowledged as law the dogma that there is a Higher Law for our obeervance as citizens than the Constitution of the United States.

If you believe that the Bible teaches the doctrine of negro emancipation.

☞ Charles Reade, in his new book, "The Eighth Commandment," says that Henry Carey, a lyrist and satirist whose verses were attributed both to Pope and Swift, wrote both the words and music of "God Save the Queen"; yet, notwithstanding the popularity of the anthem, poor Carey suffered so much from poverty and destitution that he hanged himself. "They found him cold, with only skin on his bones, and a half-penny in his pocket. Think of this when next you hear 'God Save the Queen.'"

DEPRESSION OF THE CLOTHING TRADE IN NEW YORK.—The N. Y. Express says there are about thirty-five large wholesale clothing houses in New York, manufacturing from four to five millions yearly, and employing at a moderate calculation from eight to ten thousand operatives, and running at least two thousand machines. It is not generally known, but it is a fact that since early in August—now about three months—the bulk of these houses have been idle,—doing nothing for next year; most of them have not made a garment for next season. Such a thing has never before been known.

☞ The Lincoln salute on Thursday evening, which we mentioned without the number, was one hundred guns, and they were fired by Com.Gen. Sides and his artillerists, exactly four to a minute. The rapidity of the firing made the salute seem short—so that we were doubtful as to the number, concerning which we had no information.

AFFECTING SCENE.—Hudson, who is now aged nearly three score and ten, was recently convicted of the murder of his slave, before the Circuit Court of Mecklenburg county, Virginia, and sentenced to eighteen years. Upon his arrival before the main gate he trembled like an aspen leaf, and exclaimed, "Great God! sustain and help me in this trying hour." As he passed through the gate he looked back and ejaculated, "Farewell, vain world! O! that I was blessed with forgetfulness! Lord be merciful to me, a great sinner."

SUPREME COURT, Essex Co., Mass.—Patrick Divine of Salem, violating liquor law; sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs, and 20 days in the County House.

David Kinnely of Salem, for maintaining a liquor nuisance, verdict guilty.

REPUBLICANISM SOUTH.—The vote for Lincoln in Baltimore was 1082, and in St. Louis 8962. In the latter city the Republicans had a plurality; Douglas came next, 8177; then Bell, 4192; and poor Breckinridge brought up the rear with 701.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Mr. Spaulding, Republican, has been elected to Congress by 1400 majority.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8, 1860.

The Republicans of this State "still live," and from the Pennsylvania returns it is evident the Quakers voted, and to some effect. All parties here are satisfied; the Lincolnites abundantly, having elected their Governor, and State officers, by majorities equal to their most sanguine expectations; the Breckinridge men are rejoicing over the defeat of Douglas, and vice versa; and the Bell-everetters are jubilant over the results in Virginia, Kentucky and Arkansas.

We are now waiting patiently for those wonderful seceders, who have so vociferously informed us of their intentions during the campaign. They will undoubtedly settle down quietly, conclude that "contentment is better than strife," and "wait for some overt act of Mr. Lincoln's administration, before taking active measures towards the dissolution of the Union!"

The Executive and Legislative branches of the general government, will, during the next session, act as an effectual check upon each other. The Democratic majority in the House will prevent the Republicans from making any radical reforms, without the aid of the South Americans, and the President's veto will nullify any violent party measures of the Democrats, who have not the requisite two-thirds votes to put it aside. It seems as if Providence had designed this state of things for the safety of the country in its present agitated condition.

A large fire broke out here this morning, in the Astor House on Broadway. The firemen were quickly on the spot, but before the flames could be subdued the interior of one end of the building was consumed. The loss by fire and water must be very large; probably uninsured. The site is so far down town that it is doubtful if it is rebuilt for hotel purposes. It would be a fine place for the Post Office had noi Uncle Sam already purchased the spot he now occupies, for the erection of a new building.

NEWINGTON.

☞ Secession and nullification come over the wires from the fire-eaters, and make a column in the Boston papers of Friday evening. The Governor of Georgia, in a special message, does not approve of secession, but recommends some unconstitutional reprisals on Northern States, for, we hardly know what. Dispatches from South Carolina show the pot there is boiling over.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 8.—A large body of citizens called on the resigned federal officers last night, and cheered them loudly.

A Washington dispatch in the Courier says the President will resist nullification, but not secession.

[Exactly so; he will collect the duties on imports, if need be, by an armed steamer at the mouth of each port. But if the Carolina people don't want any mails, they need not have them—and if their Senators and Representatives don't come to Washington, Mr. Buchanan need not care.]

But stop; here is a dispatch that spoils the fun:

BALTIMORE, Nov. 9.—The members of the Broker's Board received dispatches yesterday from prominent parties in South Carolina and other Southern States, that there will be no secession now or hereafter, unless Lincoln commits some overt act of injustice.

☞ The Rockingham Weekly Chronicle, containing a summary of the news of the week, this day published, and for sale at the Chronicle Counting Room: price 3 cents; $1 per year, in advance.

To DYSPEPTICS.—Soda, Magnesia, and all Alkalies, either afford but temporary relief, or confirm the disease into a chronic affliction. The Oxygenated Bitters immediately relieve and permanently cure all forms of Dyspepsia, and stomach difficulties.

☞ Reader, have you seen Prof. Wood's advertisement in our paper. Read it; it will interest you. tf

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC
BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "hat it is the best pr paration of Bitters that has ever been offered to th. public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merit.

For further particulars reference is made to the printed circulars.

THE ORIGINAL P. P. STEWART,

FUEL-SAVING AND COMFORT-PRODUCING LARGE OVEN, SUMMER AND WINTER

AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE,

FOR WOOD & ANTHRACITE OR BITUMINOUS COAL

Improved in 1859 with New and Extra Large Flues, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue.

Attention is invited to the following Points of Superiority:

DURABILITY.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

CAPACITY.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

ECONOMY.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

VENTILATION OF OVEN.—In the Stewart Stove alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (protected by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that, as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

ENTIRE CONTROL OF HEAT.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

THE DOUBLE SHEET BOTTOM FLUE.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

BROILING.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

HOT WATER RESERVOIR AND WARMING CLOSET.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

WATER BACK.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of P. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL,

MADE BY

THE BARSTOW STOVE COMPANY

Of Providence, R. I.

In introducing a new Cook Stove, of singularly novel construction and arrangement, it is proper that we speak of its peculiar merits.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking giving an oven nearly 3 ft. long! or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! The advantages of this arrangement over that adopted for roasting in the Stewart and other stoves, by extending the oven, with a tin roaster in front of the fire, are obvious, viz:

1st. This permanent extension of the stove costs no more than the temporary extension by a tin roaster, while this is the most durable, tasteful and useful.

2d. As the flues of the stove extend over and under the entire size of the oven, it is more easily and surely heated than a tin roaster, which receives no heat except what it borrows from the baking oven.

3d. By this arrangement the processes of roasting and baking are entirely separated, while by the others they are carried on together, the fumes of both being intermingled.

4th. By this arrangement the roasting oven can be attached to the baking oven in a single moment of time, when occasion requires: or it can be used for a hot closet when not required for baking or roasting.

5th. By this extension an additional boiler hole and other room is gained on the top of the stove, while, at the same time the stove occupies no more room on the floor.

We might make extended notice of some other things peculiar to this stove, as compared with other high-priced Air-Tight Cook Stoves, but will barely allude to them, viz:

1st. The double plates each side of the fire prevent any leak of ashes into the oven and make the stove more durable.

2d. The admission of external air between these plates, for the ventilation of the roasting oven, tends also to the preservation of the plates most exposed to destruction.

3d. The durable dump grate, with the ash box of ample size to receive the ashes and coals, is an attractive feature of the stove.

4th. The draft door, at each end of the fire box, is a great convenience when a quick fire is wanted.

5th. The movable ash pan, which, though it forms a hearth to the stove, need not be used except once or twice a day for taking up and carrying away the ashes.

6th. The stove has but one damper, and but one division of flues on the back of and under the oven, ensuring a very quick bake.

7th The stove is made in the most thorough manner; the doors and roasting oven are lined with tin, and tin jackets are provided for the back and bottom plates. A hot closet and tank can be added if required. With any reasonable care, the stove will last a life-time, and we know it to be "perfect in its operation."

This stove was thoroughly tested before brought into the market, and we know that all that is said of it will be found true on trial of the stove.

John Trundy, Esq., one of our most practical and scientific mechanics, who has had large experience in the construction of stove patterns in years past, and has for many years been using one of the Stewart Stoves, has purchased one of the MODEL COOKS, and after a fair trial pronounces it far superior to the Stewart or any stove he has ever seen, for economy, convenience and dispatch. We might also refer to several other parties who are using the stove, and who award it the very highest praise.

The MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be the stove for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is wanted.

We have nought to say against any other stove, believing that a man can sell his own goods without depreciating his neighbor's; but this we do say, that we honestly believe this is the best stove that can be found in the world; and what is more, we think others will agree with us after a trial of it. We invite any one to examine the stove, whether they wish to purchase or not.

For sale, with a great variety of Furnaces, Ranges, Cooking, Office and Parlor Stoves; Coal Hods, Sitters, Funnel, Stove-Repairing Pieces, Parlor Grates, Etc.

Morning Chronicle.

"Where is the hero of Kars?" asked one as the train bearing the Prince of Wales to the East stopped at a way station. "I think," said a plain old fellow, "that it must be the Prince himself, for he has been on the cars enough since he has been in this country, to be something of a hero in that way." The whistle gave a delighted scream and the train moved on.

In Scotland and Ireland salt appears to have been considered to represent the incorruptible spirit; and was therefore laid above the heart of corpse; and in some cases a platter was so placed containing a small portion of salt and earth unmixed, the one to represent the immortal, the other the mortal part.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with pale countenance and nerve disarrangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—sympathetic a diseased organism. Separate atoms of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulphur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

DEBILITY,

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical strength and energy, and the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific to all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In the class of diseases, known as Female Complaints, the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a leaden or sallow pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation and nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through over-use, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminent over all other preparations, patent or official, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the Theory upon which this remedy is founded, also testimonials, certificates of remarkable cures, will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-simile signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

Humphreys' Homeopathic Specific Remedies for the People

The Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and inspection of PROF. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet that great and long realized want of the people, a reliable medicine for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of the diseases and ills which suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling, a mere cold, a slight diarrhœa, a pain in the side, or a headache, were neglected, or first early cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, Croup or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so you know at once what to take—prompt, safe and reliable to cure—inexpensive, safe, and hence occasioning no risk, while the curative effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and are found to give prompt relief and a speedy cure.

Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies for families and private persons, as being the most prompt, yet safe, and SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PROMPT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands are and have been using them for some five years past, to the entire satisfaction of many, with almost invariable success. All speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and many, unsolicited, do not hesitate to accord the utmost testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their CONSUMERS.

PROF. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, rejuvinates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form, so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to ever pleasant accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe this weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritations. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and thus thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a compound has long been held to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility, for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and injures the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Inflammation, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Hypochondria, Hypochondria, Night sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Are Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidney, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Chills, Heating and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, that if not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the disease at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a teaspoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period in perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it.—Try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illusory or decline and die of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go on until consumption has fastened that let their condition be known; in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for some kind friend to call and remind them of the downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always near, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

Dr. Mott's

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE

PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that unprecedented of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate the necessity in almost every common case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT WHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease, or by a gradual and the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved to exceed in its effect which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons known only to men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without the slightest tendency to over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without the slightest irritative purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent in its effects, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency, which constitutes the disease.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating sweats, and hectic heat, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably relieved, both as an alleviating pain and reducing the swelling and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance, Fever and Ague, Exhilarating, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and spirits ruined, the horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.

One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.

One dose will cure Heartburn.

Three doses will cure Indigestion.

One dose will give you a good appetite.

One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing, and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness, etc., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual system, and all other complaints of the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

"ISN'T IT WORSE FOR A MAN, FATHER?"—It is two years since I left off the use of tobacco. I only chewed a little, but I did enjoy my cigar. I prided myself on my fine Havanas, and might have been seen almost any morning with a cigar in my mouth, walking down Broadway in a very comfortable manner.

The way it happened that I left off is this: I had a little son about six years of age. He was almost always hurried to be ready to walk down with me as far as his school. His bright face and extended hand were always welcome, and he bounded along beside me, chatting as such little fellows only can. The city has in it many dirty, uncared-for boys, whose chief delight seems to be to pick up pieces of discarded cigars and broken pipes, and with their hands in their pockets, puff away in a very inelegant manner. One morning it seemde as if little Edgar and I met a great many of these juvenile smokers. I became very much disgusted, and pointed them out to Edgar as an awful warning of youthful delinquency, talked quite largely, and said the city authorities ought to interfere and break it up.

A little voice came up to me soft and musical, as I gave an extra puff at my superb Havana. A bright little face was upturned, and the words, "Isn't it worse for a man, father?" came to my ears. I looked down on the little fellow at my side, when his timid eye fell, and the color mounted to his boyish cheek as if he feared he had said something bold and unfitting.

"Do you think it worse for a man, Edgar?" I asked.

"Please, father, boys would not want to smoke and chew tobacco, if men did not do it."

Here was the answer. I threw away my cigar, and have never touched tobacco in any form since.

DUST FLOATING IN THE AIR.—M. Pouchet finds that the dust floating in the air contain the detritus of the mineral constituents of the globe, atoms of animals and plants, and the finest debris of all the materials we make use of. But one item he especially points out, viz:—Wheat starch, which is invariably found in dust, whether old or recent. Surprised at the quantity of it present among the aerial corpuscles, M. Pouchet investigated the dust of all ane and of every locality; and everywherehe found this wheat starch present. "I have found the starch," he says, "in the most inaccessible corners of old Gothic churches mixed with dust blackened by six or eight centuries of existence; I have found it in the palaces and caves of Thebiad, where it may have dated from the time of the Pharohs; I have found it in the tympanic cavity of the ear of a mummified dog, which I have found in a subterranean temple of Upper Egypt. In all countries, in a word, where wheat forms the staple of food, starch always penetrates into the dust and is met with in greater or less quantities.—Medical Times.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.
The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from their defect are too well understood to require any comment.
Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

New Photographic Establishment.
Having fitted and furnished in modern style, large, pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with the finest style of every description, from the smallest Miniature to life-size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., copied any size desired.
The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping pace with every useful improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.
All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.
Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

FOOTING UP OF VOTES.

In New Hampshire, the vote in all but thirteen small places, is as follows; Lincoln, 37,052; Douglas, 25,267; Breckinridge, 2092; Bell, 398. Lincoln over all, 9295.

In Massachusetts, all the towns in the State, except Sudbury and Weston, add up as follows: Lincoln, 106,486; Bell, 22,641; Douglas, 34,703; Breckinridge, 6728. Lincoln's majority over all is 42,413.

The vote for the Governor in all the towns except the above is: Andrew, 102,849; Lawrence, 23,462; Beach, 31,558; Butler, 5997. Andrew's majority is 41,832.

In Missouri, the last advices give Mr. Douglas his only State. Additional returns confirm the election of the Douglas ticket.

Wisconsin.—Lincoln's majority in the State is 20,000. Potter's majority for Congress is 2500.

Mississippi.—Returns from Mississippi indicate the success of the Breckinridge ticket.

Virginia.—Latest returns from Virginia give Breckinridge upwards of 2000 majority. Seventy counties to hear from, which gave Letcher for Governor 300 majority.

Georgia is close and doubtful. Official returns from 67 counties in Georgia give Breckinridge 30,000 votes, Bell 29,500, and Douglas 9000.

Alabama.—The plurality for Breckinridge in this State is 10,000.

Florida.—Returns from Florida indicate that Breckinridge has carried the State by 4000 majority.

Louisiana.—Breckinridge's plurality in Louisiana is 3000.

Rhode Island.—The entire vote for Lincoln is 12,244, which is 777 larger than the vote for Fremont. The Douglas vote is 7737, which is 618 less than the combined vote of Buchanan and Fillmore. The Republican majority is 4507, which is 1395 larger than Fremont's majority; this is the largest majority ever obtained in a contested election in this State;—and the 'blacks,' as some of our neighbors call them, have the majority in every ward in Providence, every county in the State, every town in four of the five counties, and every town in the State but three.

☞ The Concord Democratic Standard says:—

The Republican Party hold that a man's moral obligations are' superior to the Constitution, and that when they come into collision, the latter should give way to the former.

Douglas and his followers adhere to principles very nearly akin to those entertained by the Republicans.

If the Republicans and Douglasites succeed, they will convert this Constitutional Government into a consolidated Democracy, governed and controlled exclusively by the will of the majority.

These three items do not stand together in the Standard, but they occur in the same article, and as we cut them out, they give a fair view of the three principal points in it.

Who and What Byerly is.—Our readers remember that we have chronicled the arrest and conviction of one Byerly, in Philadelphia, for forging election returns, by which a Republican was to take a seat in Congress, which really belonged to a Democrat. His politics were not mentioned in the item we copied; but we took it for granted that he must belong to the Republican party. Some other papers, probably with the same impression, have undertaken to use Mr. Byerly's disgrace, as belonging to the Republicans.

But it now appears not to be so. The Boston Atlas of Saturday says "that Byerly was a Breckinridge Democrat, and that he committed the forgery to revenge upon Mr. Lehman, the Douglas candidate for Congress, the defeat of Randall, a Breckinridge candidate for the State Senate—and that no Republican was in any way implicated in the forgery."

Attachment of a Railroad.—The Barings of London have caused to be attached all the rolling stock of the Grand Trunk Railroad in Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont. The rolling stock which originally belonged to the Atlantic and St. Lawrence Railroad Company, was mortgaged with that road, and therefore not included in the Barings' attachment, the same having been kept in a good repair by the road, as agreed at the time of the lease.—The road will, of course, be run, for this is the only source from which the Messrs. Baring can collect their debt, and they may find it for their interest to increase the rolling stock, which is all the road now needs to greatly increase its income.

Population of the Earth.—The American Ecclesiastical Year Book sets down the population of the world at 1,296,000,000, or more than double the usual estimate.

NEW ORLEANS LETTER.

New Orleans, Nov. 3.

The month came in with wintry weather, but to-day the summer seems to have revived, much to the disgust of those coal dealers who had hoped to have coined money from the susceptibility of their fellow men.

Everything now holds a secondary position compared to politics. Bell and Everett will probably carry this city, but the State is claimed for Breckinridge. Monday evening the "Campanologians" give their last torch-light procession here, and on Tuesday will be fired the gun—which, by many, is thought to be but a signal for secession. Texas, Mississippi, South Carolina and Alabama are said to be prepared to take initiatory steps for that purpose immediately on the election of Lincoln, is considered inevitable.

A terrible accident occurred about 50 miles above this city, on the night of the 31st ult. One of the boilers of the steamer H. R. W. Hill exploded, killing about 30 persons, and wounding 40 or 50, principally firemen and deck hands. The boat was towed to this city, and on Friday the coroner held an inquest on thirty-three bodies. Laid on pallets, in the saloon, their scalded bodies covered with sheets, the sight was a fearful reminder of the uncertain tenure of human life, and one not easily to be forgotten.

All Saints' Day passed with the usual decoration of tombs, and those other observances which tend to keep the memory of the departed fresh in the hearts of the living.

Cotton and sugar do not come forward so briskly as would be the case were the river higher.

As a set-off to the Prince of Wales' visit to the North, New Orleans now entertains the hippopotamus sent to the Royal Zoological Gardens, London, from the Nile.—He is two years old, weighs half a ton, and the only one ever brought to America, and is very obedient to his Arabian keeper.

The St. Charles Theatre opens next week, and the routine of pleasure will soon be in full tide of operation. Iox.

☞ Rev. J. D. Torry, a minister of long standing in the Oneida M. E. Conference, has brought disgrace upon himself and discredit upon his denomination. Charges made against him that he had used the church where he officiated as a place of assignation, have been so far verified that he has been suspended from all ministerial functions until the next session of the Conference, which will be held in Utica in the spring.

☞ A few years ago, an engineer was killed on the Ohio Central Railroad, just as he was about to be married. The young lady to whom he was engaged afterwards married a Mr. James Freese, and he, a short time since, was seriously injured in an accident which occurred at almost the same spot; and now, to crown all, the lady herself has been thrown from a carriage, and instantly killed.

☞ The ship China, of Portland, was burned at sea on the 6th inst., off Cape Carnival. The officers and crew, with all their baggage, were taken off by the bark Ocean Pride, and subsequently transferred to the steamer Quaker City, which also went to the assistance of the burning ship. The China was 12 days out from New Orleans for Liverpool. Her cargo consisted of 2277 bales cotton. She was burned to the water's edge.

Another Dred Scott Decision.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun confirms a previous report, that a case is to be brought before the United States Supreme Court soon, which will bring up the question as to the right of a Territorial Legislature to exclude slavery. The case is said to come from Kansas.

A Law for Lawyers.—A bill, requiring every attorney at law, on the request of his client, to give his opinion in writing upon the points bearing directly in a given case, and holding him responsible when, through incompetency, neglect or mismanagement on his part, the client suffers damage, has passed the House in the Vermont Legislature.

☞ De Bow's mortality statistics, compiled from the last census, show that the people of the United States are the healthiest on the globe. The deaths are 320,000 per year, or one and a half per ct. of the population. In England the ratio is nearly two per cent. Virginia and North Carolina are the healthiest of the States, and have 638 inhabitants over 100 years of age.

Attempted Suicide.—Mary Guiney, an Irish girl about twenty years of age, attempted suicide by jumping into the canal in Manchester, N. H., Friday morning.—She was probably intoxicated. Her clothes kept her from sinking, and she was rescued.

☞ The omnibus receipts of London for a week, ending Oct. 10, were some $60,000, an average of $3,000,000 a year.

☞ Saturday's sensation dispatches from the South amount to but little. There has been a meeting of Southern medical students in New York. A Northern physician has been driven from Augusta, Ga. Mr. Lincoln has been burned in effigy in Florida; and the cotton taken out of the Boston steamer at Charleston, in consequence of the Charlestonians not to allow cotton to go to Boston. A dispatch to the New York Times says that the Collector of Charleston has not resigned.

The whole number of Federal troops from Maryland to Florida is less than 1000—500 of whom are stationed at Fort Moultrie, Charleston.

The Tribune Washington dispatch says that a large quantity of arms was shipped yesterday from the Government arsenal to the South,—the exact point is unknown.

There is much excitement in Charleston in consequence of orders for the removal of arms from the citadel to Fort Moultrie by order of the Secretary of War.

The President will Enforce the Laws.—Washington, Nov. 9.—There is no apprehension felt in official quarters that efforts will be made to seize the forts or other public property in the South, as such movements would not be tolerated by the authorities of the States in which they are located. The question now distracting the people of that section being of great delicacy, nothing will be done by the Executive authority which will tend to exasperate the public mind against the General Government, while, however, the President will perform his duty in duly enforcing the laws.

The resignations of Federal officers at Charleston being contingent on their acceptance by the President, time will be allowed them to reconsider their action.

Erroneous repors have prevailed that the President intends to issue a proclamation, but it will be recollected that Gen. Jackson did not pursue such a course until after South Carolina had passed a nullifying ordinance.

The Cabinet to-day held a meeting for the first time since the election. No question connected with recent Southern events came up for formal action.

What Lincoln Said to a Louisiana Visitor.—The Louisianian, a Breckinridge paper printed in New Orleans, gives publicity to the following conversation between a New Orleans merchant and Mr. Lincoln:

A highly respectable merchant of New Orleans, just returned from the North and West, informs us that during his visit there he had an interview with Old Abe, the rail-splitter. Upon being asked by our informant what he would do, or what would likely be his policy in regard to the South, should he be elected, the rail-splitter replied that similar interrogatories had been propounded to him by many persons, and also in writing by letter, but that he had uniformly refused to answer them, since he did not deem it either prudent or politic to declare his policy in advance. He took occasion, however, to apprise our informant that he would dispel the illusion existing at the South, that he would have to send men from the free States to fill the offices, by assuring him that there would be found plenty of persons at the South glad enough to get them, and that he had already received four hundred letters from the slave States, begging office, a considerable portion of which came from Louisiana.

☞ The very general desire that cannon be dispensed with as an auxiliary in election demonstrations, seems to have been heeded by the Republicans of Concord. Some Republicans now make it a practice, in giving for jubilant purposes, to base their contributions upon the condition that no salutes shall be fired.—Statesman.

The Laconia Gazette says that as John S. Collins was on his way from Meredith Parade to Laconia, on Saturday evening of last week, when about midway of Folsom's woods, his horse manifested much fear, and on looking about Mr. C. saw an animal some five feet long and two feet tall, which gave a frightful yell and darted into the woods. The querry is whether wolf, wildcat or bugbear.

Thanksgiving.—The Governors of Louisiana and Tennessee have appointed the 29th day of November as a day of Thanksgiving in their respective States. These are the only Southern States in which appointments have yet been made.

Accident on the Lowell and Nashua Railroad.—Nashua, N. H., Nov. 9—An accident at Lowell on Thursday evening, occurred in consequence of the brakeman accidentally falling from the train after he had screwed up his brakes. He was found lying senseless beside the track, about 200 feet back of the point of collision, severely bruised by the fall, but no bones broken. He is doing well, and expected to recover.

☞ The Richmond Whig of Thursday contains an article laying the blame of Lincoln's election to the course of the Administration at the time of the Charleston Convention in not acquiescing in Douglas' nomination.

Attempted Murder.—South Berwick Junction, Me., Nov. 9.—An unknown man, calling himself Graffam, entered the office of E. K. Wiggin to-day, and attempted to shoot him, but the pistol fortunately missed fire. No cause is known for the act. He was arrested and still expresses a determination to kill Mr. Wiggin.

☞ There is a memorial before the Vermont Legislature asking for the Troy Conference Academy authority to confer the degree of "Mistress of Literature."

NUTTING TIME.

The nuts are ripe and the day is fine,
The purple hills in the sunlight shine,
And the brown nuts redden the trembling tops
Of each gnarled tree in the hazel copse.

The copse is filled with the happy noise
Of laughing girls and climbing boys,
And the beaten branches yield their fruit
That heavily drops at each old tree's root.

Camel Riding.—Take a music stool, and having wound it up as high as it will go, put it in a cart without springs, get on top, and next drive the cart transversely across a ploughed field, and you will then form some notion of the terror and uncertainty you would experience the first time you mounted a camel.

Washington, Nov. 9.—McIntosh, the Federal Judge in Florida, announces that he will not hold office under Lincoln.

Kingston, March 10, 1841.—"This may certify that my son has had a humor which made its appearance when he was but a few days old; and it grew worse, causing large swellings and running sores. He has been cured by the use of Dr. Swett's Panacea and Humor Wash." T. Currier.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SWETT, SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and others of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Catarrh is the most difficult of any of the Diseases of the Breathing Organs to relieve or to cure. The Rev. Joshua Leavitt, editor of the Independent of New York, who had the Catarrh for more than twenty years, has been cured by using Dr. J. R. Stafford's Olive Tar and Iron and Sulphur Powders, which are advertised in this paper. His testimonial is published in a pamphlet among others equally prominent who have been cured of chronic Throats and Lung difficulties, which will be sent free by mail.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called Blood Food. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this Blood Food and be restored to health.

SLEEPLESS, CRYING, TEETHING CHILDREN

All know how unpleasant are those accompaniments of babyhood, and most intelligent persons know also, the sad consequences to health, and often life, from the use of anodynes, cordials, and similar baby doses used to quiet them. HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC HOMEOPATHIC BABY'S PILLS, (a pleasant sugar pill,) which you may drop into the mouth at any time, give you everything to be desired from medicine. They calm excitement, allay the irritation of teething, relieve colic and bowel complaints, and procure natural and quiet rest, without the disadvantages of cordials or opiates. They have been used for many years, and are approved by all who use them to honor and doting. Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes $1.

Sent by mail or express, free of charge, on receipt of the price.

Address, Dr F. HUMPHREYS & CO.,
562 Broadway, New York.

Sold in Portsmouth by THACHER.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

Portsmouth, Aug. 3, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston.—

Gents:—Please send me by express two dozen Oxygenated Bitters. With us there is an increasing demand for this excellent specific for Dyspepsia and its attendant evils, and we know of no remedy more fully entitled to the confidence of the public. This much we say, disclaiming any intention of puffing the article, as its own merits are a sufficient guarantee of all that it pur ports to be. Very respectfully yours,

WM. R. PRESTON.

Gents:—Please to send me a new supply of the Oxygenated Bitters by the Eastern Express.—So far as I can learn, these Bitters give the best satisfaction to the dyspeptic invalid, and afford a relief not hitherto found in the list of the same specifics before the public. Yours, &c.

Very respectfully yours, GEO. D. H. FAY.

OUR CITY.

Messrs. Editors:—With your permission, I would endeavor to give a few more reasons why our city does not seem to prosper like some other places around it.

Among other reasons, of late years there seems to be a want of unanimity of feeling among many of its citizens, brought about by a variety of causes, which to enumerate or refer to, might only tend to renew in the mind animosity that would do no good, but possibly remind one of the proverb that "a city divided against itself cannot stand;" and the same will apply as to its prosperity.

City Government.—Another great feature in the prosperity of a city is a good, united, and efficient government. And in order to have it so, it should be composed of good and energetic citizens, and of those that are willing to give such time and attention to it as is required. If it is composed of those who feel indifferent to its interests, or are only willing to act from interested motives, its greatest interest must suffer, because it does not receive that attention that an individual would give to his own business. In order to have the public interest receive its proper attention and full benefit, the members of the city government, while acting in that capacity, should consider the public interest paramount to all others, agreeably to their oaths of office, which they voluntarily take.

In short, a city government, like a national one, if not properly managed, has a deadening, instead of an encouraging effect on corporate or individual enterprise. And it does seem inexcusable in any good citizen, not to take an interest in the government of a city in which he resides; and when the official members serve for little or no pay, it would seem his duty to render them assistance.

Pedlers.—Do not our streets swarm with "foreign pedlers" on foot, and in single and double carriages highly ornamented, and drawn by handsome horses, the drivers cracking their whips over their profitable trade amongst us? Laws will have but little effect to restrain this one-sided trade, until the cause is removed; and the way to do it is to manufacture the goods in our own place.

It is true that reasonable laws, properly enforced, would open the way for the introduction of such manufactures among our own citizens. How a good citizen, who has real estate, or whose interests are in the city, can look upon this kind of trade year after year, and feel indifferent to it, seems beyond comprehension; when if he will only look into it, he must see that it eats into the vital interests of the city. By "foreign peddlers," I mean those that come with manufactured goods not made near or within the city.

Capital.—Many complain that one reason why the city does not prosper, is because capitalists will not do anything. Capital like any other commodity, seeks the best market, or one which the owner thinks the most profitable: it seeks a business place; and business in a place not only keeps capital in it, but draws more to it. But capital is not always so necessary to bring business into a place as many seem to imagine; as in many kinds of business it is safer and better to begin small than large; and after it is safely under way, if capital is needed, it will generally be forthcoming.

One way to introduce an important manufacture into Portsmouth, without additional capital, would be for the owners of stock in the Steam Mill to sell their stock, and invest the proceeds in a Sheeting and Shirting Mill, like that in Salem, Mass.; which has paid a handsome dividend from its commencement. Then the market would not be at a distance, but here; and the goods are a staple commodity.

At this time, when there are about fifty houses or tenements to let, and good houses being advertised for sale, is it not time for the citizens to arouse and take some determined action to stop, what is plain to be seen, is a retrograde movement?

Thus the writer has in two or three articles, endeavored to give his views (imperfect they may be,) of several particulars wherein this city seems less prosperous than other places; and also, how it might be made to prosper. He would again, at the risk of importunity and repetition, ask, Shall some combined and energetic action be taken to improve the city? and to introduce reliable and profitable business into the place? such as is not now done here, or not to the extent that it might be. B.

☞ We commend to the consideration of all, the sensible and well-timed article of our correspondent B. His remarks on empty tenements, however, might lead to misapprehension. A good house or store in this city, not too large, readily commands a fair if not a high rent; and several new dwellings and a few stores are now in process of erection. If our good old city is not quite so brisk as we might wish—we hope she is not going to seed just yet. But, really, can we not have more manufactures here?

☞ The Journal has a justly severe condemnation of bonfires in our streets—"those dangerous breeders of rowdyism." Shoutings, cannon, torches and illuminations are full bad enough, to celebrate the success, one side or the other, which at any rate, should be acheived solely by the noiseless ballot, that "executes a freeman's will, as lightning does the will of God." The barbarous noise of Fourth of July is enough of that sort.

☞ The number of deaths in this city during the month of October, was 15; of the following ages:

Males seven—aged 6 mos., 10 mos., 17 mos., 3 yrs., 5, 21, 50.

Females eight—aged 1 yr., 1 yr 6 mos., 41 yrs., 48, 49, 53, 70, 89.

☞ At the meeting of the Portsmouth Mercantile Library Association, Saturday evening, it was decided to have a Lyceum this winter—and the course will be opened by Hon. Edward Everett, Nov. 21st.

ARREST FOR MURDER.—Former Escape of the Prisoner—The telegraph Saturday night announced the arrest at Attica, Indiana, of Fox for the murder of Col. Davenport, at Rock Island, 14 years ago. Some two or three other men were implicated with Fox, and were arrested, tried and executed. Fox escaped at the time, but was arrested some years or so afterward in this State, by the then Marshal of the Territory of Iowa, James Johnston, a former resident of Indianapolis.

On his way back to Rock Island, Johnston stopped with his prisoner at Washington Hall, afterwards known as the Wright House, where the Glen Rock now is. The hotel was then kept by Mr. Edmund Browning. Johnston placed his prisoner under guard in a back room of the front building, in which was a window overlooking a court that run between the two wings of the rear part of the hotel. During the night, and while his guard was asleep, Fox took the cord from the bedstead, fastened it to the bedpost, lowered himself to the ground and escaped through the gate at the end of the court. He has been at large ever since until his recapture at Attica.

Several gentlemen of this city, who were lodgers at the Washington Hall at the time Fox escaped, say they heard the noise he made in getting out of his room and outside of the Court. He was not missed until he had been gone long enough to elude all pursuers.

The murder of Col. Davenport was cold blooded, and caused great excitement at the time. Fox is likely at last to receive his due. He has always been represented as a desperate man, and in all probability will meet the end that the law prescribes for those who do violence to their fellows.

The present flourishing city of Davenport in the State of Iowa was named in honor of the man who met his death at or near it, fourteen years ago, when it was a very small and insignificant village.—Indianapolis Journal.

THE RETIRING FEDERAL OFFICERS.—Charleston, Nov. 8.—James Conner, United States District Attorney, Collector Colcock and Deputy Collector Jacobs have notified the President of their resignation.

TORONTO, Canada, Nov. 9.—The Government is about to appoint Commissioners to make a searching investigation into affairs of the Grand Trunk Railway, in view of its application for relief.

TO DYSPEPTICS.—Soda, Magnesia, and all Alkalies, either afford but temporary relief, or confirm the disease into a chronic affection. The Oxygenated Bitters immediately relieve and permanently cure all forms of Dyspepsia, and stomach difficulties.

ATWOOD'S
QUININE TONIC BITTERS,
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY
For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and Stomachic s, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a delightful tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, pre-eminently good in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is nor can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "but it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

For further particulars refrence is made to the printed circulars.

Cook Stoves.
Autocrat of the Kitchen.—35,000 in use
THE ORIGINAL P. P. STEWART,
FUEL-SAVING AND COMFORT-PRODUCING LARGE OVEN, SUMMER AND WINTER
AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE,
FOR WOOD & ANTHRACITE OR BITUMINOUS COAL
Improved in 1859 with New and Extra Large Flues, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue.

Attention is invited to the following Points of Superiority:

DURABILITY.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

CAPACITY.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

ECONOMY.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

VENTILATION OF OVEN.—In the Stewart Stove alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (protected by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that, as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

ENTIRE CONTROL OF HEAT.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

THE DOUBLE SHEET BOTTOM FLUE.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

BROILING.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

HOT WATER RESERVOIR AND WARMING CLOSET.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

WATER BACK.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of P. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!
THE MODEL COOK
FOR WOOD OR COAL,
MADE BY
THE BARSTOW STOVE COMPANY
Of Providence, R. I.

In introducing a new Cook Stove, of singularly novel construction and arrangement, it is proper that we speak of its peculiar merits.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking giving an oven nearly 3 ft. long! or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! The advantages of this arrangement over that adopted for roasting in the Stewart and other stoves, by extending the oven, with a tin roaster in front of the fire, are obvious, viz:

1st. This permanent extension of the stove costs no more than the temporary extension by a tin roaster, while this is the most durable, tasteful and useful.

2d. As the flues of the stove extend over and under the entire size of the oven, it is more easily and surely heated than a tin roaster, which receives no heat except what it borrows from the baking oven.

3d. By this arrangement the processes of roasting and baking are entirely separated, while by the others they are carried on together, the fumes of both being intermingled.

4th. By this arrangement the roasting oven can be attached to the baking oven in a single moment of time, when occasion requires: or it can be used for a hot closet when not required for baking or roasting.

5th. By this extension an additional boiler hole, and other room is gained on the top of the stove, while, at the same time the stove occupies no more room on the floor.

We might make extended notice of some other things peculiar to this stove, as compared with other high-priced Air-Tight Cook Stoves, but will barely allude to them, viz:

1st. The double plates each side of the fire prevent any leak of ashes into the oven and make the stove more durable.

2d. The admission of external air between these plates, for the ventilation of the roasting oven, tends also to the preservation of the plates most exposed to destruction.

3d. The durable dump grate, with the ash box of ample size to receive the ashes and coals, is an attractive feature of the stove.

4th. The draft door, at each end of the fire box, is a great convenience when a quick fire is wanted.

5th. The movable ash pan, which, though it forms a hearth to the stove, need not be used except once or twice a day for taking up and carrying away the ashes.

6th. The stove has but one damper, and but one division of flues on the back of and under the oven, ensuring a very quick bake.

7th The stove is made in the most thorough manner; the doors and roasting oven are lined with tin, and tin jackets are provided for the back and bottom plates. A hot closet and tank can be added if required. With any reasonable care, the stove will last a life-time, and we know it to be "perfect in its operation."

This stove was thoroughly tested before brought into the market, and we know that all that is said of it will be found true on trial of the stove.

John Trundy, Esq., one of our most practical and scientific mechanics, who has had large experience in the construction of stove patterns in years past, and has for many years been using one of the Stewart Stoves, has purchased one of the MODEL COOKS, and after a fair trial pronounces it far superior to the Stewart or any stove he has ever seen, for economy, convenience and dispatch We might also refer to several other parties who are using the stove, and who award it the very highest praise.

The MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be the stove for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is wanted.

We have nought to say against any other stove, believing that a man can sell his own goods without depreciating his neighbor's; but this we do say, that we honestly believe this is the best stove that can be found in the world; and what is more, we think others will agree with us after a trial of it. We invite any one to examine the stove, whether they wish to purchase or not.

For sale, with a great variety of
Furnaces, Ranges, Cooking, Office and Parlor Stoves! Coal Hods, Sifters, Funnel, Stove-Repairing Pieces, Parlor Grates, Etc.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the great Medicinal preparation, containing Iron, Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Human Blood, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance, always evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulpur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This great, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the red globules, and finally, increase the appetite, restore the color, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a superior remedy in the early stages of CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Cough, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Neuralgia, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, nervous palpitation, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who are suffering from a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through over-use, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, this preparation will be a STAMPEDE AT THE LAW SCHOOLS.—It is reported that seventeen southern law students have terminated their career in the Cambridge law School, on account of the election of Lincoln; and gone South to aid in organizing Wise's revolutionary army. The conservatism of the Professors at Harvard could not retain these Hotspurs, so they change Coke for grimy gunpowder, Chitty on bills for Copleston on ball practice, Story on equity for sabres in emergency; and turning their future aspirations from charges to clients, or to a jury, to charges on the enemy. Shocking bereavement!

The alleged cause of this exodus is the fact that one of the Professors has "compromised the neutrality of his position," by voting at the late election, the whole Republican ticket, with a slip from an Alabama newspaper attached, containing a programme of the proposed secession of that State in case of Lincoln's election, with preparations that were being made to that end in the way, arms and ammunition, and also a written commentary to the effect that if secession was to be the result of an exercise of the elective franchise, and civil war the consequence of a constitutional election, that those dire calamities ought to be averted from posterity by welcoming the contest now. Dreadful provocation to the seceders! Fearful rebuke.—Atlas.

LIQUOR SEIZURE IN WORCESTER, MASS.—Officers Braman and Mowry made a descent on the premises of Margaret Marshall, arrested her for keeping a common nuisance, and deposited her and her liquor in the police office. They obtained all her implements of trade, decanters, measures, tumblers, &c., as evidence.

The amount of liquor taken was small. In fact, what few groggshops there are, keep but a small supply on hand. The danger of seizure is so great that they dare not have a large supply. The majority of dealers have closed out their stock. It is safe to say that more than three-fourths of the places where liquor was sold on the last of January, no longer deal in the ardent.—Worcester Trans.

A conference preacher one day came into the house of a Wesleyan Reformer, and saw suspended on the walls the portraits of three expelled ministers. "What" said he, "have you them there?" "Oh, yes, they are there," was the hasty answer. "But one is wanting to complete the set." "Pray who is that one?" "Why the devil, to be sure!" "Ah!" said the reformer, "he is not yet expelled from the conference."

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.
The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.
Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

New Photographic Establishment.
Having fitted and furnished in modern style, large, pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with Sun Pictures of every description, from the smallest Miniature to life-size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., copied any size desired.
The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeps pace with every new and improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.
All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.
Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1860.

THE UNION SAFE.

We have reports of continued agitation of the subject of secession at the South.

In Augusta, Ga., on Saturday, a large meeting of citizens was presided over by the Mayor, and resolutions of a commendable spirit passed. Per contra, the secessionists held a large meeting in the same city, at which the most violent resolutions were passed. These two items of the irrepressible conflict just about neutralize each other.

Senators Toombs of Ga., and Chesnut of S. C. have resigned.—Their resignations, however, do not take effect till March 4.

In South Carolina, by act of legislature, the banks of the State have been allowed to suspend specie payment. The State convention is to be held Dec. 17. It is believed by some of the people of Charleston, that the other cotton States will go with South Carolina;—though the action of Georgia does not look much like it. Mr. Yancey delivered an address in Montgomery, Ala., on Saturday night. Blue cockades are worn by some. Mr. Toombs himself sports one. A bill has been introduced into the Georgia Legislature, heavily taxing manufactured goods from all the States which have nullified the fugitive slave bill, and preventing citizens of such States from suing in Georgia courts.

As a set off to some of this fever, the Boston Courier of Monday says:—

There is, it will be noticed, a conservative party even in Charleston; and it may be that better counsels will yet prevail in South Carolina. The report that cotton had been taken out of the Boston steamer at Charleston, has not been confirmed by anything received here by the owners, and we have no doubt the story is false. The Courier of that city "solicits the members of the State Legislature, and all its readers, to peruse with care the well considered article in its columns, signed Festina Lente.

For the benefit of the reader who does not know the English of festina lente, we will tell him it means Make haste slowly.

In regard to the report that the brig James Gray, belonging to the Messrs. Cushing of Newburyport, hoisted the Palmetto flag and saluted it with fifteen guns, the Herald of that place, says:—

"We doubt the report very much; and if it be true, the Charleston people may look after their niggers, for the Yankee that would be guilty of such an act will steal the first nigger he can lay hold of."

The Boston Courier says, of this:

We do not believe a word of the story; and, indeed, we are disposed to regard much that has come to us touching Southern excitement as the coinage of the "sensation" press of New York.

The Richmond Whig, (a Union paper,) opposes secession and disunion; and agrees with the New Orleans Picayune, which ventures to affirm that Louisiana will neither lead nor follow in any secession movement. A New Orleans dispatch of Nov. 9, says:—

The movement for secession meets no favor here, and will assuredly fail. The feverish tendency of the money market, however, shows no abatement.

The Boston Courier offers these consolatory remarks:

Mr. Lincoln has gained place; but the power is still in the hands of the Unionists. Congress is ours. Our Southern friends should bear this in mind. They should bear in mind that although Massachusetts and New York have voted for Lincoln, they have, at the same moment sent men to Congress who will restrain him in the execution of any scheme which the bad men of his party may devise. The Union can receive no detriment for two years to come; and our Southern fellow-countrymen should bear this in mind. Mr. Lincoln is powerless. The country has simply placed him in the White House, with a guard of Union men to watch him. The only evil which can at present grow out of his election is the interruption of trade; and that can be remedied by the men in trade. They should take proper steps forthwith to stop this agitation and this war of hatred. Commercial Boston should take the lead.

HEAVY VERDICT AGAINST A HORSE RAILROAD.—Some months since, Joseph Bugbee, a musician, was returning over the Malden and Melrose Horse Railroad, from a concert in the suburbs, when the car came against a swing pole which was not in its proper place at the time. The pole passed into the car, severely injuring Mr. Bugbee. He brought a suit against the Company, for damages, laying the damages originally at $5000. The case was tried in the Superior Court, Boston. After the evidence was in, the counsel for Bugbee asked leave to amend, so as to claim higher damages, and the amendment was allowed by counsel for defence.

The case was given to the jury, and they returned a verdict giving Bugbee $5,500 damages.

☞ Dr. Walker, the late President of Harvard University, a man universally esteemed as a profound thinker, is carrying through the press a volume of his sermons, preached to the students in college.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Higher Law has got down that way, certainly. Mr. Lincoln is supposed to be elected, according to the Constitution of the United States,—and upon this supposition, in the House of Representatives, at Charleston, Nov. 5, Mr. Coffin made a speech, in which he proposed a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer, in view of the dreadful calamity. He says in his speech:

The occasion which convenes us is a solemn one. We, therefore, should enter on it not merely with feelings of determination, with all the means that God shall afford us, to defend and protect our borders from the insidious and murderous attacks of a bitter and hypocritical foe, who, while pretending to aid the black, is quite willing to administer the poisoned cup to the white, but with a humble reliance upon the Divine arm to sustain us in our hour of need, believing "if God be for us, who can be against us."

The reader will please to remember, that the only thing they imagine will be disturbed, is, the holding of negro slaves.—And to preserve this inestimable blessing, they make this solemn appeal to Almighty God, to shield them against a Constitutional President, who has no idea of hurting a hair of their heads, or stealing a single curl of a human chattel.

Mr. Coffin close his speech with a preamble and resolutions, as follows:—

Whereas, it is proper and becoming, to every people, who own the hand of the Almighty Ruler of the Universe, in every event befaling them, to bow in reverence to His decrees, and influenced not only by the teachings of His inspired Volume, but by the noble example of our forefathers, we desire, at this solemn crisis in our country's affairs when beset by a worse and less scrupulous foe than the heroes of the Revolution had to contend with; and impressed by the justice and sacredness of our cause, the defence of our rights and the protection of our families, to prostrate ourselves at the throne of God, and humbly implore his assistance in this dark hour of our State's existence, to direct and sustain us in a faithful and an earnest struggle in behalf of her best welfare. Deeply impressed, therefore, with the solemn belief in the purity of our cause, and owning our unworthiness of the manifold blessings which, as a people, we have enjoyed, with the sword of justice unsheathed in our right, and the sacred Volume as our shield in our left hand, we pledge ourselves to maintain and protect our beloved State with our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor.—Be it therefore

Resolved, That, in view of the solemn crisis in our country's affairs, the 22d day of November next be appointed a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer, and that the Governor be respectfully requested to issue his proclamation, inviting the clergy and people of all denominations to assemble in their places of public worship to implore God's direction and blessings in this our hour of difficulty.

Resolved, That the Governor be requested to inform the Governors of all the other Southern States of the appointment, and invite them to appoint the same day for the same purpose in their own States.

On motion of Richard Yeaton, Esq., of Charleston, Mr. Coffin's resolution was made the special order for two o'clock on Tuesday the 6th.

If all this fasting and prayer was in behalf of liberty, it would be sublime! but in behalf of Slavery, it seems ridiculous and contemptible.

HARD TO CAVE IN.—The Charleston Mercury publishes a letter written by a South Carolinian temporarily doing business near New York. It will be seen from the following extract that what principally disturbs this disunionist is the idea of being laughed at for all his previous gasconade, unless South Carolina now does something. Many good-hearted blusterers are probably in the same predicament:

"Admit that Lincoln is elected, for to me there appears not a shade of doubt (with all the money that will be squandered) of its realization—what movement will the South adopt? or rather what will South Carolina lead off with? After all that has been said, both South and here (by such people as myself), if there is any caving in, I will feel as if I ought to leave the country, hide myself somewhere—and, on again appearing, take out a new oath to support the Northern Constitutional (?) party."

MR. LINCOLN'S CABINET.—The following is reported by the Springfield (Ill.) correspondent of the New York Times, as containing the "names most prominently mentioned" in that locality to which so many eyes are now turned:

For Secretary of State—William H. Seward, New York; Simon Cameron, Pennsylvania; William C. Rives, Virginia.

For Secretary of the Interior—John Bell, Tennessee.

For Secretary of War—Cassius M. Clay, Kentucky.

For Postmaster General—Schuyler Colfax, Indiana; —— Chandler, Michigan.

For Secretary of the Navy—John M. Botts, Virginia.

For Attorney General—Henry Winter Davis, Maryland.

ONE SERMON A DAY.—Henry Ward Beecher says:—

"Where one hears two sermons a day, and still more where one hears three, (which is an abomination before God and man for any man to preach!) not much of either can be retained. I think there is not more than one man in a thousand that is fit to preach more than once a day, and I think there is not one man in ten thousand that is fit to hear more than one sermon a day; or that is fit for anything else if he has heard more than one."

BELL AND DOUGLAS.—From present returns it appears that Bell's strength in the electoral college will be as follows:—Kentucky, 12; Tennessee, 12; Two-sevenths of New Jersey, 2; Total, 26 votes.

Mr. Douglas will stand, from present appearances, as follows:

Missouri, 9; Three-seventh of New Jersey, 3; Total, 12.

It is possible, however, that California may give Mr. Douglas 4 more, making a total of 16.

THE VOTE FOR DOUGLAS AND BELL. From the latest returns, it is doubtful if Mr. Bell has carried Tennessee; and if he has lost his own State, his vote will probably be reduced to Kentucky, giving 12 votes, and 2 votes on the Fusion ticket in New Jersey. In this case, if either California or Oregon should vote for Douglas, he will have more votes in the Electoral colleges than Mr. Bell, a circumstance which was not anticipated.

REVIVAL IN BOSTON.—Rev. Henry Grattan Guinness, of England, commenced his labors in Boston, Sunday, having preached with success at Rev. Dr. Kirk's church in the forenoon, and Rev. Dr. Neale's in the evening. On both occasions very large congregations were present; in the evening many were unable to obtain entrance to the church. The Atlas describes the revalist and his work, in the following terms;—

Mr. Guinness is a preacher of what is now-a-days termed the "sensational school." He possesses, as may naturally be supposed from his distinguished reputation, not a little talent. As an orator he takes good rank, is an agreeable speaker, and understands "human nature" well. The secret of his power is in his appeal to the feelings—the "emotional nature"—rather than to the reason of his hearers, though he is not without power as a logician. He is about forty-five years old, is a very fluent speaker, uses no notes, preaches an hour's sermon on the average. His voice is pleasent and his manner winning. We look for a revival in our city under his labors. It is about time something of the sort took place, for our churches of late—many of them—have been "dreadful thin." Let Mr. Guinness go on with confidence and hope.—There a field for him here.

☞ After the 4th of March next, says the New York Evening Post, the anti-slavery agitation will be mainly confined to the slave-breeding and cotton-growing States, while the federal government, established upon the broad principles of nationality proclaimed in the Declaration of Independence, will watch over this sectional strife, and see that the state sustains no detriment therefrom.

☞ Vanity Fair has an amusing illustration of the "deplorable results of Lincoln's election." The scene is Fulton street, where the New York newspapers are principally located. Cows are seen eating grass in the street; Mr. Bennett is closing the shutters of the Herald office, which a placard announces is for sale; while, seated upon a neighboring housetop, is Horace Greeley, joyously fiddling in view of the ruin and desolation depicted before him.

ILLINOIS.—The following is from the Chicago Tribune of Thursday:—

"We intend to be within safe bound in placing Lincoln's majority in Illinois at 15,000. We think it is more likely to be 20,000, but we will wait for Egypt.

Lincoln carried his own ward, city, county and State. He also carried Douglas' ward, city, county and State."

☞ There is supposed to be a famine in Danbury, Conn. The New Haven News states that a man from Danbury, who stopped in that city on Wednesday, managed to put away a very comfortable little "mess of victuals." He ate five oyster stews, one plate of raw oysters, one plate of sausages, a codfish ball, three cups of custards, one large plate of pudding, and drank three glasses of cider and six glasses of ale—filling in the cracks with doughnuts and small cakes.

SUPERIOR COURT. — Lawrence, Mass., Nov. 8.—David Kinnley of Salem, for maintaining a liquor nuisance, was sentenced to five months at hard labor in the House of Correction.

Nathan B. M. Ingalls of Lynn, for violation of the liquor law, was sentenced to six months in the House of Correction.

James L. Dodge of Hamilton, for a violation of the liquor law, was sentenced to six months in the House of Correction.

PROBABLY CORRECT.—The following Washington dispatch expresses what is probably the exact state of the O. P. F.'s mind at the present time:—

The President is still in doubt what to do. He is apprehensive of troubles in the South, but does not know how to meet them. His feelings are with the South, but he is afraid to assist them openly.

BREACH OF PROMISE OF MARRIAGE.—A gay widow of thirty, living in Stratford, Canada, lately sued a young man of twenty-one for $10,000 damages for breach of promise of marriage. The jury gave her $300.

☞ Cyrus Wheeler, Esq., exhibited one hundred bushels of Onions at the late Fair at Waterville, Me. Whew!

LET US TRY.

If we cannot have all that we wish upon earth,
Let us try to be happy with less if we can;
If wealth be not always the guerdon of worth,
Worth, sooner than Wealth, makes the happier man.

Is it wise to be anxious for pleasures afar—
And the pleasures around us to slight or decry?
Asking Night for the sun—asking Day for the star!
Let us conquer such faults, or at least let us try.

If the soil of a garden be worthy our care,
Its culture delightful, though yet so small;
Oh, then let the heart the same diligence share,
And the flowers of affection will rival them all.

There ne'er was delusion more constantly shown,
Than that wealth every charm of existence can buy;
As long as love, friendship, and truth are life's own,
All hearts may be happy, if all hearts will try!

☞ The family of Robert Toombs, U. S. Senator, have returned to Washington for the winter. It is very evident that the Senator is either not in earnest in his Georgia secession talk, or is very inhuman towards his family.

☞ The New York Post affirms that during the twenty three years Queen Victoria has been on the British throne, she has never been confined to her room from sickness a single day, excepting upon the occasions when she added to the number of the Guelph olive branches.

KINGSTON, March 10, 1841.—"This may certify that my son has had a humor which made its appearance when he was but a few days old; and it grew worse, causing large swellings and running sores. He has been cured by the use of Dr. Swett's Panacea and Humor Wash."

T. CURRIER.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. THYSON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and others of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Catarrh is the most difficult of any of the Diseases of the Breathing Organs to relieve or to cure. The Rev. Joshua Leavitt, editor of the Independent of New York, who had the Catarrh for more than twenty years, has been cured by using Dr. J. R. Stafford's Olive Tar and Iron and Sulphur Powders, which are advertised in this paper. His testimonial is published in a pamphlet among others equally prominent who have been cured of chronic Throats and Lung difficulties, which will be sent free by mail.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

SLEEPLESS, CRYING, TEETHING CHILDREN

All know how unpleasant are these accompaniments of babyhood, and most intelligent persons know, also, the sad consequences to health, and often life, from the use of nostrums, opiates, and similar baby doses used to quiet them. HUMPHREYS' SPECIFIC HOMŒOPATHIC BABY'S PILLS, (a pleasant sugar pill,) which you may drop into the mouth at any time, give you everything to be desired from medicine. They calm excitement, allay the irritation of teething, relieve colic and bowel complaints, and procure natural and quiet rest, without the disadvantages of cordials or opiates. They have been used for many years, and are approved by all who use them or abhor dosing. Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes $1.

Sent by mail or express, free of charge, on receipt of the price.

Address, DR. F. HUMPHREYS & CO., 562 Broadway, New York.

Sold in Portsmouth by THACHER.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

PORTSMOUTH, Aug. 3, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & CO., Boston,—

Gents:—Please send me by express two dozen OXYGENATED BITTERS. With me there is an increasing demand for this excellent specific for Dyspepsia and its attendant evils, and we know of no remedy more fully entitled to the confidence of the public. This much we say, disclaiming any intention of puffing the article, as its own merits are a sufficient guarantee of its value. Put up for ports to be. Very respectfully yours,

WM. R. PRESTON.

S. J. COURT, PORTSMOUTH, Monday.
Present, Judges Bell and Doe.

State vs. Mrs. Sarah Ann Healey and Richard S. Richardson, for murder of Mrs. Healey's husband, at Auburn.

Bell and Wilcox for the State; Daniel M. Christie and Wm. B. Small for Mrs. Healey; Wm. H. Y. Hackett and Wm. C. Clarke for Richardson.

After some movements to try the prisoners separately, the Court decided to proceed to the trial of both together. 85 jurymen were called. Much time was spent in questioning jurors. The first question was:—Have you such conscientious scruples on the subject of taking human life, as a punishment for crime, as would prevent you from giving a verdict, the result of which might be the taking the life of human beings, if the proof of guilt were clear?

On this question about two-thirds of the jurors answered Yes.

The following jurors were sworn:

Joshua B. Wiggin, Epping; Wm. Boynton, Seabrook; Freeman Drake, Joshua Pickering, North Hampton; John Hodgdon, 2d, Portsmouth; Joseph W. Chapman, Chas. W. Seavey, Greenland; Wm. Kimball, Brentwood; Geo. G. Gould, Sandown.

All the names having been exhausted, the Court adjourned to 9 o'clock Tuesday morning.

WAKING AND SLEEPING.—A man of this city, about 30 years of age, and of confirmed drinking habits, being seized with a fit of delirium tremens, is said to have had no sleep whatever, from Monday morning, 3d inst., to Saturday night; and at the last named time, some of his friends applied to the City Marshal to have him taken to the lock up.

He was committed accordingly; and there he passed a sleepless night, and a sleepless Sunday, until eight o'clock in the evening, when he fell asleep, and slept all night, and all the morning. The watchmen and police could not wake him; and at 11 o'clock in the forenoon of Monday, his friends had not been able to arouse the sleeper to any consciousness.

P. S.—We learn that the unfortunate man died at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, without having aroused from his sleep.

☞ It will be seen that the Mercantile Library Association announce their fifth Course of Lectures, to commence next week; and it is desirable and important that the tickets should be disposed of at once. There are many reasons why the Temple should be filled with season tickets—but we will mention only a few. Because the Course will be eminently worthy, in itself alone considered, (see list of names); or in its object alone considered, (the increase of the Library); and because the people need some kind of winter entertainments. If Edward Everett's, Timothy Titcomb's and Grace Greenwood's efforts alone are worth less than the price of a ticket—the Committee will be safe in agreeing to refund the money.

☞ When any lecture or other respectable entertainment, of such great attraction, interest and value as that of Rev. Mr. Bacheller's on the Hindoo country and people, at the Temple in this city, last Friday evening; can only draw a couple of score of hearers at 15 cents each—we think it is about time that "the people" had to furnish their own "amusements," or go without any. And yet the very persons who habitually stay away from such exhibitions as this, are forever prating of the dullness of Portsmouth in winter—and that entertainments are so scarce.

In the 3d ward in this city, the venerable Daniel Fernald appeared at the polls on Tuesday and cast the Republican vote. He is the oldest man in Portsmouth—bordering on a century, and said when he cast his ballot, that he did the same thing twice for President Washington.—Journal.

GOING, BUT NOT JUST YET.—The following from the Washington dispatch to the Tribune, is the best joke since the election:—

"Several clerks in the Departments presided over by the Messrs. Howell Cobb, and Jacob Thompson, have resigned in order to please their superiors, the resignation to take effect the 4th of March."

The resignation of these clerks on the day when they know they have got to leave anyhow, is an apt illustration of the nonsense of disunionists.

☞ By steamer North America we have news from Europe, via Londonderry, November 2:—

The Neapolitan Royalists have again been defeated in an action with Garibaldi near Tessano. Many prisoners were taken by the latter.

Victor Emmanuel had joined Garibaldi and was making preparations for a decisive battle.

☞ Garibaldi, the Italian liberator, has a son in a Protestant seminary near Liverpool, England. It is reported that when Garibaldi took leave of his son he said to him, 'My son, the Bible is the canon which will liberate Italy.'

THE FIRST PRINCIPLE OF DEMOCRACY. On Tuesday of last week, (says the Newburyport Herald) when the President of the Breckinridge Club went to the polls and openly voted a part of the Republican ticket, he was beset by a motley crowd, grumbling and snarling, and wanting to know his reasons for so doing. Said he—

"Gentlemen, from infancy I was taught to believe that the very first principle of democracy was for every man to vote as he pleased, and that his action was a matter between his conscience and his God, for which no other man could call him to account. I have acted on principle; if it is democratic, I am a democrat; if not, I want nothing to do with a party that holds to the opposite."

☞ We have received the first number of the "Granite State News," published at Wolfborough. It makes a good appearance. We clip the following item from the News; "On Friday, Oct. 26, Mr. Nathaniel Roberts, of Alton, was engaged in his field plowing; when, seeing the approach of a shower, he hastened to the house, took a seat with his family, and made the remark that "it was an unusual occurrence to have a thunder shower at this season of the year," when he instantly expired. He was a strong and apparently healthy man, 67 years of age. The cause of his death is not known."

☞ The Washington States announces the resignation of Kingman F. Page, Esq., formerly of Rochester, N. H., who has for several years past been clerk in the Pension Office. He abandons his official position to enter upon a sphere of duty more congenial to his wishes, and promising a more lucrative pecuniary reward.—He has for the past three years been engaged in the responsible and arduous duties of ferreting out depredations upon the Treasury of the United States by means of forgery, and the Commissioner, in a note accepting his resignation, bears ample evidence to his efficiency and success in protecting the government from many extensive frauds.

NEBRASKA LEGISLATURE.—The Republican majority in the House of Representatives is 11; in the Council, 3.

Saleratus, like port wine, can be made for almost any price, which is done by using cheap and deleterious substances. Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is perfectly pure and unadulterated, and one paper will convince any intelligent lady that there is nothing equal to it. It will produce one-eighth more bread than any other, and is much better than soda to use with cream tartar. Grocers and druggists sell it.

There is another article in the market put up in similar colored papers. Do not be deceived by it. See that the name of HERRICK ALLEN is on the wrapper, and no mistake can occur. Manufactured by Allen & Taylor, corner of Canal and Centre streets, New York, and sold at wholesale by Israel Nash & Co., Boston. M&F is

TO DYSPEPTICS.—Soda, Magnesia, and all Alkalies, either afford but temporary relief, or confirm the disease into a chronic affection. The Oxygenated Bitters immediately relieve and permanently cure all forms of Dyspepsia, and stomach difficulties.

Cook Stoves.
Autocrat of the Kitchen.—35,000 in use
THE ORIGINAL P. P. STEWART,
FUEL-SAVING AND COMFORT-PRODUCING LARGE OVEN, SUMMER AND WINTER
AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE,
FOR WOOD & ANTHRACITE OR BITUMINOUS COAL
Improved in 1859 with New and Extra Large Flues, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue.

Attention is invited to the following Points of Superiority:

DURABILITY.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

CAPACITY.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

ECONOMY.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

VENTILATION OF OVEN.—In the Stewart Stove alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (protected by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that, as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

ENTIRE CONTROL OF HEAT.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

THE DOUBLE SHEET BOTTOM FLUE.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

BROILING.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

HOT WATER RESERVOIR AND WARMING CLOSET.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

WATER BACK.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of P. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL,

MADE BY

THE BARSTOW STOVE COMPANY
Of Providence, R. I.

In introducing a new Cook Stove, of singularly novel construction and arrangement, it is proper that we speak of its peculiar merits.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking giving an oven nearly 3 ft. long! or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! The advantages of this arrangement over that adopted for roasting in the Stewart and other stoves, by extending the oven, with a tin roaster in front of the fire, are obvious, viz:

1st. This permanent extension of the stove costs no more than the temporary extension by a tin roaster, while this is the most durable, tasteful and useful.

2d. As the flues of the stove extend over and under the entire size of the oven, it is more easily and surely heated than a tin roaster, which receives no heat except what it borrows from the baking oven.

3d. By this arrangement the processes of roasting and baking are entirely separated, while by the others they are carried on together, the fumes of both being intermingled.

4th. By this arrangement the roasting oven can be attached to the baking oven in a single moment of time, when occasion requires; or it can be used for a hot closet when not required for baking or roasting.

5th. By this extension an additional boiler hole and other room is gained on the top of the stove, while, at the same time the stove occupies no more room on the floor.

We might make extended notice of some other things peculiar to this stove, as compared with other high-priced Air-Tight Cook Stoves, but will barely allude to them, viz:

1st. The double plates each side of the fire prevent any leak of ashes into the oven and make the stove more durable.

2d. The admission of external air between these plates, for the ventilation of the roasting oven, tends also to the preservation of the plates most exposed to destruction.

3d. The durable dump grate, with the ash box of ample size to receive the ashes and coals, is an attractive feature of the stove.

4th. The draft door, at each end of the fire box, is a great convenience when a quick fire is wanted.

5th. The movable ash pan, which, though it forms a hearth to the stove, need not be used except once or twice a day for taking up and carrying away the ashes.

6th. The stove has but one damper, and but one division of flues on the back of and under the oven, ensuring a very quick bake.

7th The stove is made in the most thorough manner; the doors and roasting oven are lined with tin, and tin jackets are provided for the back and bottom plates. A hot closet and tank can be added if required. With any reasonable care, the stove will last a life-time, and we know it to be "perfect in its operation."

This stove was thoroughly tested before brought into the market, and we know that all that is said of it will be found true on trial of the stove.

John Trundy, Esq., one of our most practical and scientific mechanics, who has had large experience in the construction of stove patterns in years past, and has for many years been using one of the Stewart Stoves, has purchased one of the MODEL COOKS, and after a fair trial pronounces it far superior to the Stewart or any stove he has ever seen, for economy, convenience and dispatch. We might also refer to several other parties who are using the stove, and who award it the very highest praise.

The MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be the stove for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is wanted.

We have nought to say against any other stove, believing that a man can sell his own goods without depreciating his neighbor's; but this we do say, that we honestly believe this is the best stove that can be found in the world; and what is more, we think others will agree with us after a trial of it. We invite any one to examine the stove, whether they wish to purchase or not.

For sale, with a great variety of

Furnaces, Ranges, Cooking, Office and Parlor Stoves; Coal Hods, Sifters, Funnel, Stove-Repairing Pieces, Parlor Grates, Etc.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of Invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this celebrated preparation, containing the Sulphur and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematine Globule, or red blood.—In all diseases accompanying

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globule,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulphur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system, allay hectic fever and night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, restore the color to the face, and clothe the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific to all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT and LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the vocal organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and unmistakeable. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS,

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with pulmonary, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through over-care, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that for Nervous Weakness and Sleeplessness, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which no other preparation can. A doubtful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the testimonials we have in our possession, and the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be acknowledged as pre-eminently superior to all other preparations, patent or official, in point of usefulness. Circulars giving the history upon which the remedy is founded, also certificates of remarkable cures, will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $5 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our fac-simile signature upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

Hum'phreys' Homeopathic Specific Remedies
For the People.

The Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and instructions of Prof. HUMPHREYS, in order to meet that general and long realized want of the public, in easy remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A moment's reflection will show that a vast majority of diseases from which we suffer and die, were, at their commencement, simple and trifling. A mere cold, a slight disorder, a pain in the side, or a headache, or hoarseness, at first easily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, Croup or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Hence these remedies supply a great public want. Being so handy, simple, as you know at once what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and free from liability to injury, and the effects are positive and certain, they are taken, and at once the spell is broken and the danger averted.

Experience has amply confirmed the value of these remedies for families and private persons, as being THE BEST IN USE, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PERFECT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands are and have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, with almost invariable success. All speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and among our hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
—AND—
BLOOD RENOVATOR.

Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilirating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores sound health to the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all, by chemistry and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and at so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence unlike the weaker stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilirating, and its effects yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those of the most healing and powerful, quiet and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum by the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge to know that debility follows all attacks of disease, and layes the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous and fatal diseases to which it is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion Dyspepsia, Want of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Lan guor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements, Dropsy, Liver Complaint, Painful Disease of the Kidney, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and lastly, we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And as it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the healthy secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water, hence all travelers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a teaspoonful at least before eating. As it prevents contagion, and promotes the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all who do not intend to devote out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which robs them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Trial, trial, the Cordial is a perfect beauty a Relief. Taken a mouth or two before the final trial, she will then be a beautiful period with perfect ease, and as safely as Mothers, try it! And for you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of Blooming Daughters, but of Wives, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for YOU AND YOUR LOVE they would go down to premature graves, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal. Use no more your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

Dr. Mott's
CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON particular of Oxygen and Hydrogen, Carbon and Sulphur in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all cases in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, SKIN ERUPTIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCLES, SALT RHEUM, RHEUMATIC MISERIES, ACTION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic causes, the use of this invigorating medicine has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids no longer bed-ridden are have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from premature grave in a blanket shroud. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims, apparent victims of consumption, hopeless hysterical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be salutary, for, combined with oxygen, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, from its mild and efficacious chalybeate tonic, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to act by substituting for a diseased, fluid, dispersing the local tendency, which forms them.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Pills, will find one dose will sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has at last allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of Iodine, Iodine, or of their well-known Iodide.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to the remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, perhaps decidedly, it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in its new settlement of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and Grocers, or the agent will send free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Costiveness, Pains, Wind in the Stomach, Pain in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance, Sleeplessness, Restlessness, Invigorates, but will not intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other disorders arising from Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Dose.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing food and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit, three times a day, it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from their system, and restore the blood of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

Morning Chronicle.

NEW KIND OF TREASON.—A disunion correspondent of the Charleston Mercury, resident at New Orleans, in regretting the feebleness of the secession sentiment in that city, says:

"I have spoken of the sentiment of the community. I will add one fact. Letters have been regularly, and at times in large numbers, forwarded to the address of Mr. Lincoln. This shows the treason which lurks here.

THE "NEGRO ACT" IN MARYLAND.—The Baltimore American of Friday says: "In all the counties in Maryland from which we have received returns in which the act for the enslavement of free negroes was submitted to the people, the voters have emphatically and signally denounced that unjust and unchristian law. The question has been met and decided without any reference to party politics, and the law is defeated by majorities amounting almost to unanimity. The result is greatly creditable to the counties in which the vote was taken and honorable to the State at large."

A meeting of the friends of the Bible cause, connected with any of the religious societies of Peterborough, met in the Unitarian meeting house in this place, on Sabbath evening, of last week, for the organization of a local society and choice of officers. A constitution was adopted sufficiently broad to give all an opportunity to work who desire to circulate the Bible in our own vicinity and in distant lands. The attendance at the meeting, though not large, was creditable to the place and cause. Dr. Albert Smith was chosen President.—Peterborough Transcript.

The N. Y. Evening Post, in the exuberance of its joy over Lincoln's election, says that "the rights and justice of their cause is proclaimed by the mighty voice of a large majority of thirty million of people." Now, instead of this being the case, Mr. Lincoln will be elected with a majority of the States against him, and with probably only about one-third of the popular vote in his favor. It will thus present the astounding fact of one-third of the American people ruling two-thirds.

DELAWARE has elected a Republican member of Congress, Fisher, the member elect being claimed as such. Delaware will be a free State in a short time, as it is now virtually, there being but 1800 slaves in the State, and these mostly house servants or persons too old or too young for labor. Mr. Fisher makes the third Republican from the South, Frank Blair and Henry Winter Davis preceding him. Neither of them is such a republican as would pass muster in Massachusetts, but they are anti-slavery enough for all practical purposes.—Newburyport Herald.

Charles Reade believes in American genius, but thinks you must look for it in the newspapers. "Read the American papers. You revel in a world of new truths, new fancies, and glorious romance! In Great Britain there are 505 newspapers; in America there are 4,000; and there lies buried, for the present, many an immortal genius—buried, but to me not hidden. I can see their gleams in reading these papers."

The London Sun says: "The Atlantic cable lies submerged in unfathomable depths, untraversed by the electic spark, and lost almost as much to hope as to sight. The Great Eastern is a stranded hulk, waiting to be lifted off the shoals of adversity by that flood-tide of fortune she has hitherto missed."

☞ Whittier is reading the last proofs of his new volume of poems, entitled "Home Ballads," perhaps the best of his productions.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.
The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.
Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

New Photographic Establishment.
Having fitted and furnished in modern style, large, pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with Sun Pictures of every description, from the smallest Miniature to life-size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., copied any size desired.
The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping pace with every useful improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.
All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.
Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

A PREPARATION FOR THE CURE OF

INFLAMMATORY AND CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC GOUT, NEURALGIC RHEUMATISM, SCIATICA, AND LUMBAGO.

Hundreds of testimonials to the good resulting from the use of this Cordial could be offered—but the following will suffice:

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Sept. 6, 1860.

I thereby certify that I have used a variety of preparations for the cure of Rheumatism, but have found none of them whose effect was so immediate and lasting as Zollickoffer's Anti-Rheumatic Cordial, and would advise all afflicted with that painful disease to give it a fair trial.

BLOOD FOOD

The attention of invalids, Physicians, Clergymen, scientific men, and the public generally, is respectfully solicited to the merits of this chemical preparation, containing the Vital Power and Phosphorus, and which is identical in its composition with the Hematic Globule, or red blood. In all diseases accompanied with

DEBILITY,

pale countenance and nervous derangement, analyses of the blood show a deficiency of the red globules. Ruddy complexion and a rosy tint of the skin, is always indicative of health; while a pale, wax-like skin and countenance,—which evinces a considerable deficiency of the red globules,—accompanies a diseased organism. Preparations of Iron have been given for the purpose of supplying the red globules, but we contend that Iron alone, Sulphur alone, or Phosphorus alone, will not meet the deficiency in every case, but that a judicious combination of all these elements is necessary to restore the blood to its normal standard. This point, never before attained, has been reached in the Blood Food, and its discovery ranks as one of the most scientific and important of the age. Its effects in

are to soften the cough, brace the nerves, strengthen the system; allay the prostrating night sweats, increase the physical and mental energy, enrich the blood, by restoring the lacking red globules, increase the appetite, and by nourishing the blood the skeleton frame with flesh. The Blood Food will be found a specific in all CHRONIC DISEASES of the THROAT or LUNGS, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, &c. Public speakers and singers will find it of great utility in clearing and strengthening the organs. In Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Scrofula, Gravel, St. Vitus' Dance, Fever and Ague, &c., its efficacy is marked and instantaneous. In no class of diseases, however, are the beneficial effects of this remedy so conspicuous as in those harrassing

FEMALE COMPLAINTS

to which the gentler sex are liable, and which tend towards Consumption, such as suppressed or difficult Menstruation, Green Sickness, Whites, &c., especially when these complaints are accompanied with paleness, a dingy hue or pallor of the skin, depression of spirits, debility, palpitation, want of appetite, and nervous prostration. We have the utmost confidence in recommending the Blood Food to all who may be conscious of a loss of vitality or energy, and to those whose mental or bodily powers are prostrated through overwork, either of the mind or body, and we deem it our duty to say that in all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, and in all diseases of the Kidneys or Bladder, this preparation has a claim upon the attention of sufferers which cannot be over-estimated. A faithful trial will be found the most convincing proof in regard to its efficacy that could be asked for. With the above remarks, and with the numerous testimonials we have in its favor, we offer the "Blood Food" to the consideration of the afflicted, knowing that it will be seriously indebted, also certificates of remarkable cures, will be sent free when desired. We forward the Blood Food to any part of the United States or Canadas upon receipt of price—$1 per bottle, $6 for six bottles. Be careful in all cases to take none but that having our signature written upon the wrapper. None other is genuine.

Humphreys' Specific Homeopathic Remedies for the People

These Remedies are carefully prepared under the direct supervision and inspection of Prof. HUMPHREYS, in order that they may fill the long felt want of the public, namely, remedies for all the more common and simple ailments of life.

A medicine will obtain a world wide fame, if it be found to do what it is claimed to do, and be in every case a safe, sure, and pleasant remedy. Such is the character of the Specifics. A mere cold, a slight chill, a pain in the side, or a headache, or hoarseness, at first easily cured and subdued, in time becomes a consumption, a fever, a dangerous dysentery, Cramp or other disease, which all the powers of medicine fail to arrest.

Herein these remedies supply a great public want. Being on hand, simple, so they will know just what to take—pleasant, so as to cause no repugnance—safe, and hence occasioning no risk, while the curative effects are prompt and certain, they are offered, and at once the spell is broken and the danger allayed.

Experience has amply confirmed the use of these remedies for families, and by professional persons, as being THE BEST IN USE, THE MOST SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT, THE MOST PROMPT AND RELIABLE.

Thousands of people have been using them for some five years past, in every section of the country, with almost invariable success. All speak in the highest terms of their simplicity and certainty, and among our hundreds of agents the uniform testimony is, that they give good satisfaction to their customers.

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It invigorates, refreshes and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is unrivalled by tonic or stimulant in the opinion of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is considered liable. Such for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weakness and Irregularities. Also Liver Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Disease of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to Night Colds, Hacking and Continued Cough, Emaciation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will not only cure debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the disease at once, if already attacked. And it acts upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will in a lively manner any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take it as a preventive medicine before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not untomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the period, it will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it. Most try it! And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter from the false idea of its being the exclusive of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal, for we are sure your nerves failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 114 Market st., New York, and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Dr. Mott's

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE

PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the Highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate the necessity in nearly every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

IN DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSMENORRHŒA, DECIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, RHEUMATISM, INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and particularly those in which no medicine, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being stimulant and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a powerful purgative, or inducing a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably adapted to mechanical or remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency of the tissues thereon.

In DYSPEPSIA, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to DYSENTERY, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effect has been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, to several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases specially adapted to them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been remarkably beneficial, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerted so prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects.—Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirum Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupify.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

TESTIMONIALS:

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

ANTI-RHEUMATIC CORDIAL,

A PREPARATION FOR THE CURE OF INFLAMMATORY AND CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC GOUT, NEURALGIC RHEUMATISM, SCIATICA, AND LUMBAGO.

Hundreds of testimonials to the good resulting from the use of this Cordial could be offered—but the following will suffice:

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Sept. 6, 1860.

I hereby certify that I have used a variety of preparations for the cure of Rheumatism, but have found none of them whose effect was so immediate and lasting as Zollickoffer's Anti-Rheumatic Cordial, and would advise all afflicted with that painful disease to give it a fair trial.

LYMAN'S

Improved Patent Metallic Soles.

PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.

The nature of this invention consists of a metallic sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device to fully accomplish the much desired object, and the difficulties arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.

Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H. J. C. CARR.

New Photographic Establishment.

Having fitted and furnished in modern style, large, pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with Sun Pictures of every description, from the small Miniature to life-size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., copied any size desired.

The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping pace with every useful improvement, is successful in producing what has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.

All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston or any other place where first-class work is performed.

Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1860.

SHABBY TREATMENT.—The Southern Democracy vouches for the truth of the following story:—

A gentleman, and a member of the Breckinridge party, informs us that he was present when Judge Douglas arrived in Montgomery from Columbus, on the night of the 1st of November. This gentleman says (whose statement has been corroborated by half a dozen eye witnesses) that when Judge Douglas alighted from the carriage to ascend the steps of the Exchange Hotel, Montgomery, that there were three rotten eggs thrown. The first egg struck Colonel Scibles, editor of The Confederation, the second egg struck Colonel Elmore, and the third egg struck the hat of Judge Douglas, bursted and discharged its contents in the face of his wife, who stood immediately on his left. These are the facts as detailed to us by several gentlemen who witnessed the disgusting affair. So much for Breckinridge intolerance.

TOLERATION IN RELIGION.—The Young Men's Christian Union in Boston invited Bishop Fitzpatrick, of the Catholic Church, to deliver a lecture before them. Pressed by other engagements, he declined, and recommended Rev. Dr. Cummings (Catholic clergyman,) of New York, who addressed their association on Sunday evening, at the Hollis street church, Rev. Dr. Gannett presiding, on "Fenelon and the Catholic Church." The address was one of marked ability.

"LIKE MASTER, LIKE MAN."—The Charleston (S. C.) Mercury says Captain Plumer, of the brig "James Gray," of Newburyport, owned by Caleb Cushing and his brothers William and John,—on the news of Lincoln's election, hoisted the Palmetto (secession) flag, and fired a salute of one gun for each of the fifteen slave States, and one for each of the brothers Cushing.

☞ The City Council of Newburyport approved the action of the police in regard the late burglaries, and voted $100 to Wooster Smith, Esq., who shot the burglar, and a like sum to Marshal Westcott for his persevering efforts. Private citizens have also made subscriptions for a testimonial to Sheriff Smith, whose coolness and bravery, the Herald says, deserve commendation.

A GOOD ONE.—The Cleveland Plaindealer tells a good one of the Duke of Newcastle. While stopping at the Burnet House, he occupied a room lettered "L," and finding it locked one time on his return from a stroll through the city, he astonished the clerk in attendance by inquiring for "the key to hell."

☞ Panama papers state that a correspondence had taken place between flag officer Montgomery of the American squadron, and Capt. Miller of the British man-of-war Clio. British sentries before the English and French Consulates had been ordered to demand an answer from every person passing, and American citizens had been detained, and in one instance an American was kept as a prisoner for several hours.

☞ A dispatch from Columbia S. C., of Nov. 9th, published in the Charleston Courier, says that "the Minute Men are determined to strike while the iron is hot, and grow impatient of delay." The same dispatch contains the following significant announcement:

"The caucus held this morning by those in favor of an immediate call of the Convention, adjourned without coming to any conclusion. Much dissatisfaction exists among the members."

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 13.—The Governor has issued a proclamation convening the Legislature on the 26th inst.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 13.—Mr. Keitt was serenaded last night, and made an exciting speech urging prompt action. He said the President was pledged to secession, and would be held to it.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Private dispatches from Charleston state that a company of Light Infantry had taken charge of the Government arms, it is supposed by Federal authority in the absence of Government troops.

☞ Mr. Freeman Manter, of Plymouth, was accidentally shot on Tuesday, while on a deer hunt. The wagon in which he was riding with some other gentlemen, struck a stone, causing his gun to explode. The charge of buckshot passed through his thigh, severing the main artery, and causing his death in a short time.

☞ The Barnstable Patriot reports that in consequence of the severe frost on the night of Sept. 30, by which so many cranberries were injured, there is a very short crop this season. Nice cranberries now command $15 per barrel.

The secret of happiness lies in doing right. An unsullied conscience beareth untold blessings.

☞ The Reporters of the Boston newspapers held their annual festival Saturday evening, according to the time-honored custom. The festival programme embraced an excellent supper, and sentiments and speeches, in which the reporters took a part strange to them on other occasions.—In the eloquent words of one of the members, they neglected other people's thunder and fulminated on their own hook. Thirty-six seats were filled, and everybody enjoyed themselves except the tables, which "groaned" as usual. H. R. Tracy of the Herald presided, and S. W. Mason of the Traveller was a pertinently suggestive toastmaster. At the close of the festival, their places were filled by their own appointment of A. H. Bailey of the Transcript as President, and J. M. Bugbee of the Courier as toastmaster for the ensuing year.—None of the doings will be made public, as reporters do not like to discourage others who may be inclined to festivals. So says the Herald.

PAYING AN ELECTION WAGER.—Next to the virtue of not betting at all, is that of paying them when lost, however disagreeable and inconvenient the conditions. A Mr. A. W. Pearce, of Portland, made a wager that he would retail forty bushels of charcoal, if Lincoln was elected President. Good as his word, he met the conditions.—He provided a white cart, with a colored driver, and appeared with blue overalls and pants, and a shining stove pipe black hat, which completely eclipsed that worn by the Prince of Wales, according to the Advertiser of that city. He started from the front of the old City Hall, addressed the crowd before he began his sale, and much to their amusement, took half a lemon from his pocket, which he applied after the manner of his political leader, Mr. Douglas, "to his pipes." As it was a condition of the wager that but one bushel of coal should be sold at one place, it took all the forenoon and part of the afternoon also, to peddle out the load and make the necessary speeches. Mr. Henry H. Furbish, with whom the bet was made, loaned his fine span of grey horses, which with the white cart and black driver made it the most "fancy" charcoal "turn-out" ever seen in that city.

☞ The Museum of Comparative Zoology, located within the classic grounds of Harvard College, was on Tuesday formally dedicated to its noble purposes. The occasion was signalized by services of a most interesting and memorable nature.

An ingenious attorney, who always made it a point to get the case, was applied to by a man who had stolen some pork, to defend him. According to his inventive way, he ruined the principal evidence on which the plaintiff relied, and the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. After the verdict was declared, as the fellow was leaving the court house, he whispered to his attorney thus:—"Squire, what shall I do with the pork, for I have got it yet?" "Eat it," replied the lawyer, "for the jury say you did not steal it."

☞ Georgia has made no choice of Electors by the people. Sixty-seven counties give Breckinridge 30,000, Bell 29,500, Douglas 9000. The Breckinridge Electors will be chosen by the Legislature.

Lincoln's majority in Pennsylvania is over 70,000.

SUCCESS.—The first and chief element of success is decision of character. Without this, and the kindred traits that are always found in its company, such as resolution, courage, and hope, there is little chance of success. With it, "there is no such word as fail," and seldom any such thing as failure. To such a spirit even difficulties afford a stimulus, and dangers a spur—for a resolute mind, it has been forcibly said, is omipotent.

☞ John H. Goodale, Esq., has sold his interest in the Manchester Daily American to S. D. Farnsworth, Esq., his late partner, who will hereafter be the sole proprietor and editor of that paper.

ALWAYS BE PROMPT.—If we spend the time, the nervous energy and mental fire in doing the duties of life, which we often spend in dreading them, we and the world would be stronger and better. All the severe tasks of life only grow more and more formidable as we look at them from a distance, while we grow weaker all the while, and less disposed to grapple with them.—We should inquire with an honest, brave heart, what are our duties here and now; and with what of mental energy we can summon at the moment, we should go forward to perform them. In the very act of attempting to do them, we shall gain strength to do them. Not before, but at the time, the needed strength will come. Not while we dread, but while we do the work of life, the Master helps us.

NAPLES, Friday.—Capua capitulated today. The Neapolitan troops leave with the honors of war, but are to lay down their arms at the Porta di Napoli of Capua to-morrow. They will come to Naples.—Naples is illuminated, and there are great rejoicings.

An attack on Gaeta is expected to take place soon.

A FIGHTING POPULATION.—Appended to a recent advertisement for a masquerade ball at Laporte, California, is the following significant notice: "N. B.—Gentlemen (and ladies) will be required to leave their firearms and cutlery at the door."

☞ Fremont got 1194 votes only, in all the slave States; now, the Springfield Republican estimates them at 30,000.

Local.

REMOVALS, &c.—Not removals from office, and new appointments thereto—it is not time for that sort of thing yet. But business movements, really more important, if not more interesting, to the public, we refer to. Messrs. Goodall and Edmonds have removed their offices from Daniel street to Exchange Buildings; Dr. Goodwin has changed his residence and office from Market street to 36 Congress, opposite Vaughan street. Mr. H. F. Gerrish, grocer, is to occupy the store of Mr. Stephen Pearse, on Market Square, Dec. 1st; and we understand Mr. T. E. Wood is to remove his boot and store to the building of Mr. T. S. Nowell, corner State and Pleasant streets.

We also learn that the Misses Young are to take Mr. C. C. Harvey's store, for a fancy goods establishment; and with their experience in the business, and so admirable a location, they can hardly fail of success.—Women are better shopkeepers than men, in their own legitimate line of trade, such as this,—more industrious, prompt, courteous and attentive—and we are glad to see them entering the lists more generally. The firm of ladies in Congress Block—to the shame of somebody be it said and repeated—paid a large bonus to keep the underground drunkery beneath their store, closed.

☞ The U. S. ship Cumberland, Capt. Marston, from Portsmouth, N. H. Naval Station to New York, made the passage round in 72 hours. Pilot James B. Snow, who had her in charge, reports a very pleasant trip, and her officers and crew as among the most efficient and courteous with whom he ever sailed. Pilot John Hopkins, of New York, an excellent seaman, also came round and made the trip.

THE SOCIAL FESTIVAL in aid of the Brodhead M. E. Society, commences at Jefferson Hall this (Thursday) evening; and besides the eminently worthy object—there is no doubt but that an agreeable social entertainment will be provided by the enterprising ladies and gentlemen concerned.

☞ The Sabbath School Convention at the North Church in this city on Wednesday, was largely attended, and the services very interesting—according to programme.

☞ The Mercantile Lyceum opens next week, with a lecture on Franklin, by Hon. Edward Everett — which alone will be worth the price of a course ticket. See advertisement, and secure your tickets at once.

☞ On account of the sickness of the first speaker, the course of lectures for the benefit of the Free Will Baptist Society, of this city, will not commence till Nov. 27.—Rev. Dr. A. P. Peabody will then deliver the first lecture. Particulars for the course hereafter.

If our government rests on so weak a foundation that it cannot servive the election of a Constitutional candidate by Constitutional means, no matter to what party he may belong, it must be a very frail concern, and the sooner business men have its stability tested perhaps the better.—Bath Times.

WEIGHT OF A SWARM.—It is estimated that a full swarm of bees should weigh eleven to twelve pounds. Hence all excess over that is honey and comb, so that the quantity can be ascertained by weighing the hive, if the weight of that is known, as it always should be, and marked upon it when new.

The Empress of Russia was safely delivered of a Prince on the 3d ult.—Exchange.

We supposed before that Empresses, like other honest married ladies, had babies—sons or daughters—but it seems we were mistaken.—Boston Transcript.

SECESSION.—Should there be an appeal to arms, which we devoutly hope may occur if the mania cannot be cured without bloodletting, it would be a short one.—We should know very soon whether we have a government or not, and southern treason would vanish forever.—Bost. Atlas.

☞ The municipal election in San Francisco promised to be unusually exciting. The stores were to be closed on that day.

☞ A fugitive slave was taken from the hands of a Deputy Sheriff by negroes, at Chicago, Tuesday, Nov. 13.

ATWOOD'S

QUININE TONIC

BITTERS,

The Best Aromatic Tonic ever offered to the Public.

RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY

For Its Superior Medicinal Qualities

This elegant compound, which has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient form of Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of PERUVIAN BARK, carefully combined with various tonic and stomachic, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.

It is a mild tonic to the stomach, increasing the appetite, assisting digestion, promoting good cheer in dyspepsia, strengthening and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and for ague, or fever and ague, or kindred complaints, its aid is invaluable.

For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is not can be any better general remedy.

One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said "that it is the best preparation of Bitters that has ever been offered to the public."

Put up in half-pint as well as quart bottles, in order that all may convince themselves of its superior merits.

KINGSTON, March 10, 1841.—"This may certify that my son has had a humor which made its appearance when he was but a few days old; and it grew wore, causing large swellings and running sores. He has been cured by the use of Dr. Swett's Panacea and Humor Wash."

T. CURRIER.

Hundreds of testimonials on hand might be added, evincing the many cures by Dr. Swett's medicine. All orders directed to DR. SIMEON SWETT, PORTSMOUTH, N. H., No. 1 School St., for his Panacea, Cough Drops, Conserve, Rheumatic Compound and Family Pills, and others of his popular remedies, will be promptly attended to.

Catarrh is the most difficult of any of the Diseases of the Breathing Organs to relieve or to cure. The Rev. Joshua Leavitt, editor of the Independent of New York, who had the Catarrh for more than twenty years, has been cured by using Dr. J. R. Stafford's Olive Tar and Iron and Sulphur Powders, which are advertised in this paper. His testimonial is published in a pamphlet among others equally prominent who have been cured of chronic Throats and Lung difficulties, which will be sent free by mail.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then, who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

SLEEPLESS, CRYING, TEETHING CHILDREN

All know how unpleasant are these accompaniments of babyhood, and most intelligent persons know, also, the sad consequences to health, and often life, from the use of anodynes, cordials, and similar baby doses used to quiet them. HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC HOMŒOPATHIC BABY'S PILLS, (a pleasant sugar pill,) which you may drop into the mouth at any time, give you everything to be desired from medicine. They calm excitement, allay the irritation of teething, relieve colic and bowel complaints, and procure natural and quiet rest, without the disadvantages of cordials or opiates. They have been used for many years, and are approved by all who use them or advise dosing.

Price, 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes $1.

Sent by mail or express, free of charge, on receipt of the price.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, Flatulency, General Debility, &c., find a ready relief and speedy cure in this great remedy.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS

Are believed by many who have been cured of the above diseases to be the only medicine which the materia medica affords for their infallible cure. It is not an alcoholic preparation, which, while giving a momentary stimulus, reduces the system in the same ratio; but one distinct and different from any medical preparation ever compounded, and one which will, in most cases, extract the disease by the roots and restore the patient to pristine health. In proof of which, testimony of the very highest and unexceptionable character is presented.

PORTSMOUTH, Aug. 3, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & Co., Boston,—

Gents:—Please send me by express two dozen OXYGENATED BITTERS. With us there is an increasing demand for this excellent specific for Dyspepsia and its attendant ills, and we know of no remedy more fully entitled to the confidence of the public. This much we say, disclaiming any intention of puffing the article, as the merits are a sufficient guarantee of all that it purports to be. Very respectfully yours,

S. J. COURT—PORTSMOUTH, Tuesday.

The Auburn, N. H. Poisoning Case.

Trial of Richard S. Richardson and Mrs. Sarah Ann Healey for the Murder of Stephen Healey.

Miss Frances S. Webster—lives in Manchester: lives a mile from Healey's. Went there to funeral—also went there Saturday morning, at request of Richardson,—and staid there till Tuesday evening, with the exception of going to meeting on Sunday. Richardson and Mrs. H. were there all the time she was, and no other persons.

On Saturday, Mrs. H. said her husband was troubled with the heart disease, and had told her he was likely to die at any time. On Tuesday morning, at half past 7 or 8, Richardson was in the barn milking the cow, (there was but one,) and Mrs. H. stood in the barn door. They had some conversation; she came in and went up stairs and went to bed. Richardson beckoned to witness to go out; she followed him to the barn, where he found a bottle, which he said was Mr. Healey's—said he thought it had gin in it. She thought so too. The bottle held about a pint.

Cross-examined.—Saw no improper intimacy between Richardson and Mrs. H., and ..hen she left they besought her to remain. Could not tell how long Mrs. H. staid in the barn door. Witness slept with Mrs. H. while in the house. Mrs. H. had a cough; used to lie down.

Mrs. Susan Maria Langmaid.—Live in Manchester; the prisoner Richardson is my uncle. He came to my house the Monday forenoon after Mr. Healey's death. Mr. McIntire was there, and showed him a paper with Mr. Bragg's testimony in it,—Richardson said it was not true. McIntire went out.

Richardson said, Maria, I want to ask one favor. I know it is hard for any one to testify to a thing they know nothing about.

I told him I would do anything for him that lay in my power.

He told me he had bought fifteen cents' worth of strychnine, and he wanted me to say that I got him to buy it for me; I told him I would do all for him I could.

He came again on Tuesday and stayed a few minutes. When he took my hand, his trembled violently. He showed me on his fingers how big the bottle was, and charged me to remember what he had told me.

In answer to Mr. Bell, Witness now states that she never did employ Richardson to get strychnine, and never gave him any money for that purpose.

Cross-ex. by Mr. Clarke—Have you been offended with Mr. Richardson, and when? I was offended when I saw that he had buried Mr. Healey in my lot. When Richardson came in next day, did you greet him as usual? No. Was it on this day, when you say he asked this favor? Yes. Did you ever tell this story to anybody, as he requested? Yes, I told Mr. Plummer. I told him I got it to kill rats. What I told him was not true. Mr. Clarke asked the witness if she is a widow. She answered, Yes,—my husband died a year ago last March. The learned counsel urged a question, which the witness did not answer,—and which the Court decided she need not. The Court checked the counsel in the course of the cross-examination.

Alfred P. Wood—lives in Auburn. Did not know Healey. At the examination of his body, Mrs. H. seemed agitated,—and I told her, if all turned out to be right, she would be clear. She replied, he would not be found all right, and she would have to go to States Prison in less than three months.

Cross-ex.—Witness had charge of the prisoner. She was lying on a bed when she said these things. Was not a witness at the examination; did not testify before the grand jury; cannot tell exactly when I first told it; nor exactly why I did not tell it before. May have spoken of it in my family; am not certain. Had conversation with Mrs. H. about Mr. Healey's habits.

Do you know Mr. Plummer, who sits here? I have seen him. When and where? At Auburn, on the 15th March? Did you tell him any part of this? Yes.

Court adjourned at 6 1-4 A. M., to meet Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Wednesday morning.

The Court came in at 9 o'clock.

George Whittemore—lives at North Chelmsford, formerly at Manchester.

Knew Healey; was at Manchester and present at the time his body was taken up; also at the post mortem examination.

Cross-ex.—Richardson lived on my farm, and had lived there a year previous to Healey's death. Thirty or forty persons were present at the post mortem examination, in the hearse house, coming and going. The body was brought in the coffin, taken out and laid on some boards.

By Mr. Clarke—You suppose it to be the body of Stephen Healey? Answer—I know it was.

Dr. Geo. H. Hubbard,—live in Manchester, physician and surgeon, 17 years' practice. Made post mortem examination of the body on the 15th of March, said to be Stephen Healey,—in the hearse house, with Dr. Davis. Made no other such examination in March.

The skin had a bright red appearance.—The body was quite stiff; the tissues had a firm feeling, but not so much so as I have seen on the second or third day after death. The countenance red and lifelike. Opened the chest; lungs healthy, except an old strong adhesion on the left side: heart healthy; think right side of heart distended with fluid blood. Abdomen was opened; viscera, on inspection appeared perfectly healthy. Stomach was carefully removed with all its contents, and put into a clean jar. The upper portion of the intestines was also carefully removed; put in another clean jar. Liver carefully removed and laid in a paper; weighed 3 lbs. Bladder opened, portion of urine put in a bottle.—Throat examined, no obstruction was found. On cutting through the scalp, it bled freely; fluid blood, dark. Skull removed; vessels of brain found distended with dark fluid blood; no other unnatural appearance on brain. Parts of body removed, kept in hearse house till we left; then I carried them to my office. Next morning, Dr. Davis and myself opened the stomach, found redness in upper part. The bottles were all sealed, and with the liver, were packed in a box, and delivered to Mr. Elisha H. Heath.

Did not, in the examination, discover any natural cause of death.

In answer to a question by Mr. Solicitor Bell, witness says:—

I have come to the conclusion from all sources of information, that there are no post mortem outward appearances which always indicate poison by strychnine.

Those which most usually appear are distension of the vessels of the brain and scalp, with dark fluid blood.

The discolorations on the throat, mentioned by some witnesses, afford no means of knowing the cause of death: they are quite common in cases of natural death.

Cross-ex.—There was no tendency to decomposition. Body well developed and muscular; no superfluous fat. Has made four or five post mortem examinations in as many years.

Some questions were raised about the witness' sources of information, early and later editions of Taylor's book on poisons &c., but finally ruled out.

By Mr. Small.—Did you examine the spinal cord? Ans.—No. Why not? I cannot tell: if we had examined all parts of the body, it would have been a long and laborious examination.

Witness's note to Dr. Hayes of Boston, was read; this note went with the stomach, &c. [The cross examination of this witness occupied an hour and a half.]

Dr. Ebenezer H. Davis, of Manchester, physician and surgeon there, nearly 14 years. Assisted Dr. Hubbard in the post mortem examination. Body of unusual stiffness, firmness of muscle, and redness of skin. Heart was examined, with valves; discovered no indications of disease. This witness testified to nearly the same things with Dr. Hubbard.

Cross-ex.—Have attended perhaps 20 or 30 post mortem examinations. This cross examination was somewhat like Dr. Hubbard's, but not so long Elisha A. Heath—live in Auburn. Dr. Hubbard gave witness a box, (the day after the post mortem examination,) containing the bottles, jars, &c., and I took the same to Dr. Hayes of Boston, who now sits here. Delivered it in the same condition as I found it; did not leave the cars on the way down; went from cars to Dr. Hayes' in a coach, about 2 P. M.; Dr. Hayes was at his office. Witness opened the box to get the address of the letter, which was in the box.

Dr. Augustus A. Hayes—Lives in Boston; State Assayer; a chemist for more than 30 years: has attended to poisons in stomachs, &c., for 20 years; and examined many; cannot say how many. Has examined a number of strychnine cases within the last 5 years. Received the package from Mr. Heath, as described; one bottle had the stopper off; the decomposing state of the intestines had burst off the cork. Examined only the stomach and its contents, they being in a jar with the stopper and seal whole and in good order;—the other matter having become very offensive.

Dr. H. read from his notes made during the chemical examination. On the upper part of the stomach was redness; the blood vessels gorged with blood; the mucous membranes, and delicate textures above them, exhibited appearance of having been acted upon; there was a wrinkled and contracted surface, which did not penetrate through the outer covering,—and nowhere was that cover broken; tho' it exhibited marks of active corrosion; other parts of the organ presented a greenish grey color. The mucous lining somewhat slimy. The application of weak alcohol to the surface did not produce any more discoloration.

[Dr. H. then gave a detailed account of the first step for the discovery of metallic poison; the result of which was, that no metal was discovered.]

AFTERNOON.

Dr. Hayes, resumed.—A second test, with Hydro Sulphuric Acid Gas, also discovered no metallic poison.

A third test was an alcoholic solution of oxalic acid, boiled with the fluid from the stomach, with hydrate of lime; this process carried out afforded a very slight trace of strychnine.

Similar process with a portion of the stomach itself enabled him to procure the Chromate of Strychnine,—by which the presence of Strychnine was determined in the fluid and in the solid parts of the stomach. And the United Product with the test of Strychnine corresponded with Strychnine of known purity. The final separation of the strychnine from the solid part, was detailed, and also a subsequent process by which, finally, feathery and prismatic crystals were left on the glass. These crystals dissolved in alcohol, then the alcohol evaporated, gave another form of the crystals.

A portion of these crystals were used in determining what they were. By a process detailed, they disclosed a sturdy white precipitate; with the ter-chloride of gold, a bright yellow precipitate; with a bright chloride of platinum, with iodine, a brown yellow precipitate; with iodine of potassium, white precipitate; with bi-chromate of potass., a crystalline precipitate, &c. A very small proportion of the crystals in water, produced a bitter taste, and tinge of metal in the mouth. These are the characteristics of strychnine.

[Here the Dr. exhibited specimens of the crystals he extracted from these remains, by the chemical processes.] Counsel for prisoners objected to experiments.

One remarkable and distinctive character of strychnine and its salts; when in contact with nascent Oxygen, it produced a beautiful deep violet color, its reactions distinguishing it from all other bodies.—These reactions have been obtained repeatedly, from the various solutions, and these results proved, beyond any doubt, that the substance separated by these various processes, is the poisonous alkaloid, strychnine or strychnia.

The final test in these experiments, was to determine the weight or proximate weight of the alkaloid (strychnine) found in the stomach of the deceased.

Two grains and 48-100ths of a grain was the quantity certainly present. Three quarters of this was in the solid parts of the stomach.

A considerable amount of sugar was found in the water examined. This weight of strychnine may be dissolved in one-eighth of a pint of whiskey; if sugar were mixed, it would have the effect to disguise the bitter taste in part.

Cross-ex.—Witness considers the tests of strychnia perfectly satisfactory. Tests were very numerous. Have no actual knowledge by inspection, of the effects of strychnine on the appearance of bodies of persons lately deceased,—but some of the best writers say there is no such uniform appearance in these cases, as to indicate strychnine with certainty;—though they give general rules or signs.

An attempt was made on the part of the prosecution to put in the Will of the deceased; but it was objected to by respondents' counsel, because, it was not proved that the prisoners know the will had been made. The will was ruled out.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, Under the act of 1837.
76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent issued by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that as his interest is the same to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, February 8, 1858.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on TWICE rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in HIS FAVOR, by the Commissioner of Patents.

DURABILITY.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 20 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

CAPACITY.—Baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and all other culinary operations performed at the same time. A barrel of flour baked into bread with a single fire.

ECONOMY.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

VENTILATION OF OVEN.—In the Stewart Stove alone the front doors open directly into the oven, (protected by letters patent,) securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind, that, as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

ENTIRE CONTROL OF HEAT.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used, or thrown into the room, at pleasure.

THE DOUBLE SHEET BOTTOM FLUE.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

BROILING.—Performed on the top, and without the possibility of smoke entering the room.

HOT WATER RESERVOIR AND WARMING CLOSET.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel.

WATER BACK.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the name of P. P. Stewart is on each stove. No other is genuine.

ANOTHER NEW STOVE!

THE MODEL COOK

FOR WOOD OR COAL,

MADE BY

THE BARSTOW STOVE COMPANY

Of Providence, R. I.

In introducing a new Cook Stove, of singularly novel construction and arrangement, it is proper that we speak of its peculiar merits.

The novel—the peculiar feature of the MODEL COOK, that which distinguishes it from all others, is the addition of a Ventilated Roasting Oven within the body of the stove and in front of the fire; so arranged that it can be used separately for a roaster or (by the removal of a simple plate) in connection with the larger oven, for baking giving an oven nearly 3 ft. long! or large enough to take six large plates on the bottom, every part of which will bake evenly at the same time! The advantages of this arrangement over that adopted for roasting in the Stewart and other stoves, by extending the oven, with a tin roaster in front of the fire, are obvious, yis:

1st. This permanent extension of the stove costs no more than the temporary extension by a tin roaster, while this is the most durable, tasteful and useful.

2d. As the flues of the stove extend over and under the entire size of the oven, it is more easily and surely heated than a tin roaster, which receives no heat except what it borrows from the baking oven.

3d. By this arrangement the processes of roasting and baking are entirely separated, while by the others they are carried on together, the fumes of both being intermingled.

4th. By this arrangement the roasting oven can be attached to the baking oven in a single moment of time, when occasion requires: or it can be used for a hot closet when not required for baking or roasting.

5th. By this extension an additional boiler hole and other room is gained on the top of the stove, while, at the same time the stove occupies no more room on the floor.

We might make extended notice of some other things peculiar to this stove, as compared with other high-priced Air-Tight Cook Stoves, but will barely allude to them, yis:

1st. The double plates each side of the fire prevent any leak of ashes into the oven and make the stove more durable.

2d. The admission of external air between these plates, for the ventilation of the roasting oven, tends also to the preservation of the plates most exposed to destruction.

3d. The durable dump grate, with the ash box of ample size to receive the ashes and coals, is an attractive feature of the stove.

4th. The draft door, at each end of the fire box, is a great convenience when a quick fire is wanted.

5th. The movable ash pan, which, though it forms a hearth to the stove, need not be used except once or twice a day for taking up and carrying away the ashes.

6th. The stove has but one damper, and but one division of flues on the back of and under the oven, ensuring a very quick bake.

7th. The stove is made in the most thorough manner; the doors and roasting oven are lined with tin, and tin jackets are provided for the back and bottom plates. A hot closet and tank can be added if required. With any reasonable care, the stove will last a life-time, and we know it to be "perfect in its operation."

This stove was thoroughly tested before brought into the market, and we know that all that is said of it will be found true on trial of the stove.

John Trundy, Esq., one of our most practical and scientific mechanics, who has had large experience in the construction of stove patterns in years past, and has for many years been using one of the Stewart Stoves, has purchased one of the MODEL COOKS, and after a fair trial pronounces it far superior to the Stewart or any stove he has ever seen, for economy, convenience and dispatch. We might also refer to several other parties who are using the stove, and who award it the very highest praise.

The MODEL COOK is adapted equally well for wood and coal, summer and winter. It will be found to be the stove for farmers, mechanics or professional men; for boarding houses or private families—in fact for every place where a good stove is wanted.

We have nought to say against any other stove, believing that a man can sell his own goods without depreciating his neighbor's; but this we do say, that we honestly believe this is the best stove that can be found in the world; and what is more, we think others will agree with us after a trial of it. We invite any one to examine the stove, whether they wish to purchase or not.

For sale, with a great variety of

Furnaces, Ranges, Cooking, Office and Parlor Stoves; Coal Hods, Sifters, Funnel, Stove-Repairing Pieces, Parlor Grates, Etc.

FRANK JONES,

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN,

FOR MAKING

Bread, Tea Cakes,

All kinds of Pastry, &c., &c.,

MANUFACTURED BY

EDW. CHAMBERLIN & CO.,

Proprietors of Shawmut Chemical Works,

NO. 33 INDIA STREET, BOSTON.

CONCENTRATED LEAVEN is the result of careful chemical researches. All its ingredients are prepared in the highest state of purity, and compounded with a view to produce bread of a far better quality, and in much less time, than by any other process, and the manufacturers feel it with entire confidence to the judgment of discriminating house keepers, bakers, &c., &c.

Bread of all kinds, made by using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, is lighter, more digestible and nutritious; has an agreeable, natural taste; is less liable to sour; will retain its moisture longer than by any other process, and the whole preparation for the oven need not exceed ten minutes.

It is valuable because it is not perishable, and may be rendered available in places and at times when yeast is not within reach, as at sea. In all climates, and under all circumstances it may be adopted, thus obviating all difficulty of procuring yeast or other ferment, which is frequently of an inferior quality, rendering the bread more or less unwholesome.

It is also valuable as regards economy, as it has been ascertained that a saving is effected in the flour of not less than 16 per cent. In the common process, much of the saccharine of the flour is lost by being converted into carbonic acid gas, or spirit, and the waste is incurred by the necessity of generating gas to raise the dough. By using CONCENTRATED LEAVEN, this waste is avoided, and the gas obtained in a manner equally efficacious. Fermentation, as has been stated, destroys a part of the flour or meal, and, in consequence, a barrel of flour weighing 196 pounds, when by the common method ordinarily makes about 250 lbs., gives by this process 280 lbs., thus effecting the very important saving of 16 per cent. in the quantity of flour. By conformity to the directions on each package, any person capable of ordinary attention may conduct the process, and the result will invariably be highly satisfactory.

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. HAYES,

Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.

"I have analyzed the Concentrated Leaven manufactured by Messrs. Edw. Chamberlin & Co., with regard to its purity and efficiency of action in producing the effect of yeast in distending dough and thereby rendering it fit for making bread. This article is skillfully compounded from perfectly pure materials, which leave nothing but a vegetable salt, which is essentially a desirable food in the bread; it renders the dough without consuming the sugar or any other principle in the flour, perfectly; and the same weight of flour will produce more nutritious, palatable bread than can be obtained through the aid of yeast; while for cakes and pastry it is invaluable, as it saves all risk, and much time of the pastry cook.

The experiments made by me confirm the statements of the manufacturers, and prove this compound worthy of public approval and extended use.

Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

16 Boylston st., Boston, Sept. 25, 1850."

HOW TO USE IT.

We append a few recipes, but it may be used with great advantage in all cases where of cake, also in fruit puddings and other pastry.

BREAKFAST AND TEA ROLLS.—Two or three teaspoonfuls of Leaven (according to the quality of the flour) to one quart of flour; mix thoroughly by passing two or three times through a sieve; rub in a piece of butter of half the size of an egg, and make the paste with cold milk or water, (milk is preferable,) barely stiff enough to permit rolling out. Much kneading should be avoided. Cut into desired form, and place immediately into a hot oven, and bake quickly.

LOAF BREAD.—The same proportions of Leaven and flour sifted together as above; omit the butter, and make the paste stiff enough to knead into a loaf, and bake immediately in a slow oven.

GRAHAM BREAD.—Three teaspoonfuls of Leaven to one quart of wheat meal, sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake in a slow oven.

BROWN BREAD.—Three teaspoonful of Leaven in one pint of flour, and one pint of corn meal, all well sifted together; add two eggs and about a gill of molasses; make the paste thin with milk, and bake slowly.

BUCKWHEAT CAKES.—Flour and milk sufficient to make one quart of batter; add one egg, then three teaspoonfuls of Leaven; beat to a froth, and cook quick.

DUMPLINGS.—Sift together one quart of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; rub in a piece of butter half as large as an egg; mix with cold milk or water, and boil ten minutes.

CLIMBER STREET CAKE.—Sift together two large cups of flour and two teaspoonfuls of Leaven; put in half a cup of butter, one egg and a half of sugar; mix with cold water or milk to a stiff batter, and spice to suit the taste, and bake immediately.

CINCINNATI SPONGE CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, beaten with the yolks of six eggs—the whites of six eggs beaten to a froth; then beat all together; add three cups of flour, one cup of water, and three teaspoonfuls of leaven; flavor with two teaspoonful of essence of lemon, and bake in a quick oven.

JUMBLES.—Sift together one quart of flour and three tea spoonfuls of Leaven; rub in one teacupful of butter; add a cup and a half of white sugar, and spice to suit the taste; mix stiff enough to roll out, and bake quick.

ELECTION CAKE.—One quart of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; add a cup of butter, one pound of currants, two cups of white sugar, and one teaspoonful of cinnamon; mix with cold milk to a stiff batter, and bake in a slow oven.

CORN CAKE.—One pint each of flour and Indian meal, and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, well sifted together; add two eggs, one gill of molasses, and enough thin with milk and bake in a slow oven.

CUP CAKE.—Five cups of flour and three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, sifted together; add one cup of butter, two of sugar, and two eggs, all well beat together; add milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.

LADIES' CAKE.—Three quarters of a pound of flour and four teaspoonfuls of Leaven sifted together; one pound of sugar and six ounces of butter beaten to a cream; the white of eight eggs well beaten, and the juice of one lemon; mix with milk.

WEBSTER CAKE.—Five cups of flour, three teaspoonfuls of Leaven, three cups of sugar, one of butter, one of milk, and two eggs; fruit and spice to the taste. Bake about half an hour.

PROF. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD REINVIGORATOR.

Is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, rejuvenates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully compounded as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe this weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Science has long, and has been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by the whole suffering and debilitated; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows all attacks of disease, and lays the unprotected system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as the following: Consumption, Bronchitis, Inflammation, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Night Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of cases, so fearfully fatal if unattended to in time, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Nervous Derangements or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of Urine, Gravel, Stone, Strictures of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Side, and between the Shoulders, prolapsus or Slight Falling and Weakness of the Bowels, Constipation, Difficulty of Breathing, and indeed we might enumerate many more still, but we have space only to say, it will infallibly cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the diseases at once, if already attacked. And yet, it is not a bilious system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the excretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequence following upon change of climate and water; hence all travellers should take a bottle with them, and all should take a tablespoonful at least before eating. As it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits, students, ministers and literary men. And all ladies not accustomed to much out-door exercise should always use it. If they find, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which rob them of their beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before the time of confinement, it will be found perfectly safe, and a powerful relief with perfect ease and safety. There is no mistake about it—this Cordial is all we claim it. Mothers, try it. And to you we say, if you detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never failing affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator as the remedy which should always be on hand in time of need.

O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Dr. Mott's

CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE

PILLS OF IRON.

An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions, indicate its necessity in almost every debilitated case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried—it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATIONS, CONSTIPATION, DIARRHŒA, DYSPEPSIA, DYSENTERY, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, SALT RHEUM, MISMENSTRUATION, WHITES, GILLIGHOS, RHEUMATISM, AND INTERMITTENT FEVERS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease, or of the combined diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten by their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus; sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In NERVOUS AFFECTIONS of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is beat together, and with milk; then add a cup of currants, and spice to suit the taste. Bake about half an hour.

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, with shattered nervous systems, shattered constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the delirium tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.

One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.

One dose will cure Heartburn.

Three doses will cure Indigestion.

One dose will give you a good appetite.

One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

ANTI-RHEUMATIC CORDIAL,
A PREPARATION FOR THE CURE OF INFLAMMATORY AND CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC GOUT, NEURALGIC RHEUMATISM, SCIATICA, AND LUMBAGO.

Hundreds of testimonials to the good resulting from the use of this Cordial could be offered—but the following will suffice:
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Sept. 6, 1860.
I hereby certify that I have used a variety of preparations for the cure of Rheumatism, but have found none of them whose effect was so immediate and lasting as Zollickoffer's Anti-Rheumatic Cordial, and would advise all afflicted with that painful disease to give it a fair trial.

LYMAN'S
Improved Patent Metallic Soles.
PATENTED JUNE 7, 1859.
The nature of this invention consists of a metal Sole for Boots and Shoes, which has been tested and operates admirably. No dampness penetrates through to the inside sole. This is the only device that will operate well between two soles, and is made so thin as not to interfere with the most delicately finished work. The necessity of such a device is fully accomplished, the much desired object, and the direful effects arising from damp feet, are too well understood to require any comment.
Boot and shoe manufacturers and dealers in Rockingham County furnished with the soles, with right to use, at No. 24 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

New Photographic Establishment.
Having fitted and furnished in modern style, large, pleasant and commodious rooms, the subscriber is prepared to furnish all who wish with Sun Pictures of every description, from the smallest Miniature to life-size Portraits. Photographs finished in India Ink, Water and Oil Colors, by the best artists in the country. Old Daguerreotypes, &c., copied any size desired.
The subscriber having had many years' experience, from the old Daguerreotype down to the present time, keeping pace with every useful improvement, a success almost unprecedented has heretofore attended him; and by strict attention to business, and fair dealing he hopes to merit a share of public patronage.
All work from the establishment warranted to be of the first order, both for finish and durability. Prices as low as in Boston, or any other place where first-class work is performed.
Having a large skylight, pictures can be taken late in the day, and equally as well in cloudy as in fair weather. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, at 17 Pleasant Street, opposite the New Custom House.
